

Since September nearly 70 reporters and citizen journalists have been arrested across the U.S. while covering the Occupy Wall Street movement. These arrests have become so commonplace that the United States' press freedom ranking has plummeted 27 spots to number 47 worldwide.

Below are the signatures and comments of more than 16,000 Free Press members who are committed to standing with the arrested journalists, and supporting journalism organizations that are fighting for our freedoms. These statements are a powerful reminder that the First Amendment is a critical democratic issue and that the public is ready and willing to fight to defend it.

To the arrested journalists and organizations fighting to protect the First Amendment:

When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk. I stand in defense of our First Amendment rights with the more than 70 journalists who have been detained in the United States.

Thank you for your work.

Sincerely,

The free exercise of the press is essential to our democracy. Without information we cannot have a true democracy.

—Luis, California, CA

BE STRONG! We are behind you!

—Jack, Denver, CO

Write On!

—Nanette, Westville, NJ

Thanks for sticking up for the 1st Amendment! You are American citizens' eyes and ears. No journalists = No more republic.

—Sarah, Amherst, MA

I stand in solidarity with news workers who courageously defend the people's right to know.

—Kevin, Bloomington, IN

I am a member of the Author's Guild and the National Writers Union, and carry an international press card.

—William, New York, NY

These arrests are a travesty!

—Rebecca, Colrain, MA

Stand tall for all of us. Freedom as we know it cannot survive without you.

—Cindy, Topinabee, MI

We hear you and applaud you for standing up for our freedom!

—Anthony, Wheeling, WV

Without freedom of the press, there is no democracy!

—Nancy, California, MD

Courage!

—Geoffrey, Belmont, MA

I stand with you...without you we will be stuck listening to the puppets on FOX

—Kathleen, Northville, MI

Thank you for your dedication.

—Mark, St Louis, MO

Keep on speaking truth to power!

—Joyce, Troy, NY

I stand with you regarding freedom of the press. Actions like the arrest of many journalists are not acceptable and should be stopped immediately. The belief that all kinds of opinions should be heard is disappearing in our media. Stop the arrests and other actions that hurt our freedoms before it's too late.

—Lawrence, Stamford, CT

Isn't the United States of America, the land of the free? Come on, man!

—Gary, Snohomish, WA

This should have, never, never, happen.

—Shannon, Harpursville, NY

When the powerful are afraid of journalists, it's time to be very worried about the powerful.

—Joey, Lawrence, KS

True courage!

—Simon, Santa Fe, NM

god bless u

—Molly, Milwaukee, WI

It's shameful that the nation that established the idea of a free press now ranks 47th in global press freedom. Thank you for fighting to keep us true to our founding ideals.

—Wendy, Brooklyn, NY

Only totalitarian regimes block a free press!

—Rael, Marshall, TX

Stay strong; we support you!

—Betty, Jefferson City, MO

Keep fighting the good fight. Thank you for protecting our freedom.

—Mark, Concord, NC

Hang in there- the Bill of Rights have lasted this long. They will continue to support our nation into the future.

—Ashton, Maple Park, IL

There is a reason that the press is mentioned more than once in our Constitution.

—Aggie, Oakland, CA

Thanks for your courage.

—Nelsie, Kingston, NY

This is not Russia or China or even North Korea! We must not allow such behavior in America!

—7226, Indianapolis, IN

I've got your back.

—Dennis, Boulder, CO

Thank you for fighting for American freedom, even when the government is flushing it down the toilet

—Celia, Chicago, IL

A society that is willing to arrest journalists for fear of what they may write is not a society but a prison.

—Justin, Tulsa, OK

Keep the vigil - do not release your stare into the eye of the bullies, we've got your back.

—Tim, Asheville, NC

Hold your ground.

—Rose, Diamond, OH

Do not stop what you are doing. We the People need the Press!

—Robert, Fairfield, CT

I am behind you all the way. Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Cleaner Production. Energy, Strength and Peace to you. I am working with you. Cordially, Prof. Dr. Donald Huisingh

—Prof, Knoxville, TN

Your courage and professional dedication are an inspiration to all Americans. Please continue to stand strong for all our rights.

—Robert, Largo, FL

I am OUTRAGED at the assault that is taking place against the press and to learn that it has gotten SO BAD that the U.S. now ranks 47 in the global press freedom index! We have been moving towards a police state in this country and it is an absolute outrage.

—Larry, Plainsboro, NJ

Thank you for your courage. There is few things more important than truth in a free society.

—Mike, Greenwich, CT

Thank you.

—Julie, Croton, NY

All should realize that freedom of the press is more important than freedom to own assault weapons.

—Karl, Glencoe, MO

I'm with you. I appreciate what you do.

—Carol, Madison, WI

PROTECT OUR FIRST AMANDMENT, DO NOT TURN THIS COUNTRY INTO COMMUNIST CHINA.

—B, L, TX

ALL journalists need to remember the concept of "the fourth estate," a concept that seems to have become lost among a majority of them.

—Barry, Bryn Mawr, PA

50 journalists arrested?! In Syria or the US?! FIRST AMENDMENT RIGHTS NOW!! Enough is Enough!!!

—Cheryl, Niskayuna, NY

Suppression of news (via arrests of reporters) is fascist and repressive. America is neither of these things. Please ensure the American people are allowed to know what is going on by ceasing the attacks on reporters.

—David, Media, PA

Do not be discouraged by the outrageous actions of politicians who cannot stand the heat and violate our First Amendment rights. Americans are watching and we are standing behind you because we know that our freedom depends on your accurate reportings.

—Ruth, Parkton, NC

Your job as journalists is crucial to protecting our freedoms. It is essential to our democracy and I support you whole-heartedly. Thank you and keep up the great work!

—Carol, Marietta, GA

You are not alone. There are thousands, maybe millions of people watching and supporting you, fighting for your freedom and your rights. You did the right thing, and we will keep fighting to defend you.

—Jesse, Olathe, KS

Sure do! A "Free PRESS" is vital to the correct functioning of a great country, like the USA!!!!!!

—Cynthia, West Palm Beach, FL

Bring back "The Fairness Doctrine."

—Sam, Chicago, IL

You are all heroes!

—Mary, Lake Mary, FL

Keep on Keeping on. Your job is to report, and you are doing what you should do!

—Letitia, Louisville, KY

Thank you for doing what many are unable or unwilling to do- bring Americans the TRUTH. Keep it up!!

—James, Boulder, CO

With respect to the 9/11 terrorists and their enablers, George W. Bush famously said, "They hate our freedoms." It's incredibly dispiriting that there are Americans in our own government who don't seem to like our freedoms, either.

—Edward, Boston, MA

We are not Russia, or Iran, or North Korea! We are the United States of America, where Freedom of the Press is supposed to mean what it says.

—Rudolph, Staten Island, NY

I know the Fourth Estate is under extreme duress, but we need you now more than ever. But know that you have the support of people who value what you do, and it is growing. Thank you for being courageous.

—Pamela, Baltimore, MD

I'm proud of you guys & gals.

—Thomas, Lehigh Acres, FL

Thank you for all you do.

—Timothy, MAPLEWOOD, MN

Only with press freedom is it possible to have democracy.

—Nancy, Halifax, NS, B3H 4K1., CA

Thank you for your contributions to trying to save our democracy!

—Judith, CoralSprings, FL

If you are arresting journalists because you are afraid they may find bad news about you or your government activities, resign, don't arrest.

—Richard, Richland, WA

Thank for standing up for freedom.

—Wayne, Highlands Ranch, CO

If someone would have told me a couple of years ago that AMERICAN journalists doing their job would be detained on AMERICAN soil, I would never have believed it. It is unacceptable that these arrests have not been more widely condemned. Journalism should be a repository of facts, and when it is suppressed, so is the truth.

—Angelique, Gaithersburg, MD

Thank you for reporting the full spectrum of breaking news events.

—Sandy, Charlotte, NC

As a journalist detained at gunpoint in a police raid in Chapel Hill, NC, I stand with all who wish to exercise their First Amendment rights in the United States.

—Joshua, Carrboro, NC

Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press.

—Thierry, Belfast, ME

As a fellow journalist and writer, I stand in solidarity with you.

—Marc, Glen Cove, NY

Without a free press there is no democracy. Period.

—Dorothy, New Haven, CT

Too often we, who are ordinary citizens, forget how important you are to the welfare of our democracy. Thank you and we stand with you.

—Claire, Cape May, NJ

With the National Defense Authorization we lost freedom for if we are considered to be affiliated with terrorists, we are considered to be a terrorist and will be arrested with no habeus corpus and indefinite imprisonment. The same risk seems to apply to a free press since journalists are being arrested with various protesters affiliated with Occupy groups. Since when have they [and we] been denied First Amendment rights? Were we not paying attention or not looking at our government when these rights were stolen from us? If we don't stand with our fellow citizens, we will be the next to lose our rights too. Do NOT allow this to continue without putting up a fight to support these journalists and their organizations. I stand with them and hope you will as well.

—Lisa, Alexandria, VA

I stand behind you!

—Heidi, North Olmsted, OH

Thanks for the courage to seek and share the truth. We need government of, by, and for the people.

—Walt, Riverview, FL

Thanks for fighting for all of us.

—Luis, Houston, TX

Hang in there. You're standing up for us all.

—Julia, Veazie, ME

Thank you to all the journalists who are fighting for our freedom. Your courage does not go unnoticed.

—Christie, Germantown, MD

Stand up. We are becoming 3rd world not only economically but freedom and rights.

—Eileen, Lelend, NC

Arresting journalists for doing their job -- letting the public know what is really going on -- is NOT GOOD for our democracy -- unless the idea is to change it from a true "democracy" -- We the people need to know what is really going on!

—Helen, Saulsbury, TN

I applaud your dedication and determination to protect our right to free speech and freedom of the press!

—Paul, Aiken, SC

My son was also arrested as an Occupy Orlando member. The cases in Orlando are quite strange. The charges were state violations but the state attorney's office did not want to prosecute. The cases should have been dismissed, correct? Not quite. They 'handed over' the cases to local Orlando attorneys and filed new charges months after the initial arrests. It seems as though this too may be a violation of constitutional rights of these citizens. It would be GREAT to get national attention to this 'switch'.

—Alan, Kennesaw, GA

Thank you for standing up and preserving our First Amendment!

—Jean, Minneapolis, MN

Thank you for fighting to save the First Amendment for all of us.

—Korby, Pacific Palisades, CA

Thank you for defending our First Amendment rights!

—C, Piscataway, NJ

Stay strong, you are fighting for our freedom and we support you!

—Justin, St. Petersburg, FL

Never give up, Never surrender your right to report the truth.

—Shawn, Loganville, GA

Please don't give up, we need you!

—Paul, Springfield, OH

How can we have a democracy without a free press? This is embarrassing to arrest the press when we are touting ourselves as the bearers of democracy and freedom around the world.

—Marilyn, Urbana, IL

When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk. I stand in defense of our First Amendment rights with the more than 50 journalists who have been detained in the United States.

—Venkat, Marietta, GA

Stand tough and continue the work for objectivity and honesty.

—Allan, Kent, OH

This sounds a lot like the old Soviet Style policies? Very familiar isn't it?

—Tony, North Hollywood, CA

Along with the soldiers in combat, who are trying to keep other countries free, you are fighting to keep the U.S. free. Thank you for enduring.

—Jeanette, Bradenton, FL

Your first amendment rights have been abrogated, with the tacit approval of this administration...this is NOT ACCEPTABLE,

—Alan, Townshend, VT

I appreciate everything you do, and I hope the courts do as well. You're not alone.

—Jessica, Hoboken, NJ

I believe in the occupy movement and I want it to be covered and reported on by our media. Thank you, Cliff Wernet

—Clifford, Colorado springs, CO

Freedom of speech is definitely under attack by the government in this country.

—Michael, Bellevue, WA

Keep doing what your doing fight for our amendments

—Alex, Fort Riley, KS

KEEP IT UP!! WE HAVE ENOUGH RESTRICTIONS OF PRESS FREEDOM, AND ENOUGH SUPPRESSION OF NEWS JUST BY VIRTUE OF WHO OWNS THE PRESS.

—Arnold, New York, NY

Hang tough. Help will be on the way.

—David, Wichita, KS

first they came for the journalists and I said nothing, now no newspaper, then they came for the broadcasters and i didn't say anything so now no news on tv or radio. How are we going to learn the truth about what our government is doing to us.

—Mark, Dalzell, SC

Growing up in a working class union home, I learnt that when we stand together we have power. I will stand with you and let others know too. Thank you for being on the front lines to defend our democracy!

—Judith, Lee, MA

If it were a few years back, it would not be so hard to stand for freedom: today we willingly and joyfully live in the world of Tasers and Drones, and Surveillance. Who is it that is behind you? The young and stupid, no they see nothing wrong with all of this: it is only the older ones.

—Ed, Brighton, IL

When you cover a lie you must prosecute the ones who want to uncover the truth

—Lutz, San Jose, CA

When journalists are arrested in the USA it is a blow against our constitutional guarantees. what are banks, corporations and government officials trying to hide. This is not Syria

—Lee, Muskegon, MI

First they came for the journalists--and I spoke up, even though I wasn't a journalist, and said YOU CAN'T DO THIS TO THIS COUNTRY.

—Susan, Pico Rivera, CA

Thank you. I honor your commitment.

—Kathleen, San Marcos, TX

Thank you for still being real journalists rather than just spoonfed corporate mouthpieces. Democracy depends on you. I depend on you.

—Genie, Asheville, NC

The freedom of the press is my freedom to know what's happening in this country. You must be able to do your work.

—Martha, New York, NY

A country without a free press is well on the road to becoming a tyranny.

—David, Belleville, MI

Thank you for all you do.

—Stephanie, Minnetonka, MN

To hear of Journalists being arrested I would think I'm hearing a report based on another country, but sadly we are talking about the U.S. I am appalled.

—Jose, North Arlington, NJ

Thank you for standing up for the rest of us.

—Alex, Denton, TX

Why does the govt NOT WANT us, the citizens be informed about goings on? What does the govt have to hide?

—Rupa, Forest Park, IL

Arresting a journalist for doing their job under any circumstances is un-American and probably unconstitutional. Regardless, it is a slap in the face to all Americans, and contrary to what we believe it is to be free.

—Leon, Brooklyn, NY

Know that we are with you all of the way. Keep on reporting.

—David, Silver City, NM

Without freedom of the press the citizens of the United States will loose all of the freedoms they have had for over 200 years. Sincerely, Iris Stone

—Iris, Dawson Springs, KY

Thank You. Keep fighting to protect all of our rights.

—Dennis, San Diego, CA

You are my heroes! Stand firm and we will not forget you, and we will not let them win.

—Lucia, Lansing, MI

You do us proud. You should not be in jail, you should not have been arrested. Are we losing all of our rights?
What America once stood for seems to be blowing in the wind.

—Barbara, Niles, MI

Be strong and keep up the fight!

—Howard, Schenectady, NY

Millions of Americans believe that what you do is vital to a free society. Thank you for your service and your courage.

—Jane, Willington, CT

We, the American Public, stand with you and applaud your strength.

—Bruce, Albuquerque, NM

Thank you for standing up for us! Journalists like you will be the forefront of truth! I stand with you!

—Brad, Peoria, AZ

Hold on to your principles. I'm with you in spirit. Love and blessings to you.

—Judith, NYC, NY

Thank you for covering these important stories. Freedom of the press is crucial to a free society. The USA is shamed by your arrests. Thank you for standing up and speaking out.

—Carol, Sparks, NV

You are the front line for ALL our freedoms. Stand strong and thank you.

—Kathleen, Mercer, WI

Thank you for hanging in there and keeping the 99% informed. There is no higher calling in life than fighting reactionaries!

—Walter, Osceola, MO

Stay with your principles somebody needs to demonstrate courage here. Thank you for all that you do for our freedom of speech.

—Joan, Omaha, NE

This is wrong. If we are not allowed to tell or to hear the truth about what is going on, democracy does not exist.

—Lisa, Dover, NH

As a blogger/reporter, who has been covering the Occupy movement since its beginning, I believe all citizens have a right to practice freedom of the press whether they are professional journalists or not. That police and other authorities are violating press freedom may be unsurprising given how cities have cracked down on Occupy groups all over the US, however, that does not make it excusable. All journalists, including citizen journalists, who stood their ground and defended their press freedom, especially during evictions of Occupy camps, deserve wide support for exercising a core civil liberty despite the reality that power would likely suppress them.

—Kevin, Chicago, IL

We stand with/for you as you stand with/for us.

—Susi, Beaverton, OR

What has happened when the US government and police arrest reporters upon whom I depend for information? Does the first amendment no longer have meaning in the US? Stop preventing reporters from providing me with information about my country.

—Wayne, Nashville, TN

Yet another aspect of class warfare.

—Mike, Rochester, NY

Be Strong! We need people like you on the front lines to show everyone what's going on. Thank you for what you do!

—Travis, Cumming, GA

Thank you for your work - we need it!

—Keith, Madison, WI

You are not alone in your efforts to make public what we, the public, citizens, must know. Your efforts inform - give inner substance and form - to our efforts. Thank you.

—Yvonne, Austin, TX

Too many secrets, and a free society ceases to exist. Thanks for all you do!

—Mary, Surprise, AZ

To think that in the 21st Century United States a journalist can be arrested for reporting the news is frightening SHAME on the police, prosecutors and judges involved. You have ALL sworn to uphold and protect the Constitution of the United States of America, SHAME

—Richard, Flushing, MI

Keep the fight strong. The working class will wait up ... Or god help us all.

—James, Parma, OH

Arresting journalists in the midst of doing their job is a horrendous disservice to democracy!!

—Deb, Ithaca, NY

Thank you for putting your life on the line to protect our Constitution. I am the owner of The Claus Academy working to help people become literate and productive members of a democratic society. We will not exist if our Constitution is no more. I am standing with you. Be Strong!

—Barb, Westport, CT

Thank you for being on the front lines of this battle. This is a sad situation for free speech and America. Keep up the good work of showing our citizens what's really happening in this country.

—Leslie, Lake Dallas, TX

Thank you for standing up for 1st Amendment rights and doing due diligence in getting facts out at this turbulent time!

—Douglas, Willoughby, OH

It is so important to democracy that events have complete and diverse coverage and reporting.

—Janet, Haslett, MI

We will help you.

—Dave, Darien, IL

Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of the press

—Alan, New York, NY

Keep telling the truth and standing for American Values. The American People are waking up at last, and they need the Truth. Thank You!

—Morgana, Bigfork, MT

Keep trying to get the truth exposed. Thanks.

—Monica, Unicoi, TN

Your arrest is the symbol of the voice of America being silenced. We speak up in your names and the names of all who are incarcerated for speaking out - WE SHALL NOT BE SILENCED.

—Claire, Brunswick, ME

Many stand with you!

—Carol, Wellston, MI

It's more than FREEDOM, it's about the TRUTH. What are you afraid of hiding? !!

—Marc, Belcamp, MD

We share your fear that the press will be silenced.

—Dorli, Seattle, WA

Stay strong, keep the faith - in the end, the voice of freedom will persevere

—Terrence, Deltona, FL

Hey guys. Watch your backs, okay?

—James, Fairfax, VA

As a journalist, I applaud you for standing up in an attempt to cover the truth.

—Stephen, Norman, OK

Absolute freedom of the press is essential to a democratic society.

—Harold, Boynton Beach, FL

Press freedom is in the Constitution for a reason. Stop this (further) assault on the Constitution. Protect those who understand that without press freedom, we are without freedom.

—Douglas, Guilford, CT

Thanks so much for all your work, and your dedication. Sending prayers that you're freed soon.

—Joanne, Hartsdale, NY

You are our heroes.

—Ken and Donna, Decatur, IL

As a USMC Vietnam Veteran, imprisoned and persecuted by the Nixon regime for speaking the truth, I know how important it is for you all of America to know the truth. Thank you for your efforts.

—Robert, Orange, TX

To arrest anyone for speaking out is treason and a violation of our American rights. To arrest journalists trying to cover protests is a violation against our civil liberties. The more a government suppresses their people the more ripe it becomes for a revolution. Stop this insanity these dangerous and oppressive government actions before it becomes a tragedy. Sincerely Judy Cozine
—Judy, Dahlonge, GA

It bothers me a lot to see the United States become a POLICE State
—David, Clarkston, WA

What is this a Third World Country? We need our First Amendment Rights.
—Jodie, Menomonie, WI

We stand together in solidarity to reclaim the first amendment.
—Elizabeth, Ann Arbor, MI

When the fourth estate is weakened, especially within the borders of the U.S., the nation is put at severe risk. The journalists who are working to cover OWS are heroes and we owe them a debt of gratitude for protecting our Constitutional rights.
—Suzanne, Ijamsville, MD

You're all American heroes! Your courage is deeply appreciated! Thanks for supporting freedom of speech.
—Timothy, Gilbert, IA

We stand with you 100% in the fight for journalistic freedom and freedom of the press and speech.
—Larry, Paducah, TX

thank you for your important work and words.
—Lisa, Beaufort, SC

the only ones who are worried about your activities are those who have something to hide. Hang in there!
—Carol, Fort Worth, TX

Suppression is a tool in the arsenal of tyranny. It has NO place in a free society.
—John, Monroeville, PA

The First Amendment is the bedrock of our society. I stand in solidarity with all journalists who have been arrested just for doing their job bringing news to the rest of us. I demand the immediate release of any and all journalists who have been arrested.
—Marty, Helotes, TX

Thank you!
—Roger, South Lyon, MI

Stop the Madness, DO NOT jail the press
—Stephen and Robin, North Granby, CT

This is an outrageous act I will not tolerate this if you speak out you are voicing your rights they are protected by the constitution ? where does this stop I say it stops now
—Peter, Charleston, WV

This is America-no one should tolerate this-stand up to the bastards that claim to defend the constitution.

—Cliff, Pass christian, MS

We're not North Korea or Iran. We're America! Stop arresting journalists.

—Abe, Lauderdale Lakes, FL

You are the canaries in the mine signaling what is coming to all Americans if we don't speak up noe.

—Penney, Osage, IA

They say it's always darkest before the damn. Keep the faith!

—Rev, Columbus, OH

Censoring or blocking the press from reporting the truth is one of the chief ways that Faschism starts. As an American I feel duty-bound to take a stand for freedom of the press.

—Nora, White Plains, NY

Keep up the good fight!

—Steven, Jacksonville, FL

I stand behind you and oppose the actions that do not support your 1st Amendment rights under the Constitution

—Beverly, Dayton, OH

Be brave, keep pressing forward with the truth, and call them on their injustices.

—Mike and Sharon, Apopka, FL

Our democracy depends for its survival on a free and unfettered press capable of reporting and exhibiting, without restraint, what happens, both on the streets and in the places where decisions about our future are being made, the Halls of Congress and its committees.

—Stephen, Washington, DC

You are the last line of defense. We depend on you to keep us informed without political bias. Please, stand strong. Resist the fascist bent of the corporate right and know that we stand with you.

—Mark, Duncannon, PA

Sincerely, Marilyn Folden

—Marilyn, Albuquerque, NM

Freedom of the press is a fundamental right.

—Dan, Denver, CO

It is outrageous that police and politicians are attacking the freedom of the press. These actions, occurring in far too many US cities, threaten democracy and must cease. As a writer myself, I know I could face the same repression. I am in solidarity with all arrested journalists.

—George, Long Island City, NY

Something has to be done to overturn the police state this country is becoming!

—James, Corpus Christi, TX

Shame on those who arrested you!!! And thank you for doing your job.

—Joe, Cleveland, OH

Please do not allow them to silence you.

—David, Neptune Beach, FL

Persevere!

—Charlie, Memphis, TN

Keep the faith you are the front lines of what this country is about. It is the First Amendment for a reason. You do this country a great honor, thank you. Paul Farrell

—Paul, Portland, ME

I hold the mainstream media with its this side equals that side of every issue that glosses over real in depth reporting in low regard. Nevertheless I thank you for what you are doing in getting the Occupy story out.

—Christine, Montour Falls, NY

I am outraged at our Country turning into a 3rd world one where the "people" have no voice that is where we are heading. I'm blaming the scumbag politicians for this it is their fault that this is happening in our Country!

—Dianne, Mechanicville, NY

We can't ever do democracy without you!

—Katherine, Portland, OR

IT'S TIME TO DUST OFF YOUR COPIES OF MARX. HERE COMES THE AMERICAN EMPIRE.

—Mike, TRAVERSE CITY, MI

One of the first things tyrants do is shut down the press.

—Patricia, Florence, AL

It seems reporting the truth will not set you free recently. Don't stop trying!

—Scott, Bisbee, AZ

Don't let this country continue on its way to becoming a police state.

—Judith, Branford, CT

Thank you for standing up for the truth in the face of adversity. Something is wrong when we've dropped as badly as we have in the press freedom index.

—Dan, Delavan, WI

I stand with you and behind you in your struggle to uphold standards of decent journalism and a free press (including the electronic press). It is an outrage and an affront to our democracy and civil society that many of you have been arrested, and otherwise prevented from doing your job, which serves so well the public interest, even in times when supposed public servants and elected officials do not. Be assured that I, along with many millions of other Americans, are aware of the siege that Federal and local law enforcement has laid to journalists. From the prohibition on showing the coffins of dead US servicemen returning from Afghanistan and Iraq, to the arrest of reporters at Occupy and 99% protest sites (and the confiscation/theft of photos, audio recordings, and notes as 'evidence'). I urge you to stand fast and remain stalwart witnesses. Continue to report, document, and inform us. Do not be intimidated or deterred by arrest or threats of arrest and imprisonment. You are absolutely essential to my own personal liberty. Without you and the work you do (unexpurgated), I cannot be a well-informed, responsible citizen. Thank you, really.

—William, Seattle, WA

How is it that corporations have more freedom of speech than our own journalists?

—Jeff, Encino, CA

Americans should be very alarmed... our free press symbolizes freedom around the world. We should be outraged regardless of one's stance on an issue!

—Jim, Akron, OH

Please keep your minds, bodies and spirits strong. I stand with you and support your spiritual warrior walk.

—Yahara, Turners Falls,, MA

Our corporate-owned government has become so powerful that it has influenced the police to arrest journalists covering the Occupy Movement. The meme that "dirty hippies" must be arrested AND anybody reporting that fact has become ingrained in our peace officers. "Dirty hippies" (whether or not they are clean or dirty) is the new N-word.

—Benita, Burgettstown, PA

Keep the faith @ don't give up... Freedom will prevail!

—Ro, Carmel, IN

This is not the U.S. I learned about in school! What happened to the principles of democracy on which our nation was founded?

—Nancy, St. Louis, MO

An informed electorate is essential to a democracy. Thank you for all you do to keep us informed.

—Robert, Center Conway, NH

Thank you!

—Ruth, Longview, WA

I can only echo the above statements. This country needs a total commitment in the news to the truth, not to the powerful agencies whose wealth twists and subverts that element every day. Nazism? It is very much alive.

—Michael, Sheridan, IL

You are fighting the good fight!

—Rick, Fullerton, CA

It is almost unbelievable that anyone would be arrested for trying to make public the reasons why unemployed persons are protesting! Keep up the good and necessary work to edify everyone why these protests are taking place! Prof. Donald F. Megnin, PhD

—Prof, New Smyrna Beach, FL

In the best tradition of Nellie Bly -- carry on! Forward, get that news! We appreciate it! Thank you!

—Linda, BARABOO, WI

We stand with you and the First Amendment!

—And, West Monroe, LA

I believe in the First Amendment!

—Beverly, Alamogordo, NM

We need you. Thank you for being there at such great cost to yourselves and your families.

—Elizabeth, Coral Gables, FL

Our very freedom is at risk, the only news we will get is what is filtered through the likes of the Koch Bros.
—Marilyn, 2020 Laurel Glen Dr, PA

The intelligent Americans will "cover your back"...Keep on fightin'...
—Christopher, San Jose, CA

Thank you for supporting democracy!
—Jerri, Ann Arbor, MI

thank you for doing your job and trying to tell us the truth
—Patricia, Falls Church, VA

YOu are not forgotten!
—Patricia, Westerly, RI

Thank you for doing what you do.
—Michelle, Lincoln, NE

Thank you for your patriotic actions. You are true heroes.
—Sue, Lady Lake, FL

Do the write thing!
—Dan, San Diego, CA

YOu are brave and good and do not deserve to be treated this way for doing your job well.
—Elisabeth, Silver Spring, MD

Stop impeding our right to First Amendment rights of all Americans. Why arrest those who show the truth? Are you hiding something? Gail Cook
—Gail, Albuquerque, NM

I, for one, appreciate your hard work and sacrifice. Keep up the good work. The Country will have your back.
—Ken, East Moriches, NY

YOU PEOPLE KEEP THE WORLD HONEST_KEEP ON DOING IT.
—William, Interlochen, MI strength!!

—Lesley, Philadelphia, PA

Every citizen of a free and democratic nation must protect her or his sources of free and independent news and information. Their future depends on it, completely.
—Seabury, Bethel, ME

Thank you for standing up for your free speech and ours, as well as our right to know the actions of those elected to govern our society.
—Robert, Bethlehem, PA

Shame on your jailers; they are fascists; thank you for your courage.

—Joseph, Brooklyn, NY

I can't get there, but I support your watching the movement.

—Ruth, Lafayette, AL

Journalists being treated in this manner directly counters the very notion of democracy.

—Jeff, Loveland, OH

Free speech and the right of citizens to know the truth are the foundations of democracy. Thank you for your work.

—Kathleen, Fallbrook, CA

It Dropped 27 spots.. what dropped 27 spots. the United States ranking in the global press FREEDOM index.

—Jean, Tarpon Springs, FL

The measure of a democratic society derives from an educated public, able to read unbiased journalistic analysis.

Stick to your "guns"!!

—Rebecca, Delran, NJ

As a retired broadcast journalist with ABC for 18 years, I know first hand how important it is to protect our First Amendment rights to speak Truth To Power! Government and Police: back off!!!

—Ciji, Sausalito, CA

Stay strong. We need you. In solidarity!

—Marcus, Madison, TN

Thank you for your brave work.

—Matt, Atlanta, GA

The powers that be must abandon attempts to squelch dissent and get on board or get out of the way.

—David, Houston, TX

Hello, Syria and Egypt. United States' ranking in the global press freedom index has plummeted 27 spots to number 47.

—M, Bloomington, IL

Keep afflicting the comfortable! It's your job, after all.

—Dave, Madison, WI

Thank you for being at the front of this battle for the rest of us. And hello to Kristin, from another Kristin.

—J, Washington, DC

We need reports like you to keep us informed on what is really going on and maintain are freedom.

—Raymond, Concord, NH

You are not alone. Those of us who value a free press are working for your release.

—Lucy, Austin, TX

YOU ARE HEROES!
—Sherie, MINOT, ND

We rely on your courage and talents to keep us abreast of what is really happening in the US and throughout the world. Thank you for your sacrifice. We stand behind you in condemnation of the oppressors!
—Arthur, Rego Park, NY

You are the victims of Republican attacks on journalistic freedom. If they continue to have their way we are heading to a police state. Be brave and lets hope that true justice prevails.
—Richard, Eureka, SD

Don't give up. It may sound trite, but you really do fight for all of us. Dylan was right: "The executioner's face is always well hidden." Your work, along with an Open Internet as the last truly public forum, are vital to our democracy. God bless you.
—Larry, New Carrollton, MD

Please stop attacking our reporters now. Protect our First Amendment rights. This is harassment that is wrong!
—Laura, SEBASTOPOL, CA

Please keep up the good work. This is an ongoing fight against the very ignorant right wing that consistently works against their own interests.
—Allen, New York, NY

John Peter Zenger
—Margaret, Vail, AZ

This is an outrage to Americans everywhere!! I will spread this message to as many people possible!! We will take back control of our country, free the innocent and keep our rights in tact! Thank you for your Passion to keep the people informed!!
—Myndy, Redway, CA

Thank you for having the courage to stand up to the corporate machine.
—James, Cottonwood, AZ

We are with you.
—Laura, Brattleboro, VT

"Proud to be a American where at least I know I'm free" ... If we're not working towards freedom and equality of everyone in this world, then what do we really have to be proud of?
—Rick, Erie, CO

My heart is with you.
—Larry, ALEXANDRIA, VA

This is not Syria, Iran or Korea.
—Nancy, Asheville, NC

I am a veteran an I didn't volunteer to just protect the right of the influential but to protect the rights of Americans all Americans that includes the press.
—Robert, Presque Isle, MI

People need access to real information; we know people like you put yourselves out there in order to provide that.

Thank you!

—Ryan, Tucson, AZ

You are on the front lines in the defense of all of our freedoms. Thanks!

—Jerrold, Falls Church, VA

There is nothing more important than a free press and a citizens right to know the truth. Keep fighting against supression of the press too keep the public fully and truthfully informed.

—Jeannine, West Seneca, NY

Hang in there and thanks for defending freedom of the press.

—Nancy, Malden, MA

Accurate information is the lifeblood of an informed electorate. Without it we cannot sustain this democratic Republic.

—John, Park Rapids, MN

Thanx for covering or trying to cover these vital events, and for all that you suffer in consequence. IN

SOLIDARITY,

—Sheila, Charleston, SC

Thank you for all that you do. Please don't give up.

—Diane, Kokomo, IN

Why aren't the people who created the economic meltdown indicted and on trial? Instead the journalists are being arrested for reporting NEWS that is important to any American who wants to know what is transpiring in our country.

—Sharon, Chandler, AZ

Police often act like assholes. It's best to avoid being beaten, and sue later if necessary.

—Joseph, Harvey, LA

We are moving toward a police state. I thank the journalists who stand up to the police who take away their constitutional rights.

—Lesley, Cleveland, OH

Thank you for having the courage to speak out and document what is happening. People cannot make informed decisions without information. Your role in bringing accurate information from diverse voices is critical to our survival as a nation. Thank you!

—Irma, Ithaca, NY

The first freedom Hitler took away was Freedom of the press. Freedom of the press protects and ensures all other freedoms given to us by our government.

—Benjamin, Columbus, OH

We need you now more than ever!

—Barbara, Anoka, MN

We support you 100%!

—Helen, Silver Spring, MD

As a retired RN, BSN, clinical MSW, and MAT-educated teacher, I KNOW the hard work that is involved in your type of work. To face being ARRESTED for doing your job, is about as unethical and IRRESPONSIBLE as our governmental officials could OPENLY ACT, short of outright blowing ALL of us up! I stand with ALL of the professional journalists who are working SO HARD, under grueling conditions, to bring us accurate, thoughtful, objective reporting of WTF is going on, within the USA, as well as, around the world! We need your services DESPERATELY!!!! Many thanks, always!

—Janiece, Beaverton, OR

Ashton Crosby

—Ashton, New York, NY

I strongly support the freedom of the press. The problem is too many journalist treat public figures as though they are royalty and suck up to public figures instead of exercising their freedoms. With so much perceived corruption going on what the hell are journalist reporting on and why isn't more investigative journalism going on?

—Matthew, Wheaton, IL

You've been arrested because the truth would set us free.

—Moir, Portland, OR

Something is wrong with this picture. Politicians love to tell us about how free we are but, in fact, we are far from it.

—Kaye, Sleepy Hollow, IL

Founding New Guards from all walks of life were the original "Occupiers." They rose en masse and Occupied the entire American Colony in protest of ratification of the "proposed constitution" blank of their demanded Bill of Rights. This activism led to the original Ten Amendments to the Constitution known as the Bill of Rights. It is no accident that the very first words of the Bill of Rights read: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." They had fought a Revolution to be free of not only evil Kingcraft, but evil Corporatecraft and evil Christiancraft as well.

—Blast, Shreveport, LA

We must fight to preserve our bill of rights. A democracy without a bill of rights is only half a democracy!

—John, Reston, VA

thank you

—John, Boston, MA

When certain Journalists are arrested for reporting the news, it makes me wonder, what and who does not want the "TRUTH" to be told...I noticed, no arrests when all the "smut, "and "lies" is being reported in those ads bought by corporations....Why not? ..There is a method to all this madness and that is why these Journalists are trying to report the truth.....Let the "truth" be told....

—Connie, Port Richey, FL

Thank you for taking a stand for a free press.

—Peter, Pleasantville, NY

Unconstitutional acts by those with power has become the norm in this country. In avoiding a descent into dictatorship information from a free press is essential.

—Edward, San Francisco, CA

Your work is very important to maintain the transparency in government. And also in preserving the peoples right to know. I applaud your actions and wish you success.

—John, Pacifica, CA

We can't do without you - thanks for fighting for all of us. Sincerely, Rose Mary Hooper

—Rose, Naples, NY

Our freedom of speech is the one most important to all of us. Your fight is our fight.

—Joan, Los Angeles, CA

Freedom of the press cannot be denied!

—Michael, Winooski, VT

Society underestimates the degree of bravery required to be a journalist. In the modern world, the notion of killing the messenger ought to be just be a quaint metaphor echoing more barbaric times of yesteryear, not a valid and accepted tactic. All change in democratic society generally begins as a minority viewpoint, and often an unpopular one, at least of the establishment. All democratic oversight involves asking questions that risk perturbing established ways. Journalists are at the heart of these processes. Freedom of Speech is protected not even just for them to have leave to speak, but because the rest of us need to hear. We can't know what might need change if we can't get good data about what's actually happening to inform our debate. We owe thanks already to those committed to getting us good data, but especially when there are personal risks to them just for doing that job.

—Kent, Keene, NH

We must stand together, or we will each decidedly fall.

—Rolf, Falls Church, VA

We are thinking of you and working towards change and true democracy. Thank you for being you.

—Boril, City, NM

Josh and the arrested journalists, I am so proud you are out there in the thick of it, standing for truth in the face of government resistance. Keep the fight going to do the right thing. Janice H.

—Janice, St. Paul, MN

Stand strong, and thank you for your courage!

—Kristin, New York, NY

The police are acting like Nazi storm troopers lately. It's time to stop this attack on free speech.

—Margaret, Pensacola, FL

You who are on the front lines of journalism are the very embodiment of what the Founders intended to protect when they put the First Amendment into our Constitution. You are the real heroes--not the corporatist criminals who have so corrupted our beleaguered nation, or the ignorant uniformed thugs who mindlessly do their bidding. Thank you for your service. We are supporting you!

—Alan, Beaumont, TX

Thank you for your commitment to getting the real stories to your fellow citizens. Your courage and conviction are inspiring and your plight is raising the alarm among those who are asleep. Take heart and know that your detainment was not in vain. Transparency will prevail.

—Christi, Hoboken, NJ

Thanks for your work in trying to expose injustice and undemocratic behavior.

—Richard, Chicago, IL

Seriously, wtf?!!!, is this Nazi Germany, now?!!!!

—Warren, Baltimore, MD

Ne tyrannos mole iaces!

—Marty, Tamarac, FL

Journalism is the fourth pillar of government keeping the pyramid of greed, corruption, and oligarchy in check.

Thanks for your dedication. Stay strong

—Jose, San Francisco, CA

We are at a crossroad where we must fight for are rights and the rights of other. Since we started our protests here in Wisconsin almost a year ago we have seen the basic rights of all Americans put in jeopardy and we must fight to retain those rights.

—Tim, EVANSVILLE, WI

Unless a real crime has been committed, journalists should not be detained, ever! When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk. I stand in defense of our First Amendment rights with the more than 50 journalists who have been detained in the United States.

—Paul, Westminster, CA

Stop stepping on our rights!!!

—Peter, Casper, WY

I think the powers that be need to look up the definition of Freedom, because I don't think it mean what THEY want it to mean.

—Jeffrey, Portland, OR

And I will vote to defend democracy in my country. Thank you.

—Anne, Truckee, CA

I totally concur and stand with all of you and your right to report without being arrested.

—Geoff, Charlestown, RI

We the American public are watching. Democracy can never work without a free press. And I am at you side when you struggle to get the truth. You are a Patriot when you fight for freedom, always remember that.

—Theresa, Hillsboro, OR

Thanks for your service... fascism is always just around the corner

—Armando, Vista, CA

Friends in the journalist community, - Thank you for your commitment to getting the story, the truth as close as possible and bringing it to us, the public. I'm shocked that you are victims of this violation of your rights by those who are willing to violate our laws and erode our Constitution. It shows that fascism can creep into our society as in any other. I am outraged by this situation and will join many others in shining the light on the violators and working to correct this gross abrogation of the 1st Amendment and your citizens' rights. - Wayne Copenhaver, Richmond, IN

—C, Richmond, IN

Keep up the fight for a free press! Thank YOU!

—Stuart, Otego, NY

Thank you. I would like to think I would be like you if I were a journalist.

—David, Chicago, IL

ALWAYS!

—Sue, Rockville, MD

I am sorry that your stand has led to this action, but please know that there are those of us who appreciate and revere journalists who take such a principled stand as this! Thank you!

—Phillip, Coalinga, CA

Please stand firm. Without your work, citizens are mostly in the dark - and Democracy is zilch

—Jenefer, Washington, DC

in the end, the truth will always stand tall, what is important is what side you stand for, there should never be penalty for people seeking out the truth in a legal fasion

—Carl, Bristol, PA

I, Brian H. Alexander, stand with you for the right to free speech.

—Brian, Royal Oak, MI

I am a columnist with www.aslanmedia.com who would like to write an article about this issue. I have also contributed to the NY and LA Times. If interested, please contact me at hanajoe@aol.com or at 212-388-0989.

Thanks. Joseph Hanania

—Joseph, New York, NY

Press freedom is under attack and you have my full support.

—Judy, Lancaster, PA

I stand with you. I'm angered and appalled that your rights were violated. Those who have infringed on your rights, infringe on all of us and should be held accountable.

—Teri, Seattle, WA

Thank you.

—Stephen, Wakefield, RI

We owe you our freedom. Stand firm with our support.

—Jay, West Lafayette, IN

Thank you for putting yourself in harms way to defend our First Amendment right to free speech

—Dale, 53704, WI

Why were no journalists arrested covering the Tea Party events? This country was founded on the freedom of the press. Arresting the press is arresting our freedom. We are the fifth estate. We are the 99%.

—Etta, San Jose, CA

I applaud your efforts. We need your courage and fortitude.

—Janice, Seminole, FL

I am so grateful for what you do. We'd be totally screwed without independent journalists

—John, Seattle, WA

Thank you for keeping up the fight for freedom of speech.

—Renee, Tujunga, CA

Albert Camus arguably said it best when he wrote, "A free press can be good or bad, but, most certainly, without freedom a press will never be anything but bad."

—William, Fontana, CA

I have been hearing more and more about journalists and press photographers being arrested and even brutalized. This has to stop, or we will find ourselves in an unchanging, neverending state of ignorance. A study showed that young Chinese students attending college in the US had never seen the famous photo of the young man standing in before tanks Tiananmen square. They had no clue that this image was iconic, and some even asked if it was photoshopped. They weren't even aware of the story of the struggle of the students who preceded them. When I went to college, the activism of the students of 20 years before was a large part of our history classes. We saw footage and images and read text that we would never have had access to if journalists had not been able to record events as they happened. And I would not have been able to attend that college with my fellow white students had the press not recorded the civil rights activism and the reaction to it with an honesty that made the brutality and cruelty of Jim Crow laws clear to the nation. A free press is absolutely integral to society's growth. Without it, we will stagnate and weaken.

—Malaika, City, TX

we are on your side

—Miguel, Davie, FL

Never thought I would see this happening in the U.S.

—Gray, Austin, TX

Thank you so much for standing up for the First Amendment. You speak for all of us.

—Barbara, Boulder, CO

We appreciate you and we will fight for your right as a journalist to inform the people of all that is happening in our country and the world.

—Carmela, Huntsville, AL

You have the full support of millions of people.

—Jon, Teaneck, NJ

Keep the faith -- we're pulling for you. The first amendment is worth fighting to protect.

—John, New York, NY

Those of us who care enough to stay informed depend upon you. You are courageous. Stay the course!

—Diane, Iowa City, IA

Thanks for being the eyes and ears of the common men and women of the US!

—Dave, Tyrone, GA

I was shocked by the arrest of Amy Goodman by what I saw as overly aggressive officers during the protests of in Minneapolis, MN during the Republican national convention in 2008. Evidently, I was wrong, these were not rogue officers, but police policies that fail to respect constitutional protections for free speech. This must change.
—Paul, Gulf Breeze, FL

I thought that the US was a half-civilized country. I now see that it is somewhat less-than-half-civilized. Stop harrassing journalists.
—John, Philadelphia, PA

Your vital work and commitment enliven society.
—Anne, Durham, NC

I support you 150%. When we no longer have a free press, we no longer have freedom. Thank you for keeping the fight going.
—Thomas, Jersey City, NJ

We are becoming like one of the middle eastern countries and the people aren't paying any attention or recognizing it.
—Lester, Powder Springs, GA

Arresting journalists who cover demonstrations is an egregious violation of the first amendment.
—James, Statesboro, GA

you are the heroes of this country
—Russell, WRJ, VT

I know the MSM is owned by Wall Street and they have enlisted the police to "Protect and Serve" their interests. I am sorry it has come to this. I hope you have enough support, professionally and personally to see you through this. The media covering news and public information, should be non profit entities - not sure how that would work.
—Mary, Holyoke, MN

you are our Country's first line of defense...THANK YOU!
—Gary, Saugerties, NY

The police and congressional actions are absolutely deplorable. We need to fight for our First Amendment rights. Thank you for all you do. Please hang in there!
—Holly, Harwood, TX

Keep up the good fight... we know you are right.
—Martin, Willis, TX

Hang in there, guys, and thanks for your integrity. We ARE fighting for you, out here. We KNOW democracy cannot work without an informed and educated citizenry. You are heros!
—Kevin, North Kingstown, RI

thank you for trying to report the TRUTH
—Jeffrey, RLB, IL

We have your back! Thanks for being so brave!
—Randolph, Cygnet, OH

Keep up the good work

—Doug, Bend, OR

It is EVIL not to allow FREE JOURNALISM. Arresting journalists is the work of Satan.

—Martha, Chelsea,, OK

Clearly there are far too many times that the police don't give a damn about the law, the constitution or or rights as Americans. What do we gain when those sworn to protect and serve do neither?

—Gary, Liberty Twp., OH

I stand in solidarity with you and thank you for the courage and fortitude you demonstrate in reporting, in these most trying times, important political events like OWS.

—John, Troy, NY

Keep rockin' the free world!

—Henry, Agawam, MA

Journalists are arrested while covering events while corporations are given First Amendment rights to hijack our elections. Who is in charge of this seachange in our democracy

—Teetle, Santa Cruz, CA

Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter. Thomas Jefferson

—Steve, Highland, NY

I stand with you in our fight to protect our First Amendment rights. As a public high school civics teacher, I know how critical this right is. Know that I and my colleagues continue to teach about civil liberties and their importance no matter one's political affiliation. In solidarity, evan

—Evan, Troutdale, OR

I know that you are doing the right thing. I also know it must be very difficult but without you doing what you are doing, we will never have the truth. Thank you

—Peg, Oxford, CT

Stand strong. Many of us are outraged at what's been going on lately.

—Peter, Marlborough, MA

Thank you for your stand. We are together in fighting for the rights granted by the Constitution.

—Celine, Tigard, OR

Is not our government a triesonnous government?

—Con, Redmond, WA

Save Democracy

—Randy, Fair Lawn, NJ

We see, because we have freedom of speech, that our free speech and right to disseminate and comprehend diverse opinions and alternative courses of action, that these very rights granted by the forefathers in the documents of inception of this nation are under attack on every front. Thank you for standing strong as we begin to turn the tide with the invention and increasing use of first the personal video camera and now a media outlet for the common man—the internet. We are beginning to utilize the tools available to the everyday man to uphold and ensure the continuance of our rights and freedoms.

—Patricia, Taunton, MA

When journalists working in the US can be arrested and their footage or notes destroyed illegally by police, we have no business extolling the virtues of "freedom" to any other nation.

—Paul, Moneta, VA

Thank you for your dedication and sacrifices. We wouldn't even know about your plight if someone hadn't somehow gotten the message out. So keep up the good fight!

—Frank, Biddeford, ME

The most important question facing humanity in the 21st century is "Where do we get our information?". You are our lifeline!!! "More than love, more than money, more than fame, give me truth." God Bless You.

—Marc, Battle Creek, MI

I am impressed with your strength and "morality" in attempting to bring the facts forth for all to see. The prostitutes at Faux news will be seen for what they are, and hopefully soon. Change is upon us and all the Carl Rove's can't stop it. Thanks very much for all you do for freedom.

—Nick, La Madera, NM

I deeply appreciate you and your work. Being arrested for covering the truth is insane. But you are sane and noble.

—Cindy, Blue mounds, WI

Thanks for acting and living your principles.

—Cathleen, Newman Lake, WA

The Fourth Estate is the single most important pillar of strength in maintaining a representative democracy.

—Bruce, Van Nuys, CA

Sadly, the Nazis were not the only people to fear the truth. Thanks for being brave!!

—Phillip, Highland Village, TX

free speech = freedom

—Bob, Westminster, CA

Write on!

—Susan, Brooklyn, NY

You have ALL my admiration for the work you do to TRY to bring us the truth.

—Ruth, Oak Park, MI

I understand journalists' troubles with their government—even death—in countries like Mexico. But for THE supposedly most democracy-loving country in the whole world to arrest them for doing their work is plain mind-blowing! How can a democracy consider a crime for a media professional to show the citizenry what is happening in their country? When will we all see the absurdity of the situation, demand a stop and scream "Enough"?! We pay them to protect us and they don't even respect our Constitution!!!

—Jenaro, Hastings, PA

Don't turn back the clock to 1984

—Brenden, Asheville, NC

Stand strong! America is with you.

—Charles, Albuquerque, NM

No matter how long the struggle may take, you are on the winning side.

—Robert, Honolulu (Absentee Voter in Germany), HI

We have your backs!

—Phil, Ballston Spa, NY

This is not a good trend. I know human nature wants to control its environment, including other humans (and what they say), but we have to take a moment and ask ourselves what road that will take us down. We as a nation always take pride in our "freedoms" - lets not start giving them away due to our desire to "control".

—Pete, Basking Ridge, NJ

Freedom of the press is one of the most important rights we have, and I will fight for it endlessly. Stay strong.

Occupy Hartford supports you.

—Rebecca, Manchester, CT

Our true freedom of speech is at risk because The Supremes have declared that $$$$ is free speech. This allows the 1% undue influence over speech for the rest of us. Keep fighting!

—Ken, Bridgton, ME

An uninformed people is a captive people. We need you now more than ever. Keep on keeping on.

—Eric, Valdez, NM

Thank you for doing the right thing.

—Lanis, Greenville, CA

Thank you for doing your job by keeping a free press in America.

—Deborah, Columbus, OH

Keep the faith. They inherit the fruits of their actions. It's their inevitable karma.

—Sigmund, Canonsburg, PA

remember that, "I didn't say anything because...." well, we are there NOW.

—Loretta, Saint Petersburg, FL

There is no way that we can be a democracy, governed by the people and for the people, without accurate information about local, national, and worldwide events. We thank you for your willingness to provide this invaluable service and will stand with you to oppose any infringement of that right.

—Phyllis, Dresher, PA

Thank you for risking your lives for the sake of the rest of the human race. I recently thanked Rene Davis for doing the same with the Chicago 7 in the sixties. Tyranny has been the fabric of the history of the Earth. It is now time for that to change. You are the brave souls that will bring this change. Take heart from a recent quote from an unnamed teacher, ""The old order is deeply entrenched and hard to overcome. The old tyrants in every field of life are loath to forgo their power and wealth, and fight hard against the tide of change, but they fight against the energies and will of Divinity Itself, and must give way in due course. A greater power than that of all the powerful on this Earth demands expression and nothing can prevent its manifestation. It is the way of the future, planned from the beginning of the world. Nothing can halt its progress and the young are its harbingers. Listen keenly to the young, they have the future safely in their hearts." Thank you again,

—R, Malibu, CA

Your stand hold repression in the light for all to see, and preserves our First Amendment Rights. Thank you.

Richard Levine, retired NYC teacher, Vietnam vet

—Richard, Brooklyn, NY

We stand with you. Keep up the good fight!

—Galia, Durham, NC

You have my prayers and support. Remember: Tea Party + Republican Party=Communist Party

—Panaiotis, Albuquerque, NM

The freedom of the press is a fundamental right in the society of the United States. That police would even consider barring journalists from sites, let alone arresting them, worries me far more than the Occupy protests or terrorism ever have.

—David, Chicago, IL

Thank you for protecting our freedom and supporting democracy.

—Matt, Huntington Beach, CA

Keep the Faith!

—Kjersten, Seattle, WA

Thank you for taking risks to protect our rights to information -- you are patriotic soldiers on the front lines

—Robin, Northampton, MA

Journalists are our best defense against those who would choose to abuse power. If those in power have nothing to fear, they should not fear journalists. Keep up the great work!

—Michael, Rockville, MD

Stay strong. Truth and justice are on your side.

—Julia, New York, NY

Please stand fast. For you also stand for me. Sincerely, George Zidbeck, CA 93422

—George, Atascadero, CA

Thank you for standing up for the guiding principle of the United States. A free press is essential for Democracy.

—Gerard, Portland, CT

Hang in there defenders!

—Mark, Davenport, IA

You cheer the Arab spring, then arrest our own citizens and journalists for protesting here. Can you say 'hypocrite'??

—Carolyn, Akron, OH

I fear for our country when this happens - I really do.

—Jon, Ridgway, CO

I feel our first amendment has taken a great blow ever since the first patriot act congress passed to combat terrorism, unfortunately what was suppose to help protect us from our enemies has eroded one of our God given rights! This isn't just a journalists issue, this has to do with the public as a whole, with censorship being imposed on the internet and protests blocked by court order, can it be more apparent when journalists are jailed for exercising their constitutional right, that something is wrong. There is an alarm sounding in this country that needs to be heard before it's too late! I for one stand with these journalists and freedom of press!

—Donald, Dunedin, FL

The fourth estate may have never been more important in America than it is now. Thank you!

—Lynne, Englewood, FL

Thank you for standing up for our American rights!!!

—Teri, Fairfax, CA

We need you - we need to keep our rights intact. Thank you!

—Lawrence, Charlottesville, VA

Freedom of the press is at the heart of the citizens' right to know, and an essential element of a functioning democracy. I fear these arrests are testimony that this country is no longer anything remotely like a functioning democracy.

—Erica, Clinton, OH

When I first read this notice from Freepress, I thought it was referring to U.S. journalists overseas. When I realized it was U.S. journalists being arrested and silenced right here on American soil, I was taken aback. Please support their right to free speech and citizens' rights to know.

—Jim, Champaign, IL

Stand your ground. You guys are the forefront of what makes it possible for all of us to do our jobs.

—Paul, Brooklyn, NY

I salute and admire both your courage and fortitude. Let me paraphrase past Martin Niemoller: When they arrested the journalists, I did not speak out because I was not a journalist. When they came for me there was no one left to remember or to report. The arrest of journalists is not the mark of a Democracy, it is the insidious mark of Imperialism.

—Charles, Athens, OH

As a former broadcast journalist, I totally stand behind you and your concerns.

—Walker, Sedona, AZ

I was also arrested as part of this movement and I stand in solidarity with you all, the arrest of journalists is another attack on all of our 1st amendment rights!

—Michael, Bethel, CT

You are the only light being shed on what our government is doing - and especially what people in our government might prefer to do, in the dark. Thank you!

—(Paul), Allen, TX

Thank you for your brave work. It is crucial. I, and I hope, many, many other Americans stand behind you.

—Michael, Limington, ME

Freedom will not last & this cannot be America without Freedom of the Press

—Loren, Norman, OK

Thanks for helping to keep our republic a republic.

—Richard, Ester, AK

Being right is not always easy. Good luck to you. Many of us truly appreciate your efforts.

—Brian, Camano Island, WA

Without journalistic freedom, our country collapses

—Robert, Charlottesville, VA

I support our first amendment rights and grieve that our leaders so easily ignore them.

—Jeanne, Chico, CA

Footage erased by police. I thought that was what happens in Russia. Police have no right to do this! Recording police officers is a class 4 felony? Whoops, I forgot, this is Russia. Chicago should be ashamed of its self.

—Jeffrey, Long Beach, CA

Thank you for trying to provide our citizens with the much needed truth. Arresting reporters? Isn't that how Hitler started his take over?

—Gene, Davidsville, PA

Serve the Constitution and free the journalists.

—R, Chapel Hill, NC

We MUST have freedom of the press. VITAL to our Democratic existence.

—Muriel, Centerville, MA

Thank you for standing up the 1st amendment and ensuring that I have what I need to make informed decisions.

—Emile, New York, NY

If the press does not have First Amendment Rights our country is no better than China and other subversive countries.

—Beverly, Springfield, MO

Please stand strong and do not be intimidated.

—Marcia, Viroqua, WI

This is America where freedom of the press is a God given right. Arresting journalists for doing their job is a criminal act and will not be tolerated!

—John & Vilma, Carbondale, PA

robert muse

—Robert, Portland, OR

What is the single most important change that needs to happen?

—Jerry, WAukegan, IL

The press must remain free, otherwise we are not a democratic country anymore. Our soldiers have been dying in other countries to spread democracy, so we cannot trample our freedom of the press with boots here in our country. That is hypocrisy of the worst kind.

—Lindmuth, Houston, TX

My husband is a writer and I want you to know we have your back! It is absolutely horrible that journalists are treated the way they are for trying to bring forth the truth!

—Marcy, Shade, OH

Wow, US officials keep pointing out lack of journalist freedom and places like Russia, but it appears things are worse here when I read stories from Oakland or D.C. That's not right.

—Alex, Mankato, MN

The Founding Fathers KNEW that freedom of the press was a requirement for the form of government they were devising. This is UN-AMERICAN!

—Marylin, Fremont, MI

We are all less free when there is no freedom of the Press.

—Theresa, Hollywood, FL

Your Constitutional Rights have been wrongly denied. The people stand by you and will fight to see that this does NOT continue. Please continue to fight to bring us the truth.

—Talbot, Los Angeles, CA

Keep on doing your good work of reporting the news.

—Louise, Princeton, NJ

Thank you front line journalists. It is you, the "in the streets", hard working, everyday reporters that are the strong frontline of our freedoms, not the $1,000 suited, makeup covered, air-conditioned TV Faces that owe far more to the Corporate Heads than their fellow citizens, the American people. Thank you.

—Karen, NEW ORLEANS, LA

We are behind you and the rights of the PRESS to report the news unhindered!

—Zabrina, Kennesaw, GA

Shine on you crazy diamonds!

—James, Michigan City, IN

Do not give up; you will be vindicated.

—Randolph, Milwaukee, WI

I AM standing with you in spirit, mind & heart. Be of good cheer & firm resolve. This too, shall pass. I honor your calling!

—Paris, Philomath, OR

Demand a jury trial.

—Ron, Carmichael, CA

Your heroes!

—Kimberli, Lewiston, ID

Without freedom of the press, there is no democracy.

—Maureen, Glenwood Springs, CO

When government activities become secret and no longer available to the public, do they really represent the people that elected them? The police have no rights, given or implied that allows them to destroy video footage merely because they don't like it.

—Allen, Lancaster, PA

Why is our govt. so afraid of the journalists covering the truth? It's really scary what's happening to our freedom of speech in this country. Obviously, the govt. has a lot to hide.

—Gayle, Seattle, WA

Government without the press or press without the government? Government lost every time.

—Edward, San Jose, CA

I find myself too afraid to exercise my rights to free speech, I get upset every time I see Occupy protesters arrested, yet I do nothing about it. Thanks for all you do

—Michael, Chicago, IL

John C Frost

—John, Douglas, MA

Thank you for courage to stand up for the Constitution in the face of power. I stand with you.

—Susan, Cardiff by the Sea., CA

We appreciate your efforts to tell us the truth about the Occupy movement. Thanks for your courage. I hope you are released soon!!!

—Joanne, Neshkoro, WI

Totalitarianism is not to be tolerated. It's time to topple totalitarians totally. Consider this an alliterative assault.

—Rt, Cobb, CA

Thank you for doing your job well! Freedom of speech and Freedom of the press are essential to the America that the 99 percent stand for.

—Gayle, Colorado Springs, CO

Thank you front line journalists. It is you, the "in the streets", hard working, everyday reporters that are the strong frontline of our freedoms, not the $1,000 suited, makeup covered, air-conditioned TV Faces that owe far more to the Corporate Heads than their fellow citizens, the American people. Thank you.

—Karen, New Orleans, LA

With gratitude and thanks.

—Jack, New York, NY

Let this country have the fourth estate be free and fair in covering issues of interest to the larger public. What does this country stand for if we harass our agents of information dispersal while espousing freedom of speech if this is not being done in reality.

—Carol, Glenside, PA

Another attack on the constitution! What happened to we the people? What next? The Obama gone squad and death? APPALED

—Ben, Du Quoin, IL

Journalist who report on acts of Civil disobedience are reporting not disobeying!

—Paul, N. Wataerboro, ME

Free press? Free speech? DEMOCRACY?

—Tim, San Antonio, TX

Keep fighting the good fight! Civil liberties are more important than anything. Thank you!

—Brian, Brownsburg, IN

I commend you for the resolve you have shown in your passion to report the news. It is imperative that all voices are represented in our social media. Those who carry "credentials" often times do not present the facts to a public with the public's interests in mind. Citizen journalists are vital in keeping public officials honest. Thank you.

—Jeremy, Berea, OH

Along with a government out of control, We the People have nowhere to go but to protest and have journalists cover these events no matter how politics stand. The time has come for the people to take over. I am sure you will see more coverage on that!

—Carolyn, Carbondale, CO

Another attack on the constitution! What happened to we the people? What next? The Obama gone squad and death? APPALED

—Ben, Du Quoin, IL

We're behind you!

—Tamara, Los Angeles, CA

Yet another pea-brained Republican outrage.

—Sarah, New York, NY

YOU are the true 4th estate. Keep up the good work.

—Michael, Marshfield Hills, MA

Thank you for the courage you have shown in the face the suppression of freedom of the press.

—Daniel, Coupeville, WA

You are our voice, and you will not be silenced.

—Susan, Seattle, WA

You must keep fighting to eliminate the Gestapo tactics that Bush created. Train and replace the Gestapos with new honorable Police Officers.

—Bob, Siler City, NC

Thank you for standing for truth and integrity.

—Brandie, Manassas, VA

WHAT HAVE WE BECOME?

—Jenna, Incline Village, NV

I stand in support of the courage it takes to defy unjust power, to insist on your (our) rights. Kudos to you, and please know that you are not alone, but that many are keeping you in thought and prayer.

—Deborah, Brevard, NC

Stand strong for freedom. Bravery is being afraid and going ahead anyway.

—Anne, Oak Ridge, TN

Freedom of the press, and protection of journalists is a foundation of a free society that must not be compromised.

—Ellen, Worthington, OH

If there were no crimes being committed by the press, then arresting them for doing their job is bullshit. What ever happened to ""I disapprove of what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it"? It's obvious that the government doesn't want us to see what's going on out there, but if their conduct is honorable, they have nothing to hide. Someone should ask them what they're REALLY afraid of here.

—Lee, Arlington, TX

bert greenberg

—Bert, San jose, CA

The Government arrests us , we expose their oppression, the fools in Government then arrest us. Nothing trumps stupidity.

—Cordley, Simla, CO

I Believe we all are slowly losing all of our rights as Americans

—Donald, Akron, OH

I am so proud of you for reporting the truth, it seems to be a lost art these days. I am supporting you 100% and I am calling my congressmen and the President about this travesty fo supressing the truth.

—Jan, Cocoa, FL

The Forth Estate is the most important.....Burke

—David, Munhall, PA

I want America to be the land of the free again. Journalists are essential to keeping the citizens informed and keeping our leaders accountable. We want real news, not government propaganda.

—Sandra, Buffalo, NY

Keep up the work for a free press.

—Sheila, Pittsboro, NC

You have all inspired me to take up activism again, thank you!

—Jesse, Denver, CO

Thank you for taking a stance. It is only through journalism that our freedom endures.

—Scott, Cape Elizabeth, ME

Journalists seem to always be on the frontline. Thank you for your willingness to do so.

—Barbara, Lansdale, PA

When is this crazy assault on the American people going to stop.

—Paul, Southbury, CT

Thank you for your courage in making sure the public sees what our government is doing with our tax dollars.,

—Martha, Portland, CT

I admire and support you authentic journalists wholeheartedly. You have undertaken objective news-gathering and reporting at great personal risk. You deserve recognition and the reinforcement of all the legal protections a democracy of laws is supposed to offer. Thank you for taking seriously the principle that successful participatory democracy depends first and foremost on a robust and free press.

—Andrew, Emmitsburg, MD

Stay Strong . . We're behind you 100%.

—Diane, Newburyport, MA

Keep you eyes on the plutocracy.

—Francis, Cincinnati, OH

Stay hopeful. The powers that attack freedom of the press are obviously trying to hide their dark side. It will be exposed sooner or later---it always has.

—John, New Paltz, NY

Thank you. We all need people willing to seek out the truth and stick up for it in the face of power.

—Marja, Fairfax, VA

Bravo to you! The true guardians of democracy.

—Darley, Charlotte, NC

As long as almost all media are owned by corporations and those that try to tell it like it is are marginalized , free press is just a memory. Why would the establishment allow the truth to be told to the American people? The corporatocracy would fall in no time at all if the people only knew what their government is really up to!

—Doris, Nesconsit, NY

I stand behind you and support you 100%.

—Fiona, Scottsdale, AZ

Thank you for your service, courage, and dedication. Investigative journalism shouldn't take courage in a democracy, but here we are, continuing to stand with you fighting tooth and nail against any and all encroachments on our First Amendment rights.

—Donna, Buffalo, NY

Hang tough. We are with you.

—Elaine, Neptune, NJ

Keep up the good fight!

—Lahna, Decatur, GA

Thank you for everything you do! Please don't hesitate to let us know how we can help.

—James, Burbank, CA

hope the nazi facists let us exercise our freedom of the press.

—Sherry, Saint Louis, MO

Thank you for doing your job. It really matters.

—Ann, Bakersfield, CA

In a democracy with a First Amendment in our Bill of Rights, it is appalling and completely unacceptable that so many journalists have been detained while covering protests.

—Anne, Morgan Hill, CA

These courageous journalists, UNLIKE OUR ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES, are fighting for the 99% AMERICANS who don't have a voice in our "democracy"! Those who have the power and are responsible (including police/office clerks/etc.) for jailing these brave souls should be ashamed. The "Golden Rule"/Karma is real; what goes around does come around... all energy comes back to itself ten-fold in some form or another, whether positive or negative. Our THANKS to the journalists!!!!!!

—Guy, Burbank, CA

Why haven't your fellow journalists broadcast this widely? It could be them next time.

—Ruth, Clarks Summit, PA

You're our last line of defense.

—Zareh, City, CA

Thanks for protecting our rights.

—Leticia, Covina, CA

When government acts to repress, rather than to protect, the freedoms of journalists, the free-speech rights of all people everywhere will not be far behind. I stand with you in your fight for freedom as guaranteed by the highest law of the land.

—Daniel, Saint Louis, MO

Many who quote the constitution forget to extend its rights when they find it inconvenient. As for the occupiers, they have the right to assemble....but where?

—Sue, Commack, NY

Know that the American citizens stand behind you as you fight for freedom of the press (and also your own freedom from arrest). This country seems to have taken a huge step backward when it comes to the freedoms that our men and women have fought, and many have died, to preserve.

—Donna, Paris, MI

I support your right to do your job! A free press is the cornerstone of democracy -

—Eric, LA, CA

We stand behind freedom of the press and the rights of reporters to cover stories unfettered.

—Jon, Las Cruces, NM

Thanks for fighting for all of us!

—Michael, Coral Gables, FL

We stand with you - our personal freedoms are at risk like never before in this country. Everyone in this house stands behind our First Amendment rights.

—Cheryl, Rochester, NY

Arresting Journalists?! Are we in the 3rd World or Communist country? It's absurd!!

—Dale, Fishers, IN

Sorry, about all of this nonsense, thanks for what you are doing. It matters to me.

—Matt, Dallas, TX

Thomas S. Wolf

—Thomas, New York, NY

You stand between us and tyranny. Thank You!

—Stephen, Simpson, IL

We are grateful for your INTEGRITY. God Bless You.

—Linda, Burbank, CA

A free press is crucial to a true democracy.

—Ariana, Los Gatos, CA

Without a free press democracy withers.

—Neal, Flushing, NY

We will not allow fascism to degrade our freedom of the press in America. Truth will out. These despicable acts of arrest and detention of journalists is a clear and flagrant violation of the first amendment and directly interferes with the public's right to know the truth.

—Victoria, Worthington, OH

Democracy requires an informed public. America needs you. Thank you.

—Michael, Altadena, CA

Keep writing, please.

—Gayle, Philadelphia, PA

Thank you for your work. Now more than ever, it is important that our press covers the real news and stops publishing the propaganda that our Government officials would like us to see.

—Chuck, Chicago, IL

I'll do what I can to help.

—Paula, Mt. Pleasant, MI

This smear on our democracy must be apposed!

—Anthony, Marathon, FL

I was downtown on the opening day of 2008's RNC convention in St. Paul and will never go near another such event. I'd like to see someone investigate the way our militarized local police are trained now compared to, say, 15 years ago. Are they being trained by Homeland Security? The CIA and/or FBI? The military? Thanks!!

—Bernice, St Paul, MN

Thank you for your caring, courageous hearts. We need you and support you.

—Elise, Greenfield, MA

A free press is essential to democracy. Stand firm. Louis J. Salome

—Louis, Portsmouth, NH

What does freedom of the press mean if the press cannot safely do their job?

—Bob & Ella, Graton, CA

Stand strong. NOTHING is more important to a people's liberty than freedom of the press. Former newspaper reporter, Cate Montana

—Cate, Yelm, WA

Keep reporting the truth! We have your back.

—Tricia, Pittsburgh, PA

All of America is with you.

—Chris, Brooklyn,, NY

Freedoms taken away from one erodes the freedoms of all.

—Janet, Dupont, WA

In today's fast moving world it is more important than ever that journalists be free to cover breaking news without hindrance or fear of repercussions from the police or other authorities.

—Celeste, Brooklyn, NY

Journalism must be free. Censorship is un-American.

—Arnold, Westminster, CA

Thank you for doing journalism important enough to suppress!

—Maya, Lindenwold, NJ

Does the constitution mean nothing to this government?

—BB, Del Mar, CA

Free press is essential to democracy.

—Nelson, Chicago, IL

Thank you for your courage. There is no democracy, no justice, without you.

—Jeni, Nunda, NY

Journalists are doing a service for all of us by bringing us the news as it is happening. They should not be arrested.

—Vivian, Philadelphia, PA

Stand strong. It's important that we know. Thank you.

—Glenda, Crossville, TN

We can't survive without a free press.

—Patricia, Los Osos, CA

I stand with freedom of the press and with the people who stand on the front lines defending that freedom.

—Mary, Pitkin, CO

Thanks for reporting the news that needs to be reported. :)

—Ruby, Interlachen, FL

Free expression in America is truly threatened, you are the last bastion of hope, never retreat from what you know to be right. My thanks to all of you, Michael

—Michael, Tucson, AZ

Everyone deserves and depends on the right to free speech. Law enforcement should be ashamed for arresting journalists - they're doing a civic duty by reporting on the facts.

—Shane, Palatine, IL

Afraid the true word will get out, journalist's just get out there and report the truth. Go get 'em

—Jean, Homoassa, FL

It's time the arresting officers and their commanders are hand cuffed and prosecuted for violating OUR USA First Admendant rights.

—William, Dayton, OH

Back you 100%. Stay strong

—Valorie, Joliet, IL

We cannot take our freedoms for granted...or our Government and Government agencies will! I too stand in defense of our First Amendment rights! Stop arresting journalists!!

—Lynn, Prescott, AZ

Do not give up. Stand tough in your belief that what you are doing is right and just. continue to fight for the people.

—Dennis, Bronx, NY

This violates everything America stands for!

—Desirae, Pomona, CA

You journalists who are on the front lines, either speaking militarily or here at home defending our first amendment rights, are the real heroes in my value system, not the military. Keep fighting, and know that I and millions of others value the work you do.

—Jennifer, Huntsville, AL

It feels like the 60's all over again. we won't go back. We need to be heard.

—Susan, Albion, MI

You are a hero. Thank you for what you do.

—Sheri, Shelton, WA

Thank you for your bravery.

—Caroline, Pittsburgh, PA

I am so indignant about your arrests. I don't know what can be done about this but I do think everything necessary to preserve freedom of speech must be done, and done forcefully..

—Lenore, Hendersonville, NC

I am signing this petition, yet living in a country with the 2nd highest MURDER rate for journalists. What's the priority list for this action?

—Paul, Portland, OR

Arresting journalists means it's time for everyone to stop believing what the regime is saying. It would be a lot easier to tell the journalists you're lying and just let them report it.

—Juan, Oak Grove, OR

You should be arresting our "representatives" who are stealing our government funds through "pork".

—Roy, Gold Canyon, AZ

This is an outrage for all Americans and the free world. Stop this outrageous act against freedom.

—Carol, Orlando, FL

Where are the Republicans who are so concerned about maintaining the First amendment? Silence!! Selective maintenance??

—William, Kennebunkport, ME

This country is looking more and more like a banana republic: power in the hands of a few, and the press being hushed.

—Michael, Akron, OH

Thank you for doing your job, even in the face of violation of your, and our, constitutionally guaranteed rights. For whatever it's worth, in the climate of our nation these days, your arrests mean you're doing something right.

—Robert, Kosciusko, MS

You are the eyes and ears that monitor the abuse of power...continue the good fight.

—James, Oakdale, MN

Thank you for standing against the GOP and their extreme politics. Thank you for your continue fight to preserve our freedoms.

—Eleanor, San Francisco, CA

HANDS OFF OUR FREEDOM OF SPEECH! MOVE TO RUSSIA OR CHINA IF YOU FEEL SO INCLINED TO BE TYRANTS!!

—Julianna, Jacksonville, OR

Keep up the good work, our very freedom depends on a free press.

—Jane & Lou, Spring Hill, FL

This is intolerable. There should be no compromising the integrity of freedom of speech, or freedom of the press.

—Michael, Council Bluffs, IA

This is perhaps the scariest thing I have ever heard. Journalism is the figurehead of the public as being the watchdog against the government. It's supposed to be part of the system of checks and balances. I am appalled at these arrests.

—Rebecca, Ann Arbor, MI

Keep on telling us what you see! Thanks!!!!

—Marian, Lansdale, PA

What are you so afraid of them reporting anyway?

—Taza, Tucson, AZ

The people of the World stand with Freedom of the press.

—Withheld, Plainsboro, NJ

We depend on the journalist who report the truth as it happens. We know you are the ones who stand between us and all the media lies. Hang in there.

—Sharleen, West Springfield, MA

You do an important job for the rest of us and we're trying to get justice for you. Pray tht it works. Once again thank you.

—Mary, La Crosse, WI

Freedom for all. WE are the 99% majority and we support you 100%.

—Bob, Burnet, TX

We also had in egypt Prison and detention for each of the right to say a word but we make Revolution to Gain the right to freedom paid the price that freedom with our blood . you must know that the most something terifies the corrupt governments is the free word

—Ahmed, Egypt,

Thank you for standing strong and insisting on covering this age's events, despite the threats of arrest and mistreatment. We of the public stand behind you in a class action lawsuit against yours and OUR 1st Amendment rights!

—Peggy, Rapid City, SD

Thank you for standing in harm's way to provide us with real reporting on the protests whether you agree with them or not.

—Matthew, Boulder, CO

thank you for going to jail to protect democracy. I'm with you on all counts.

—Nancy, Pt. reyes, CA

Again, I am ashamed of the leadership in this country. Again, they have made thew wrong choice. Why don't they move to another country where dictators live and leave freedom loving, peace loving Americans, who want to work and feed their families, alone, so they can go about their lives without fear of being arrested for speaking their minds.

—Marguerite, Earleton, NY

We are anonymous and we never forget!

—Chet, E d h, CA

Who would ever have thought our constitutional rights would actually be DECREASED under Obama? We came to expect it from Bush, but now it's the same and perhaps worse with Obama! The change we could believe in was apparently that Obama would change his mind and principles once he got into office.

—Richard, Bourbonnais, IL

Keep up the good work bringing truth to the people. Don't let the 1% win.

—Joan, Fairfax, VA

Thank you for taking a stand and being there to report what is going on!!

—W, Salem, OR

Hang tough in there.

—John, Sacramento, CA

Thank you for your dedication to journalism.

—Michael, Rohrer'sville, MD

Please keep doing what you're doing. We all know the arrests are wrong, but your work is so important to democracy. We can't have it without you.

—Ann, Bronx, NY

I don't understand why these police think they have the right to strip someone of this most essential right to freedom of speech. It doesn't matter what the reasoning is though because no matter what, this right to free speech and free press is a right and should not be taken away for any reason.

—Ryan, Chicago, IL

Thank you for doing your job. These are scary times and we need you more than ever.

—Jean, Columbia, MO

I appreciate what you are doing. Freedom truly is at risk.

—Jan, Terrell, TX

You are the American peoples freedom fighters and the lobbyists and corporate interests who have bought and paid for the politicians are the terrorists. We shouldn't have to fight for the freedoms that are guaranteed in the constitution.

—John, Brighton, CO

This is one of the most outrageous things that has been happening. Yes I will sign and send this to everyone on my list.

—Patti, Grants Pass, OR

If we are to remain a "Nation of Laws" then the "rule of law" has to be FAIR TO ALL and applied EQUALLY...We have a Congress who writes laws that FAVOR the 1% and a Supreme Court that INTERPRETS those laws to the ADVANTAGE of the 1%! So Citizen's United protects "money as speech" under the First Amendment and our "Law Enforcement" suggests to us that IT IS THE ONLY FORM OF SPEECH ALLOWED! They get the "money driven" MEDIA MEGAPHONE and any attempt at AMPLIFYING "the peoples mike" "gets you arrested....Where does it end...Who WILL END IT and what will be left of Society when NOBODY ANY LONGER RESPECTS THE RULE OF LAW?

—Andy, Chaplin, CT

Everyone of us should be concerned when our freedom to speak and print the news is denied. I rely of the press to go and see what I cannot.

—Janet, Albuquerque, NM

Please stand up for our rights of freedom of the press. We must fight to save our Constitution and bill of rights.

—Mark, Sacramento, CA

Thank you for respecting freedom of speech and integrity of the press, no matter what happens to you personally. you should be very satisfied that you did all you could. So sorry about the arrest.

—Sally, Saint Augustine, FL

There should be a national group of supporters of or believers in a free press to fund legal fees for all of you who are shining a light in places the powers that be would rather remain dark. Thank you for shining the light.

—Jerome, Asheville, NC

I applaud your resolve and courage.

—Robert, Mukilteo, WA

Americans ARE listening, attempting to learn the truth, and we couldn't do it without you! Thank you for your steadfast dedication. Our First Amendment rights must be continually supported, and I am fighting with you all the way! Stand firm.

—Sue, Portland, OR

Continue to explore what is occurring in our world. Speak truth for all need to hear what occurs secretly. Have courage to provide truth to the citizens.

—Pamela, Portland, OR

Do we live in the US, or the USSR ? I think it is the US, and you are on the front lines of the battle to keep them different.

—Marv, San Antonio, TX

Revolution! It's time.....

—Nick, Los Angeles, CA

Keep up the good fight! I'm with you 100%!!!

—Darrel, Edinboro, PA

This is an outrage and must not continue. Hang in there!

—Bill, Albion, CA

Thank you for protecting our right to know and letting the people know what was going on.

—Heane, Wheaton, IL

Appreciate greatly your sacrifice! U r my heros.... Lydia Zepeda Jennings

—Lydia, Santa fe, NM

We are proud of you standing for freedom. You do it for all of us. Thank you.

—Judy, Palmetto, FL

Hang tough, people. We're counting on you and your colleagues to find and tell the truth.

—Richard, Fairfield, ME

Thanks so much for your sacrifice. The importance of your role in our democracy cannot be understated. Keep on getting the truth out to us that we may fulfill our role of creating a just and sustainable society. We have your backs.

—Michael, Olympia, WA

The subject police officers should have to answer civil suits for false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution and deprivation of civil rights under the 4th Amendment prohibition against unreasonable seizure.

—Albert, Miami, FL

Stay strong & thanks for your courage.

—M, Bloomington, IN

Journalists epitomize free speech. Without them and their reporting and analytical skills the people would be at the mercy of propagandists and much tailored information intended to mislead and even control the population. Journalists are our key defense against misconception and bring the truth to our homes through newspapers, radio and TV. Thank you for all you do and for your sacrifices.

—Richard, Colorado Springs, CO

We are so proud of your efforts to keep us aware!

—Maria, Thousand Oaks, CA

Thank you for risking yourself to record what is happening.

—Josephine, Montpelier, VT

Thank you for what you do. I, we all, need all the information we can get in order to make informed choices and to stay free and no fearful.

—Gary, ENDICOTT, NY

Thank you for covering the important stories and the courage you've shown. I count on you to tell me what's really going on in the US. You can count on me to support you by donating to your news organizations, posting and tweeting your stories, and calling upon my Vermont senators to act on your behalf. You are true patriots.

—Gyan, Stowe, VT

Hold fast to your values!

—Frank, Freeport, NY

Much of OUR law enforcement is acting like Gestapos out-of-control. THIS MUST STOP - FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND DEMONSTRATING IS AN AMERICAN RIGHT - - NOT AN "OPTION". DO YOUR JOBS, LAW ENFORCEMENT, AND PROTECT WE THE PEOPLE, NOT we the corporation!!!

—Charlotte, Monticello, AR

It is an outrage that journalists such as yourself are being persecuted for exercising our First Amendment freedom of the press. Thank you for your commitment to the First Amendment and democracy.

—William, Broomfield, CO

STAY STRONG!! We are with you and appreciate the vitally important on-site info you bring us!!

—S, Bradenton, FL

Journalists are on the first line of freedom. Don't become discouraged. We depend on you to tell us what's really happening.

—Jeanette, Brooklyn, NY

Thank you for all you have done -- and ARE doing -- for our rights, for our citizens, and for our so-called democracy. Keep the faith.

—David, Iowa City, IA

Protect the first amendment. It's the most valuable protection Americans have. If our freedom of speech isn't protected, then we may as well rename our country the United States of China.

—David, Coppell, TX

If you trade Freedom for security, you wilol lose both. Freedom and education are essential to the American Dream.
—Ben, Albion, CA

never give in to Fascism
—Terrence, Midlothian, IL

You did nothing wrong, and I want to help.
—Darris, Kennesaw, GA

Keep doing the important work. This is an unpresideded time of repression of the 1st Amendment and in so many other ways. Without you reporting on it we will lose our democracy. Thank you.
—Christopher, Minneapolis, MN

A free press is our best defense for democracy.
—Beth, Pottsboro, TX

Thanks for working hard for the truth.
—Cliff, Lutz, FL

How far will Republicians go to SURPRESS our RIGHT to know the TRUTH ????? They will do anything to protect the KOCH BROTHERS AND THE REST OF THEIR RICH DONORS !!! 2012 WILL PROVE WHAT MAJORITY RULES MEANS, WE HAVE HAD ENOUGH OF THE GOP !!!
—Carole, Brooksville, FL

Thank you for standing up for our right to free speech!
—Kelly and Ralph, White Salmon, WA

You're in; They're OUT!
—Vic, Eagle lake, FL

Can't thank you enough for trying to protect our First Amendment rights and for trying to keep us a free society.
—Nola, El Cerrito, CA

Stay focused, peaceful and informative. You are the voice we all need.
—Susan, Hazelwood, MO

You are the best of americans fighting (nonviolently) for the truth. The Truth will out, and you are heros of our advancing dream.
—Rodema, Albuquerque, NM

Now more than ever the right to publish news under the First Amendment and have access to news related issues are very important. Don't erode our rights. Don't deny us the facts.
—JJ, Tempe, AZ

Throughout American history, there are countless examples of journalists who had the courage to report movements in America. Civil rights, women's suffrage, worker's rights are all things we take for granted now, thanks to the heroism of journalists who risked it all to give Americans their right to have a voice and change our society for the better. A society that restricts good journalism is a fear based one. Jailing journalists for reporting what a large portion of the population is trying to say is ridiculous. Our society is punishing them because there is no way we can jail the millions who would like to see change in this country. It never ever works to shoot the messenger and it only kicks the can down the road. Thank you for listening to us and thank you for your courage to defend our rights.

—Catherine, Portland, OR

As a fellow journalist I find these arrests both shocking and outrageous. Stand strong!

—John, Corona, CA

We value your commitment to the truth.

—Jeff, Studio city, CA

Has the US become the oppressive regime I remember railing against in the cold war 60's?

—Marianne, Spanaway, WA

Without a free press, there is no way to stop fraud and corruption. I stand with you.

—Rod, Anaheim, CA

We need more independent journalists to protect our Democracy

—Ann, Hood River, OR

Keep up the fight.

—Brandelyn, Port Lavaca, TX

I was a journalist in Chile in the 1980's although I was not detained. Keep fighting!

—Walter, Grand Rapids, MI

Nothing is more important for sustaining democracy than freedom of the press.

—Dave, Lindenhurst, IL

Thank you for what you do. You are the tip of the spear defending our freedom.

—David, Bexley, OH

I support your courage and your work in reporting the truth!

—Mary, Chicago, IL

The most important amendment is our right to free speech, the day we stand idle and let this right be trampled we will have no rights.

—Nicholas, Essex, MD

My thoughts and prayers are with you!

—Bruce, Wilmington, DE

We WILL overcome the Rockefeller, Rothchild, and Morgan families absurd goals of World control!!!!

—K, Addy, WA

Thank you for fighting for us!
—Edward, Silver Spring, MD

WE DO LIVE IN A FREE NATION
—Valerie, Apache junction, AZ

This is unbelievable in a supposed free Democracy.
—Dave, Louisville, KY

This is outrageous--you were doing your job--they have absolutely not right to arrest you--demand a jury of your peers--NO ONE WOULD EVER CONVICT YOU OF DOING YOUR JOB!!!!
—Lynn, Athens, GA

Stay strong!
—Ellen, South Bend, IN

In this OUR United States - for shame —Virginia, Colorado Springs, CO

Freedom of the press is very important to me. I wish you well.
—Patrick, Keene, NH

Thanks for being brave.
—Casey, San Francisco, CA

thanks for continuing to do your job even when your rights are being violated. that's true journalism. tell the truth at any cost!
—Hyacinth, Breaux Bridge, LA

Thank you for standing up for the unconscious and spineless.
—Daryl, Littleton, CO

Thank you for your courage. For all of the talk about our founding fathers intentions there seems to be a glaring lack of coverage of their commitment to a free press. Part of the 1st amendment.
—Tim, San Francisco, CA

Eileen Heaser
—Eileen, Sacramento, CA

What has happened to you is sickening and maddening. We, the 99% are going to take the power back. Thank you for standing up for what's right!
—Darin, North Richland Hills, TX

Arrests of journalists should not happen in America. I stand with all journalists in support of the First Amendment that is being completely trashed in our country.
—Sharlene, Oceanside, CA

Thank you for speaking out.
—Sandra, Clinton Twp, MI

Freedom of information and the freedom of the press is one of the highest forms of freedom. Please stay strong for the right reasons! There are millions who have your back

—Sean, Madison, WI

Thank you for working to bring important information to the citizens of this country.

—Michael, HILLSBORO, OR

Thank you for your courage in trying to report the news honestly.

—Jane, Nesconset, NY

Without a free press there are no other freedoms.

—Robert, Jacksonville, FL

I support your cause. This is one freedom we can't lose.

—Roger, Highland Village, TX

Don't be discouraged - stick to your guns! We rely on you to get at the truth. We've got your back!

—Robert, North Syracuse, NY

I stand with you!

—Marcia, New York, NY

"I was following orders" is not a valid defense in a court of law.

—Sam, Fresno, CA

We are with you since, as was stated over 230 years ago, if we don't hang together we shall surely hang separately.

—James, Dunlap, IL

THOUGH OUR PRESIDENT WON'T STAND UP, THANK YOU FOR DOING SO.

—Hunter, POINT REYES STATION, CA

Stand up, keep fighting. You are needed NOW more than ever! THANK YOU FOR BEING A REAL JOURNALIST!!!

—Zachary, St. Cloud, MN

WE ARE NOT A 'THIRD WORLD' COUNTRY. FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

—Richard, DELRAY BEACH, FL

Amazing how our First Amendment rights are being attacked by the people who are supposed to be representing us. Time for a change!

—Janice, Accord, NY

You are heroes....thank you for everything you are doing to preserve our country

—Joanne, NYC, NY

Please don't give up.

—Kathy, Spring hill, TN

Know that we support you. Keep the faith.

—Simmons, Tucson, AZ

Journalists and others who document government actions are our heroes, vital to our freedom. This is a truly frightening development. I hope this petition will also go to every law-enforcement organization in America and the government entity responsible for each, especially where these arrests have been made.

—Lori, Westchester, CA

Your bravery is an inspiration.

—Robert, Vancouver, WA

This is America? Land of the free, home of the brave? Definitely!! And it is time to take back America from those who want to make it a closed police society. Journalists unite!!

—Libby, Rockford, IL

We can only find the real villains when journalists are allowed to investigate & publish in all media - print, broadcast & 'net.

—Brett, Astoria, NY

Having been a former employee of Editor & Publisher I feel honored to sign this Petition.

—Gladys, New Bern, NC

Happy to support your defense of the First Amendment, probably the mosy important amemdment of the Constitution.

—Richard, Ithaca, NY

So, this is Democracy? Looks like draconian fascism to me!!!

—Jim, Fort Myers, FL

Thank you.

—Juliana-Marie, Canyon Country, CA

Thank you for continuing to pursue your vocation in spite of current political conditions. Bloggers are great, but we need a free press--not paid mouthpieces for the powerful.

—Wendy, Front Royal, VA

As a former college newspaper writer and section editor, I know the importance of open democracy and journalism as a politically-neutral act of courage. Occupy May Day 2012! It's time for digital freelance artists and technicians to unionize with the IWW!

—Andrew, Warwick, RI

Stand tall. Stand firm. We the people have a RIGHT to know, and journalists have a RIGHT to cover the news.

—Joseph, Ladysmith, WI

Woah! Why don't we hear about this on/in the regular news???

—Mary, Waterford, NY

Stand firm and continue to ask the questions that need to be asked. Joel Hill

—Joel, Westminster, VT

The gap between us and Russia where journalists are routinely murdered is narrowing. We just threaten them now. What comes next?

—Diana, Williamstown, MA

As Benjamin Franklin said, "We must all hang together, or assuredly we shall all hang separately."

—Laura, Brooklyn, NY

Freedom of the press has now gone down the same path as the dinosaurs.

—Mark, Goodyear, AZ

Thank you. You are our freedom's first and last line of defense.

—Dayna, Weston, CT

Thank you for being on the front lines -

—Debbie, New York City, NY

Please know that people are with you and do not hesitate to ask for help from us as a group. Please continue to let your voices be heard!!

—Nathan, Kansas City, MO

Stand strong - this is not suppose to be a police state.

—Craig, Berthoud, CO

Yes, free speech is that important!

—Richard, Mechanicsburg, PA

Thank you for your courage for being faithful to the need of a free press.

—Dorsey, Cincinnati, OH

Ciivil Rights MUST be Protected!

—Daniel, Naubinway, MI

Your courage gives us strength and hope...carry on brothers and sisters...our founding fathers and mothers are proud of you. Sincerely, Terry Laughlin

—Terry, L.A., CA

Keep plugging. We are behind you 100%

—David, Geneseo, NY

Stifling freedom of speech and of the press is a key tactic of those who would be tyrants. They must be stopped before all our most basic rights and freedoms are lost!

—James, Santa Rosa, CA

What has happened to the Constitution and our First Amendment rights? Are we still the United States of America, because it looks like we have become a dictatorship. If not, prove it.

—Karen, Rego Park, NY

After watching this you'll say, "I did not see that coming!" <http://vimeo.com/7761485> In the Can, Under budget, without a Screenplay or even an Outline. Masterful. <http://www.imdb.com/name/nm0033811/> jeff, great job on your short. > very clean. i am impressed > peace <http://www.imdb.com/name/nm1843310/>

—Jeff, Denver, CO

We stand with you and your willingness to fight for freedom of the press.

—Joel, Ukiah, CA

You are braver than I'll ever be...and it's sad that bravery is necessary to report the news.

—Jordan, El Paso, TX

I commend journalists for exposing the truth and educating citizens. Their role is vital to a healthy democracy.

—Ann, St Paul, MN

Keep up the good fight ! I thank and applaud your efforts at constantly striving to enlighten the stupid masses in this country.

—Deb, Portland, ME

Tell us the truth; let the American people decide for themselves...

—John, Polson, MT

Nothing's more important than keeping truth alive; stand strong.

—Honora-Bright, Blodgett, OR

Thank you for believing in the power of democracy, for sacrificing for the education for all.

—Sara, Seattle, WA

Thanks for covering the important news. Amateur footage is a good thing, but reputable, experienced sources are vital to the public record.

—KGH, City, MT

Keep telling us the truth! Thanks for all you do.....

—Debbie, Sanibel, FL

Arresting journalists, denying racial and religious minorities their First Amendment freedoms, are the sign of a totalitarian state, not a free and open secular democracy. (If we live in a republic and not a democracy, why are conservatives taking to direct democracy tactics like initiatives and voter referendums to pass parental notification measures, etc., rather than going through their elected representatives?)

—Vasu, Oakland, CA

Information and freedom of speech are our tools, you are our front line in the ability to make responsible choices, we will support you.

—Scott, Albuquerque, NM

I've been arrested too, for protests. Thank you. What you are doing is important for all of us.

—Larry, Detroit, MI

The government is now under the control of corporate and financial overseers. The people can vote, but they are too misinformed to do so intelligently. That is where you come in. Unfortunately, the media are mostly instruments of the corruption. The free press is a joke. Find new ways to be heard.

—Lawrence, Reedsville, WV

Hang in there. You are the true heroes. Thank you for fighting for our rights to not be silenced. The public is watching!

—Reynold, Temecula, CA

Keep the faith and keep spreading the news...

—Catherine, El Centro, CA

Thanks from me! I was in the Circulation of Newspapers, 5 publishers for over 35 years. I was also a union guy and only 1 of them had the Guild! We started the guild at one of them and were hit with why join???? It passed by 90% but 12 of us were declared manages. Yup, the power of the press!! Keep digging, for the truth!

—John, Preston, WA

We must not become like many of the Middle Eastern and African states whose freedoms are denied more and more.

—Greg, Fayetteville, AR

You are the heroes of democracy. Hang in there!

—Patricia, St. Louis, MO

We need responsible journalists!

—Bill & Marilyn, West Tremont, ME

Ever since Ari Fleischer said, "you better watch what you say," the push was on to quash dissent and criticism of government in this country. Ashleigh Banfield got banished. Robert Sheer was pushed out of the LA Times for being too liberal. Many other journalists got fired for questioning Bush. The Fairness Doctrine was killed by both political parties. "Fair and Balanced" became an empty slogan at FOX News, run by a political operative who still advises politicians (we aren't supposed to notice or care about this egregious behavior). Opinion based on no evidence is king. We saw hotels where journalists stayed bombed in Iraq. We saw "embedded" (read "in bed") journalists--the only way to get access to an illegal war. We saw a president hide in the White House and only accept pre-screened softball questions, while at the same time Republicans (both parties to some extent) turned town halls into pre-scripted Banana Republic style propaganda dramas (no Democratic t-shirts allowed). We've seen Hillary Clinton stand by without comment as a silent protester was roughed up and removed. And why? So that the coup d'etat could be completed and the better part of an unaware public would perceive as positive a de facto corporate government takeover. The Bonus March saw future "heroes" MacArthur, Eisenhower, and Patton lead foot soldiers, cavalry and tanks against impoverished WWI vets as Congress exited through the back door and underground tunnels. Hoover, at least, didn't see a second term for that one. But now, "toughness" is king as depicted through a complicit mainstream media that seeks to protect Big Banks and Big Business. And finally ... finally, people are taking to the streets. Thank you, real journalists, for stepping up when your country most needs you! Perception manipulation is happening here, not just "over there." We're being Mubarak'd, and most Americans don't yet get it.

—Jennifer, Ashland, OR

You are my eyes and ears I will stand up for you

—Mark, Des Moines, IA

Journalists arrested, since when? Why because they are against the 1%? We the 99% must all fight back.

—Dennis, RONKONKOMA, NY

Your arrests are unconstitutional and politically motivated. I stand with you and the First Amendment!

—Phyllis, Columbus, OH

Journalists should be allowed to report any news to their readers without facing arrest for their actions.

—Derry, Tucson, AZ

Diane Chapman

—Diane, Meeteetse, WY

Thank you for working to inform us!

—Sherry, Covington, KY

Thank you for trying to do your job, despite all odds. I couldn't have said it better than you already have. When journalists can't do their job unfettered, we're toast. Frankly, I'm tired of having to use my own social network as a secondary reporting site. I'd like to leave that to you, but alas you are impeded. Hijacking the news has been and more than ever is at the top of my list of concerns for this country where constitutional freedoms are being quietly violated and certainly are under-reported. Again, thank you.

—Mary, L.A., CA

As a citizen journalist never without his camcorder, I support you and your rights.

—Steven, Providence, RI

The importance of your work is undervalued. Please continue to fight the good fight on behalf of those unfortunates who choose cluelessness.

—Robert, Aurora, CO

We're with you! Keep fighting the good fight, the stake of our democracy depends upon it!

—Patrick, Brooklyn, NY

Evidently they are afraid of you printing the TRUTH for the whole world to read!!

—Lillian, Garfield Hts, OH

Stay strong! You are heroes in my book.

—Lucy, RIO DE JANEIRO, RI

We (the 99%) need our journalists to report the TRUTH to us! Thank you for standing together for that right. We are behind you!

—Taylor, Los angeles, CA

We need you as our eyes and ears. Actions against journalists won't go unchallenged.

—Hannah, Chico, CA

Thank you for fighting for us! Real journalists are needed now more than ever!

—Mike, Halifax, MA

You are the true patriots, thank you.

—Kelly, Tigard, OR

Stand strong. Many of us support you, and the brave actions you have taken!

—Linda, Westampton, NJ

Thank you for being at the forefront of what matters. I'm sorry you've had to learn that we're living in a police state.

—Dan, San Jose, CA

Take heart, these perfidious traitors would have gladly arrested Ben Franklin. Their day will come.

—David, Gainesville, FL

Jeff Leonhardt

—Jeff, Traverse City, MI

It's not just the government: it's the government that has ceded authority to virtual people whose prime objective does not include our freedom. "I hope we shall crush in its birth the aristocracy of our monied corporations which dare already to challenge our government to a trial by strength and bid defiance to the laws of our country." --

Thomas Jefferson

—Richard, Beavercreek, OR

Real journalism requires real truths being offered to the American people... and to jail these because Wall Street doesn't like airing it's dirty laundry is NOT freedom and should be struck down now!

—RL, Portland, OR

Hope you can hang in there; you all are our biggest hope.. Thank you for what you do. marian hilton

—Marian, Jacksonville, FL

People should not be afraid of discussion and exposure. This is a democracy right?

—Suzanne, Woods Hole, MA

Stand strong

—Cam, Indianapolis, IN

Thank you. It is called freedom of speech. Keep it up.

—Glenn, Santa Rosa, CA

Stay strong. We need you more than ever before. Your work is literally heroic! Without you, democracy is dead.

—P, Northampton, MA

Unfortunately we are senior citizens on severely restricted income, and cannot pledge financial support, but will readily sign petitions and emails to congress, etc. and pray for you in all instances.

—June, Fort Myers, FL

Franklin, Pain & Jefferson smile!!

—Rob, Boulder, CO

This is unconscionable in America.

—Bob, Brooklyn, NY get tough.

—John, West allis, WI

Thank you for your courage to bring the Truth to us the public.

—Angela, Broomfield,, CO

Are politicians stupid? Crazy? Just incompetent? Doesn't matter what the cause is, it was both illegal and immoral to prevent video-taping the so-called hearing on Fracking. You guys know fracking is evil poison and deadly. How can you even allow it, much less try to hide your corrupt proceedings. You won't be in office long.

—Geo, Fort Wayne, IN

Thank you for your work.

—Meg, Chicago, IL

Has anyone read the constitution recently that says the government must leave the press alone? SDD

—Shelley, Issaquah, WA

No better suffering than for the First Amendment of the U.S.!

—Dwane, Las Vegas, NM

Arresting a journalist is admitting weakness. It shows that reality doesn't match the ideals.

—George, Long Beach, CA

Thank you for taking the risks you do. You are our only connection with the truth.

—James, Ukiah, CA

Hang in there - you've done nothing wrong, and a great deal that was right.

—Jane, Edmond, OK

Too bad you "journalists" couldn't have been doing your job when the bush regime was in office. Maybe we wouldn't be where we are today on the issue of freedom of speech.

—L. W. linn, OR

We are standing strong with you for our free speech.

—Judy, Austin, CO

We need you, now more than ever. Please fight for our freedom to know what's happening.

—Barbara, Portland, OR

Thank you for trying to show the American people what's really going on.

—Lindsay, Reno, NV

thank you for all you do..

—Robert, Lake Elsinore, CA

Continue to cover occupy and expose the corruption of the press by covering the truth and reporting it honestly.

—Jim, Garden Valley, ID

What is happening to you now, will be all humans tomorrow. Thank you for your courage.

—Lynn, Phoenix, AZ

I AM STANDING UP FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE JOURNALISTS THAT FIGHT FOR ME AND MY RIGHT TO KNOW!!! WHAT ARE THE SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTS DOING!!!

—Lawrence, Spokane, WA

Thank you for being in the forefront of maintaining our First Amendment rights.

—Carolyn, Mendon, MA

There's a reason it was first among the ten. Unfortunately, your job requires wresting control from monied, virtual people which have been ruled to power by our courts. "I hope we shall crush in its birth the aristocracy of our monied corporations which dare already to challenge our government to a trial by strength and bid defiance to the laws of our country." -- Thomas Jefferson

—Richard, Beavercreek, OR

Thank you!

—Jamie, Portland, OR

Take heart - you are so important for retaining our democracy - we stand by you!

—Susan, Boulder, CO

Thank you for your courage and determination. I am deeply grateful for everything you're doing, and I pass the word along to my network as often as possible. Since I can't be there, maybe my small efforts will help.

—Wendy, Waycross, GA

I hope you are able to keep up the good fight to provide needed knowledge to our befuddled electorate. I am horrified by what you are going through

—Donald, La Canada, CA

Citizens worldwide are watching and listening. Journalists, we citizens will fight the injustices against police, politicians and all those who attempt to eradicate the First Amendment.

—Jude, Chicago, IL

Thank you.

—Susan, Washington, DC

Thank you for your sacrifice.

—Jeff, Bishop, CA

Stand strong....our freedom depends on you.

—Patricia and Robert, Cromwell, CT

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

—Jeff, Stewartville, NJ

Thank you for your bravery by standing up for our rights against an ever increasing, anti-American actions being committed by state law enforcement @ the behest of corporate interests.

—Rachel, Hampton, CT

Know this; all progressives and freedom-loving Americans who are worried about the steady erosion of everyone's Constitutional rights stand with you where ever you are.

—Ken, Decatur, TX

Keep up the good work you are trying to do.

—Yolan, Arbor Vitae, WI

Thank you.

—Steve, Minneapolis, MN

We depend upon your point of view, Carole Fredrickson

—Carole, Seattle, WA

Please stand strong and don't give in. We applaud your courage and commitment to reporting the truth.

—Adam, Oakland, CA

Journalists may not be perfect but God are they better than politicians.

—Edith, Asheville, NC

FREE PRESS is critical to maintaining a free society!

—John, Camp Hill, PA

Thank you for reporting "the truth."

—John, Grass Valley, CA

I applaud your intellectual curiosity and wanting to give people their right to know what is happening . I cannot believe that our 1st Amendment is being shredded in plain sight and so few are objecting.

—Tannis, Greeley, CO

Please help support our freedom of speech. Do not let our country degrade into that which we fled from in the first place so many years ago.

—James, Pacifica, CA

this is an ATTACK on the American people

—Dan, Seattle, WA

WOW -What a shame Bill Collins

—Bill, Kirkwood, MO

Just arm them and let them shoot it out.

—Gary, Daytona Beach, FL

This is what the fascists did in Germany, Italy and Spain.

—Sharon, Littleton, CO

The US now rates 47th in press freedom. That's unbelievably pathetic. We're moving in the wrong direction. That has to change.

—Charles, Santa Fe, NM

Keep fighting, we support you.

—Dan, Estero, FL

You are my heroes. As a student journalist, it means the world to me that you stand up for our rights! much love.

—Matthew, Los angeles, CA

Journalists are the eyes and ears of democracy. A democracy that is blind and deaf is not a democracy. It is an open invitation to oppression.

—Lloyd, Marshfield, MA

Stay true. If people don't stand up for their values, there will be no values. If people don't oppose tyranny, tyranny will be all that there is.

—Liz, Los Angeles, CA

Don't let this deter you, your work is too important.

—Walt, Mauricetown, NJ

Thank you for having the courage to be a REAL journalist, not simply a stenographer for government and corporate interests.

—Charlene, Manchester, MI

As a citizen I expect the people in power to honor our Constitution.

—Judith, Corpus Christi, TX

Keep up the fight. We've got your back.

—Sheila, Worcester, MA

The American people should know the truth about all matters. Please keep on keeping on!

—Sandra, Hermitage, TN

Hang in there! We are behind you.

—John, Washington DC, DC

Keep trying to report the truth; don't let them silence you!

—Mary, New York, NY

How have we come to a place where seeing journalists beaten and arrested is so commonplace that we don't even react when it's happening not in Egypt but in New York, Oakland, LA, and every state in the Union?

—Deirdre, Reston, VA

You are the only thing that stands between us and tyranny. Keep up the good work.

—Gwendolyn, North Newton, KS

Free flow of information is the heart and sole of freedom!

—Raymond, Salem, OR

Attorneys General should be indicting the police and charging them with criminally denying the Constitutional rights of a citizen and violating their oath of office. As a teacher, I can assure you that my employer wouldn't bat an eye to fire me if I did anything even remotely as egregious as this! Has the time come to start over and bring the entire system down, or will it work for the benefit of all the people, not just for those who wield power. For if it doesn't, the only outcome in this country will be a bloody revolution, especially with the number of guns in the hands of people in the USA. Do your job and actually uphold the Constitution you swore to protect and defend.

—Jim, Pittsburg, CA

Hello !!!!! Freedom of speech here ! Hang in there, guys - you're fighting the good fight !

—Susan, Grants Pass, OR

My prayers are with you. God bless LET TRUTH BE KNOWN

—Mary, Virginia, MN

Thanks for exercising first amendment rights.

—Cathy, Ann Arbor, MI

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Stand strong.

—Kay, Cherokee Village, AR

Arresting journalists at the Occupy movement is worse than the financial industry abuses they're protesting. Are even the police on the take from Wall Street?

—Suzanne, Sedona, AZ

Please know how important your work is to every concerned citizen of this great country. I don't know you personally, but I admire you greatly.

—Debra, Davis, CA

You are on the front lines of the public's right to know. Freedom of speech is for people, not corporations!

—Deborah, Jaffrey, NH

Thank you for your good work. For 99% of us, you are what bridges the gap between spin and truth. God bless you.

—Lynn, Austin, TX

Take heart; they're afraid of you. They're afraid of the change truth can invoke. They're afraid to see things as they are. Afraid to feel shame at what lies beneath the darkness. Afraid to be held accountable for what is exposed in such light.

—Gary, S. San Francisco, CA

Keep up the good work.

—Adrian, Waltham, MA

A free press is a foundation of a democracy. Thank you for standing up for our democracy!

—Wendy, Dansville, NY

It is outrageous that those of you who dare to stand up and witness and report the truth be jailed as common criminals while the banks who perpetrated massive fraud that caused the economic crisis worldwide go free. Our Constitution is being violated on a daily basis by those who we've put our trust in to uphold it.

—Judith, Hot Springs Village, AR

We need journalists!! Thank you for the important work that you do.

—Sharon, Osceola, WI

We are outraged at this obvious disregard of our first amendment. We'll do what we can to spread the word of what is happening.

—Al & Sonja, Seattle, WA

just because some of the police do not like some of the reporting, there is no reason to jeopardize journalism.

—David, Berkeley, CA

Our First Amendment rights are in jeopardy,keep up the good fight!!!!

—Joan, GREENVILLE, SC

Look deeper!

—Donna, Kansas City, MO

MSM that doesn't constantly remind the world of this denial of 1st Amendment rights is part of the problem.

—Joseph, Elgin, IL

Thank you for standing up for a free press and responsible journalism. Thank you for standing up for truth and justice in our American democracy.

—Lynne, Troy, MI

Keep the faith!!!!

—Howard, Centreville, MD

Without courage such as your's we could see the end of all freedoms in this country! Keep it up.

—Michael, Portland, OR

The truth must be heard. Keep Filming, Keep Fighting for the First!

—Vivian, SD, CA

Thank you for standing for freedom of speech. We seem to be losing one freedom after another. I needs to stop!

—Linda, Rio Rancho, NM

Thank you for your courage and commitment!

—Susanne, San Francisco, CA

There can't be freedom for citizens if there isn't a free press that pays attention to what power brokers are doing.

Stop silencing the people!

—Maureen, Wheat Ridge, CO

Keep your head up. Together we can make a difference

—Kelly, Central falls, RI

Thank you for what you do. Let's all fight the good fight and win over encroaching tyranny.

—Jeff, Ogdensburg, NY

We must not let invasive forces rule in this country!

—Eva, Pembroke Pines, FL

Keep up the fight.

—Tina, Fletcher, OK

Thank you for working so hard to give us the information we need so badly! Keep on fighting, my family stands strong for you.

—Jacque, Arvada, CO

Thank you for defending constitutional rights--we all benefit from your actions.

—J, Rescue, CA

We all have the right too Free Speech that was started in our country for the people that is why everyone wants too move in out US that does not Free Speech we must have it

—Renee, Ft.Myers, FL

Without honest unbiased reporting, all is lost.

—Buzz, Red Bluff, CA

I will make ever effort to help you by putting pressure on them

—Jean, Studio City, CA

Keep the faith. No one's free in this country unless they can pay for it anyway.

—John, Portland, OR

This country has always paid lip service to the Bill of Rights. Now, more than ever, we need "boots on the ground" to report/write about what is actually happening WHEN it is happening. Thank you for your courage in the face of arrest/detention/

—Lisbeth, Van Nuys, CA

Thank you!

—Patricia, Owego, NY

Thanks for doing your jobs, no matter the risk to your personal freedoms.

—Gregg, Brooklyn, NY

A free people need a free press. Bloggers and independent media persons are as important as "established" reporters, or maybe more so. I support journalists and stand against their imprisonment everywhere.

—Nils, Alameda, CA

Journalists might not be arrested if there were not facts and matters the hierarchy preferred be kept out of the media, if there was not the potential for reporting adverse to carefully crafted legal, political and public relations positions. In other words, if the media were to come close to revealing a cover up. Better the 1st Amendment be infringed on, the strategy goes, then that the public learn the truth. But no one can truly condone deceiving or abusing the press. No journalist is arrested without a power group being afraid.

—Mark, Brooklyn, NY

Thank you, for your sacrifices and your courage!

—Julie, Yelm, WA

We won't let America turn into the next China!

—Rick, Lincoln, CA

Let's not forget why we made this the First Amendment.

—K, Albuquerque, NM

Thank you for being on the frontline of trying to save what's left of our democracy.

—Brian, Perkasio, PA

I would sue the people who arrested you. Stop this abuse. Freedom of speech is in the constitution. All this is, is censorship and control. Make them pay, start taking them to courts, the individual cops even. Take their money away. It's going to make them mad, but you didn't arrest you, they did. Show them the price, of working for the 1%, and not you.

—John, Grand Coulee, WA

Thank you for your courage to continue to fight for us and bring us the news, even if you get arrested. Bless you.

—Nancy, Reno, NV

I did not elect you to subvert the constitution! Free the journalists and allow the truth to come through. Charles L Cronin

—Charles, St. Peters, MO

We have come to take our First Amendment rights so for granted that it is a shock to see them violated by the very government that is sworn to protect them. It is time to remind our government that it serves at our, "we the peoples'," pleasure.

—John, Kansas City, MO

I stand behind you and your freedoms as journalists. When we allow these freedoms to be trampled on we become more like the countries we condemn for abusing basic human rights. Stand strong!!!

—Leah, Albuquerque, NM

Freedom of the press is one of the first and most important notions of the founding of our country. It is not possible to have democracy without it. And as in earlier years, the press extends to anyone reporting, not just those employed by the major outlets. The Internet allows for independent reporters, and that makes them no less important as a source, especially since independents are the ones most committed at this time to reporting what is actually happening of note. The police don't get to decide what we are allowed to learn about. The wealthy media groups also don't get to make that decision. Nor the govn. Reporters deserve to be protected. They must be protected, or our society fails.

—Bonnie, Dixmont, ME

Stand strong, we have your back!

—Patricia, Las Vegas, NV

I is obvious that the government has become a corporate police state intending to bankrupt the middle class in order to control them. Why? Is this going to work in your favor? We will find out as time marches on.

—Dan, Deltona, FL

Keep you courage! Keep going to where the silence is!

—Adam, Durango, CO

I Stand with journalist doing their jobs and reporting the news without of the fear of arrest or harassment by those who should be protecting all americans who exercise the fundamental rights to free speech.

—Linda, Chapel Hill, TN

I wish I could break down the walls that hold you and kick the asses of those who put you there but I can't. You should know that your efforts are respected by those you would inform and I support your right to continue to do so.

—Paul, Ridgewood, NY

Stand fast for the First!!!

—Lester, Ventura, CA

Get the facts -and get them out! Let the people know so we can stand up, speak up ... and get out the vote.

—Sue, El Paso, TX

Thank you for sticking your neck out to try to bring some balance and accountability to our economy and government. Hang in there.

—Heather, Champaign, IL

I stand shoulder to shoulder with you! Our democracy depends on a free press!!!!

—Patricia, New Brighton, MN

Thank you for your actions and sacrifices. I wish you strength to endure the democratic struggle needed to reclaim your right to participate in a free society.

—David, Auburndale, FL

What is this now? A police state? I can't believe we have gone this far. I support you and stand with you as your work to change this violation of free speech for which Occupy is working to change. We will change it! Sincerely,

Melody Brinkley
—Melody, Lyons, CO

FUCK!

—Matt, Alameda, CA

Freedom of the Press is the heart of America.

—Rebecca, Indianapolis, IN

I am so sorry that righthiest pigs are obstructing you rights

—David, St Petersburg, FL

Our society's political well-being depends on journalists who give us accurate and full news coverage. Thank you for your commitment to a free press.

—Nancy, Bloomington, IN

Hang in there. The 99% are with you!

—Bruce, Rolling Meadows, IL

All of you give me some hope that all is not lost, the press is not all owned by those who oppress. Thank you for drawing this line in the sand; a free press is necessary for a free society, something apparently the "gubmint" fears greatly. You have our backs, I hope we have yours. Solidarity from Occupy North Dakota !!

—Brian, Grand Forks, ND

Esteemed Colleagues: I applaud your dedication to the bill of rights, and your belief that your arrests can raise awareness is working. Be strong, and know that you have family everywhere. The bad guys of the world can't afford to keep thier secrets of the world hidden from us anymore thanks to your work. Much love!

—Brandon, Fort wayne, IN

Thank you for trying to bring us the truth.

—Virgil, McMinnville, OR

A controlled enviorment is the hallmark of a dead society. Let these people do their jobs. Alex Wipf

—Alex, Cutchogue, NY

Best just let 'em in. We're all journalists now. Don't make us mad.

—James, Portland, OR

This should be a wake up call for the press.

—Clarence, Houston, TX

Why are we acting like we live in Syria, taking away our First Amendment rights. Stop the assault on our Freedoms

—Sandra, Barberton, OH

Thank you for sacrificing so much in order to report the truth. We all stand with you; you the true heroes.

—Max, Baton Rouge, LA

WE NEED YOU TO STAND UP FOR PRESS FEEDOM TO PROTECT US ALL NOW MORE THAN EVER!

—Dorothy, Largo, FL

Thank you for taking a stand. More of us need to do so. If we don't stand for something, we will fall for anything. Keep us strong.

—Stonna, San Antonio, TX

Is this America? or is this Russia? what has happened to Freedom of the Press? It is the only REAL and HONEST reporting for the People NO Spin NO Entertainment. Just REAL and HONEST REPORTING. No more arresting of REAL Journalists, We deserve Better in America!!!!!!

—Yvonne, Lexington, MI

We need to you continue to be courageous in the face of this new suppression of real news for the rest of us.

—Diane, Northampton, MA

You are one of the first lines of defense in safeguarding democracy.

—Felicity, Tacoma, WA

We all have to stick together and keep our profession as clean as possible to combat the evils of our human animals's World.

—Rosemary, Manhattan Beach, CA

I stand with you!

—Catherine, Tumwater, WA

Stay strong and stand by your convictions...

—Toni, Kansas City, KS

Thank you for your work. You have my support.

—Tina, Glen ellyn, IL

Thank you for taking risks to be our eyes and ears and voice. Your courage and persistence are inspirational.

—Cindy, Richmond, CA

Thank you for your bravery - keep it up!

—Paula, Tucson, AZ

I'm saddened by your arrest, it shames our country for allowing this to happen. hopefully enough of us will speak up to assure this doesn't continue. what you are forced to endure now will help to energize the public to stop this travesty for the future. thank you.

—Robert, Arbor Vitae, WI

Thank you for truthfully reporting the news for us despite personal risks.

—Carroll, San Rafael, CA

You shitbags in what passes for congress are afaid of your corporation-pimped and welfare-agriculture-pimped being seen by we the people. Why not do us all a favor, something decent, for the first time in your pathetic, wealth-serving lives: eat shit and die.

—Harvey, Shoshoni, WY

Is this the America I grew up in or is it the beginning of dictatorship?

—Brian, N. wales, PA

Thank you journalists! It is sad and appalling to watch our country go the way of so many repressive regimes, meeting free speech with violence and trying to silence the media. Your actions are very important - and very appreciated.

—Peter, West Linn, OR

Thank you for your passion.

—Lindell, Spokane, WA

thank you for doing your job!

—Carol, Ithaca, NY

Hang in there, Freedom isn't dead yet. we're coming!

—Gary, Olympia, WA

There is no god higher than truth. ~ Gandhi

—Nancy, San Jose, CA

Thank you so much for what you do. Don't let the bastards get you down.

—Michael, Hadlock, WA

Thank you for providing real information about the Occupy movement. Your courage is awe inspiring and I applaud your efforts!

—Joyce, Prescott, AZ

Thank you for standing up for free speech. The corporatization and consolidation of the media are huge ongoing threats to our democracy. As journalists, your individual reporting is essential to keeping all of us free. Sincerely,
Alicelia Warren University Place WA 98466

—Alicelia, University Place, WA

Stand tough and be proud in what you do. I wish you all the best.

—Bill, Weedsport, NY

Please make more widely public the circumstances of your detention/arrest so that we, your supporters, can do more to secure justice for you.

—JI, Providence, RI

We are standing behind you--no journalist should be arrested for covering an event.

—Deborah, Winchester, KY

Thank you for risking your freedom to keep truth available to the people.

—Linda, Montrose, CO

Thank you for covering one of the most important stories of our time! You are truly journalists of the highest order of your profession. If it doesn't rattle someone's cage, it isn't news. If it gets the journalists covering it busted, it must be a mighty big cage rattling!

—Michael, Longmont, CO

Can you imagine how they might have treated you if you actually had committed a so called crime? Thanks for all that you do!

—Greg, South Lake Tahoe, CA

There are people behind you.

—Ben, Prescott, AZ

You are the true patriots. Our freedom literally depends on a free press reporting on those who use truth to fight injustice.

—Larry, Mooresville, NC

Our 1st amendment advocates "freedom of press"! Why is this country trying to stop the rights American first advocated?

—Jolie, Denver, CO

I am an SPJ member to help protect your rights. Thank you for your work.

—Rebekah, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Your work is absolutely essential to democracy. I regret you have been arrested, and will do whatever I can to support you as you are supporting all of us.

—Beverly, Bloomington, IN

Keep up the good fight. Your fight matters.

—Carlos, Greeley, CO

You are not alone. If I could, I would trade places with any of you. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

—Alice, Port Orchard, WA

THIS IS WHAT A POLICE STATE LOOKS LIKE! WHILE OUR GOVERNMENT PROMOTES DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS ABROAD. THEY ALLOW DIRECT VIOLATIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION GO UNCHALLENGED!

—Don, Cincinnati, OH

Thank you for your courage and tenacity. We cannot afford to lose our First Amendment rights.

—Carolyn, Las Vegas, NV

thank you for your courage and doing the honest work that need to be aired.

—Dixie, Mercer Island, WA

"The only security of all is in a free press" -Thomas Jefferson-

—Todd, Oxford, MI

Truth must be told at all times; that is the essence of reporting and being a good journalist or reporter. Even though the truth may hurt at times, it must be reported, not counting the cost.

—Richard, Mechanicsville, VA

If you want to turn a democracy into a dictatorship, the fastest way to do it is to persecute journalists.

—Ken, Nacogdoches, TX

We are with you!

—Anne, Leicester, NC

As a journalist I stand with you.

—Mary, Spokane, WA

TU for taking an important stand for "Freedom".

—Mercedes, Racine, WI

This is abdominal! Where are the justice departments in the states and federal govt.?

—Joyce, Oakdale, MN

Stop and reverse the rise of fascism in America! Stop and reverse the rise of the American fascist military/police state!

—John and Martha, Elkhart Lake, WI

Constitutional rights are being attacked at every level - losing freedom of the press means no more democracy.

—Richard, Minneapolis, MN

A stand for you is a stand against fascism. Something Americans seem to think they are immune to.

—Gregory, San Francisco, CA

Fear of transparency and the truth are clear indicators that something is wrong. We live in a democracy and it's our job to fix it. And fix it we will.

—Dirk, Gouldsboro, ME

Blessed are you when you are persecuted for righteousness sake!

—J, Bellevue, WA

I am extremely sorry for (and angry at) the stress and suffering you have endured. I admire your perseverance in the face of these malicious arrests. You are on the front line, but you are not alone. Thank you.

—Julie, Montgomery Village, MD

We are with you and will not cease in our efforts to free you.

—Willard, Clarksburg, WV

I thank you for what you're doing. Reporting the news, especially the controversial news is of the utmost importance.

—Jesse, Pittsburgh, PA

Hang in there. We won't forget you.

—Tom, Missoula, MT

Thank you for your courage!

—Celia, Placentia, CA

Interesting how there are those who don't care about "chipping away" at the constitution....whenever it suits their desires.....THAT IS NOT HOW IT WORKS PEOPLE!!! FREEDOM OF PRESS NOW!!!

—Max, Ft. Lauderdale, FL

I'm trained as a journalist and have worked as one, and find myself utterly flummoxed to be living in an authoritarian country where journalists are arrested and harassed by the government for simply doing their jobs. Thank you for keeping the faith in this most interesting of times.

—Jon, Los Angeles, CA

When a writer ceases writing, freedom and aesthetics wear away.

—Sunja, Los Angeles, CA

Why is the government trying to change our country into an anarchy????

—Mary, St Louis, MO

Power to you.

—Pamela, Oaxaca, Mexico, PW

Thank you for your courage in standing up to those who would deprive us of our freedoms. This attack upon our Constitution and Bill of Rights can not continue.

—Nancy, Chagrin Falls, OH

Thank you for doing your job and being our eyes and ears. No journalists should ever be detained, period! I will work for your release.

—Dave, Sault Sainte Marie, MI

Bravo for the courage displayed by journalists. You have not been forgotten.

—Kirk & Ann, Laramie, WY

The powers that be want the world to be uninformed; thanks for doing what you do.

—Janice, Jacksonville, FL

Hang in there. I'm with you.

—Jerry, Hot Springs, SD

I stand with you. Please continue to support freedom of the press, and I will do all I can to support you.

—Dianne, New York, NY

Stand Strong, Friends! There is safety in numbers, and the numbers -- all 99% of us -- are with you!

—Celeste, Annapolis, MD

I can't believe this is happening here! Sounds like it should be coming from a repressive dictatorship. Hang in there--we need you!

—Pamela, Rocklin, CA

Thank you for protecting the rights of all of us.

—Joan, New York, NY

Sometimes being arrested IS the story. Find out why your fellow citizens are being arrested in large numbers and why America is the prison capital of the world, then report on that story.

—Michael, Culver City, CA

IF WE DONT FIGHT THIS NOW IT WILL ONLY GET WORSE IN THE VERY NEAR FUTURE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! !!!!!!!

—Jess, Denver, CO

To the arrested journalists - you a fighters for freedom. Thank you for your dedication & sacrifice.

—Chelsea, Bedford, TX

These cops should be stripped of their authority

—Phillip, Sarasota, FL

I stand with those who fight for our freedoms-with pen or gun.

—Randy, Canton, IL

Be strong. The first amendment will prevail!

—Iris, Kent, OH

Thank you for the sacrifices you and your families have made while attempting to bring transparency to our government's actions.

—Anthony, Aliso Viejo, CA

Thanks for doing what you do, but I'm sorry you had to do it the hard way. I guess that sometimes the hard way is the only way. This never should have happened though.

—Donald, Ferguson, MO

Freedom, must prevail in the face of the New American Police State - You, honest journalists, seeking to tell the truth with integrity - Are the heros in this battle!

—Glen, Burbank, CA

Thank you for publishing the truth and keeping the American people advised . Stand firm and know that we appreciate your work and stand behind you.

—Bobbie, Canton, MI

Freedom of the Press has nothing to do with laundry.

—William, Evanston, WY

I stand with you - the freedom to get the truth out is so important to our liberty!

—Kathleen, Norman, OK

We share your belief in the First Amendment and salute your loyalty to your profession and those of us who depend on you for accurate reports.

—Barbara, Shelby, NC

The First Amendment protects all of us, and your words must be heard. I stand by you who have been deprived of the protection of this important right.

—Cynthia, OAKLAND, CA

Thank you for your commitment to documenting the truth for us! We stand with you.

—Linda, Carmel, CA

I can't believe this happened in the USA. I'm ashamed

—Joseph, Bethpage, NY

Absolutely outrageous.

—Brendan, San Luis Obispo, CA

I stand with you.

—Vicki, Long Beach, CA

Just the tactics favored by corporate facists! Freedom of the press is in the Constitution, look it up!

—Shane, Manhattan, KS

Thank you for your bravery. Freedom of the press is a bulwark of democracy.

—Gail, Sacramento, CA

When in doubt, camera out!

—Garret, Concord, NH

One more unconscionable and unconstitutional overreach by our government "representatives". Why do they hate America?

—Raymond, Silver Spring, MD

How can we criticize countries like China, Iran, and North Korea when we no longer allow journalists to cover stories we don't like ourselves?

—Peggy, Farmington Hills, MI

Stand up for our rights and your right to report any news. Carol Hunt

—Carol, Arlinton, TX

Please don't quit trying to get the truth.

—Jack, Mount Pleasant, SC

without free speech, we become like the countries we have 'saved' from dictatorships.

—Beth, Carnation, WA

Thanks for being on the front lines for First Amendment rights!

—Linda, Asheville, NC

It's going to be the fight of our lives, but knowledge will prevail.

—Katherine, Knoxville, TN

You are true heroes pursuing the truth. Your profession is being attacked, but don't give up!! We the public need to KNOW!

—Margaret, Silver City, NM

Keep strong and when you come out, go report again, do not fear EVER, Tyrants always fail
—Megan, New York, NY

Thank you for standing up for us and our rights.
—Thea, Portland, OR

Keep standing tall and fighting. Thank you!
—Judy, Longmont, CO

Stay strong and keep reporting on all the government violations of your and all taxpayers' rights and freedoms.
There has been There has been too much slack given to the government over the last decade.
—Alvaro, Philadelphia, PA

This is an outrageous abuse & affront to the freedom of the PRESS so necessary for a true Democracy.
—Janice, Portland, OR

The First Amendment is not just for journalists — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech. The First Amendment is not just for journalists — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech.
—Malcolm, LOS ANGELES, CA

Thank you for your integrity
—Beth, Arroyo Seco, NM

Courage!
—Stephen, Chicago, IL

I grew up during the cold war and the United States Government has become the same threat to Civil Liberties that we feared from Communist Russia; Loss of Civil Rights Government brutality Elimination of due process Government corruption Elimination of class structure Government without representation Government controlled news media Government propaganda Unlawful imprisonment Etc. It's time to make a stand. The Supreme Court has no interest in defending civil rights or withholding the provisions of the Constitution. The average U.S. citizen must depend on the free press to the bring the truth to the oppressed peoples of this country. Thank you for your dedication and perserverance to protecting the rights that our government chooses to take without authority.
—Ron, Santa clara, UT

Thank you for your dedication to getting the truth out to all of us!!
—Polly, Poulsbo, WA

Don Baker
—Don, Panama City, FL

Thanks for defending press freedoms! This nations founding fathers defended the "freedom of the press"!
—James, Spooner, WI

Our citizens need to realize the consequences of not having a free press. Too many are falling victim to the propaganda that is being spread as the established elite strategically whittle away at the laws which protect our free speech. They don't realize that these laws are the roots to all our freedoms and we must make it known before it's too late. Write, Expose, Sue, Enact Civil Disobediance, Demonstrate Peacefully, Engage... This is your time!
—Matthew, Bay city, WI

I appreciate the efforts of journalists to keep the public informed, even at their own risk. Not to sound corny, but you are heroes in my book.

—Steven, Phoenix, AZ

don't cave in, stay strong

—Axel, City, CA

First Amendment is the free society. It's inseparable.

—Ronald, Brunswick, OH

Don't let them get away with this!

—Alan, Fairfax, CA

It is a sad day in our country when those who cover the news are arrested. Where is our country heading, do we know?

—Diane, Lacey, WA

Thank you for your courage to present truth to us!

—Al, Shakopee, MN

We stand behind your service to our country and by standing behind you we are supporting our first amendment to our constitution.

—Steve, Blauvelt, NY

The Founders enshrined freedom of the press in the First Amendment because they understood that a free press was essential to an informed citizenry, which is essential to a democracy. Those who would curtail this guarantee understand this as well.

—Robert, San Francisco, CA

Freedom of the press is vital to a functioning democracy. It's imperative that US law enforcement stop arresting journalists for the revolutionary act of documenting uncomfortable truths.

—Cory, Denver, CO

Thank you for your work.

—Jane, Deer Isle, ME

Is this the United States of America?

—Paula, Bemidji, MN

Hang in there, this is BS. I'm writing my congressmen!

—Frank, Plymouth, MI

Growing up I would have never thought I would see this day in this country. I can't adequately express in words the outrage I feel at the nation we have become. In Just five months our nation will be celebrating Independence Day, and yet, we're not independent any more, are we? We're certainly not free, though I'm sure there will be crowds waving the flag and chanting 'we're number one'. What exactly are we 'number one' at? Every time I get the chance, I mention that in this supposedly free nation of ours, you would think that we would be 'number one' for a free press. Almost without fail, the response I get from people, when I tell them what our ranking, is dumbfounded silence. The idea that somehow we are the beacon of democracy can't stand up to the realities of '10 minutes of uninterrupted news' and 'free speech zones', to say nothing about journalists detained for attempting to cover the news. That we have fifty journalists detained - in this country, speaks volumes about the health of this nation where money is free speech, and the more money you have the more control you have over it. I like to think that it's not too late to turn things around, but those who have invested big money in steering the nation down this dark path aren't likely to let go of the wheel anytime soon. My thoughts and prayers are with you, as they are for this nation, and the world.

—Alan, Jackson, WI

I doubt that my own undistinguished comments will have much sway with others, so I will defer to one Thomas Jefferson : "Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost."

—Jake, Brandon, FL

We depend on you to know what's really happening. We will stand up for the first amendment.

—Kathleen, Phila, PA

I appreciate your fight to keep the public informed. Thank you

—D'Ann, San Diego, CA

I am ashamed to hear of the way you've been treated by our law enforcement. Thank you for risking your own well-being to bring us the news coverage we deserve.

—Jeffrey, Greensboro, NC

Sending out good thoughts to you EVERY day--with a thankful heart and much respect. I wish I could do more to help but I can't. Please keep up the fight for freedom. S.Renkel

—Susan, Freeburg, PA

Thank you for your courage and the light you shine in the darkness!

—Tamara, Kalamazoo, MI

We have your back!

—Sue, Pittsboro, NC

Go deep inside yourself, meditate on light, and on The Light, and remember, you are remembered. We're working for your constitutional rights. Persevere! Stay positive as you can, and remember all the good things others have done along with you!

—Hal, Grants Pass, OR

Keep fighting the good fight.

—Linda, Brooklyn, NY

Thanks for using your First Amendment Rights trying to report the news when and where it happens so that we can really know what is happening and the truth of the situation.

—Thirl, Lexington, MI

Without journalists, we would be in the dark ages. They are the backbone of democracy and open society could not exist without them.

—H, Lake Worth, FL

Thank you for trying to bring all of our eyes and ears where they cannot.

—Jeff, Ann Arbor, MI

This is appalling, and we the citizens of the United States will not stand for it. The Fourth Estate must remain free, or there is no possibility of a free nation.

—Karen, New York, NY

Hang in there. What you are doing is right & moral.

—Irene, Haines, AK

Keep the faith!

—1201, Ocean, NJ

Stand strong, we stand with you!

—Robin, North Brunswick, NJ

Thank you for trying to cover the Occupy Movement. The United States brags about our freedoms; they challenge other countries to let their people have rights; they are bullied by the Right and they capitulate. Please keep us informed.

—Ruth, Maplewood, MN

WE NEED THEM TO BE FREE!!!!!!

—Sally, SPOKANE, WA

Thank you for your hard work. You know, that variety of defending freedom that isn't talked about quite as often. :)

—Lindsey, Ashland, WI

The Truth shall set you free.

—Donald, Hyde Park, MA

The free press is critical to the survival and strength of our democracy.

—Lisa, Los Angeles, CA

This is not a dictatorship! Every American should support your efforts!

—Arthur, Alexandria, MN

In a world where journaling doesn't always have credentials, everyone must be given press freedom. While those who do, must be vouchsafed. Your edifying relevance to society is crucial, either way, so I'll fight with you.

—John, Juneau, AK

This is a huge issue. I will spread the word as best I can.

—Eric, Tacoma, WA

Freedom of speech has been abused for too long. When ever the big,rich and powerful want to ban speech they allow it, but only in a cordoned off area far away from the activity that the protestors want to exercise their right to free speech. That's wrong, as long as people protest peacefully and don't destroy property. Now it's gotten to the point where the rich and powerful want to muffle the pressand journalists in general. This abuse has got to stop. It's wrong and our freedom is being restricted.

—Donald, Pomona, CA

Thank you for your dedication.

—Glenn, Oneonta, NY

The government will never suppress freedom of the press. Legions of independent journalists in the age of digital equipment will continue with bravery to insure the public's right to know.

—Beverly, Bellingham, WA

We will support you and reclaim your rights

—Catherine, Portland, OR

Keep going. We will too.

—Paul, Sebastopol, CA

We stand with you!

—Darlene, Safford, AZ

I was born into journalism. My father and uncle owned newspapers all their lives. I am livid at the freewheeling of 'law enforcement' that tramples over the rights of the people by arresting journalists. That supposedly only happens in countries without a constitution like ours.

—Pat, Portland, OR

When they try to keep journalist from reporting the news, they are usually ashamed of what they are doing or know it to be wrong.

—Sandra, Dubuque, IA

When the First Amendment is violated in this manner, we know for sure that our democracy is in trouble.

—Valorie, Greenfield, MA

Stay healthy and focused. We need you to cover the Revolution.

—Donald, Cambridge, MA

And WHY are these journalists being arrested for reporting actual events in this "free" country??

—Beth, Seattle, WA

When growing up in the 50's and 60's, we learned that the bad communists locked up and killed journalists. that we now rank 47th in the global press freedom index is intolerable! we are working to change this.

—Dena, Boulder, CO

We stand behind you 1000%! Thank you for keeping us informed.

—R, SAN ANTONIO, TX

Thank you for all that you do. We need the work that you do!

—Patricia, Montpelier, VT

I am proud of you. In that situation, I will try to emulate your actions. God Bless America!

—John, Damascus, OR

Is this the USA - or is this "The People's Republic" of Red China?

—Tim&Tammy, Syracuse, NY

How can the attackers of the Constitutional right of freedom of the press/free speech call themselves American?

—Joan, Old Joe, AR

You're among the few who stand between democracy and dictatorship.

—Helen, Tucson, AZ

Thank you for you for your courage

—Jane, Seattle, WA

I find this action to be personally threatening. My support goes out to you many fold.

—Maxine, Grand rapids, MI

May your recent detainment give way to the re-opening of freedom of the press in USA. Thanks for your work!

—Marguerite, Colorado Springs, CO

Stop the U.S. from turning into a large, corporate police state. A free press is one of the the elements that makes the U.S. the envy of people who are oppressed in other nations around the world. We must continue to be a paradigm for Freedom, Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness.

—Peter, Oakland, CA

Only tyrants and dictators need to worry about being recorded by the press. I think we can all do the math on this one.

—Paul, San Francisco, CA

thank you for your sacrifices to insure the freedom of the press

—M, Redondo Beach, CA

Stay strong...We the People have your back

—Catherine, Weymouth, MA

We stand with you. Hang in there!

—Ann, Sebastopol, CA

Stay strong and find truth.

—Richard, Lodi, CA

Has J. Edgar been resurrected or is this now the United States of Syria? What part of the Constitution permits these wholesale abuses of journalists' rights? I want to know because I have been taught and have read in that noble document that these practices are specifically forbidden! Thank God there are people like you to stand up for freedom and the principles upon which our republic was founded!!

—Francis, Vail, AZ

Stay strong, we need you, respect you, and most of all THANK YOU!

—Deban, Gallup, NM

We stand with you! Take courage and keep hope!

—Anne, Bangor, ME

We are no longer a democracy when journalists are arrested for reporting the news that We the People need to know. A plutocracy requires a strong armed force to maintain the status quo, so our local police have been militarized to prevent the 99% from speaking. I want my democracy back, and I support all journalists who are fighting for the right to present honest information to the public.

—Sylvia, Alamogordo, NM

I am so Thankful to Carlos Miller and any other Journalists who have been arrested for caring about our communities enough, who just want to bring us the news, practicing their Constitutional Rights.

—Sherry, Wilton Manors, FL

You are in there for the First Amendment. It's our obligation to raise hell out here for you! Stay strong!

—Stephen, White Plains, NY

These arrests make a mockery of Democracy and our Constitution. Stop it now!

—Todd, Ocean park, WA

There is no freedom for us, if your freedom is in jeopardy.

—Paul, Romeoville, IL

Keep fighting the good fight. We are with you.

—Mary, Ewing, IL

You are not invisible. You matter. What you do matters. Stand strong.

—Robyn, Lacey, WA

The First Amendment rights give the journalists freedom to inform and report the citizens and should be impeded and arrested. Let them go!

—Mervyn, Rodeo, CA

Please know I so appreciate what you do and I hope, pray and advocate OUR U.S. Constitution prevails. I will try everything in my power to bring awareness to this cause.

—Penny, Anaconda, MT

Thanks for standing with the peoples right to know what is happening. Keep doing your job. We need and depend on honest journalist and reporting.

—Miesen, Tumacacori, AZ

Stand up for the American peoples right to know as protected by our Constitution itself. The ONLY!!! Industry protected by the Constitution!!!! that exists!!!

—Bob, Chicago, IL

What I don't understand is when the (Bill of Rights) was suspended and the Police State started? I know that the 1% of the US of A would like to take over. Congress has been bought and paid for by the 1% and they would like the 99% to pay the cost of government and they (1%) call the shots! Look to Congress for the problems of this country most have sold their souls!

—James, Ogden, UT

Be strong. Have faith. You are valued!!!

—Paula, San Ramon, CA

Stand strong. We are behind you.

—Richard, North Bend, OR

Thank you for your courage and hard work.

—Virginia, Long Beach, CA

I am so thankful for the journalists who refuse to close their eyes to what is happening. Thank you.

—Marilyn, Coral Gables, FL

Resist !

—Pete, Pleasant Hill, CA

Please continue to give us the news about the Occupy movement- thanks!

—Phil, Columbia, MO

The Bill of Rights is there for you and so are we, the people of the United States. So who has the nerve to defy us?

—Judd, Mill Valley, CA

The right of journalists to report on events affecting the world is crucial to free speech and the overall health of the nation. Private agencies control so much of media that it's become more a marketing agency than a forum for truth. Please do what you can to support free speech for the sake of all. Thank you for your time.

—Frances, Portland, OR

Stop this Police State Tactic!!!

—Charles, Fontana, CA

You are showing what the Fourth Estate is supposed to be doing...feel very proud of yourselves. Edward R. Murrow would be.

—Misty, Santa Rosa, CA

I wish I had 'discretionary funds' to help you with the cost of dealing with this un-American activity.

—Mike, Hanford, CA

This is America we do not arrest journalists for doing their job!

—Lynn, Cranford, NJ

This could be me! We won't allow this kind of barbaric behavior from officials.

—Bill, Oceanside, CA

Thank you for speaking out for those of us who cannot speak. Blessings of strength and protection,

—George, Snowflake, AZ

Thank you for standing up for everyone's rights to get the real stories.

—Jessica, New York, NY

Hang in there. Not all cops are bad.

—David, BONNE TERRE, MO

I am a firm believer in freedom of the Press. I find the attitude of trying to hide or suppress the news very frightening. I have a great admiration for the brave Journalist who uphold the truth.

—Christeen, St Paul, MN

Your courage is the inspiration for my support of the freedom of the press that is under attack in this so-called "Land of The Free". If you cannot freely exercise your right to report then we ALL will become slaves. Thank you all !

—Robert, Orrtanna, PA

When journalists are arrested, and barred from covering events, something is very wrong. Please stand strong and investigate until you find out the truth.

—Virginia, Union city, CA denying freedom to speak anywhere threatens freedom to speak everywhere

—Nancy, San clemente, CA

Keep telling the truth; we all need it!

—Elizabeth, Potter Valley, CA

Freedom of the press is one of the foundations of our free society. Without it, we don't deserve to call ourselves free people. I stand with journalists in their efforts to bring the reality of the world to the masses. Thank you for standing up for my right to call myself a free American. Your sacrifice and hard work does not go unnoticed or unappreciated in this household.

—Jason, Bothell, WA

Press freedom has been diminishing at an alarming rate in the modern security state. How can we pretend to stand for freedom if this is how we act?

—Catherine, Santa Monica, CA

FREEDOM FIRST

—David, Highlands Ranch, CO

Free speech and free press are one of the cornerstones of a real democracy. Thank you for standing up for these rights by exercising them!

—William, San Diego, CA

The first act of tyrants is to suppress the truth from being shared. They do it with censorship, and they do it by abusing the press. STOP IT!

—Carol, Placerville, CA

Thank you for being on the front lines reporting the news in our supposedly democratic country!

—Joan, City, IL

We stand with you!

—Robert, Homewood, IL

What is happening in this country? Freedom of the press is vital to our democracy.

—Brenda, Burnsville, MN

Good job.

—Joe, Alamosa, CO

Please don't allow the arrests to stop you from bringing the truth to American citizens!

—Jerry, Jackson, FL

We honor your courage and resilience. We count on you to provide necessary information to function responsibly.

Know we are standing with you.

—Donna, Minneapolis, MN

We need the actual facts and truthful unbiased reporting of important events in this country and around the globe, so

I thank you for your dedication and courage in doing the important work required to allow us to understand the pivotal events unfolding around us.

—Clyde, Everett, WA

The whole world is watching the tactics of the plutocrats and oligarchs!

—James, Eugene, OR

I know it is your butt on the line to preserve what is left of our constitution so I just want to say thank you.

—Robert, University Park, PA

It appears more and more like we will have to declare ourselves independent of this oligarchy! The country has not run out of revolutionaries, and abusive repression will create many more of them!

—James, Springfield, MO

WE ARE FAST BECOMING A FASCIST-LEANING SOCIETY, DUE TO THE DISPROPORTIONATE POWER AND INFLUENCE OF THE UNHOLY ALLIANCE OF THE RADICAL RIGHT-WING EXTREMISTS AND THEIR CORPORATE BACKERS. IF WE DON'T BEGIN TO FIGHT BACK IN ERNEST NOW, WE WILL BE WELL ON OUR WAY TO ABSOLUTE RULE BY AN OBSCENELY RICH OLIGARCHY! ARRESTING LEGITIMATE JOURNALISTS TRYING TO REPORT THE NEWS IS AN EXTREMELY DISTURBING EVENT DESIGNED TO SILENCE OPPOSITION AND FURTHER THE ABOVE AGENDA , AND THIS EGREGIOUS VIOLATION OF THE NOTION OF A FREE PRESS MUST BE STOPPED!

—Monica and Hugo, Santa Fe, NM

As a college student and aspiring journalist, I find it incredibly frightening that our rights are being infringed in such a way. Just goes to show that words, when it comes down to it, are the most powerful tools we have.

—Gabriel, Arden, NC

United, we stand. I admire your courage. We are behind you. The sky is still blue. Take care,

—Li, Tucson, AZ

Art Felsing

—Art, Tempe, AZ

We need real NEWS not Infotainment! Why do I have to watch BBC World, Al Jazeera & Newline(Japan News) to find out what's happening in USA?

—Dorothy, Upland, CA

Since our politicians cannot follow the CONSTITUTION, they must be ABOLISHED!

—Patrick, Santa Fe, NM

Stand proud and know that you've done nothing wrong. To be certain, these are dark days in our history - but so long as We, The People don't allow it to happen - the light of liberty and freedom will continue to burn, and grow ever brighter throughout the Land. We, The People, need the unbiased information provided by reporters (professional or otherwise) so that We, The People can watch the watchers. Nothing less is acceptable.

—David, Highland Park, IL

Thomas Jefferson would stand with you if he were alive today.

—Victoria, San Francisco, CA

Where are the Tea Party members on this issue of a constitutionally guaranteed free press ???

—Wayne, Smithtown, NY

The First Amendment trumps any Congressman's misguided orders, any political ideology.

—Jack, Stanwood, WA

You are fighting for all of we working people. I am grateful, and will continue doing what I can to help.

—Presly, Starks, LA

Please don't ever stop speaking Truth to Power. You speak for all of us!

—Robb, Portland, OR

We're with you...

—Linda, Los Alamos, NM

there cannot be a free society without a free press.

—Walter, Hazel Hurst, PA

Stay strong. We need you now, more than ever.

—Robert, Galesburg, MI

Keep up the good work and remember your efforts aren't going unnoticed.

—Todd, Clawson, MI

Freedom of the press is in enough jeopardy. Let even the most marginal of them go!!

—Michael, Warren, MI

Thank you for doing your jobs under difficult circumstances. Please keep up the good work. We need you to keep telling the truth - for the sake of all of us.

—Michael, New York, NY

You are in the right and we are with you!

—Barbara, Long Beach, CA

We are so aware of the dangers that face us because people speak out! Those in power do not understand freedom of the Press it seems! Hang in there for those of us who can no longer protest or march. We sign petitions and keep you in our thoughts always. Fran

—Frances, Kalamazoo, MI

The world needs your voice.

—Richard, Cherry Valley, IL

We must continue to speak truth to power. This can only be accomplished with a free and unfettered press. Thanks for your sacrifice and know the people are with you. Keep the faith.

—Jeffery, Avon Lake, OH

Photography is not a crime. Hiding the public's business from the public's view is.

—Greg, Bluffton, SC

Maybe we should all start referring to our county as New China? Shocking, especially with the current administration in place (sounds like something Shrub Jr. or Nixon would have allowed/encouraged). Keep up the good job and fight, we'll have your back!

—Thomas, Coeur D Alene, ID

Thank you for your service! Best wishes!

—Judy, Jemez Pueblo, NM

You give me hope for America and the 99%.

—John, Washburn, WI

As a believer in the true meaning of the First Amendment, I deplore this attack on press freedom.

—Roger, Berkeley, CA

We need a free press!

—Gary, Moorhead, MN

Thank you for keeping the 1st Amendment alive. Without it, there is no democracy.

—Lazy, Ulster Park, NY

This is NOT 1984. We are fighting for your right to free speech. You are the Fourth Estate and essential to a democracy.

—Erna, Norwich, CT

I join for freedom of expression!

—William, Suffern, NY

We are as free as our press.

—Barbara, La Verne, CA

I applaud your bravery & strength. In these days of corporate controlled media, you stand out like a light in the darkness that surrounds us. Please continue your work in defense of our First Amendment. Thank you.

—Patricia, Rio Rancho, NM

I will continue to stand up for you and do whatever I can to get your story told.

—Antoinette, Blue Lake, CA

Hang in there everyone! We'll keep screaming for you - and shining the light on this B.S.!

—Karen, Fremont, CA

God. Bless you .you are the salt of the earth.

—William, Chicago, IL

Thank the Heavens there are Journalists who are dedicated enough to go this far to bring us the truth and to stand up for what is right!

—Terry, Bloomington, IN

Thanks for going where real stories are, we are fighting for your freedom, like you fight for ours.

—Steven, Yreka, CA

Hang in there! We need the truth if we are to act responsibly

—Lenora, Tucson, AZ

Thank you for the risks you take. If only we could get the truth to the masses.

—Donna, Rogers, AR

Let us all recall and vote out, any politician that stands in the way of a free press

—Charles, Milwaukee, WI

Sounds like a "third world country" now, doesn't it? Congrats on the cops and state governments that send the cops out to arrest journalists and protesters. You're doing a bang up job to make America the newest totalitarian nation.

Alex Cielo

—Alex, Hartford, CT

thanks for taking the hit, you took a bullet for every normal american in these proto-fascist times

—Wyatt, Birmingham, MI

A Free Press is essential to a free democracy. No Free Press ; no democracy. The press is the accountability force representing right and wrong.

—John, ORANGE, CA

Journalism must get tough and do the actual on-the-ground reporting. Honest information is necessary to maintain freedom. America must not tolerate intimidation of the press.

—Frederick, Stanardsville, VA

Freedom of the press is sacred

—Harold, Scottsdale, AZ

Hold tight, help is on the way because you are in the right, protecting our right to know about the Occupy movement!

—Deborah & James, Tucson, AZ

Thank you trying to protect Americans from evil Republicans.

—James, Boynton Beach, FL

Thanks to the jailed journalists, the world knows more about the Occupy movement. They've proven their dedication to the craft by covering the news, despite the danger of being roughed-up by goons and facing arrest. They're heroes for carrying out the mission of informing the public and protecting our First Amendment rights of freedom of expression.

—Lawrence, Delta Jct., AK

All Americans need to stand by our journalists to support our most important amendment to our Constitution.

—Deborah, Superior, MT

Keep Standing. You are not alone. We are here, too and thank you for being truthful.

—Karym, Miami, FL

America claims to cherish freedom. Freedom of the press is like the canary in the mine. If the freedom of the press dies, the rest of our freedoms are not far behind.

—John, Rochester, NY

No one has been killed with words for the truth to be known.

—Diana, Redondo beach, CA

This is a very important issue. Arresting journalists for covering an event is NOT correct. Laretta Eggers

—Laretta, Iowa city, IA

Many police departments have official policies barring police from preventing journalists from covering protests and police actions, but officers are allowed to violate these policies with impunity. Some police chiefs and police commissioners need to be removed, starting with "Racist Ray" Kelly in NYC!

—Michael, Van Nuys, CA

This is not supposed to be a totalitarian government. We are not Nazis. We are not Communists. We are constitutionally free, and until a court determines that certain information is a narrowly-interpreted safety hazard to the country, every piece of news must be open to public scrutiny. The police work for the citizens.

—Vicki, Shoreline, WA

This begins to sound as though the Alien and Sedition Acts have been revived. And we know how well that served the political party that pushed those acts the first time.

—Thomas, Staten Island, NY

The occupy movement has threatened the oligarch's, who give the marching orders to the police! The police are out of control when they begin arresting journalists! I fear for freedom, as I watch it disappear, a bit at a time. I hope that all journalists who have been arrested, sue the police, and the cities and officials who pay them, and come away with the largest settlements possible! Thank you all for the work you do to protect the rights of all citizens.

—Joseph, Clearlake, CA

In America? Really?

—William, RPV, CA

Honest journalism has never been more needed in this country. Thank you for helping to uphold democracy and please don't back down.

—Erin, Albuquerque, NM

Our freedom rests with the FEW of you who still have the courage to tell the truth. I salute you.

—Kathleen, Stevenson Ranch, CA

Who gave our government the authority to void our Constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech and the press?

—Lewis, Asheville, NC

As Americans, we earned the right for journalistic freedom with the First Amendment. It should be a concern of every American that news coverage from opinionated and distorted sources like Murdoch's News Corp. are flourishing while other journalistic rights are deprived. I feel individuals flourish and make sound decision with all the facts not with ignorance and distortion.

—Debbie, Monroeville, NJ

I commend those brave journalists who put their bodies on the line to do their job. Many have been arrested, beaten, tasered, and pepper sprayed in direct violation of the constitution.

—John, Modesto, CA

What law enforcement authorities are doing in arresting reporters covering such rallies as an Occupy protest or a CPAC gathering is a blatant violation of the Freedom of the Press clause of the 1st Amendment. I hope that part of the US Constitution strongly and firmly prevails.

—B, Albuquerque, NM

If this is something we fight for in distant places it is of no less importance here in America. There is no issue more important to our welfare as a country.

—Jerome, Encinitas, CA

Keep up the GOOD work!...Truth is always the victor!!!

—Annie, Leland, MI

Let these people go. Let them speak. It doesn't really matter what they say, the press has been purchased by the 1% and they'll only print what they want every to read anyway!

—VGail, Alamosa, CO

Thank you so much for your courage! Someone has to have it and I won't let up on our government until they stop oppressing journalists!

—Carol, Winthrop, MA

Stand strong against the creeping insanity of our system of 'justice'!

—Bob, Harbor Springs, MI

Thank You for standing up for Freedom of the Press! You're a great example.

—Brian, Trout Creek, MT

I can't believe this happened in our country. Thank you for standing up for our First Amendment rights.

—Milly, Daly City, CA

Thanks

—William, Chico, CA

Hang in there!! You are our last barrier against the corporate monster!!

—Alec & Sandy, Mount Vernon, WA

Thank you for your courage in the face of repression.

—Harvey, West Hartford, CT

You stand for the freedom of us all. WE ARE WITH YOU.

—Sasha, Portland, OR

Greetings Citizens. It is great that you have taken the extra initiative to become journalists of integrity and taken a stand. I only hope that your exposure to the criminal justice system will not deter you from your noble efforts. While I stand by the rule of law, I do not abide unjust laws. I hope that through your entrance to the criminal justice system, that you are continuing to maintain perspective, take plenty of notes, and understand not only your current undesirable place, but your overall place in history. I hope to one day take note of your names, as we do Rosa Parks, Harriet Tubman, and Jim Crow. No citizen should be treated in such ways, and for unjust reasons. As you are there in your confinement, know that we stand beside you in the struggle for equality, justice, and true freedom. As long as you are there supporting us, I and my friends, neighbors, and family will speak of you and support you in all the ways we can. Be strong. We are with you.

—Jeremy, Juneau, AK

I find this beyond shocking. In the news we hear about other countries where this happens to journalists; these are places where the people have no freedom of speech. We are hearing terrible things in the news now. People demonstrating and Journalists are risking their lives for the goal of freedom of speech. With the arrests of more than 50 journalists America is heading in an extremely dangerous direction.

—Lydia, Cambridge, MA

It is a sad day when the very Constitutional rights our country was founded on get trampled. Kudos to you and know there are many of us who still believe in the Freedoms we are guaranteed under the Constitution!

—Melissa, Maryland Heights, MO

Freedom of the press is the only thing that truly can guarantee "freedom". We need you free to continue to open windows and bring light to situations that affect the freedom and security of all the citizens of this country and the world.

—Mary, Berea, OH

Thank you for the risks you take to support our First Amendment! You are what Democracy and Freedom are about.

—Valda, Miami Beach, FL

Stay strong, and thank you for standing up for our rights.

—Jerry, Stratford, CT

Thank you for trying to perform a much needed service. Please have the courage of your convictions. The people need to have faith that they are hearing the truth, and they can only do so if those like yourselves stand up to those who would infringe on your First Amendment rights.

—John, Saco, ME

I stand with freedom of the press!

—Linda, Portland, OR

Whenever reporters are arrested for simply doing their jobs, it is a sign the government doing the arresting is afraid of the scrutiny. It is also a tactic of totalitarian and fascist regimes. We must not allow this to continue and those who have ordered these unlawful actions must themselves be arrested and brought to trial for violating the first amendment.

—J, Gill, MA

WE stand by our Free Press!

—Mary, Frankfort, KY

Attacks on the Democratic party by attacking unions and attacks on journalists prove that there is a bunch of rich guys attacking democracy and freedom in America. We must keep our journalists safe or democracy is dead in America

—Steve, Tucson, AZ

We stand behind you and applaud your efforts and courage. To be jailed for what you try to do is outrageous. You shine a light on it all and we are behind you!

—Pipper, San Francisco, CA

You are the last line of one of our last freedoms. Please don't cave.

—Sally, Quilcene, WA

Stand firm. We will have your back.

—Penelope, Albion, WA

It's time to take this country back!

—Anna, PARSIPPANY, NJ

solidarity with my brothers in arms, who gamble with their life to bring out the truth.

—Pi-Qui, New York, NY

Without information freely distributed there is no freedom or democracy. The silencing of reporters is tyranny.

—Frank, Downey, CA

we love you and you better sue those that arrested you. get a good lawyer.

—Annette, Syracuse, NY

Know that there are many, many people who support you. Thank you.

—Vicki, Lino Lakes, MN

We the people support you our eyes and ears in exercising our first amendment rights.

—James, Half Moon Bay, CA

Just as do the citizens of the "Arab Spring," we have the right to know what's going on in our country. I fear that, far too quickly and quietly, our First Amendment rights are being taken away. Stand firm. Stay true.

—Sondra, Grand Rapids, MI

Thank you for having the courage of your convictions. Your efforts do far more to safeguard our freedom than the troops deployed in Afghanistan.

—Benjamin, Kirkland, WA

We're writing to the converted. This petition should be sent to the appropriate state and federal agencies that are charged with protecting the First Amendment.

—Soretta, New York, NY

You are not forgotten

—Kosta, Boston, MA

Stay strong. You are a valued citizen activist and those are the people who can make positive change.

—Carol, Columbia, SC

Thank you for trying to tell the truth

—Crystal, San Diego, CA

When you get the attention of law enforcement without breaking the law, you know you're onto an important story.
Keep it up!

—Christopher, Alameda, CA

An aggressive, free press is our best bulwark against tyranny. Keep up the good work. We need you!

—Marick, Truth or Consequences, NM

Take courage. The Constitution of the United States is on your side!

—Philip, Little Rock, AR

Thank you for doing your job in spite of corporate suppression as meted out by the blackwater inspired police..I hope to aspire to your level of morality and courage.

—Kevin, Oxnard, CA

We're are only as free as our press. I appreciate the efforts to cover this news on our streets. Be well, Dean

—Dean, Mankato, MN

Thank you for believing as our Founding Fathers and Mothers did in the need for an unfettered press. God bless.

—Anne, LaGrangeville, NY

I thought journalists were extinct, but I guess it's only viable venues that died out.

—John, Quinebaug, CT

Thank you for presenting, protecting our rights to freedom of expression amidst the "reign of freedom of oppression"

—Mary, Belfast, ME

It's a slippery slope to tyranny when journalists are arrested for doing their jobs.

—Victor, Salt lake city, UT

This is the good fight - it is the foundation of our democracy!

—Sami, Denver, CO

My father was a news-soundman and an editor. He worked for Ed Murrow. I have worked for several newspapers. Journalists' jobs are to cover the news so we in the public know someone is watching the store. leaving the police or government to watch it is not what our founders guaranteed.

—Marcia, Fairfield, CT

Thank you for putting yourselves on the line to defend our freedoms.

—Dawn, Howard Beach, NY

Information available to the public is the necessary power for a proper functioning government that intends to promote the common good!

—Steve, Sturgeon Bay, WI

hang in you are our life line.

—Sophie, Westport, CT

Thank you for doing this difficult but essential job.

—Amy, Portland, OR

eeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee

—Richard, North Port, FL

Thank you for your courage and persistence in keeping us informed and protecting the citizens right to free speech.

—Celia, Phoenix, AZ

We believe in your cause.

—Carey, Camdenton, MO

Keep reporting and spread the news widely.

—Jennifer, Annapolis, MD

Thanks for all you do!

—Edward, Oberlin, OH

Without journalists free to tell the truth, we are all at risk of tyrannical, despotic abuses by the authorities.

—MC, Carlsbad, CA

Thank you for your convictions and dedicated to truth, justice, and freedom! Sad and dismaying to see that such things as your arrest can happen in America. Such is the will of the neo-Republican-corporate machine. Ron Russell

—Ron, Pacific Grove, CA

Thank you for your service to all of us in reporting OWS. You are protecting me better than any military ever could.

—Carol, Anaheim, CA

William Wallace said it best: Aye, fight and you may die. Run, and you'll live... at least a while. And dying in your beds, many years from now, would you be willing to trade ALL the days, from this day to that, for one chance, just one chance, to come back here and tell our enemies that they may take our lives, but they'll never take... OUR FREEDOM!

—Levi, Colorado springs, CO

Thanks for doing all you do to help ensure that our democracy survives.

—Billl, Cedar rapids, IA

I hope that you can continue your work as a journalist soon. Free press is important to all of us. Thank you!

—Priscilla, Alliance, OH

Thank you for putting yourselves on the line for our rights.

—Zandra, Spokane, WA

Stay strong and defend our freedoms!

—Justin, Brownstown, MI

You're not alone - this is an assault on all of us.

—Evan, Ventnor, NJ

Keep observing, keep writing, keep recording, keep filming!

—Asauti, Portland, OR

Freedom can never be measured, it needs a reference point from loosing it. Censorship and privatization of our public utilities, is that reference point.

—Gregg, Maplewood, MN

Courtney Davis

—Courtney, Stillwater, OK

Thank you for being on the side of the people and for putting yourself at risk on our behalf. You are a beacon of hope in this crazy world. Sincerely, Mary Kerasavich

—Mary, Chadds Ford, PA

The job you are doing is so very important. Please know that you have the support of your readers as you go through this trying time.

—Marlyn, Arroyo Grande, CA

Thank you for standing up for all our rights to hear the news as "news", not some political agenda of understanding.

—Jim, Lyona, NY

Please, this is the United States of America. We do not suppress our journalists.

—Rachel, Divide, CO

Keep fighting for the principles of the Constitution.

—Mary, Salem, OR

Thanks for all the work you do to tell the stories no one else is, and for putting your safety at risk to do it. I stand with you and I stand for a stronger First Amendment in America.

—Joshua, Easthampton, MA

You are the true heros of freedom.

—Darius, Ausitn, TX

I join for true freedom on Journalism!

—William, Suffern, NY

Thank you for having the courage to speak truth to power. You are heroes. Stay strong!

—Donna, Manassas, VA

It seems like those that are sworn to serve and protect are being tasked to silence and censor those that are just trying to reveal the Cccupy activities to the rest of the world. I see no wrong in Occupy's goals, and it is a shame that the police are part of the repressive effort to stifle their purpose, rather than allowing them to demonstrate and be covered by journalists.

—Jason, City, CA

So sorry you got arrested for doing your job. Don't give up and please continue reporting the truth!

—Dede, East hampton, CT

Thank you for being where I can't be, and doing what I would do! Bless you all!

—Elizabeth, Delray Beach, FL

Stand fast, and we will stand with you!

—William, Rio Rancho, NM

We will fight to the end for the freedom of truth and speech for you!

—AJ, Las Vegas, NV

We stand with you! Keep strong!

—Lydia, Madison, WI

We are becoming Syria or China. Where do we live?

—H, Akron, OH

We must stand strong and protest to keep our 1st amendment rights. Thanks for staying on the front line. Report "just the facts" clearly and honestly.

—Alyss, Richmond, CA

Thanks for trying to get the Truth out...Stay strong! We are in this together. We will break the ILLUSION that Our government of the usa has us in. They can't jail us all.. Solidarity

—Sandy, Moab, UT

Hang in there!

—Clifford, Conklin, NY

Freedom of the press is one of the most vital freedoms we have and without it evil or malfeasance will never come to light.

—Darlene, Tucson, AZ

Perhaps we should all memorize Thomas Jefferson's famous comparison of the relative values of free government and a free and unfettered press.

—Ronald, Riverside, IL

Thank You! We Need Your Voice and film making ~ there is So Much Being Hidden. We Are With You.

—Cynthia, Kendall, WI

WHERE HAVE OUR FREEDOMS GONE? Do not take away the freedom of speech!

—Judith, Clearwater, FL

This is exactly why the First Amendment came first!

—Samuel, Virginia Beach, VA

Stay strong. Stay on the job. Your work is important to us. Thanks for all you do.

—Joe, Overland Park, KS

Dear journalists: stand strong. Your actions are not going unnoticed. Because of you, our constitutional rights are being played out for all to see. I and a multitude of others out here support you and your cause. Stay strong.

—Jeff, Murfreesboro, TN

You all have my support in this travesty of justice.

—Ethel, W. Palm Beach, FL

Stand Strong. I cannot believe this is happening in this country. The Home of the Free and the Brave.

—Sandra, New York, NY

Don't ever give up!

—Regina, Palo alto, CA

We are with you! The police have violated your right to free speech, & we will not let it go!

—Frank & Lee, Roswell, NM

Thanks for doing what you do! We need more journalist willing to do what you do to keep me, Joe uninformed America of the real reality of what is going on. Thank You very much.

—Bruce, McKinleyville, CA

Have faith, it will get better.

—MaryEvelyn, Boise, ID

Thank you for doing what you do. You have my support and appreciation

—Susan, San francisco, CA

Thank you for covering the news. I think it is an injustice to everyone when news is censored by the police, or the elite powers to be. Thank you for standing up for the right to free speech.

—John, Holland, MI

We hear you!

—Tom, Vadnais Heights, MN

An important quote from Thomas Jefferson: "If it were left to me to choose between government without newspapers or newspapers without a government, I would not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter"

—Linda, Littleton, CO

As a member of the DAR I wholeheartedly support the 1st amendment, as well as our other freedoms. We better look out as these rights are slowly being eroded.

—Mary, Chicago, IL

Thank you for your courage!

—Marna, Amity, OR

I demand a press that isn't owned by big business.

—Elizabeth, New York, NY

If they win, we lose. Thanks for what you are doing.

—Mike, Deerfield, IL

This is critical. Get the politicians that are not supporting you!!

—David, Wmbg, VA

It is appalling to learn of your arrests. May you feel the support, strength & courage of Americans across this great nation who stand behind you. Our First Amendment rights are so vital to all that our country stands for, or ought to!

—Rebeca, Rochester, NY

Stay strong.

—Robert, Gig Harbor, WA

I appreciate what you are doing for us!

—Vance, Winchester, VA

When free speech is aggressively quieted, there is almost always something bad being covered up.

—Eric, West Chicago, IL

I honor your commitment to get the true storey, sometimes at the cost of personal freedom. May we all align ourselves with the Universal Spirit so that we may, as a planet, enjoy true health and love.

—Ann, Gig Harbor, WA

The World is watching.

—Anne, Hobe Sound, FL

Stand strong - we need you to tell the truth for all of us!

—Jeri, Clearwater, FL

We stand with you and the First Amendment against those, using the government enforcement apparatus, who would suppress those freedoms in the interest of "national security," which is a code word for fascist repression of free speech. Those who do this knowingly and willfully are violating the Constitution. In a free society, we must resist repression of our liberties by those whose ideology is less than democratic.

—Robert, Tarzana, CA

Be strong, keep the faith; there are better days ahead; keep fighting the GOOD FIGHT! Freedom of press is a guarantee, sue to uphold this basic of our laws. Tom

—Thomas, Silverthorne, CO

To Josh and the others. Stay strong, keep fighting for justice and freedom.

—Alan, Brattleboro, VT

Stay golden, Pony Boy. Stay golden.

—Tony, Portland, ME

Keep up the good work. Support FREE SPEECH.

—Alice, Princeton, NJ

Attempting to strangle citizens' right of free speech and right to write about questionable government procedures always precedes some faction's attempt to install tyranny.

—C, Pasadena, CA

This is very scary...I applaud each of you and stand with you. The direction of this country is alarming! Keep up your valuable work.

—Karen, Huntington Beach, CA

This is an outrage. Are we no longer "the home of the free and the brave"?

—Chandra, Ashland, OR

Thank you for standing up for the freedom of all of us.

—Les, Tempe, AZ

Good for you--standing up for what you believe. This incident could be part of the book you write.

—Martha, Rome, PA

I KNOW YOU ARE DOING YOUR BEST TO SAVE OUR DEMOCRACY! SO AM I! WE MUST CONTINUE TO TRY!!!

—Natalie, Carlsbad, CA

Please stand strong and know that We, The People stand with you. The fourth estate is the key to democracy.

Without it we surely fall.

—Audrey, Upland, CA

I am a writer by both inclination and trade and do not approve of censorship of any kind speech. Since 9/11 this country's citizens have approved of our elected officials whittling away at our freedoms, passing the Patriot (or unpatriotic) Act giving too much authority to undiscerning officials. Beating the terrorist "fear" drum has caused our citizen's to think that by giving up our rights to privacy and free speech it will keep us safe. But the greater evil is not having those hard won rights. I sincerely hope the people of this great nation wake up before we become a third world dictatorship where the leaders attempt to censor our very thoughts. .

—G, Prescott, AZ

Your courage and commitment to truth are the best hope we have as a society. Thank you, and stay strong.

—L, Minnetonka, MN

Contact the ACLU. Your rights to Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press have been violated!

—David, Everett, WA

Continue to tell the truth. It is your duty as a journalist to tell all sides of the story and not shy away from the difficult. It is our duty as a society to listen and see with clarity the sometimes difficult stories. Thank you for your courage.

—Jennifer, Denver, CO

The public needs to know what the protesters stand for, and the journalists are our source for that knowledge.

Please support our efforts to keep this an open society.

—Abram, Charlottesville, VA

I'M PROUD OF YOU FOR STICKING TO YOUR GUNS!

—Corinne, White Bear Lake, MN

Right about now, you're feeling pretty alone. You've spent your freedom attempting to document free speech in the U.S.--and what you've learned is there isn't much. And not many people who care. But your experience can become the next news story. And the story won't be over in the time it takes a camera to click or a remote control to switch the channel.

—Peter, Seattle, WA

Please keep doing what you're doing. You, like our soldiers are the ones who keep our democracy in tact. I know it, as many others do. You make sacrifices to give us the facts. I'm ever grateful.

—Elizabeth, Los Angeles, CA

As a student photojournalist, I stand with you to ensure the future of the first amendment for myself and journalist after us.

—Paul, Fresno, CA

Thanks for the work you're doing for democracy!

—Katleen, Maple Valley, WA

For years I have cried (yes, literally) for the myriad freedoms that we have lost, but when our independent press loses its right to report, to write, and to photograph, my 79 year old self recognizes just how few freedoms are left. To lose the First Amendment freedom of the press. we are so much further into becoming a third world country. God Bless you all, and while I am still alive, I will support your rights.

—Shirley, Fort Wayne, IN

We have your back.

—Toni, Vestal, NY

Keep striving for the rights of all of us!

—Bruce, Centerville, MA

Please continue your efforts to shine light on what is happening in this country. It is ironic that your attempts to cover these events and your subsequent arrests have become part of the dialogue, but I hope your sacrifice will highlight exactly how blatant is the disregard for the First Amendment.

—Josephine, Danville, CA

Thank you for doing your job. You do more to preserve freedom than anyone else.

—Aaron, Northfield, MA

The muzzling, arresting and prosecution of journalists has become endemic and it goes all the way to the top with prosecutions coming from the administration of Barak "Open Government" Obama. It needs to stop!

—Steve, Boulder, CO

These are dictatorship tactics. We must continue to stand for freedom of the press and speech or lose them.

—LuMarion, Flagstaff, AZ

Your ability to report the real news in our country, without censorship or interference, is crucial to everyone's freedom. We are appalled at recent arrests of, and physical assaults on, journalists!

—Patricia, Ashburnham, MA

You are our Frontline Representatives of First Amendment rights. Attacks on you are attacks on everyone. We are behind you. Go get them.

—Nancy, Deer Park, TX

We stand with you. Thank you for your courageous actions.

—Laurel, Montclair, NJ

Thank you for keeping free speech alive!

—Scott, South Miami, FL

Journalists are not the enemy; they stand for freedom for all of us.

—Marie, Commack, NY

Journalistic freedom is the foremost concern to all patriots who value american liberty.

—Anthony, Festus, MO

Hang in there. We are behind you.

—Mary, San Pedro, CA

I support your efforts and will continue doing so. Thank you for the work you do and the sacrifices you have made for the greater good.

—Nancy, Sedona, AZ

Keep the faith

—Ross, Los gayos, CA

Thank you, keep us informed.

—David, Sachse, TX

I am proud of you brave journalists who put yourselves in harm's way to report the truth! Stand strong, we're with you.

—Richard, Concord, CA

When our liberties are threatened, it's the responsibility of every American to stand up in defense of them. Thank you for doing your part.

—Jordan, Converse, TX

My Grandfathers, Uncles, Dad, Brothers, Nephews and grandchildren have fought and died for the Freedoms of the USA -- including the First Amendment rights of journalists! You cannot take them away.

—Kathy, Milwaukie, OR

Those who tell the story deserve our support.

—Daniel, Detroit, MI

When did this become 1940 Germany?! Did I miss a meeting?! Facism is defined as a state wherein big business and big government become one...we are dangerously close to that state of affairs now, and we move closer to it every time a journalist is arrested. Freedom of the press is one of the most important cornerstones of this country, and it MUST be upheld, not curtailed!

—Rich, Rio Dell, CA

Don't let Fox (Faux) News be the new normal. We depend on you to get the real news out. You are our freedom.

—Yvette, Denver, CO

i stand with you !

—Laura, N.richland hills, TX

Please continue to fight to cover this important story. The general public will never learn the truth otherwise.

Thanks!

—Jennifer, Tucson, AZ

Please stand up for our 1st Amendment rights, do the right thing, and preserve democracy!

—Scott, Palm Springs, CA

Thank you for standing strong and bringing us the truth as you see it. Long live our First Amendment rights.

—Mouna, Ashland, OR

Our international rating for freedom of the press has plummeted. Why are we destroying the foundations of our own republic?

—Janet, La Jolla, CA

Thank you for all that you do. Please keep fighting to bring out the story in every case where the government is attempting to cover it up.

—Diane, Santa Monica, CA

I remember: the First Amendment is part of the U.S. Constitution.

—Kevin, St. Charles, IL

Police personnel appear to be more or less a private force for the benefit of the corporate sector. Let's stop that now.

—Greg, Lawrence, KS

I am convinced that the truth, like cream in fresh milk, will rise to the top and expose those who fearfully try to suppress you.

—Tom, Streator, IL

We support you 100% and will continue to do all we can to assist in this effort. Protecting the free press is a critical task.

—Shelly, Fair Oaks, CA

We have your backs. And, we will fight hard against those who try to stop you,----- the police, the local governments, the state governments, and the federal government. You and we are protected by the first amendment.

RDLeonard

—Richard, New York, NY

I know it's easy for me to say, but keep doing what you're doing.

—David, Ansonia, CT

We need you more than ever.

—John, Austin, TX

Sorry to say but this IS NOT AMERICA!

—Scott, San Luis Obispo, CA

If enough of us stand together, then we become a small army. A force to be reckoned with that cannot be denied.

—Helen, Arlington, TX

You have the support of so many who admire you for your courage to report the truth. You also have my undying gratitude for your brave actions towards a government that is becoming more fascist by the day. Thank you for fighting this fight and helping to protect the truth. God bless you all.

—Sue, Arnold, MO

Free the Press! You are our ears and eyes. Keep up the good work, and please don't give up!!

—Mary, Minneapolis, MN

We stand with you in North Dakota

—Rob, Killdeer, ND

Thank you for all you do. You are brave and courageous patriots.

—Veronica, Camas, WA

As a lawyer, we will not forget and will keep fighting too.

—Dianne, Phoenix, AZ

Freedom of Press - the journalists didn't break laws that you are arresting wrong people.

—Lisa, Honolulu, HI

For the GOP to promote freedom from government control and then do this is incredible. I hope this stays in the news to let citizens know the blatant hypocrisy of the republican party.

—Evans, Covelo, CA

This is so wrong and so sad.

—Eleanor, Lakewood, NJ

Thank you for doing your best to maintain the "Fourth Estate" against the corporate/political interests that will destroy our ability to obtain objective information.

—Karen, Downers Grove, IL

We very much appreciate what you're doing. Without freedom of the press, there is NO freedom! Sincerely, Dennis Fogarty

—Dennis, Columbus, OH

The whole world is watching!

—Shelley, Eugene, OR

It is very clear to me with the attack on journalists (especially those covering OWS) , the blatant manipulation of voting, the consolidation of ownership of mass media, the mass invasion of privacy via monitoring of EVERYONE'S phone calls, the indefinite detention without charges of US citizens and more that we are on the verge of the total destruction of democracy in america by the actual hidden(so they think) corporatist fascist government of the US.

—Charles, City, HI

Leaves a foul taste in my mouth! Bet not one was from Fox who practice the art of lying daily. Our Freedoms Our Liberty is looking more and more like nothing but Lip Service ???

—Monty, Seaside, CA

Reporting the ugly things, the things that politicians would prefer were swept under the rug is the only thing that protects our freedom from the group of people in the best position to take it from us.

—Charles, Columbia, SC

As an old reporter I(Mnpls Star-Tribune, 1950s) I commend your stand for the 1st amendment--the guarantor of freedom. Sincerely, Richard (Deke) Ulian author, "A Sailor's Notebook"

—Richard, Mashpee, MA

Thank you -- you are the true patriots.

—Charles, Boxford, MA

Democracy can not prevail without your work. A Thank you for your service is extended to you as well as our vets.

—Donald, Chelan, WA

Thank you for fighting so courageously and honorably to bring us the real story from the occupy front. We're listening and are with you.

—Amy, Portland, OR

Thank you for your courage, journalists. Your readers stand strongly with you!

—Louise, New York, NY

Keep doing what you do- justice will prevail. The world appreciates your work and your efforts- and we deserve to know the truth in news and you deserve the ability to perform your profession. If they dampen your soul, they win. Journalists are the heart and soul of news. They cannot win.

—Diana, WYLIE, TX

Are we now No. One in the demise of democracy?

—Anne, Golden, CO

Have we suddenly become Nazi Germany!?? How have we come to a place in our history where a police state has been organized to silence it's critics through arrest and violence?? Our FIRST right is the right to free speech, guaranteed by our forefathers. These police actions are NOT the actions taken in a free society.

—Larry, East Troy, WI

Infringing on your rights diminishes all of us.

—Jill, Asheville, NC

Thank you for your courageous service.

—Jan, North Bend, OR

I wish we could all do something to stop this harassment of your profession. Sadly, we are all losing our rights to the extreme right!

—Kay, Salina, KS

Everyone has a right to freedom of speech!

—R, Macksburg, OH

I stand with you and fully support your gathering of events. It is about our nation's freedom and I stand strong in support of our founding farthers foresight on this matter

—Milton, Warren, MI

Thank you for your dedication. These arrests make me feel ill about the state of our country. You can be sure that almost all Americans are behind you and will defend you.

—Martha, Bellingham, WA

We are losing more of our constitutional freedoms each day! Wake up America!

—Jim, Waxahachie, TX

Since when is this Soviet Russia?????

—Shelley, Arlington, VA

Arresting journalists is a major step in destroying the US Constitution and Democracy in America. It is a disgraceful disregard to our First Amendment rights.

—Ann, Darby, PA

Courage! You are indispensable!

—David, Idlewylde, MD

Please keep fighting the good fight!! Thanks for what you are doing.

—Amy, Spring Hill, KS

The press stands in the first line of defense of American freedom. What justification can be offered for the detention of these journalist?

—James, Onalaska, WI

If we are going to represent the free world, we need to set an example. It time to take our freedom back. Linda Walton

—Linda, Fremont, CA

Thank you for attempting to cover these issues. I have been concerned for years with journalism having gotten away from reporting. Now those that do report are being arrested. Disgraceful and dangerous. Stand strong <3

—Valerie, Ridgecrest, CA

we've got your back

—Deborah, Bellevue, KY

I will spread the word to any and all a who will hear it. Thank you for your commitment. You do not stand alone.

—Donald, APO, AE

Without a free Press, there will soon be no freedom at all.

—Arthur, Capistrano Beach, CA

There is no counterbalance with out a free press.

—Gregory, Marlborough, MA

KEEP FIGHTING! Ronald R. Davis

—Ron, Pompano Beach, FL

Finding and telling the truth of events is a truly virtuous career, and the fearfulness of the powerful is testimony to that virtue.

—Stephen, Redlands, CA be strong!

—Michael, Keene, NH

Support free speech and free press! Thank you for your sacrifice!

—Julie, Golden, CO

Hang in there guys and gals. Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press are 2 fundamental rights guaranteed to us by our founding fathers. Without a Free Press our government can and will get too big for it's britches and overstep it's authority. We need the checks and balances that this provides.

—Michael, Topeka, KS

We are with you! They can't silence us all, and the truth will be heard.

—Angela, Snohomish, WA

Keep up the fight for truth and freedom, Americans count on you to do your work unfettered from police or any part of government. We Americans know government has a big part in serving us in so many ways, but taking away freedom from us is not one of them. So I and millions of others want you to know we support you in your work, thank you from all of us.

—Gerald, Howell, NJ

When journalists are arrested for seeking truth we no longer have a democracy, we have a police state. It is always the press, the artists, the writers, the film makers and the activists that speak truth who are the first to suffer from the iron fist of repression. No more arrests of journalists!! Protect the First amendment!

—Kathleen, Norwalk, CT

Thanks for what you do.

—Diane, Seattle, WA

Thank you for your courage to get out there and cover real news. Our democracy needs you, now more than ever!

—Stephen, Portland, OR where will this end?...been there, done that...if you forgot it will happen again...

—Mike, West newbury, MA

There are efforts in Congress to censor the internet. Arresting journalists is another way to stomp on the Right to Free Speech!!

—Sheila, Everett, WA

THANKS FOR STANDING UP FOR OUR FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND OUR RIGHTS!!

—Randy, ROCK HILL, SC

Censorship is UNAMERICAN!

—Mark, Los Angeles, CA

Apparently the only speech protected is political money and speech. Hang in there. You are on the correct side and our Constitution better protect you.

—Karen, Westerville, OH

Thank you for continuing to stand for First Amendment rights by continuing to do your job. Without free reporting we will not have a democracy.

—Carol, Martinez, CA

Dear Journalists, Please hold to your integrity. Our First Amendment rights depend on it. Thank you!

—Florence, New York City, NY

It is appalling that you were arrested for doing your job.

—Barry, Bellingham, WA

I support your right to cover all news events, including controversial political events, without fear of arrest or harassment by authorities.

—Michael, Boston, MA

Thank you for standing up for our rights...I hope every American stands up for yours!

—Mary, Arnold, MO

Oh yes we some times get mad at the Journalists, but they are the back bone of democracy. None should ever be arrested for doing there job. The Police should know this and say no to there bosses we will not arrest Americans doing there job.

—Russell, Richfield, MN

Hang in there. Your courage and love of freedom is supported by all freedom loving Americans

—Ronald, Fox Lake, IL

I admire your courage. Keep it up.

—Christine, S.F., CA

Thanks for standing up for us-the 99%.

—Jeanette, Elmira, MI

Without the Fourth Estate there is no Democracy. You are being persecuted for attempting to tell the truth about the Occupy Movement; a movement that those with a lot of money and a lot of power are trying their best to stomp out. Please remain strong and steadfast in your resolve to ensure our freedom. Thank you for all you do!

—Jim, Papillion, NE

Just BE SAFE!

—Dylan, Alturas, CA

You can't hide the truth forever. I am tierd of reading about police, arresting peaceful protesters and Journalists.This is not the America I once believed in.

—Lee, Portland, OR

Hope you get out soon and thanks for covering the events the mainstream media won't.

—Neil, Everett, WA

This is one more sad story in the erosion of our democracy. I feel my "golden years" are turning into a horror show I never thought I would have to attend in the country I have always loved and been so proud to be a part of...SHAME!

—Marlene, LA QUINTA, CA

I so appreciate your courage and honesty. Thank you for reporting the truth!!!!!!

—Catherine, Huntington, WV

This is What America is all about,FREE PRESS!!!

—Constance, Seattle, WA

Thank you all for the work you do to keep us informed in an increasingly dangerous world. You ARE appreciated.

—Heather, Middletown, CT

Thank you for standing up for freedom of the press, and for working to get the facts out to the people. We support you. You're awesome. Keep fighting!

—Jonathan, Sacramento, CA

what's happened to our "sweet land of liberty" when journalists are arrested?

—Joellen, Beverly hills, MI

The people need to be informed by a free press.

—Michael, Bloomington, IN

FREEDOM of SPEECH and REAL TRUTH in reporting is what we want. Free the journalists NOW. Revolution coming your way.

—Patti, SPRING HILL, FL

Thank you for being willing to take a stand.

—Elizabeth, Sparks, NV

This is the United States of America... not Russia or Iran.

—Mary, Burbank, CA

Keep on keeping on!

—Marta, Encino, CA

Do not be intimidated for telling the truth.

—Terri, Onyx, CA

Thank you for your courage to report the truth and to stand up for what you believe in. United we stand.

—Richard, Saugerties, NY

I support you 100%.

—Steven, FORT WORTH, TX

As citizens in a free country we have a right to see and hear all news worthy events. To ensure that right journalists must have free access and not be subject to arrest or harassment.

—Jon, Republic, WA

We need their eyes and ears!

—Mimi, St. Paul, MN

<http://www.killingthemessengerfilm.com/about.html>

—Tricia, Los angeles, CA

Thank you for the risks you take to give us unbiased information.

—Thomas, Sandy, UT

Stand tall and do not let the jack boots get you down. The people need unfettered information and not vetted pap.

—Charles, Holland, PA

Keep the faith and keep on truckin'.

—Floyd, Las Vegas, NM

If not for the Journalists there are a lot things we would not know what is going on behind our backs in all governments, Federal and State

—Helen, Mansfield, OH

As I've heard many times before, "An informed public is the cornerstone of democracy". Stand strong. We're counting on you.

—Tom, City, MO

As we lose our rights and pizza becomes a vegetable, I keep wondering when I'm going to have to sign a petition against cannibalism. I guess every few generations we have to reinvent the wheel.

—Jean, Orlando, FL

Your courage is admirable.

—Peter, San Francisco, CA

Our entire society relies on the freedom of the press. Journalists are the eyes and ears of all of us. We rely on you and support you.

—Ann, San Luis Obispo, CA

Thanks for standing for our freedoms in this country. Respectfully, Jim Daniel

—Jim, Goldendale, WA

Thank you.

—Margaret, Seattle, WA

The people have a right to know what is happening, I applaud your efforts to report the truth, and I greatly respect the sacrifice you have made to allow the truth to be available to us.

—Richard, Toronto., SD

I stand in your defense all the way.

—Becky, Nampa, ID

Even though not everything I read or hear from the news organizations is accurate (ie; Fox News), I respect theirs, and everyone's, rights to FREE SPEECH. If this is halted, we REALLY have become like most of the countries we "hate". We are fast becoming a theocracy, with no freedoms.....gee, what countries does that sound like??

—Geri, Grants Pass, OR

And we take another step into a fascist state.

—Joseph, South Hadley, MA

Thank you for doing your job!

—Kenneth, Plymouth, MI

The Occupy Movement is standing with the majority, the 99 percent, which includes police officers. Stop arresting our heroes.

—Andrea, Woodside, NY

We will not be silenced!
—Jackie, Gulf breeze, FL

Thank you for your commitment to free speech and a free press
—Sally, Hilton, NY

The Whole World is Watching !
—John, Middle island, NY

Let us keep our important freedoms to express ourselves and also to know what is being decided in our names and with our combined resources.
—N, Danville, CA

We all stand with you. We will not fail.
—Chris, Corvallis, OR

Thank you guys wish we could fight this without the cost to our freedoms or resources.I am under probation, 1st amendment ect
—Karl, Orange, CA

There are untold numbers standing for you if not with you. stay strong. you are in the right.
—Andrew, Cypress, TX

"Every time a citizen with good intentions provokes a police-state reaction from the local authorities, the angels smile and society moves one millimeter closer to salvation." - Hal Crowther
—MB, Raleigh, NC

We appreciate all you do to seek and show us the truth!
—Gerilyn, Columbus, OH

True freedom includes freedom of the press. America needs to be a shining example to the world, not a scared regime trying to repress the news of real events. Those journalists who were arrested are heroes, they are putting themselves in the way in order to get the truth out to the public.
—Kegan, Oakland, CA

Thanks for continuing to do your work even in the face of these ridiculous and unconstitutional arrests. I admire that.
—Kevin, Bethel, AK

Thank you for your efforts to keep America informed.
—Geoff, Coeur D Alene, ID

These journalists are doing significant and vital work for our country and must be allowed to continue to do their jobs.
—Stephanie, Vista, CA

Thanks for "taking one for the Team!" Hang in there, and don't give up the fight!
—Dennis, Santa Rosa, CA

Its not the Fifth Amendment right we are fighting for, its for our divine rights we have as beings in this earth. My utmost respect to you that make a difference...

—Luis, West Valley, UT

Please know how important you are to freedom in the world and to those you represent.

—Christine, Cadillac, MI

I am deeply upset to see the press being arrested covering public demonstrations.

—Randy, Oakland, CA

Stand tall for the 99% Movement! The people are with you.

—Gordon, Bremerton, WA

Thank you for your brave participation and fight to inform everyone of the truth.

—Christy, Saint George, UT

FREE PRESS!

—America, Denver, CO

If the press is in jail, democracy is dead. Case closed.

—Brian, Brooklyn, NY

Thank you for your courage! Your work is very important. You are our eye and ears. Together we are fighting for our freedom.

—Pamela, Grass Valley, CA

The press is the shield that keeps democracy safe from itself. Thank you.

—Christopher, Denver, CO

There are strong forces in the nation that want to silence dissent. Don't let them silence you.

—Kaye, Longmont, CO

"ink" is the life-blood of society, see ya on the barricades

—Anguss, City, MN

Thanks for the courage to face the challenging rebukes against you while attempting to gather and report information for the public!

—Pamela, Spring Creek, NV

You are a courageous breed, so rare in recent times, who stands for freedom of speech and truth in reporting

—Anna, Forest Hills, NY

Another attack on the real 1st amendment.

—John, Marietta, GA

Hang in there, WE THE PEOPLE need your message. Eventually the Bill of Rights will be honored, one way or the other.

—John, Cuba, MO

I am sorry that you got arrested for doing your job. It saddens me that our country has gotten to the point that it feels it can justify such actions. At what point do we turn to our "leaders" and say enough is enough, the tyranny that is the police state of the USA must stop now! Please continue practicing your First Amendment rights and ensure we stay informed!

—Joshua, Albuquerque, NM

Please know that your courage in standing for first amendment freedoms is much appreciated.

—Harry, Buffalo, NY

What this all comes down to is 3 short questions. Are we a democracy? Do we want to remain a democracy? Do we still believe in democracy? I do.

—Mary, Florence, SC

The U.S. is not a police state (yet).

—Jeff, Cedar Rapids, IA

Keep going--be relentless

—Paul, Bradford, NH

Thank you for doing what you can to make sure we all hear the truth.

—Roberta, San Francisco, CA

thank you for standing up for our right to free speech

—Mary, Taos, NM

Thank you for the bold efforts you make to keep the public informed!

—Gail, Naches, WA

Stand strong. Thousands are standing with you.

—Patricia, Renton, WA

These type of arrests MUST not continue. The offending police officers and departments must be brought to justice.

—Richard, Richmond, CA

I have no fear of the jackasses who arrested you. They are the ones who fear you. In a policestate no one can hear your demands & the Constitution is nothing but toilet paper to the politician's sugar coated crap approval of brutality. Whereas, we live by the Constitution-specifically for purpose of this arguement, the 1st Amendment-the liars, pigs, crooks, and corporate whores defecated all over it & laughed at you (the journalists), the 99%, and the very foundation of American freedom. I am not a journalist, but I know the feeling you are going through simply because of who I am & what I stand for.

—Alyson, Richardson, TX

Stay strong there are people who think that you have the right to fight for the freedom of right to know & tell.

—Rosemary, Cummington, MA

I think that it is very important for journalists to keep us informed of what is going on in our society, especially the government. Thanks for what you are doing.

—Gene, Portland, OR

The police officers who arrested you journalists should be fired and possibly tried for either assault or treason. They have acted as though the Constitution doesn't exist, as though we don't live in a Democracy. They are the real criminals. You brave journalists are true heroes. We, the People support you and stand by you 100%!

—Georgia, Novato, CA

the industrial media complex does not deliver the whole and true story. We need honest journalists who deliver true stories to the American people so that we can make our own decisions; not the decisions big media wants us to make. Do not take away our first amendment rights of free speech.

—Colleen, Poughkeepsie, NY

Standing with you in support of free speech and spreading the truth!

—Ursula, Denver, CO

Never give up - you have tremendous support from the American people - freedom of speech and of the press is not a privilege it is a right - thank you for exercising your rights.

—Denise, Hermosa Beach, CA

We depend on and honor you.

—William, New Brighton, MN

Stay strong, and keep covering the news. We can't let them bully us into silence.

—Sarah, New York, NY

Next we will need to refer to each other as comrade.

—David, Harbor City, CA

You keep standing up for the people. I believe in the First Amendment!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Donna, Rohnert Park, CA

i'm with you. so are a million others. they just havent got the data yet. we're stronger than they are. believe that.

—Jon, Ann Arbor, MI

This is the final line we cannot cross without losing our liberty.

—Jason, Pasadena, CA

One would think we were living in a repressive dictatorship!

—Roxanne, Fairfax, VA

Hang in there, guys! You have the right to let the citizens of the USA know what all is going on in this country, the good, the bad AND the ugly.

—Marilyn, Cleburne, TX

What is our government trying to hide. Our forefathers warned us about this.

—Edwin, Mt. Washington, KY

Truth is power, and a free and truthfull press is critical for a democracy.

—Lisa, LINCOLN, NE

Your work is so important! This is made very obvious by the fears of the powers that be who want to silence you.

—Jaime, Berkeley, CA

If what the police were doing was so right; they should welcome the press to confirm it. The police new they were wrong and didn't want the journalist to record it; and they always where that way!!!

—John, Warwick, RI

We the people demand freedom of speech and all our rights to be enforced at all times with no exceptions, anyone violating them must be held accountable.

—John, LaVale, MD

So much for the land of the free. Good luck.

—David, Hudson, FL

We in the public depend on you to help us to be well informed so that we can do our part in an informed democracy. Thanks for all the good work you do and try to do.

—Dan, Ossining, NY

Take heart! We are fully in support of your human and first amendment rights, and we will not let you or anyone be silenced

—Janet, Aptos, CA

This is ridiculous, what country are we living in

—Charles, Indian Rocks Beach, FL

ty for being the eyes and ears of the 99% we stand with you as you stand along side of us

—Dj, New york city, NY

I thought we defeated the Nazis? Why is fascism "growing" in America?

—David, Greendale, WI

Many folks are fighting with you to protect your basic rights. Be strong.

—Laurel, Kailua, HI

We support you 100%!

—Robert, Burton, MI

Always stand-up for all FOUR Protected Feedoms of the U.S. Constitution's First Amendment. We are the only nation in the history of mankind to ever have them! God bless America! Craig Exelbirt

—Craig, Union, NJ

Occupy Folks are Not Terrorists. Why not arrest Bush/Chaney & WallStreeters, instead.

—Gerard, Metairie, LA

It is unconscionable for the police to have arrested journalists doing their jobs. What's with those jackasses anyway? Don't they understand our constitution? Do they actually think this is a police state they can foully throw their weight around in without recourse? I hope they're sued for their behavior within an inch of what they have.

—Ralph, Bakerstown, PA

I can't be there in person to support you, but you are in my thoughts. Thank you for standing up for our Constitutional rights.

—Mike, Scottsdale, AZ

Police are out of control when they imagine that they can arrest journalists and peaceful protestors, as this goes against our First Amendment rights. I hope this is exposed and police forces are instructed henceforth to cease this control of freedom via use of overpowering intimidation, force, physical harm and arrest. Stand tall knowing that we are aware of this travesty.

—Yvette, Santa Fe, NM

Keep fighting the good fight. You're in the correct here, so just keep your chin up and you'll get out of this just fine.

;))

—Zachary, Layton, UT

We support you!!

—G&b, Gambier, OH

to think this is daily life in many shady parts of the world.think of julian assange.think positive as the truth will set you free

—Scott, Manly, CA

Detaining journalists gives more attention to the negative actions of those who are detaining them than to the actions of the events they are reporting on.

—Barbara, Bethel, VT

Sincerely, Cornell Fenderson

—Cornell, Lemon Grove, CA

Thousands of people are working for freedom of the press -- and your freedom.

—Mary, Fort Ann, NY

Individual Journalist must have the freedom to investigate, share and offer alternatives about issues to assure the mass media doesn't cook the information.

—CLIFFORD, Zeeland, MI

Hang in there!

—Mark, VLY COTTAGE, NY

!!!

—Sean-Erik, Philadelphia, PA

Thank you for fighting the good fight and standing up for all of Constitutional rights.

—Nancy, Lakeland, FL

We support your work. We trust you will stay strong as best you can, with reason and conviction.

—Denise, Stratford, CT

You're efforts to keep us all informed of what's truly going on,worldwide & here at home is commedable! Thank-you ,each of you,for being so very courageous!

—Mary, Hinesburg,, VT

Thank you

—John, Woodcliff Lake, NJ

I will fight for you as long as I have breath. We do not live in China or Syria!

—Penny, Pasadena, CA

Thank you for your service to this country. You are the true protectors of the innocents.

—William, Vallejo, CA

the journalist who cover and report the facts are to be admired - but generally the industry of the media and the profession of "news" gathering is a sham. Totally disgusted! Maybe the choice few can organized a strick. I feel sorry for society now.

—Michael, Honolulu, HI

'Descending into darkness on extended wings,' we need your light. Onward!

—Peter, Boulder, CO

Thank you for sacrificing your own freedom in order to inform us all. That is heroic!

—Jack, Los Ranchos, NM

Where does it end? How long will American citizens, supposedly the freest in the world, with constitutionally guaranteed media freedoms put up with being number 47 in global press freedom? As Ben Franklin famously said, "We will either hang together or we will hang separately." Thank you to those brave souls who show us the path to freedom.

—William, Ellicott City, MD

What's happened to you is frightening, disturbing and unacceptable in any nation that calls itself a democracy. Stay strong and know that you are loved and respected.

—Vincent, Long Beach, CA

Keep fighting the good fight. I'm behind you all the way!

—Deborah, CUBA CITY, WI

Thank you for all of your efforts to keep us well informed.

—Lila, Central, SC

Ben Franklin would go ballistic...how can the public support you in the best way?

—Joseph, New Awlinz, LA

What are you afraid of?

—David, Albuquerque, NM

Thank you for standing up for everyone's freedom. Hang tough, we are on your side.

—Sandy, Chesapeake Beach, MD

Thank you for standing up for our freedom. Your service to the country is appreciated.

—Allen, Pillager, MN

Thank you for your courage and don't give up!

—Joan, San Diego, CA

What happened to Freedom of the Press??

—Carla, CORTE MADERA, CA

Be strong -- you are doing a powerful service for all Americans.

—Gay, Eugene, OR

Bring arrested by using the First Amendment is a step to dictatorship. I stand strong with all of you for using our First Amendment Right!

—Kelly, Bryant, AR

It is imperative that journalists remain free to inform the public about what is happening in gov. , business, and on the streets. That they are arrested in AMERICA of all places is a shame upon us. The local gov's should be removed from office and replaced by ones who follow the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press!!!!!!

—Kenneth, Oregon city, OR

I don't recognize my country. This is a travesty.

—Susan, Solon, OH

We will not forget you are there. We will fight for your freedom.

—Audette, Roanoke, VA

I have a feeling things are going to get worse, possibly much worse, before they get better. Whatever happens, know that we've got your back and very much appreciate you putting your freedom, not to mention your body, on the line to educate the rest of us.

—Tim, Steamboat Springs, CO

I believe in the truth being presented to the people. Stand by your beliefs and I'll support you.

—John, Brunswick Hills, OH

It may also be time to put your employers on the line by actually reporting the news people need to know about.

—W, Hitchcock, TX

Thank you for standing up for freedom of the press... you are supported.....

—Dennis, Pinon hills, CA

Keep your fucking hands off ethical journalists!

—John, Portland, OR

As a fellow journalist, I am appalled that we can be arrested for doing our job. Why is it that the government can have so much information about us, but we can't ask them for information or release it?

—Tyler, Croswell, MI

Get the fascist 1% offshore, where they keep their money. .

—Mark, Jeff City, MO

At this time in history, any citizen can serve in the role of---and must when thrust there---of journalist. Technology is way ahead of the governments, military and giant corporations that seek to stomp out free speech and democracy. You are playing a key role in history in the making as you stand on the front line of the radical right attack on democracy.

—Gary, Brentwood, TN

Don't back down. Like Tom Petty or Johnny Cash: Don't back down.

—Matt, Anaheim, CA

Freedom of the press can not be denied! It's the basis for our democracy.

—Francine, Felton, CA

Keep up the good work, everyone that matters knows what you are doing is just and patriotic.

—Lindsay, Wilmington, NC

Don't despair we patriots are behind you and what you do for the survival of freedom and representation for all. One day these same officers will feel the brunt of their decisions today. Keep up the good fight we the 99% are behind you.

—Don, Kansas City, MO

As a retired teacher, I resent any encroachment on freedom of speech to any citizen of this country.

—Patricia, Sun City, AZ

Thank you for being a patriot.

—Daniel, Lenox, MA

Thank you for your courage in the face of creeping fascism. You are not alone! The people, united, will NEVER be defeated!

—Dennis, Norco, CA

One of the very assets of every democratic society is its independent and investigative journalists. These folks not only are great role models--away from the glamour generated by the establishment media--but they are "eyes and ears" of every democratic society and we are beholden to them and proud of them.

—Shahin, Williamsport, PA

Freedom of speech and the first amendment is under attack everywhere in this country. What's happened to journalists recently is the first palpable, physical evidence of the right wing shift that has been allowed to take place in this republic. Is anyone surprised that the "powerbrokers" here in the U.S. have been secretly jealous of China and the Soviets for the control they wield all along. Better get organized, people.....nothing less than liberty is at stake...

—Michael, GRAND RAPIDS, MN

So corporations have First Amendment rights now, but journalists don't? What SciFi Twilight Zone are we living in?

—Nancy, Oregon, IL

Shine on, you crazy diamonds.

—Jeremy, East Greenbush, NY

I am ashamed to live in a country where journalists are arrested for doing their job.

—David, Northampton, MA

Stay strong. Thank you for doing what you're doing. Many, many of us are actually paying attention.

—Janet, Denver, CO

Fascism at it's worst, here in the USA...

—Alex, Richmond, CA

You are the guiding light for truth and justice in this country and without your efforts to bring these important events to the American people, we are all deprived of our rights to free speech and assembly. It is truly frightening to conceive that you are subjected to attacks for exercising your constitutional right!

—Margarita, Oviedo, FL

What a sad state of affairs when journalists are not allowed to speak about and/or write about what they see as the truth. I've been married to a journalist and worked for a newspaper. My back and heart are with you.

—Terry, Santa Rosa, CA

Ours is but a "fair weather" democracy. When the clouds of protest appear the authorities quickly show their true fascist colors.

—Max, Las Cruces, NM

Thank you; please keep fighting to inform citizens.

—Bruce, Escondido, CA

This should not happen in the USA. Stand strong. We're behind you!

—Lee, Sarasota, FL

We need the fourth estate to do its job more now than we ever did. We stand with you.

—James, Huntingdon Valley, PA

Keep up the fight!

—Matthew, Madison, WI

We can't believe this is happening to you (and all of us)! Thank you so much for standing strong!

—Elene, Albuquerque, NM

Stop stomping on OUR constitution!

—Marsha, Lecanto, FL

I'm shocked to read about the deterioration of our country because of so many huge corporations controlling what we see, what we read and what we hear on the radios. It's time to get into trust busting, big time!

—Arlene, Riviera Beach, FL

The freedom to know what it is our overseers are doing is probably the most important one we have and if we lose that...all hope is lost.

—Mike, Cullowhee, NC

Thank you for defending Freedom of the Press. Without your voice, we would only hear lies.

—Janna, Ukiah, CA

We will not rest until you are free.

—Frances, Valley Village, CA

I admire your sense of duty and professionalism. Too many people who think they are reporters just repeat what they have heard. They are not truth seekers. Linda Wohlgemuth

—Linda, Lake Forest, CA

Journalists have to be brave to cover conflict countries around the world but in the United States?...Amazing and so so sad...

—Georgeanne, Oakridge, OR

If we don't have First Amendment rights, what do we have that allows us to speak freely??

—Patricia, New York, NY, NY

Thank you- be strong !

—Rick, Pettigrew, AR

If we proclaim to have Freedom of the Press in this country journalists must be allowed free access to legitimate government proceedings as well as citizen protests.

—Erika, Wauwatosa, WI

Keep up the good work, and don't let the US become like the Arab world.

—William, Leadville, CO

There is little enough investigative journalism going on. We must do all we can to keep these brave men and women safe and encourage them in their work.

—Gale, Willoughby Hills, OH

we have no freedom at all in the USA that is not directly dependent upon unrestrained freedom of the press.

—Allen, Tekoa, WA

As a citizen journalist myself, via ustream, I will stand by you till the end! And have complete respect for you!

—Courtney, Salem, VA

We should not have to fight to support journalists' search for the truth and right to tell the American people. We cannot make decisions without the truth and stopping our voice and right to know should be a disgrace to any government.

—Lee, CA Hot Springs, CA

Please stand strong. Keep doing your job. No one can suppress the truth. We are all with you.

—Linda, Fairfield, ME

Power of our Spoken Word reverberates throo All*Time...nyah:weh...mahalo.. .thank you... Integrity means wholeness.

—Margaret, Ithaca, NY

This is utterly contemptable. We have a FREE RIGHT TO SPEECH. NOT THE RIGHTS WISH TO CENSOR IT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Lynn, Chicago, IL

You have every right to write whatever you want!

—Joanne, Hicksville, NY

You have good ethics and integrity--something sorely lacking in the majority of the so-called American media!! We support you!!

—Linda, Ventura, CA

What you're doing is real patriotism. Keep standing up for the right to free speech.

—Susan, Gardner, MA

I'm a retired law enforcement officer with a law degree. I stongly believe in freedom of the press. I have needed their assistance during some corruption investigations, to ward off political interference and found them to be invaluable. Sincerely, Carl F. Craine

—Carroll, Arlington, WA

Please continue your work to inform readers about all issues

—GGloria, Redwood City, CA

I hope this will make you realize that the corrupt and fascist 1% is who the police should be jailing. Nationalize the corrupt and fascist corporations! Jail the criminal class of rich people!

—William, Bearsville, NY

Keep up the good work. Your bravery inspires me.

—Vera, Watsonville, CA

This one actually is in the Constitution.

—James, Olympia, WA

Stay strong friends. This might be the best story you'll ever tell.

—Daniel, Canastota, NY

Journalists are doing very important work and need to be supported. Government works best when a free press is allowed to do its job.

—Joseph, St. Louis, MO

Stand tall, We appreciate all that you are doing.

—Gerald, Salem, OR

We are headed in the wrong direction. 27 points down. Reporters Without Borders' global press freedom index indicates we are number 47 worldwide.

—John, Mount Vernon, WA

What a country. Citizens United made corporation people for first amendment rights and for millions of Americans the 2nd Amendment is more important than the 1st.

—Joel, Northampton, MA

I saw my father, a journalist, harassed, jailed and lose his job for speaking out and refusing to be silent! But that was another country and another time... The First Amendment guarantees our right to speak out... I proudly stand by the brave journalists who speak truth to power...

—Omar, Irvine, CA

Freedom of speech? We're number 47!

—Laurie, Salt Lake City, UT

Wahnt happened to the First Amendment? Have we become a Police State?

—Elaine, Roanoke, VA

We cannot remain free without freedom of the press.

—Kimberly, Richmond, IN

I applaud your action in attempting to bring light to the issue of injustice. We need a greater emphasis on building grassroots democracy which is real democracy.

—Samuel, Vineland, NJ

I stand with you for our First Amendment rights and appreciate what you are doing to protect them. You are in our hearts and prayers. May freedom prevail and our country be restored in righteousness!

—Mara, San Luis Obispo, CA

There are very few that still investigate and report the news w/o censorship and bias, this is not the time for Police State operations, for which citizens in later court finding pay out to falsely arrested journalist's and citizen's.

—DeWayne, Blaine, MN

Stand your ground! The First Amendment is the most important guarantee in the Bill of Rights with respect to a free people, a true democracy.

—Curt, Brookfield, CT

Thank you for your courage.

—Lorna, Hillsdale, MI

It seems we are living in a police state. I commend your heroic attempts at finding and telling the real truth.

—Adam, Laguna beach, CA

A police state can never stand like a free state.

—Philip, Edina, MN

I support your right to cover events, including government sessions, without being censored or arrested.

—Gabriel, Oakland, CA

Stand strong and know that many people support your courage in covering events that the "1%" and their minions would prefer we just not know about. Free and open communication is a foundation of democracy, and you are on the front lines of protecting our Constitutional rights to speak freely and be informed. Thank you.

—Susan, Prescott, AZ

America stood for freedom. Now it seems more and more of that freedom is being stripped away. Free speech is our right.

—Suzanne, Medford, OR

Welcome to the new American standard. - TM

—Christian, Goodrich, MI

Freedom of the Press forever.

—Barbara, Arab, AL

Our personal liberties are in constant peril from the inability to get timely news. We need our research journalists and support their efforts.

—Karen, Brooksville, FL

Nothing is more important than the Fourth Estate being allowed to do its job.

—Helon, Gulfport, MS

The attack on our rights to free speech and assembly must stop!

—David, San Francisco, CA

Trying to get real information in this political morass is almost impossible. Stopping real journalism can make the 'take over' easier. I for one want real information to make my decisions.

—Vivianne, Williams, OR

This is a very disturbing direction that is happening in our country.

—Marian, Portland, OR

The first thing a dictator does is arrest the media. Is this what we want in our country? I think not. Stop arresting the people who are trying to let the world know what is happening in America.

—Constance, Titusville, FL

This is unacceptable in our democracy!

—Christopher, Seattle, WA

The way Police are acting is SHAMEFUL!

—Garry, Tampa, FL

I honor you and your chosen profession, it/you is our bastion for democracy, keep up the good work...

—Jan, Goldendale, WA

Thank you for your courage and humanity. We are grateful and will try to help.

—Rita, Los Angeles, CA

CAN YOU SAY POICE STATE?

—Bryce, Rogue River, OR

no question we have become a police state...or it it a military state? I no longer have any respect for our police .

Please do not give up.....we are behind you 100%.

—Faye, McAllen, TX

With all due respect, we need to stand by our Declaration of Independence, Constitution, and particularly the Bill of Rights for the sake of all of humanity. "These truths we hold to be self-evident...all men are born with certain inalienable rights..life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness." How can we experience "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" separate from freedom of the press to keep us informed?

—Carolyn, Valencia, CA

You are the strongest force against and ever increasing repressive society. Our republic lives only as long as you work

—David, Cleveland, OH

Thank you for the brave and dedicated work you do. Though it might not seem like it, there are Americans who deeply value and appreciate what you do. Please keep fighting the good fight. Whether most Americans realize it or not (and I think they don't), they desperately need you. We are indebted to you all, including those who bring us this news.

—Leslie, Penn Valley, CA

Thank you for trying to tell the truth - I can't believe we are arresting journalists.

—Beverly, Summit, IL

READ THE FIRST AMENDMENT! Who are the goons attacking our RIGHTS? Arrest the goons instead! Stand up for DEMOCRACY, NOT FASCISM!

—Linda, Fresno, CA

Thank You so very, very much for your bravery!

—James, Los angeles, CA

Why do those in power completely forget the Constitutional freedoms once they secure power? Perhaps power makes you stupid.

—Mark, Berkeley, CA

hang tough keep on going on

—Francesco, San francisco, CA

Your access to newsworthy events is vital, because all our news comes from people on the ground, at the scene.

We the people support you.

—Joseph, West Hills, CA

I support these journalists.

—Lana, Oakland, CA

Freedom of religion and freedom of the press was put as the FIRST Amendment for a reason. Fight to keep it NUMBER ONE.

—L, Pennington, NJ

We are not a Third World nation. Where we were once the beacon of freedom, we have declined into being close to a nation of complete intolerance. THIS must cease immediately. We count upon our journalists to inform us what is happening in this nation. For the past 50 years we are not getting honest news, we have been fed celebrity driven drivel. Honest journalists are protected under the First Amendment. Scrapping the Constitution to ensure that honest coverage does not reach the people is not the way our Republic works. I urge all Americans to look at this problem and see what a disaster lurks in the wings. Arresting journalists is often the first step to totalitarianism.

—Robert, Roslindale, MA

Bravo for exercising the First Amendment. If we don't use it, we will lose it.

—Douglas, Hilo, HI

Thank you for all you do to bring the facts to the people of the United States and the world. I appreciate the sacrifices so many of you make for us.

—Heather, City, MD

Please stay strong for the rest of us! Thank you for trying to get the truth out.

—Ismeni, Tallahassee, FL

An attack on a journalist is an attack on everyone.

—Richard, Belchertown, MA

Journalists when arrested absolutely must be defended with vigor by professional journalist's associations, even if the journalists who are arrested are not current members of the association(s) because everyone's freedom is at risk when any journalists are arrested. Stand for press freedom.

—Ernest, Berwyn, IL

Thanks for your willingness to take risk to keep the country--and the world--informed on the public reaction to government atrocities that you've unfortunately become victims of yourselves. I know from personal experience that your coverage inspires more people everyday to go out and protest. Stay strong.

—Wade, Laurel, MD

Keep on fighting the good fight...for our rights!

—Theodore, Brooklyn, NY

Thank you so much for defending the First Amendment.

—Spencer, Campbell, TX

Thank you. You are at the pointy end of a just cause. Without freedom of information, we are lost. Thank you for your courageous persistence in the face of true oppression.

—Susan, City, WA

Stay strong! The Progressive Movement has your back!

—Howard, Fresno, CA

Arresting journalists is not going to help you. The cat is out of the bag and everyone knows what you are doing. Your plan of censorship is a failure and you might as well face that fact. The 1st amendment is in our hearts and there is nothing you can do that will remove it.

—Sean, Sherman Oaks, CA

Thank you all for helping to show us the simple truth. We stand behind you and appreciate what you do.

—Nicole, Amesbury, MA

Don't let them silence you !!

—Paul, Warrenville, IL

I support your good work and willingness to put your lives and freedom on the line as you do it. Think where we would be today if Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein had been arrested during their reporting on the Watergate breakin!

—Henry, Portland, OR

I support journalists writing about Occupy, good or bad. We cannot sanitize news, unpleasant as it may be.

—Monika, Denver, CO

As a former journalist for Command Information, US Army, Europe, I support our First Amendment rights.

—Steve, Converse, TX

You are speaking for me - indeed for all of us!

—Mary, Ashland, OR

You're not alone and you're not forgotten. A strong and free press is crucial to the preservation of democracy, and we know that you stand on the front lines of a war for the soul of this country.

—Lenore, Whitefish Bay, WI

Freedom of the press and transparency in government are at the very core of our basic freedoms. They must be maintained.

—Anne, Lake Oswego, OR

Perhaps now you will begin to challenge the outrageous attack on American freedoms triggered by 9/11 & awaken the public to the damage done to our Constitution.

—Philip, Longmeadow, MA

Thank you for your bravery in the face of fascism..because that is exactly what we are facing in this country.

—Diane, Laguna Beach, CA

Our country is founded on freedom of the press. Without that we are not a democracy, because we, as citizens, are kept uninformed. Journalism is the act of reporting. It is not about press credentials or employment, it is about the intent of reporting news.

—Liz, Wrightwood, CA

Peace to all. Stay strong, know you are in the right, and know we support your work.

—Mary, Temple Terrace, FL

I wholeheartedly support you for your OUTSTANDING REPORTING OF THE NEWS THAT NO-ONE ELSE WILL COVER!!! Hang in there !

—Susan, Stanford, KY

We are with you. Of course you are the ones in jail. We provide words of support. We provide our voice and our votes. luck and love.

—Phil, Saratoga, CA

Thank you for being out there, putting yourself on the line. We need good reporting to win the battle.

—LuAnn, Berthoud, CO

Our very democracy depends on a free press..

—Julie, West Hills, CA

Journalism, or the freedom of the press, is not restricted to what you the government may declare it to be. The press is what informs people. If you haven't arrested Fox News for the outright lies it airs then how can you justify arresting honest journalists trying to get the real story to people?

—Thomas, Philadelphia, PA

We depend on you to be our eyes and ears in places where we would like to be - but cannot. I thank you for your diligence in gathering and reporting, helping us to try to be informed citizens.

—David, Manheim, PA

Your efforts give me hope my daughters will grow up in an America which respects freedom.

—Michele, Irvington, NY

As a member of the Black National Journalist Association.... Kudos

—Tana, Largo, FL

I am horrified. Thank you for your courage.

—Jean, San Jose, CA

Freedom of the Press!, integral to Freedom of Speech !

—Esther, Seattle, WA

I'd join you, even though I'm not a journalist, because I believe in what you are doing, to fight for the First Amendment and the Constitution of the United States.

—Charles, Pasadena, CA

I'm sending you some courage and thanks for what you do.

—Devera, Gloucester, MA

Thanks!

—Roger, Palo Alto, CA

I am Major USAF Ret'd : WWII - Fifth Air Force, Southwest Pacific - Hollandia, Morotai, Leyte, Luzon, Okinawa, Tokyo; Korean War - ARDC; 20 years a reservist... sworn to "defend the Constitution against all enemies foreign AND DOMESTIC... I stand with you the First Amendment is central in the battle against tyranny, You are central in this battle Remember: Lincoln, in another time of enormous pain and destruction - it's time for "a new birth of freedom -- so that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth." The press must be free - or no one will be free ..

—Samuel, Seattle, WA

Please stand with the journalists and help them report the news.

—Manuel, Chicago, IL

I salute you all for standing in the face of danger to bring us the truth of what is going on in the streets re OWS. An informed public is a necessity in a true democracy and it is because of your efforts that we will be informed. Thank you.

—Connie, Reno, NV

Thank you, hang in there

—Rick, Kennebunk, ME

Continue courage!

—Joseph, Lake Oswego, OR

Take heart! We are standing with you.

—James, Skandia, MI

Don't let the lights go out, as they did in Nazi Germany. You are the thin red line between us and evil.

—Charles, LITCHFIELD, CT

Thank you for your work. I am with you in the First Amendment. Peace.

—Anne, Frankfort, KY

Please stay strong and stay committed - this country and it's people need you more than they know.

—Rhonda, Glendale, CA

Keep up the good work and keep insisting that the first amendment is respected. The police continue to act way to reactively and violently. Thank you for your courage.

—Mo, Chevy Chase, MD

People recognize when someone takes a risk for truth...and it encourages others to take risks too.

—Arlene, Lake bluff, IL

Thank you, our latest American Patriots. There may not be much tea laying around ready to be thrown in the harbor, but there are certainly stories to be written and photos to be taken.

—James, Asheville, NC

I grew up when the book “1984” was fiction about the far future. Unfortunately, in a way similar to the book, all it took was a threat of war on our own soil to sweep away two centuries of citizen’s rights. We now have surveillance that George Orwell could not even dream about! We need to protect our rights!

—Anne, Manhattan, KS

thank you for being there to record the events on the street. freedom of the press is vital to free speech. fascism does not like transparency.

—Ron, Crestone, CO

your job is to witness and report, my job is be informed and react. This is one way for me to react. Thank for all you do.

—Jeffrey, East Waterboro, ME

Keep on fighting for your first amendment right!

—Jackie, Glendale, WI

We depend on you to tell the truth about current events in our country and around the world. You are guardians of human rights by your presence and your reporting. We thank you. Sincerely, Cheryl Quinn

—Cheryl, Prudenville,, MI

Your stand is as important July 4th, 1776.

—Richard, Madison, WI

We here in Canada are facing the same sort of bullshite from the Forces of Order, especially since the G20 police riots in Toronto. Hold on! We are with you.

—B, Toronto, ON,

Keep up your stand for press freedom. Norman Rockwell made a wonderful set of posters illustrating 4 freedoms. The U.S. government sold them once to an enthusiastic public; they should do so again.

—Jean, Villa Park, IL

Shame to have "something to write home about" when you are supposed to be "at home"!!

—Richard, Milford, NY

This is a slippery slope: when press freedom goes, so does democracy! Welcome to Syramerica!

—Pat, Sequim, WA

Stand in there, and do your jobs. We're all depending on the information you deliver. Peace.

—Eldon, St. Petersburg, FL

Thank you for showing the world what is really happening.

—David, Christiansburg, VA

We need you to report the truth. Bless you when you do that.

—Barbara, Hood River, OR

We are quickly losing our right to know the facts. Appreciate you being there with the courage to fight for Truth.

—James, Auburn, ME

Thank you for doing what you do to protect our freedoms by seeking out and reporting information vital to the liberty of all Americans.

—Frank, Providence, RI

As hard as you try to take away our right to express ourselves freely, you will never be successful. We've seen it happen again and again all over the world. Oppressed countries will not stay oppressed. They will rise up and overthrow any government that does not respect their rights if that's what it takes. Please don't let the situation escalate to that level. Respect the First Amendment rights of all journalists, as well as all Americans.

—Zachary, Socorro, NM

Our democracy needs you to both do your work as a journalist, and to fight this fight. Thank You!!!!!!

—Mary, Spokane, WA

God bless you for your work! Please stay strong, stay straight, and, difficult as it may be, stay objective!

—Fred, Prairie du Chien, WI

I was arrested, along with six journalists and four hundred occupiers, in Oakland, CA. They must not oppress the truth even one more time!

—Philip, Oakland, CA

Hang in there - I do believe the Constitution of the United States will ultimately prevail.

—Gary, Groveport, OH

It is a grave injustice that you were arrested. You have the world watching, outraged at the fact you are incarcerated, grateful beyond words for your dedication, professionalism and bravery. We are livid at this violation not against your legal rights as a journalists but for your human Rights being trampled upon as well and very anxious for your release. I never thought I would see the day in the United States when I would be writing to people in prison who had been locked up for only doing their jobs as reporters.

—Jeannie, Broomfield, CO

We stand with you and want NO ONE arrested for using their First Amendment Rights. Permits and passes are not a constitutional restriction!

—Sandy, Oakland, CA

A person who is non violence in a demonstration should never be arrested This especially true of journalists who report the news.

—Richard, Cudahy, WI

If I wanted to live in the Soviet Union, I would've moved their years ago. This is the United States of America, keep it that way

—David, Turlock, CA

Thanks for being there for the rest of us and for trying to give us the real news.

—Ginger, Hackett, AR

Never let them take your spirit. Keep the truth flowing.

—Harry, Dorchester, MA

Keep up the fight, my fellow Patriots! We must maintain our freedoms!

—Franklin, Plainfield, IL

Don't let them deter you.

—Michael, New Rochelle, NY

Many thanks for your commitment and your personal sacrifice.

—Gabrielle, Bensalem, PA

Thank you Josh, We count on your Reporting No freedom for you, No freedom for us.

—Jack, Hartford, AR

freedom of the press is one of our basic rights as Americans. let's keep it that way

—Robert, Edison, NJ

Protecting America's First Amendment rights is neither a right or left issue. It's a battle between democracy and authoritarianism. Thank you for your sacrifices in fighting for democracy.

—Peter, San Francisco, CA

Thank you for standing up and trying to get the message out.

—Ed, Prospect, KY

Thank you for standing up for the first amendment.

—Mark, NY, NY

Keep the faith!

—Frank, Copley, OH

hang in there!

—Karl, Las Vegas, NV

This is OUTRAGEOUS. Everytime any American Politician says the word Freedom or Democracy, they should choke on it.

—Nancy, Santa Monica, CA

Without a free press, there is no democracy. Freedom for journalists to say their due and report the news is essential for our democracy.

—Brian, Sausalito, CA

Real journalism is all that's left between fiction, propaganda, and the truth in this messed up world. Hold fast to your convictions, and keep fighting the good fight! We applaud your dedication, and thank you for all you do.

—Zechariah, Andover, MA

Press Freedom is crucial to a free society. Thank you for covering the Occupy Wall Street story and for doing your job!

—Lee, Burnsville, MN

Dolores Whitney
—Dolores, Hemphill, TX

Freedom of the press is integral to democracy. our freedom can be taken away if we are uninformed. thank you for your work.
—Ann, Montclair, NJ

Thank you for your dedication and courage. I, along with millions of other Americans, will continue to defend the Constitution and right the wrongs that are being perpetrated on the citizens.
—Edward, Weston, MA

Thank you who are standing up for press freedom. Your detention is not in vain.
—Elaine, Hudson, MA

Stick to your guns!
—Russell, Madison, WI

THANK YOU for taking a stand against fascism!
—Susan, Oakland, CA

I hope I can help you continue to spread the truth.
—Alan, Winthrop, MA

The first amendment must not be violated.
—Deborah and Arthur, Chapel Hill, NC

Thank you for continuing in the face of obvious intimidation and coercion.
—V, Roebling, NJ

Journalists are our eyes on the world.
—Daniel, Amityville, NY

I saw it first hand at Occupy Wall Street! Could not believe this was happening in a "democracy".
—Jo, Albany, NY

Stand strong.
—Susan, Boca Raton, FL

What kind of world do we want to live in? Do we want a true democracy and if so, protecting the first amendment rights of journalists as well as the general public is vital.
—Scotia, Folsom, CA

Surely if the Star and the Enquirer can publish the dirt without harassment, political reporters should expect the same protections. Money should NEVER be allowed to trample the Constitution!
—Ericka, Mesa, AZ

We support full freedom of the press. The only areas which should be off-limits are those which have absolutely no direct correlation to the job being done.
—David and Susan, Elk Grove, CA

SHAME SHAME SHAME ON CONSERVATIVE AMERICA. You are certainly big on First Amendment rights when you hear neo-nazis speak, or when big business wants to butt fuck the American People. Why are you suddenly squeamish now when your side is committing the atrocities? Never mind, I just answered my own question.

—Rick, McCloud, CA

Many stand with you and we will succeed, the times are 'a changing' yet again.

—David, San Diego, CA

You know the score -- press freedom is under siege by the moneyed interests. Thank you for standing up for your right to work and report on newsworthy events. Keep up the fight; we've got your back.

—Larry, Seattle, WA

I'm shocked that Fox News is allowed to speak lies daily and protesters and honest journalists are arrested. Are we turning into Nazi Germany? Study this carefully. Peace and Love,

—Sarah, Crestone, CO

We must demand protection for the press. With out all these journalist I would be in dark on many issues and events.

—Tara, Columbus, OH

Just know many countless people are witnessing the arrests and just how brutal the police in NY, Oakland, and even here in Austin Texas just look at the Anthony Buellar case going on in Austin. I hope Obama doesn't win and I want to know why more people are not protesting him because he has not DENOUNCED ANY of these horrific police brutality cases and of journalist and photographers being arrested! This makes me sick. Keep doing what your doing and we know you are on the front lines and a big Thank-You Jeannie Ramirez from Austin Texas

—Jeannie, Austin, TX

There are very few people in the country who have done so much to protect the voice of the people. Just by being there, reporting, you have become heroic in the eyes of millions.

—Dewi, Round Rock, TX

My thanks to all the journalists who are working to cover the issues that are central to us all. It is so disturbing that you face arrest, destruction of your equipment, and sometimes, personal injury. Without a free press, there is no democracy. We're with you!

—Kathleen, Mebane, NC

Remember A.J. Liebling's admonition and the example of Izzy Stone, my two journalistic heros of the last century. Don't last the bastards get you down!

—Burnis, Fresno, CA

Save. Our democracy

—Frances, Seattle, WA

Have Adolph and Benito moved to the USA?

—Jean, Newark, DE

i am a journalist. I have been shoved and threatened with arrest by a MPLS policeman. I was astounded, and know what you are undergoing. It is fascism here and now. We must expect and maintain the freedom of the press! My heart and voice supports journalists and journalism.

—Kristine, Duluth, MN

Thank you for your courage in covering a story that the 1% don't want to be covered.

—Ronald, Columbus, OH

Please know that many of us stand by your rights under the First Amendment. You are fighting the good fight-- don't give up.

—Elizabeth, Boonton, NJ

Keep on doing your job! We cannot afford to not have unbiased news. We do remember you!

—Gregory, Laguna Beach, CA

I support your right and your duty to report what you see to the world!

—Anne, Normal, IL

We and the law are on your side. You are our heroes.

—Don and Mabel, Hillsborough, NC

Last time I checked this was a free country or have I missed something? These assholes should not be arresting journalists! They should be arresting all these fuckers that put us in the situation we are in today - big bank exec's, politicians, and government officials that have sold themselves to these corp's....

—Kenneth, Tustin, CA

I COULD NOT AGREE MORE.

—Carolyn, Edgewater, MD

The arrest of journalists is far more dangerous to our Republic than an invasion by another country. It denies the people the right to know, and in a Republic, it is essential for the people to have true and accurate information in order to make informed decisions about the very future of the Republic.

—Robert, REDWOOD CITY, CA

I just want to personally thank you for your perseverance, courage, insight, and service to humanity. You are on the front lines of the infowar; thank you.

—Carolyn, Dallas, TX

Thank you. We need your work.

—Robert, Royal Oak, MI

FREEDOM!

—Karl, Hiwassee, GA

Thank YOU, there are tens of thousands who are standing behind you

—K, Tampa, FL

Keep up the good work. We know, if 'they' don't, that you can't deny rights to some without denying rights to yourself.

—Virginia, Sebastopol, CA

Thanks for your work I hope your trial works out in your favor.

—Ian, Hermiston, OR

We can do better!

—Stewart, Lake Oswego, OR

Thank you for all the good work you do and putting your lives and livelihood on the line every day.

—Mary, El Sobrante, CA

Thanks so very much for your courage in ensuring that Americans hear & see the truth.

—Jill, West Bloomfield, MI

You are defending our freedom. Thank you for your efforts.

—Theodore, Pensacola, FL

Thank you for your courage. You are standing between American citizens and tyranny.

—Janna, Reno, NV

hang in there. we will expose the obama-republican police state in making. shame on obama and his minions!

—Tim, Madison, WI

We have your backs and won't let facism get a foothold in the Land of Freedom

—Thomas, Soquel, CA

Thank you for your sacrifice of hardship, degradadation and humiliation against municipal government and law enforcement in solidarity with the disenfranchised and dispossessed and to keep all of us informed of that of which few of us must endure. Please write about your experiences publicly, that we may stand with you in witness

—Dennis, Palo Alto, CA

Stay strong and stand firm. You will be vindicated. And thank you for all you do.

—Simon, Sunland, CA

Thanks for your work

—Terri, Burbank, CA

We need a FREE PRESS!

—Charles, San Jose, CA

Thank you for your courage!

—Aaron, New Orleans, LA

The sword may be mightier than the pen, but the shield is mightier than the sword!

—Marvin, Albuquerque, NM

Again, I very much appreciate your willingness to stand up for our rights.

—Kathleen, Eugene, OR

The end of democracy and freedom is upon us - but you are at least forestalling the day they come to get me so thank you.

—Michael, Oceanside, CA

Lots of people support you.

—Dan, San Rafael, CA

The First Amendment is the bedrock of our democracy. Please help protect and guard its use for all Americans.

—Barbro, Winchester, MA

So no freedom of speech in this country... so we shouldn't be invading other countries or waging wars waving the freedom and democracy flag. We really don't have a leg to stand with.

—Ira, South Elgin, IL

I echo those who point out that journalism is not a crime. To those arrested or otherwise harassed in the practice thereof, we owe our deep gratitude.

—Richard, San Francisco, CA

Stay strong!

—Deborah, Arlington, MA

The only thing that has kept our Country free is the freedom of the press. They need to be able to shine a light even in the darkest places.

—Carol, Mesa, AZ

Why is the right to carry guns so important but freedom of the press isn't!

—Donald, Mancos, CO

We support you.

—Hal, Milton, VT

We can't talk freedom and practice suppression.

—Mike, Newton, MA

Thanks for standing up for free press

—Tami, Sherman Oaks, CA

Where are the Democrats in Congress and the White House? I guess they'd as soon have real journalists arrested too.

—Patrick, Coos Bay, OR

Awesome energy.

—James, Ann Arbor, MI

We're with you.

—Norm, Seattle, WA

when dictators take over, the first to be under attack are the journalists. beware!

—Sarah, Santa fe, NM

Thank you for your sacrifice. It is only by your outstanding work that we ever hear the truth. Keep it up....America needs it.

—Pamela, Oro valley, AZ

This is America not Corporate Socialism own America!

—Jozef, Island Lake, IL

Thank you for being willing to take the risks you take to do the job you do. The rest of us desperately need your eyes and ears and reports to be able to cope intelligently with the need to preserve our freedoms!

—Karen, Bellevue, NE

This is outrageous! It's a flagrant assault on the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press. Are the conservative "powers that be" so afraid of dissent, they are willing to throw the Constitution out the window? For shame!

—Lorna, Salem, OR

Our castle is under siege. You, our best archers occupy the turrets. You have the best shot at the barbarian horde but are also their easiest targets.

—Robert, Elizabeth, CO

I admire you. Hang in there.

—Boyd, Wichita, KS

Did I read that right? Journalists are being detained in the USA? Surely you are joking! If their rights are being violated, what will happen to the rest of us? What HAS happened to our country?

—Esther, Frankfort, IL

You guys are */*not alone! We're thinking about you and doing whatever we can to help!

—George, Gastonia, NC

Keep the dream alive!

—Heather, Covington, LA

Oh brave ones , keep up the good work !!

—Frank, Wolfeboro, NH

Are we now living in Syria?

—Brian, City, CT

There's a reason why it is the FIRST Amendment. It is the gate keepr of our freedom. I stand with you. Sincerely,
Paula Paul

—Paula, Albuquerque, NM

Keep the free press free!

—Steve, Greenville, NC

Keep up the good work!

—Taylor, Brooklyn, NY

Thanks for working to inform the citizenry of the corrupt US corporatocracy/fascist government and police state and of how it treats citizen protesters and truth tellers.

—Kathy, Denver, CO

Be faithful to your training as journalists and provide the best information and sources you can. I DON'T watch or listen to Faux Fox.

—Kent, Helena, MT

The journalists shouldn't have been arrested nor the occupiers. This is supposed to be America... Land of the free and home of the brave. You notice I said "supposed to be"

—Paula, Woodland Park, CO

Thank you for all you do to keep us all informed. How else will the truth get out? We need you out there doing your job now more than ever. Again thank you.

—Marie, Smithville, TX

Thanks for doing your jobs as they should be done, regardless of the cost in our growing police state. Your courage, ethics, and professionalism are an inspiration to us all. ♥

—Margaret, Chicago, IL

Attacks on the 4th estate will not stand! Please take a forceful stand to protect our freedom of press!

—Will, San Pedro, CA

Thanks for putting your personal safety on the line to report accurately what Occupy groups have endured at the hands of local law enforcement. Your commitment means a lot to those of us who cannot physically participate in Occupy, but support them financially and philosophically.

—Bill, Lady Lake, FL

Shame

—Nick, Buffalo, NY

Our Bill of Rights, Freedom of the Press.....understand what this nation stands for.

—Edgar, Aurora, IL

After "Citizens United" we are all on our own. In the spirit of Abbie Hoffman - protest now protest tomorrow. I never expected to have to fight for 1st amendmend rights.

—James, Davie, FL

Thank you for standing up for our rights. We will stand up for you.

—Carrol, Las Vegas, NV

Thank you for standing up for all of us.

—Donald, Garland, TX

Journalists have have free speech rights. Corporations do not. No exclusions at all.

—Bret, Vancouver, WA

My service of 24 years in the Air Force pales in comparison to your dedication to freedom.

—Ralph, Lincoln, CA

Please keep trying to report the facts. There are so few places where we can hear what is actually going on.

—Shirley, Staples, MN

Control of the press is one of the key points of the "Miami Model" of dealing with protests. It shames me that this form of government propaganda is becoming so prevalent in the USA

—Brick, San Diego, CA

What is happening to our constitutional rights? Thank you for standing up for them

—Ruby, Felt, OK

Thank you for all that you do. There are more of us with you than you think.

—James, DeKalb, IL

Hang in there!!! I am with you.

—Rodney, Pocatello, ID

We cannot allow the fifth estate to be silenced. I find there are activities to do that in the name of security, but the public need to be informed by multiple and diverse sources, not shaped by certain "approved" sources.

—Sandy, Windsor, CA

The work you do is important to our freedom, already under attack from several quarters. Don't stop reporting.

—Fran, New York, NY

We are living in the United States, not in Communist Russia. Did somebody repeal the Bill of Rights when I wasn't paying attention?

—Donna, McPherson, KS

I couldn't agree more. This country is slipping under the waves of oligarchy at an alarming rate. It doesn't seem to matter who's in "power." Please stand strong and do what REAL journalists do. We need you now more than ever.

—Richard, Burbank, CA

We support you!

—Donnol, Houston, TX

I support our First Amendment rights. Journalists should not be arrested for reporting the truth!

—Edward, New Britain, CT

Thank you for trying to preserve our free speech. You deserve much praise and all our support!

—Constance, Waltham, MA

Stand strong. Your courage will help save our democracy.

—Mark, Chicago, IL

Thank you all. I remember a friend of mine, many years ago, who was studying journalism and who was part of the staff on the school paper. She had some informants regarding the pot industry, and the police tried to make her talk, saying the 1st amendment didn't count because she was a student, and not on a major newspaper org. She lived in WA and a CA television station along with the major newspapers flew her to CA to both protect her and fight her battle for her in WA. They won and she was left alone with her informants safe and anonymous. I've seen several instances of this, including during the Viet Nam War when a group of us gather to protest the living conditions at the VA Hospital. That's when I realized how compromised some media outlets had become. Free speech is in danger, and your actions are appreciated and seen as courageous by me and those like me who believe strongly in what Freedom truly means. So again, thank you.

—Barbara, Shoreline, WA

Is this really happening here in the USA ? Sounds Like Something From Some Other Country ... and We Are Supposed To Be The Force For "Nation Building" All Over The World ??? Sounds Like Hypocrisy To Me !!!

Kevin C. Portland, Oregon Left Coast, USA

—Kevin, Portland, OR

We support your work.

—Suzanne, McKinleyville, CA

Thank you for your courage--The nation needs it-- —Sherry, Albuquerque, NM

Stand tall. You are the watch dogs of government.
—Glen, Heathrow, FL

I just read a New Yorker article about the oppression suffered today by journalists in Russia. News of your arrests sounds depressingly similar. I applaud your courage, and stand behind you. Follow the laws, but then insist that those enforcing the law do the same!
—Andrea, Albion, NY

Keep it up. We know you are working for all of us!
—Lauren, West Covina, CA

ernest wood
—Ernest, Volintown, CT

You stand for my freedoms so I stand with you. Fight the good fight.
—William, Centralia, WA

I support YOU not government supression. Keep up the great work and report the truth.
—Jeff, P.V., KS

We have your backs.
—Cate, Northfield, MA

Your work is very important. People must read the news -- facts, not propaganda -- that you report. Hang in there. Don't give up hope for democracy for journalists.
—Martha, Liberty, NY

Champions press on!!!
—Ada, Santa Rosa, CA

Thank you for the ongoing work that you do in order to cast the light of transparency on those who would profit from obscuring the the truth.
—Jan, Port townsend, WA

We need the information you have the knowledge and skills to make available to us. Please don't fail us!
—Mary, Nashville, TN

This is really hard to believe! Are we living in 1970's communist Russia?
—Penelope, Pasadena, CA

Thank you for your work!
—Scott, San luis obispo, CA

keep doing the right thing!
—Nick, Eden Prairie, MN

We stand with you.

—Arlene, Berkeley, CA

my late father was a journalist and would have stood with you as well.

—Melissa, Concord, CA

Without freedom of speech we cannot have a democracy. We must all stand and fight.

—Cliff, Naples, FL

Stop it. Stop it Now!!

—Danielle, Fresno, CA

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK. YOU DESERVE TO COVER THESE STORIES.

—Jane, ENCINITAS, CA

Nibble Nibble, and the constitution, is just a bunch of words, written by people from Once Upon A Time.

—Craig, Riverside, RI

We are behind you - we will not abandon or forget you! We will work to free you now and in the future and we will work for global press freedom to do their and our work.

—Barbara, Jamaica Plain, MA

Every such arrest is a pair of statements, the government admitting it wants to hide something and a reporter telling it that the public has the right to know. I support you wholeheartedly.

—Christopher, Cambridge, MA

Something is going terribly arry in our country when under a Democratic president, or any president, journalist in the USA are being arrested. So far more than 50 journalists, including eight last week, have been arrested in the U.S. while covering the Occupy Wall Street movement.

—E, Santa Fe, NM

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION IS A CONERSTONE OF ANY DEMOCRACY!

—Peter, Scottsdale, AZ

In today's climate of suppression yours is the most important vocation. Thank you for your courage and forgive the rest of us for allowing - so far - your imprisonment.

—Lynn, Deming, NM

Journalists are on the front lines, documenting real-time events, investigating the past, and deciding what qualifies as 'news'. It is imperative that journalists are able to report accurately about events that impact all citizens. I applaud your courage in standing up to the suppression of information and 1st Amendment rights.

—Phoenix, Jamaica Plain, MA

Freedom Of The Press - Remember freedom? Yeah, that 'inconvenient' Bill of Rights thing THAT NEEDS TO BE CONSTANTLY DEFENDED!

—Scott, Tallahassee, FL

Stand up for your rights, now more than ever. You are what you stand for,

—Stefanie, Simi Valley, CA

Hang in there - we're not quite in the gulag yet...

—Michael, Whitestown,, IN

Amazing. We condemn foreign dictatorial regimes for arresting journalists and here we do the same thing when our leaders don't want the public to know what's going on. This is especially alarming given how few real journalists are still on the beat in these days of corporate media mergers. This is a fight we must/can not lose.

—Rick, Milwaukee, WI

I fully understand the need to support freedom of the press and protecting those who practice journalism from unconstitutional arrests and prosecutions. Freedom of the press is fundamental to democracy. When we defend the First Amendment we defend others as well as ourselves.

—L, Laguna Niguel, CA

We stand with you to deliver real journalism to citizens everywhere.

—Heather, Boynton Beach, FL

One of the BEDROCKS of our democracy is a FREE PRESS! Please know WE STAND WITH YOU...

—Patricia, Chalfont, PA

My heart goes out to you, for your sacrifice, which should never be.

—Nina, Chico, CA

As a fellow journalist, I am appalled at police crackdowns on the First Amendment through arrests of journalists covering the Occupy movement. Additionally, police are increasingly restricting reporters' access to police raids on various Occupy camps across the country.

—John, Washington, DC

Fascism has no place in America! We are with you!

—Britton, Milwaukee, WI

Keep reporting the news the world must know what is happening to our freedoms.

—Eunice, Wichita, KS

Hope you will put as much effort into defending the Second amendment!

—Kevin, Stanley, NY

There has been a continual assault on the Bill of Rights by the Neo-Fascist right. All who care about personal liberty must resist this encroachment on our freedoms !

—Demian, Bush, LA

How can it be possible in the land of the free that we are in 47th place world wide in terms of freedom of the press. I am horrified!

—Susan, Grants Pass, OR

Let's stop acting like a police state!

—Linda, Sedona, AZ

The increasing loss of freedoms in the U. S. confirms my belief that we may have killed Osama Bin Laden, but he won anyway.

—Kathryn, Asheville, NC

What are we as a country if our Constitution is slowly dismantled?

—Anthony, Manchester, CT

Stay strong; I am proud of you.

—Linda, Scottsdale, AZ

Hang in there you have a lot of support.

—Mary-Grace, Keene, NH

Keep on writing. The right to free speech is perhaps our most fundamental right. It's not as though (apparently) we still have the right to clean air or water anymore. Words = power.

—Clara, Houston, TX

I am so ashamed of our country for infringing on press freedoms... We are ALL endangered, because if we can't get the truth about a situation, we can't take appropriate action as an informed citizen. So your problems are OUR problems.

—Marna, Pasadena, CA

Good luck.

—Mike, Elkton, MD

Stand on your journalistic rights - FREEDOM OF THE PRESS is not outdated!

—Frances, Sacramento, CA

Your courage and tenacity is heroic

—Michael, Spokane, WA

The truth will out, but I'd rather see you out outing it. Thanks for all you do!

—Jim, Idaho Falls, ID

"Don't take any guff from those weasels!" Hunter S. Thompson

—Edward, Santa Rosa, CA

Your work for a free press is the highest form of patriotism and I fully support your brave efforts.

—Theresa, Seattle, WA

The American people have the right to protest, and journalists have the right to cover those protests. Why are we becoming a police state?

—Tina, Laguna Beach, CA

Thank you for having the courage to stand for all of us.

—Randy, Wichita, KS

Set them free-they're only doing their jobs to let the rest of us know what's going on.... We the people have spoken.....

—Sherrie, Boulder, CO

I want to have journalists free to do their jobs.

—Marcia, Dunedin, FL

Don't be intimidated. Stand your ground. There are many of us who are standing with you. Never forget that. Do what you do and do it to the best of your ability. We count on you for that. Thank you!

—Leslie, Massapequa, NY

I just want to thank all of you for having the bravery and integrity to take on the cause. People like me rely on people like you to get our voices heard. Keep up the vigilant effort; it is much appreciated and much needed.

—Denise, Kalamazoo, MI

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS! That's what makes democracy work! Shine a light on it and the world becomes more open!

—Thomas, Mason, OH

IT IS ONE OF OUR ORIGINAL FREEDOMS! IT'S OUR RIGHT!

—Gregory, HOLLYWOOD, CA

The work done by journalists is essential to a free society. Have no fear.

—Jim, Golden, CO

I'm an aspiring journalist and I think it's sad America's right to reality is being inhibited.

—Megan, Converse, TX

This is not America. This is the attempted re-emergence of Apartheid South Africa with this version being economic segregation. We need the truth to be told!

—James, Columbus, IN

We the people are indebted to all of you who have been harassed and arrested unjustly. I thank you all for having the courage to use your voice.

—Zechariah, Faribault, MN

Journalists who are trying to get the truth to Americans are heroes and there are too few of them! To know that you have been arrested for doing that infuriates me beyond words.

—Mary-Alice, Marysville, WA

Thank you for fighting the GOOD FIGHT!

—Bonnie, Chicago, IL

Thanks for standing up for what's right!

—Keith, Melbourne, FL

You have so much more courage than our elected officials and police. I salute you for standing up for what this country is supposed to stand for. The US has truly lost its way.

—Marcy, Denver, CO

We, my husband and I have you in our hearts, and wonder how when a journalist is arrested or mistreated in another country, the people in the US protest and fight, but here it is as if the ears of millions of Americans are deaf. What is wrong with the American people?

—Myriam, West Milford, NJ continue your fight for freedom of the press.

—Michael, Las Vegas, NV

I fear for my freedom loss and for our democracy!

—Robert, Everett, WA

Stand up for what you believe in no matter what!!! This isn't the soviet union!

—George, Waymart, PA

The founding fathers knew that centralized power could be held in check with an informed and proactive democracy; though most of our population is neither informed nor proactive, you are citizens who exemplify both qualities, and urge the rest of us to do so as well. Thank you.

—Christopher, Athens, OH

The freedom of journalists to cover and report current events is crucial to the functioning of our democratic way of life. I am appalled that the arrests of journalists has increased.

—Elizabeth, Austin, TX

Thank you for being on the front line fighting for freedom of information.

—Barbara, Boonsboro, MD

You are the courageous ones. THE ones who engineered your arrests are cowards. YOU have my highest praise.

—Robin, Portland, OR

Thanks for your principled stand!

—Bob, Carson City, NV

Hang in - - you're not alone - a lot of us are getting indignant and involved on your behalf! Linda Bunch

—Linda, San Diego, CA

Journalist allow citizens to be a part of what is happening in their nation and around the world. Without an active and protected group of journalists we would be an uninformed citizenry. What's left of our democracy depends on an informed citizenry. Please know that the vast majority of your reading public are truly grateful for your efforts, often your struggle, to keep us informed. Thank you.

—Suzan, San Diego, CA

You are heroes in the fight against the fascist, plutocratic oligarchy that is destroying our country.

—Jerald, Mechanicville, NY

Hang in there...keep up the fight for OUR freedoms.

—EdD, Denison, TX

Thank you for your courage and belief in the 1st Amendment.

—Al, Redondo Beach, CA

I am dismayed that the country has lost sight of the need for journalists and journalism to inform and protect us.

Thank you for your efforts.

—Mike, Seattle, WA

Thank you for standing up for the true American Way!

—Richard, Lafayette, CO

STAND FIRM IN THE FACE OF AMERICAN OPPRESSION!

—Ray, Boston, MA

Keep the faith!!

—Mary, Denver, CO

Thank you for fighting for our freedoms!!

—Dan, Los Angeles, CA

Shameful. If journalists have no access and/or freedom of speech, who does? What type of society have we then?

—Michelle, New York, NY

And hang in there! Courage. Anna

—Anna, Baltimore, MD

You are not alone.

—Samuel, Hickory Valley, TN

A nation in which members of the press are arrested often is a fascist nation. Everyone connected with the arrest of journalists should be prosecuted. Please fight as hard as you can, and make the injustice known everywhere.

—Dennis, Lynchburg, VA

I applaud your efforts to keep us free and that means to report the truth and stand up to the untruths.

—Cal, Vancouver, WA

I am a first generation Holocaust survivor. I hold freedom of the press as the dearest of all the freedoms that are guaranteed by the Constitution. I have been watching with great sadness along many Americans as you have been arrested. I stand with you in solidarity in preserving, honoring and protecting your rights to do your most important job of reporting. May God Bless you and keep you. Sincerely, Jadwiga Liberte Reinke

—Jadwiga, Redding, CA

First Amendment Rights: no explanation, no cover-ups; no arrests!

—Kelly, Houston, TX

Thank you for sticking up for preserving our democracy. Sincerely Jack Morrison

—Jack, Costa Mesa, CA

Stand strong in your fight for your First Amendment Rights. We've got your back!

—Amber, Cedar Falls, IA

Too few journalists today are the free culturists they used to be. Thank you for your good and fine work.

—Raymond, Knowlton, NJ

hang in there. Keep protecting the rights for free press

—Kathy, Beaverton, OR

You are the front line guardians of our First Amendment rights. Thank You for your Courage

—Victor, Jeffersonville, IN

I am outraged at this happening.

—Diane, Fresno, CA

This is outrageous! If it were the 1% in the street, the journalists would receive carte blanche. This is just the people who hold the purse strings exercising their power to control everything!

—Elizabeth, Richmond Heights, MO

Don't let the bastards get you down

—Martha, Fresno, CA

Thank you for standing up for what is right. Thank you for this.

—A, Ithaca, NY

We want our first amendment rights back for all americans period.

—Sophia, San Antonio, TX

This used to be something that happened in other countries used as an example for why the US was so great.

—Tristram, Raymond, ME

ALL citizens are permitted free speech through our 1st Amendment. That includes the journalists.

—E, GRAND RAPIDS, MI

You are very courageous and we stand with you!

—Carole, Malden-on-Hudson, NY

Democracy is impossible without a free press.

—Fred, Poynette, WI

Thank you for your fight to reveal the truth.

—Daniel, Chewelah, WA

The brutal treasonous actions of the police & their handlers continues, yet the Occupiers & journalists are an inspiration to the rest of us.

—Ross, Waterford, MI

May The Force of your honor be with you!

—Kathryn, High Springs, FL

Gestapo tactics will not be condoned!

—Dan, Clifton, NJ

Please support American and communities to build, strengthen and advance democracy, liberty, universal human rights; and inclusive, free, open/fair/just/decent, empathetic and meaningful societies to advance global collective social accountability and responsibility, the common and greater good and well being of people, families and communities and the essence of being and humanity.

—Vu, Houston, TX

Thank you for you courage and conviction in protecting journalism, a free press and free speech.

—R, Forestville, CA

Thank you for fighting for America against those who would rather wave the flag than support what it stands for.

—James, Munising, MI

Thank you for attending the Occupy movement to report on their actions. I am so sorry that you are now under arrest, but I will do all I can to protest this. Thanks again for your important work, Ann

—Jean, Daytona Beach, FL

Your words shine light on the truth and we know truth is all there is. Stay strong, I believe in you!

—M, Bloomington, IN

True madness cannot last forever. It is not based on Universal Law. But it can cause damage in the meantime.

Thanks for acting as "a white blood cell" toward it.

—Byron, Lawrence, KS

Stay tough you are doing the right thing and are making history by standing up for what's right!

—John, Hollis, NH

thank you

—Mark, Jamaica Plain, MA

Your efforts to cover these important events in our nation are much appreciated and are needed now, more than ever.

—Doug, Simi Valley, CA

Without a free press, society is not free.

—Julia, Kihei, HI kNOW THAT A FREE AND RESPONSIBLE PRESS IS WHAT ASSURES OUR DEMOCRACY

—Rick, CUYAHOGA FALLS, OH

free the journalists now! The 1st amendment demands it!

—Kenneth, Menifee, CA stop the slide into fascism! free the press to do their job!

—Oscar, Miami, FL

Only in America can there be two strikes against you: 1) for doing your job; 2) for exercising your Constitutional rights. What a country! God bless you all.

—Bill, Jessup, MD

Keep the public informed!

—Phil, City, CA

In these difficult times when lies assault us like mosquitoes in Maine we are all dependent on an independent press to report what they see and what they know. We are on the edge of tyranny and the loss of our freedoms - journalists are a major line of defense. Keep up the good work and I hope the public will be there to back you up. Thank you arresting journalist are we in a police state, because the last time I checked only police states censored the press.

—Arlene, Winchester, MA

—David, JACKSONVILLE BEACH, FL

CURE THOSE NEANDERTHAL BASTARDS OF THEIR ALLERGY TO TRUTH!!

—Wendy, VALLEY VILLAGE, CA

Arresting journalists??? Republicans should not pretend to support the Constitution and freedom when they suppress the press.

—Douglas, Lake in the Hills, IL

Our very freedom is at stake. Thank you for your courage.

—Lee, Eugene, OR

You're doing the right thing. The 4th estate must be restored.

—Jon, Wheat Ridge, CO

What better reason to show how right wingers are trying to suppress a Constitutional right that they 'claim' to cherish. Write about it...repeatedly.

—Noland, Brooklyn, NY

Unless they are doing something illegal (like robbing a bank or something) they should not be arrested for being at the scene and reporting it.

—Barbara, El Portal, CA

Please accept my thanks for your work and commitment. Freedom lives through you and by your actions.

—Dwight, Trevett, ME

I am proud of you and stand in awe of your courage!

—Kevin, Salt Lake City, UT

our future depends on ALL of us.

—Paul, Newcastle, VA

TO THE POLICE, COURTS AND GOVERNMENT.....HANDS OFF OUR JOURNALISTS!!!

—Christine, Freeport, NY

Bad bad boys

—Timon, FT.WORTH, TX

Please let journalists do their important work.

—Brennen, City, MO

Democracy is not possible without a Free Press. I stand with you.

—Paula, Abiquiu, NM

Keep up the fight. A free press is one of our most important freedoms. The authorities will always think you are dangerous when you print the truth, even in a supposedly democratic society like the US.

—James, Laredo, TX

Congratulations to you for having the determination to try and report upon the Occupy Movement. And shame on those Fascist pigs who are determined to keep you from your appointed rounds. The illegal and immoral actions directed against you have not gone unnoticed. Your oppressors will have a long-term price to pay for their attempts to control you and throttle you.

—William, Edmonds, WA

Stand strong. We support what you're doing. First Amendment rights need to be respected.

—Michael, Plattsburgh, NY

Violation of civil rights is a crime

—C, Pomfret Center, CT

You are amazing. Thank you.

—Robb, San Mateo, CA

Thank you for all that you do.

—Timi, Crandon, WI

Keep paying attention, the Political & Government leaders in charge nearby need to be held responsible for their actions.

—Michael, Renton, WA

I admire your courage to try to report on important events. I find it very sad that it takes such courage to report about events in the United States, where some think that freedom of the press is fairly strong.

—Charles, Eugene, OR

Please keep fighting.

—Howard, Livonia, MI

Can you imagine what it is going to be like if the right gets in power? There won't be any journalist, only Fox News.

—Sandra, Equinunk, PA

If the supreme court can stand in defense of the 1% right of expression with $$$ it sure as hell should be clear that journalist have the same rights!!! I stand in support of the press's right to witness and report events without reprisal from the 1%. Stop detaining journalist!

—Paula, Westland, MI

This is scary. We support all of you and what you do.

—Linda, Indian River, MI

First protestors are arrested. Now journalists. What is happening to our country? The Founding Fathers would be horrified.

—Marc, Cement, OK

Real journalists like the arrested make me have faith in the craft. keep at it. solidarity

—Christopher, Fincastle, VA

Democracy only exists when there is a free press.

—Susan, Teaneck, NJ

Occupy Freedom of the Press

—John, Staten Island, NY

Without a free press, there is no freedom

—David, San Leandro, CA

I thank you for your actions in reporting on Occupy Wall Street. I believe in freedom of the press, I just wished that more journalists believed in it also.

—Kathy, Fort Worth, TX

Stand strong, this country needs to hear what's happening in our cities... the unbiased, unspun truth.

—Bob, South Deerfield, MA

don't give up.

—Judith, Estancia, NM

Thank you for standing up for our freedom.

—Kevin, Fort Collins, CO

When you take an action that causes you to suffer more than your share for the good of others, that is an act of heroism. Thank you.

—Julie, Madison, WI

Keep fighting for the Truth that executive filth and Congress trash fear so much. Without their lies, they are nothing. NOTHING.

—Richard, Lees Summit, MO

Thank you for standing up for freedom of the press. It is ironic how our government screams about freedom of speech and the press to other oppressive governments, but somehow there is a disconnect when it comes to our country.

—JoAnne, Seattle, WA

This is the United States? Are you sure it is not North Korea?

—Denise, Taylors Falls, MN

The majority of young Americans are disgusted with the actions of the government. Hang in there guys. And thank you.

—Scott, San Angelo, TX

Keep the faith, sooner or later you will prevail over the tyranny of the government!

—Frank, Akron, OH

Please continue to fight for our Constitutional rights! The government doesn't seem to believe in this document any longer and we need to draw greater attention to that fact so we make the right choices at the voting booth this year.

—Cheryl, Parma, OH

Have hope and stay brave. Most Americans, and the current federal law, support your case.

—TM, Milwaukee, WI

WE STAND WITH YOU--AGAINST FACISM!!

—Betty, Oakhurst, CA

Why can't we have responsible journalism...? Wasn't it Walter Cronkite, who said America needs to know all of the information so that then sound ethical decisions can be addressed? Free speech is our American right as long as we do not physically hurt ourselves or others....

—Janvie, Los Angeles, CA

I am proud of you for doing what you do. It is because of that effort on your part, that we know anything at all of what is happening. Thank you.

—Joan, FRIDLEY, MN

DEAR COURAGEOUS JOURNALISTS! I SEND YOU LOVE AND LIGHT AND WANT YOU TO KNOW THAT WE ARE IN BIG BATTLES FOR THE RIGHTS THAT ARE SUPPOSED TO BE WHAT OUR NATIONAL GOV STATES IS WHAT ARE WORTH "FIGHTING FOR". IT IS A SHAME THAT USA IS ALL ABOUT DESTROYING OUR RIGHTS JUST LIKE IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER OTHER "DICTATOR" NATIONS GOV's/MILITARY ARE DOING! THE HYPOCRACY OF US GOV TOWARDS THE RIGHTS OF CITIZENS TO PROTEST WITH PEACEFUL ASSEMBLIES BY STATING SUPPORT FOR PEOPLE'S MOVEMENTS, WHILE SELLING THEIR GOV/MILITARY WEAPONS TO USE AGAINST THEIR PEOPLE IS BEYOND UNCONSCIONABLE. LET US SEEK AND FIND THE WAYS TO TAKE THIS TO A WHOLE HIGHER LEVEL BEYOND LIES AND INJUSTICES OF ECONOMIC GANGSTERS. I SPEAK POWER OF TRUTH TO LIARS AND ROBBERS.

—Meaghan, Fortuna, CA

THANK YOU FOR COVERING THIS ISSUE. THIS IS UNBELIEVEABLE THAT IT IS OCCURRING IN THE U.S., HOME TO LIBERTY FOR ALL.

—Mary, Tucson, AZ

These people are doing their duty as professional journalists to keep citizens informed. Don't tread on constitutional rights.

—Ryan, Lynnwood, WA

Journalists and Occupy Movement members are exercising their Constitutional rights and should not be hindered and/or detained.

—Susan, Albuquerque, NM

Thank you for your courage; I stand with you.

—Cynthia, Proctor, MT

Dear Journalists, The importance of you're profession cannot be overstated. Without a strong fourth estate, representative government is dead. Good journalism is every bit as significant and patriotic as taking the beaches at Normandy. I am grateful for your service to this country.

—Daniel, Appleton, WI

With such Con Artist , that passes for Supreme Courts Judges, and Congress all of our Freedom is being taken away, again we are back to the stone ages. Billie Jelks-Hood

—Billie, Madera, CA

Get the names of everyone in the chain of your arrest and then go after each one personally with lawsuits for breaking their oath to uphold the Constitution. From here on out, start every conversation with them with the question: "Are you a public servant who has sworn to uphold the Constitution?" Then assert your rights.

Blessings!

—Eli, Medford, OR

Thank you for your brave efforts to report the news so that citizens can be informed when they vote or work to make our country better.

—Sandra, Manchester, NH

Carla Alexander

—Carla, Blackwood, NJ

We are all behind you.
—Gloria, Bradenton, FL

We must take action NOW. Once started we will be done....
—Sydney, Boston,, MA

Did our constitution change without me knowing it? This is outrageous. How are us citizens supposed to know what's going on without the media? Stand strong.
—Frank, Mechanicsburg, PA

I stand with the journalists who have been arrested for merely reporting to us what is happening around the world. The arrests are barbaric and the people who conducted them are outrageous.
—Philip, Albany, NY

Thank you for your courage on the front line of defending democracy.
—Lana, Vallejo, CA

Thank you for doing what you do. For all of us.
—Katja, New Orleans, LA

As an aspiring writer, I look up to all of you. Although our views may be different, your freedom of speech should be defended. I'm proud that all of you said what you felt, that's the best was to write. You wrote something good enough to stir things up, and that's what makes you amazing.
—Emily, Bellevue, NE

It's past time to stop the goon tactics. Freedom of Speech means just that.
—Robert, New Mexico, NM

Arrested journalists? Really? Do we live in a police state or in the United States where 1st Amendment rights are protected?
—S, Fort Collins, CO

We need your voices to keep us free.
—Saphira, Raytown, MO

Why aren't Gov't public officials making sure police get CITIZENSHIP and constitutional education as requirement of the job? TY to all Journalists for their personal courage and belief in American jurisprudence and law.
—Kristen, Marshall, WI

The First Amendment is a brilliant concept, and it is a core foundation of what it fundamentally means to be American. It must always be fought for, and we must never forget its importance.
—Alexander, Westminster, CO

You are right. Shame on the police.
—M, Jensen Beach, FL

I am supporting you all in the fight against this repression. It looks like the gentle two-horned lamb is starting to speak as a dragon! (Revelation 13). Lindsay.
—Lindsay, Cleveland, OH

All charges must be dropped, unless unlawful activity occurred.

—Dale, Montclair, NJ

As a journalism grad and now as an editor, I have a special place in my heart for journalists. You are indispensable to a country seeking the truth. Keep up the great work.

—Thomas, Iowa City, IA

I am a retired newspaper reporter and a lifelong defender of freedom of the press. I am appalled that my country, "The land of the free..." has sunk so low. Without a free press, there can be no free people. Jail the banksters, not the journalists.

—Steven, Beavercreek, OR

Zeke heil

—James, Pittsburgh, PA

It is not right that journalist are being detained. We stand with you for your rights and the right of free press.

—Ken, Cooper Landing, AK

I applaud you journalists who put yourselves at risk to bring the world the truth. Thank you and God be with you.

—Sue, Lincoln, NE

I have given up on the corporate sponsored and censored journalism in the USA. I stay informed somewhat by BBC world and A Jazeera and any other foreign outlets that I can pick up. Anything is better than the US News with the spin on it.

—John E., Hood River, OR

Thank you for having the courage to speak out for truth and justice. We need more folks like you!

—Constance, Sebastopol, CA

Keep writing, keep seeking the truth. A strong press is the foundation of our nation.

—Susan, Albuquerque, NM

I am shocked to hear that journalists are being arrested when covering the occupy protests. I will do what I can to support you.

—Marilyn, Greensboro, NC

Freedom of the press means the government cannot arrest journalists investigating an event or being present at an event. The journalists are working for the sake of the people. Submit to the rule of law as written in our Constitution.

—Timothy, Jamestown, NY

Freedom of the press, freedom of the press, freedom of the press. Don't forget this crucial constitutional freedom.

—Fredrick, Aurora, CO

You have support!!

—Kathryn, Palatine, IL

Keep the faith

—Jaime, Franklin, TN

Hang in there, guys. You're "fighting the good fight!"

—Laurel, Maitland, FL

Thank you for pushing the limits of freedom for all of us.

—Jeff, Austin, TX

I stand with you!

—Robert, Burnsville, NC

Your support is quite simply invaluable.

—Cort, Portland, OR

Solidarity from Egypt where we're fighting the same battle (among others:)

—Rasha, Coral Gables, FL

The first amendment is the first for a reason.

—Joshua, Klamath Falls, OR

Onward! We are with you!

—Donald, Baltimore, MD

You are the basis upon which our freedoms are judged. Stay strong, we all support you.

—John, Winthrop, MA

Please keep writing - speak for all of us. I never thought I would see a day when every U.S. citizen is a criminal, by default, and has no rights. That day is now imminent.

—Chris, Winchester, OH

This is crazy, are we now a banana republic? What ever happened to freedom of the press??? I apologise to you on behalf of the America that still stands for a free press. Thank you Peter

—Peter, S. Pasadena, CA

The pen is mightier than the Tazer. Never give up.

—Missy, Mentor, OH

I want to thank every journalist who fights to report the truth. There is so much misleading information being spread knowing that there is little effort being made to make those accountable for spreading lies. We need journalists with ethics more than ever before. Too much money is being spent by the rich and powerful to slander those they see as threats. Please continue to report the facts and help this America become a great nation again that fights for the truth rather than special interests.

—Barbara, Chicago, IL

You are heroes, and inspire me as a fledgling journalist. Don't stop what you're doing, ever.

—Emily, Washington, DC

Thank you for all you do!

—Mary, Caseyville, IL

Thank you for attempting to record and report the truth to the 99%.

—Bob, Bellingham, WA

Stop the Bastards!

—Gilbert, PHOENIX, AZ

Why are we supporting the Arab Spring, while arresting people in our own country for covering the news?

—Alice, Miami Beach, FL

I am standing in for Charles Kuralt to tell you, you are our heroes.

—Pat, Twin Bridges, MT

We are with you!

—Daniel, Columbus, OH

You must stand for all of us now, but understand that millions of us are with you and we will be there when it counts.

—Thomas, Eugene, OR

Thank you for standing up for our freedom of speech. If we lose that we lose our country.

—Denise, Independence, MO

USA is a GREAT Country, we do not need the silencing of the Press. Our Constitution is very clear in providing the Press THE Freedom to informing every American of all THE FACTS of a happening. Keep your duties and do not let anyone to take your freedom.

—Raoul, Greenacres, FL

Keep up the good work in your fight for the 1st Amendment!

—Ruth, Indianapolis, IN

If you don't like the news, go out and make some yourself! In Solidarity!

—Thomas, Escondido, CA

They are making martyrs of you by challenging your first amendment rights. Not in THIS country. This is a challenge to All of us. No way.,

—Billie, New York, NY

I don't believe journalists can do no wrong, nor that they never break just laws. however, these statistics tell a different story.

—David, Colmar Manor, MD

THE future of our democracy (or what is left of it) depends on your dedication.

—Peter, North Conway, NH

Since the mainstream media isn't doing its job informing the citizens of this country of things that are REALLY going on, we desperately need you brave souls.

—Sandy, Pegram, TN

Thank you for working for truth.

—Marc, Eugene, OR

In a land that's known as freedom, how can such a thing be fair? - CS&N

—Mark, Placitas, NM

Our rights were given to us by our Creator. No valid government can take from us our unalienable rights.

—Lee, Austin, TX

They came for my neighbor....., and finally came for ME !!! THANK YOU for your dedication and service to keep this beacon focused on covering everything that we need as informed citizens.

—Helen, Port St Lucie, FL

Hang tough. These attacks on journalists will pass when the establishment comes to realize that millions of freedom loving Americans will not tolerate it.

—William, Enon, OH

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS (4th branch of government) MEANS YOU SHOULD BE FREE TO REPORT!

—Rich, Tucson, AZ

This is the most important ! this is not nazi Germany!

—Barbara, SUNRISE, FL

Lenore Sheridan

—Lenore, San Jose, CA

We support you in your struggle for righteousness!

—Mark, Cambridge, MA

Freedom of the press NOW!

—Andrea, Mount Laurel, NJ

Journalists are the ones that stand between the lies and the truth, informing the citizens and ensuring that we do not live in a darkness that will surely destroy humanity. Thank you for your service to the greater good of truth and God Bless you all! Regards, Paula Ernst

—Paula, Gainesville, VA

Please stand strong! Our government has become an appalling oligarchy and is trampling the rights and freedoms of all true citizens.

—Margaret, Madison, WI

No country is free without freedom of the press.

—Bilfreepress, Evergreen, CO

Thank you for your courage in bringing truth to light.

—Phyllis, Santa Barbara, CA

Our government is quick to condemn countries that detain journalists but now is joining in with them. Shame on the USA.

—Stephen, Santa Cruz, CA

thank you for your beautiful courage in protecting the rights of the writers among us . . .and therefore every citizen's rights.

—Rita, Evergreen., CO

En el 2002-2003 Contacte al Gobernador Jeb Bush para que nos ayudara a enforzar nuestros Derechos Civiles en la Corte y lo que hicieron fue ponernos una orden de "Ley de Peligrosidad" (cosa que conocia existia en Cuba contra los cubanos que actuaban en contra del Gobierno, pero no sabia existia contra los simples ciudadanos en este gran pais de Libertad) para callarnos la boca y no se supiera toda la corrupcion que hay.....He estado tratando de exponer la corrupcion en Miami, Florida, por los ultimos 9 anos, pero sin resultados, Por favor lean mi blog el cual pongo en FaceBook.com/themeadowsfmly, "Hagamos alguna JUSTICIA... o en <http://www.marinameadows.wordpress.com>, o tambien en http://www.MarinaMeadows.blogspot\(DOT\)comcom), encuentren lo que nos han hecho, como es que han utilizado nuestros records medicos para hacernos dano, medicinas alteradas acabadas de comprar en las farmacias, como nos han aislado de amigos y familiares, la manipulacion y bloqueo de la internet, correo y telefonos, y como las vidas de mis tres hijos han sido manipuladas y ellos tambien manipulados, tambien nuestra casa de 15 anos nos la quitaron con fraude y la saquearon, llevandose los documentos, records medicos y mucho mas, lean como los bancos han manipulado nuestro dinero, el papel que ha jugado la Policia y los Oficiales del Gobierno permitiendo que nos sigan abusando todos estos anos, abuso mental, emocional y por ende fisico, pero solamente han estado cubriendo las cosas mal hechas desde el principio, sin importarles la destruccion de nuestra familia, tambien quiero adicionar que el padre de mis hijos (despues que tuve una entrevista personal con el ex-alcalde Manny Diaz) y su madre (una semana antes de una cita en la Corte) murieron repentinamente de la misma causa sin tener ninguna historia medica de esa enfermedad, los dos ciudadanos Ingleses. Nosotros nos encontramos sufriendo y casi collapsando sin que nadie nos ayude; ahora despues de 6 meses que he podido estar escribiendo un poco en la internet me he podido dar cuenta de cuan corrompidas y manchadas son las cosas, manipuladas por individuos muy bien conectados, ejecutivos corporativos y Oficiales Gubernamentales motivados politicamente los cuales simplemente entierran la verdad dentro de una sombra de sistema legal inaccesible a los ciudadanos ordinarios de cada dia. Asi que le doy gracias a Dios por la fuerza que nos ha dado, y por las personas protestando en las calles#OWS desde Noviembre 17 del 2011, ya que estan ayudando a exponer la verdad tal y cual es, sacandola a la luz publica! Y a proposito si alguien por ahi con algo de humanidad, puede hacer algo por nosotros, lo apreciaremos muchisimo! Necesitamos un abogado de contingencia que no le tema enfrentarse a los jueces, y que quiera ayudarnos, ASAP, es Urgente pues mi madre esta sin medicinas y perdiendo la vision pues tampoco puede hecharse sus gotas de glaucoma, ni tomar ninguna medicina prescrita que necesite, ya que las cuales estaban alteradas y le causaron danos a su salud, hemos perdido la confianza en los medicos en general, tambien nosotros estamos pereciendo.....somos personas reales existiendo pero no viviendo! Por favor chequear: www.targetedindividuals.com www.areyoutargeted.com
—Marina, Miami, FL

Thank you for standing up for our rights by continuing to report the news we are entitled to receive, even when you have been deprived of your freedom. Thank you for teaching the Police Department, it is their responsibility to protect, not disrespect, the work you do.
—Laura, New York, NY

The people of the world who are free, think we are free or wish we were free, stand by you and share a deep sense of concern over the increase in police state tactics in America at the direction of federal, state and local government police agencies. We are being told, through their actions, that they will tolerate only so much civil disobedience with no action. Step across the line into serious territory and start questioning, probing, gathering of data and exposing the big money string pullers and you are toast! I'm hoping that a future requirement for a journalist job is a police arrest record for investigative reporting. That way, you guys will be honored and not disgraced! Hang in there, we know who's side you're on. It can't last forever. Keep up the great work. It's the only way we know what's going on. Mainstream media is keeping a tight lip on the true news.
—Abra, Portland, OR

I hope and pray that you will soon be back safe with your families.
—Diane, Frisco, TX

We all suffer when information is unavailable. Democracy requires fully informed citizenry. Arrests of journalists create a chilling atmosphere in which other journalists work.
—Joan and Wallace, Mountain View, CA

Hopefully this petition will free you, if we still are granted Freedom of the Press....our First Amendment rights....
—Maureen, Harrisburg, PA

Thank you for doing what is right. I fear that America is no longer the land of the free.
—Melody, Las Vegas, NV

My Grampaw was a crusading Socialist newspaper editor. I think there's a little printers' ink running in my veins.
—Ted, Madison, WI

Thank you for trying to bring us our nation's news so that I don't have to rely on other country's news about us.
—Judith, Olympia, WA

The assault of the freedom of the press from the right has been going on for years. I watched during the Repugnican convention members of the independent media being rounded up and jailed. Then the right has the nerve to refer to our soldiers abroad as defending our "freedom." Janis Joplin was absolutely correct--"freedom's just another for nothin' left to lose."
—William, Rose City, MI

Hang in there, don't cave!
—Jay, Somerville, MA

Keep doing the IMPORTANT work that you are doing, and we will continue to support you and fight for you---
THANKS for all you do, it is truly respected and appreciated !!!! All My Best, Robert P. Bard Easthampton, Ma., usa
—Robert, Easthampton, MA

We support you.
—Lisa, Encino, CA

I stand with you to protect freedom of information
—Eburn, Hot springs, SD

Thanks for all of YOUR hard work!
—Gregory, Asheville, NC

Thank you for risking so much to help make sure our citizens have access to the truth about what is really happening in our country.
—Frances, APPLETON, WI

GIVE EM HELL !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
—John, San Francisco, CA

I will rave about your bravery, help focus a spotlight on crimes against journalists' freedom--because your voice IS our voice.
—Chris, Santa barbara, CA

Know many Americans stand with you.
—Hugh, Fort Collins, CO

Hang in there y'all! I admire you for daring to seek out and bring us the truth in these deeply troubled times. May the truth prevail and the Establishment fools soon learn and pay for the errors of their desperation. I'm a journalism student - probably should be in there with you. Stay alive!

—Brad, Idaho Falls, ID

If people like you would not stand up for everyone's right to learn the truth about this world, who else would? My support is with you - the dumbing down of nations can only be stopped by responsible journalists keeping up the good fight of honest reporting.

—Elly, Gilbert, AZ

It gives me great Pleasure to know there are true journalists in this country still, who understand their obligation to truth. not just the production of whatever pap their corporate masters require. Thank you for your integrity, and good luck.

—Jerry, Enumclaw, WA

Stay the path, keep working to report to us. We are heading towards fascisim so needing to know has become even more important. -- Jill Alexander

—Jill, Columbia Falls, MT

We don't live in a Communist country where our journalists have to silenced! This is outrageous!!

—Dale, Fishers, IN

Thank you for continuing to keep us informed with the truth.

—Margie, Corinna, ME

Are we becoming a police state or are we already there?

—Jacqueline, Pine River, MN

I stand with you and realize how important you work is in a democratic society. Let me know what I can do to help.

—Mark, Orland Park, IL

Stand strong, and know that we support you and the work you are trying to do. Thank you.

—Kathryn, Yacolt, WA

Take heart. They're just treating you like they treat citizens in general. Keep that in mind when you write your articles.

—Kandeda, Albion, CA

Only dictatorships arrest journalists for doing their jobs.

—Tim, State College, PA

Thanks for trying to get the word out.

—J, Chico, CA

Journalist's rights to observe, report and communicate to all audiences MUST be preserved. Bob Pruzek, NY

—Robert, Gansevoort, NY

When any journalist puts themselves at risk of arrest, a beating and death, it is for the right of all humans across the world to know what freedom of speech is all about and the fatal consequences that freedom is facing by not reporting on those human abuses throughout a transparency of voices.

—Gus, San Francisco, CA

Take heart!

—Frank, Dubuque, IA

Journalists, Know that by First Amendment activism you are not only looking after my fourth estate interests as a Citizen that needs the fourth estate to remain critically informed--but that you are acting on the right side of history, of morality and ethics, and American First Amendment practices and principles that must be exercised vigorously--otherwise democracy is a sham in these United States.

—BA, San Francisco, CA

Keep up the good work! I support you completely.

—Joseph, Fort Worth, TX

Stand strong for our Constitution and our rights and liberties. Be brave. We appreciate you.

—Carol, Lincoln city, OR

I have experienced the muzzling of protests both in the anti war march over irag and the protest march on Wall st when they wouldn't let us March. In neither march did the press really cover the wholesale intimidation by police. If the press is beginning to feel the heat maybe now we will here some truth. I definitely stand for free press and free journalists. Brenda Bufalino

—Brenda, NYC, NY

Freedom of the press is being destroyed by bad politics. I vote with the journalists who take their jobs seriously.

—Charlotte, Fountain Valley, CA

What happened to the First Amendment?

—Elaine, Roanoke, VA

You are the guys who protect our freedom. Good luck.

—Mae, Brooklyn, NY

You are all TRUE PATRIOTS! Never let anybody tell you any different.

—Danny, Shoreline, WA

Thanks for working in the cause of freedom and liberty. "Let the people know the facts and the country will be safe." – Abraham Lincoln

—Phillip, Fort Collins, CO

Let my journalists go!

—Charles, Mesa, AZ

Keep on fighting and don't give up!

—Brad, Salt Lake City, UT

We'll get you all through this!

—Roni, Seattle, WA

See the truth, know the truth, share the truth. You will not be forgotten.

—Richard, Ann Arbor, MI

Your courage can keep us all in freedom!

—Robert, Manhattan Beach, CA

I need to know what goes on in the world. I appreciate the hard work that you do. You should not have to get arrested while doing your job! Our government is overstepping its bounds.

—Keith, Bellingham, WA

Thank you for standing up for the freedom of the press. American journalism needs more like you!

—Angela, Kenmore, WA

I applaud your efforts, and appreciate your sacrifice to keep people in the know, and report real news. I am sick of the infotainment that poses for news and just contributes to a society of dummies. But of course that is what our corporate owned government wants.

—Sarah, Paris, AR

Thanks for going after the truth.

—Murl, Vancouver, WA

Thank you for your work to defend AMERICAN values.

—Lance, Renton, WA

Long live the Constitution of the United States.....thoughts are with you!

—Denise, Barrington, IL

We all know that you are in the right. Freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, and all our other rights and freedoms must not be compromised.

—Daniel, Milwaukee, WI

Democracy Yes. Plutocracy NO.

—Fred, Beaumont, TX

Not since the freedom of the press trial of John Peter Zenger in 1735 and the uproar created by Daniel Ellsberg's release of the Pentagon Papers in 1971 have our democratic freedoms been so threatened as the challenges our journalists are facing today. We stand behind you all the way, because without the freedom of the press, there can be no democracy, nor can we keep our freedoms as enshrined in our Constitution. Keep the faith!

—Herschel, San Francisco, CA

Thanks for standing strong. I'm with you in spirit.

—Howard, Vancouver, WA

Honest reporting is difficult enough without having to fear judicial prosecution. Keep up the fight.

—James, F, CA

Real journalists are a dying breed. From one side, the profession is prostituting itself and from the other the security state attacks. Stay strong! You do more for democracy than any soldier overseas can do!

—Fernando, Washington, DC

This egregious assault upon the freedom of the press has flown in the face of the principles that must be upheld in order for us to have a free or democratic society. The right to communicate freely is absolutely essential.

—Blake, Orchard Park, NY

Never stop- the Truth is worth fighting for.

—Alan, Lakewood, OH

Keep your chin up!

—Ned, Baltimore, MD

Without freedom of the press we will have no democracy. Keep fighting!

—Beverly, Sherman Oaks, CA

Any interference with the press is an assault on our constitution, and must not be allowed.

—Tim, Naperville, IL

Real journalists have been marginalized thanks to Rupert Murdoch and his evil cronies!

—Tracey, West Sacramento, CA

Do we live in the 'United States of Communism?' or the 'United States of America? I as many others are beginning to wonder. Journalist have a right to report facts not arrested, not have the police take their camera's from them and erase their fotage. Why is this happening and whom is it that we should consider the criminals?

—Debra, Monongahela, PA

Democracy cannot exist without Free Press.

—Microft, Carthage, NY

"I may not agree with what you say, but I defend your right to say it". Hell we all know where this came from, I stoled it.

—Robert, Glendale, AZ

I support you. Thank you for being brave, although you probably didn't intend to need courage.

—Elizabeth, Hollister, CA

I hope you can secure legal representation to put an end to this suppression, including the helicopter press blackouts.

—Tara, Keene, NH

Without independent journalists taking risks to expose abuse of power, what's left of our democracy would die from lack of information. Thanks for what you do.

—Paul, Seattle, WA

Thank you for taking a stand for MY rights!

—Caroline, Somerville, MA

Thank you for acting on behalf of the future.

—Jann, Lindsay, CA

What kind of country is this? The old Soviet Union? Red China? We don't arrest journalists.

—Bill, Philadelphia, PA

Thank you for your courageous work. Our liberty is at greater risk than ever!

—Nathan, Brooklyn, NY

Thank You for standing up for freedom

—Velvet, Leesburg, FL

I am not surprised by this development. The policeman simply does what he is told; his job is on the line. We need policemen to think outside the box, and we must encourage this.

—Vincent, Encinitas, CA

—Claudia, Mesa, AZ

take heart the public is with you and your position is undeniably correct.

—Kelli, Sunnyvale, CA

I appreciate your efforts to get the truth out. I am with you in thought and prayer.

—Valerie, St George, KS

Freedom of the press is a cornerstone of our democracy. End the war on journalists now!

—William, Carlton, OR

The people of this country are rising up against the corporate elite and the media must be allowed to cover this huge outcry from Americans. How can you possibly arrest journalists who are exercising their right of free speech!

—Glenda, Normandy Park, WA

Someone has to stand up against the fascist takeover of our country! Keep fighting the good fight!.

—Paul, Richmond Heights, OH

Thank you for your courage and please know that there are millions out there who fully support you!

—Ilse, Berkeley, CA

Stay strong, and know we're behind you all the way!

—Chuck, Selden, NY

We are with you.

—Allan, Albany, CA

Please don't give up your important work because of political bullies.

—Sandra, San Antonio, TX

It takes courage to take risks, but whatever other faults there may be with public media, without journalists, democracy might not survive.

—Stephen, Centreville, VA

Stay strong, you WILL win.

—Jean, St. Clair Shores, MI

we stand beside you and are appalled at the penalties for free speech.

—Dolores, Chula Vista, CA

As a citizen of the United States, I support freedom of the press. I deplore the violations of press freedom which are now taking place in our democracy.

—Alice, St. Louis, MO

Without free speech, we will not be America. You are the test of freedom, may justice be with you!

—Michael, Anza, CA, CA

I deeply appreciate your efforts to keep us all informed.

—Mattie, Sonoma, CA

You are our heros. We will not forget you.

—Kirk, Harrison Twp., MI

Thank you for serving the people, democracy, and for doing your duties. We are indebted to you.

—May, Broomfield, CO

Thank you for helping us to see the truth.

—Catherine, New York, NY

Your fight against secrecy does not go unnoticed. Please do't give up

—Howard, SLC, UT

When political pigs are afraid of the truth being exposed its time to butcher a few pigs.

—James, Winter Park, FL

Its a slippery slope to fascism. We're on it. freedom of thepress is the first freedom to go. We stand with you and commend your courage. Don't be afraid to ask forhelp whn neede, such as a legal defense fund, demonstrations of support, etc, because you are standing in the breach for all of us!

—Peter & Bonnie, Sutherlin, OR

Keep up the good work. The world needs to know what is going on and the fact that some people are willing to stand up to the economic tyranny that has been imposed on us.

—James, Fresno, CA

really sorry that our government treats there own this way, its a crime

—Pete, Davenport, IA

Some of us still remember what America is supposed to be about, and we are tired of seeing journalists mistreated as a price for doing their jobs. Democracy only exists when there is a free, unmolested press corps. I stand with the defense of our 50 patriotic journalists who have been detained in this, the United States, for the cost of bringing our citizens a first-hand account of the vital stories of the day.

—Kevin, Bloomfield Hills, MI

As a baby-boomer, I've lived long enough to know that this country has changed and NOT for the better. I don't recognize my democratic, free nation anymore...it used to be beautiful. I hope that it's not too late to save it!

—Georgeanne, Port Jefferson Station, NY

Freedom of the press is critical to an informed citizenry. It is critical for our democracy to function effectively.

—Sally, St. Paul, MN

Arresting journalists trying to do their jobs is a national disgrace, as well as unConstitutional. The powers-that-be must really be getting worried.

—Judith, Spokane Valley, WA

Leslee Cotlow

—Leslee, San Francisco, CA

We don't need to replay 1939!! Thank You!

—Fred, Eden, NY

The arrests of these journalists sadly make it more obvious that our rights and freedoms are being suppressed by the wealthy corporate rulers of this country. While the journalists commitment to their work is amazingly admirable, it is a very sad moment in our history that we must openly admit and unite to challenge the corporate suppressors.

—Sue, Springfield, MO

FEW FEELING FREE FATHOM REEDOM

—James, East Meredith, NY

I also admire Malcolm Harris, his writing and journalism work

—Helen, Lanham, MD

Keep doing it , we need your honesty. OCCUPY >>>

—Robert, Santa Rosa, CA

I would venture to guess that none of the arrested were from the MSM. It is the reporters who will actually tell the truth that are being taken.

—Bryan, Moorhead, MN

A democracy cannot function if people are uninformed of current events. Journalists provide information. We need them free to responsibly inform us.

—Julie, Menlo Park, CA

Words seem inadequate to tell you how I sorry I am that you have been mistreated; indeed illegally, in your duty to report the reality of what is happening to our democracy. We'll back you all the way, Sr. Renee Brinker
—Renee, O'Fallon, MO

Hang in there !
—Pat, New York, NY

Be strong! We are trying to help your dilemma! Thank you for all your the hard work, & fortitude!
—Pamela, ABQ, NM

We are losing our freedoms every day. Both parties are hacking away at them. Thank you for standing up for our constitutional rights.
—Patricia, Indianapolis, IN

Thanxxx for being on the front lines of Freedom!!!
—CH, Freeland, WA

Dear journalists, no, you do not live in China or any other number of countries without a free press, you still live in America, where reprehensible and unconstitutional actions such as this will be punished. It just may take time is all, so keep smiling and be patient.
—Chris, Denver, CO

Do you really want to evolve into a totalitarian state?
—Ed, Santa Monica, CA

As a photographer, hearing of these arrests of journalists has a particularly chilling effect. Photography and journalism are not crimes! A truly free press is crucial to our democracy. We must save the free press!
—Joann, Seattle, WA

My Son, Philip Smucker, was a journalist until last year-now with USAID. He was arrested by the Marines in Iraq. I (we) support your efforts. John Smucker
—John, ALEXANDRIA, VA

Your work is critical. Hang in there!
—George, Frazier Park, CA

You are, collectively, the penultimate bastion of freedom. We the People, the ultimate bastion, stand behind you and support you, because you so often ask the questions that we should be asking, and in the name of truth and transparency take the risks we will not take.
—Robert, San Jose, CA

I think it's no accident journalists are under attack. In a world where knowledge is power moreso than ever before, this is an attempt to cut off the head of the snake. It will not succeed. Citizen journalists will always be doing what they do, and attacking credentialed journalists will only serve to turn the mainstream media to our cause. Do the right thing and knock it off.
—Jeremy, Rising Sun, MD

All the assholes in congress KNOW exactly what will happen to them, can you Buttheads say re-election. Good luck with that.
—D, Redway, CA

Freedom of speech is guaranteed by the Constitution; thank you for being such patriots by exposing the hypocrisy and facism in the USA nowadays.

—Tom, Sunland, CA

I want you writing about this stuff!

—Michael, Brooklyn, NY

You are an American Patriot of the Highest Order! Stand tall and maintain your integrity and do not back down. Semper Decimus!

—David, Mayville, NY

To all true journalists worldwide, Thankyou for your efforts. Information is everything to a free-society, without it and without you to deliver it, we the people will forever be at the mercy of those who have the opportunity and means to manipulate and control every important junction in the pathway of our lives, and thus we will be truly subject to anything but freedom! Jim

—Jim, Omaha, NE

Journalists are the people who provide the world with information on what is happening. They bring a trained mind and generally objective view to what they observe. They serve democracy at its very basic level by informing the public. They serve a vital function. Arresting journalists for doing their job and reporting on things government wants hidden is anathema in a true democracy. When a democracy feels a need to arrest its journalists then it is no longer a democracy. It descends into the abyss of other governments' actions which it decries and reaches the height of hippocracy . Take heart - your job is vitally important to this country and the world.

—Abigail, Newburg, PA

The right to assembly and freedom of the press are the BASICS of democracy.

—Pamelea, Westerville, OH

My heart and my prayers are with you. Know you are right!

—Teri, East Hartford, CT

The 1st Amendment guarantees the right to assembly, freedom of association, and freedom of the press. The 4th Amendment forbids undue arrest and seizure without probable cause, a warrant and due process. By arresting journalists and peaceful protesters that have violated no laws, the police are committing acts of treason against the American people. We the people must defend ourselves against this tyranny and demand that it stop.

—Elroy, Marysville, WA

Thank you for your courage, insight, and dedication.

—Nancy, Portland, OR

Stay strong. We are all fighting to keep our rights as our government attempts to dismantle our Constitution.

—Sheri, Gainesville, FL

Fight back with all you've got for your profession and for our fundamental rights given to you and us under the first amendment. Many, many thanks.

—Caroline, Sherman Oaks, CA

Thank you for your efforts to maintain a free press. I hope that it isn't too late.

—Arthur, Chapel Hill, NC

They took your freedom- NOT your "Liberty"!

—James, Marysville, WA

—David, Kingston, NH

Keep fighting the good fight. We need you. Thank you. Robin Z.

—Robin, Bodfish, CA

You are the wall that must never fall.

—David, Brownsville, TX

I'm one who's got your back.

—Kathleen, Sloansville, NY

I am outraged at the abuse you have experienced. Please keep up the good work. I support you 100%.

—Darien, Northampton, MA

Dad, cousin and ex all fought for our freedom... Were their efforts to protect the US merely territorial? I believe not.

—Carol, Huntingdon Valley, PA

without the free and open press we are lost. Thank you for speaking truth to power.

—Joyce, Waltham, VT

You guys are doing the real news and our mainstream media should be ashamed for what they earn to do their corporate style news. Democracy is at stake when corporate interests own the news. Please keep the faith - I am ashamed of our leaders to allow police to run our streets with terrorism. That you and the other peaceful protesters are under attack by thug police.

—Vera, Lighthouse Point, FL

Courageous. Simply courageous.

—R, Leesburg, FL

You are covering an important event of US History. Getting arrested is clearly a violation of First Amendment rights, and should be overturned and your court costs, etc should be paid back to you and your news organizations by the cities, etc who made this mistake. They are the ones who should be arrested, and you can cover that additional story.

—Sandra, Sharon, MA

I'm in Germany and I'm horrified at the things you are being subjected to in a country which calls itself "Land of the free"! I so much hope that there will be a change for the better!

—Naomi, ,

Any abridgement of First Amendment rights is not only unconstitutional, it's unAmerican! I support you all 1000%!

—Linda, Canterbury, CT

How soon will the Untied States become tied up in a police state?

—Barbara, Laredo, TX

Without a free, unrestricted press and journalists who report the truth, free speech, democracy and a free society for all is in serious jeopardy of being lost to current and future generations. If that happens, the "Dream" that once was America for all the world to try to replicate will be lost forever. Those are just the facts!

—Allen, Holyoke, MA

It is a travesty that today in our country an "Old Guard" that wants to take us back to the days of Nixon and the police abuse of powers rampant during those times, still exists today. I stand firmly against any such ideal for America and those who propose it.

—Gene, Sebastian, FL

Please let me know if you will ever be covering a story in the SW Michigan area. It would be my Honor and Privilege to be arrested right alongside you in defense of OUR 1st amendment rights!

—Stephen, Middleville, MI

Solidarity with our eyes and ears!

—Frank, Conrad, MT

Without you we become a dictatorship. You have our prayers and blessings for your work, and especially for your COURAGE.

—Rick, Cranston, RI

Muzzle dangerous dogs, not Journalists.

—T, Burbank, CA

Keep up the great work please, for your freedoms and ours!

—Maurice, Santa Cruz, CA

These assaults on the 1st Amendment must stop. The right of the public to stand up for themselves must not be abridged, and journalist must expose all attempts to silence our voices.

—Leland, Millville, DE

You have my support. I know first-hand what it takes to stand up under continual verbal and physical abuse for long periods of time stretching into years. I learned to source almost entirely from within.

—Patricia, Marietta, GA

At this moment, we have a half-dozen or more Mexican journalists applying for political asylum because of death threats. Is this the future for American journalists?

—Violet, Las Cruces, NM

If the Free Press goes, everything else America stands for is at risk.

—Jackson, Poland, ME

With all the news that I read, arresting journalists is the one that made me look over my shoulder while my skin was crawling.

—Catharine, Alpine, TX

Can this be happening in America?

—Donna, Norfolk, VA

Thank you for continuing your work to tell the truth. Even if your voices are few, they will eventually be heard!

Hang in there, Josh!

—Barbara, Duncannon, PA

thank you for standing for the freedoms.

—Thomas, Beverly, MA

You are abusing the rights of US Citizens - STOP!

—Leonard, Austin, TX

I stand with you!!!! journalists need to be free to report the news

—Helga, Somerset, NJ

You are not forgotten.

—Ann-Patrice, Rockport, MA

We are witnesses, and are with you. Please continue, and report MORE!

—Mark, St. Petersburg, FL

Thank you for going after the news. The true health of the nation depends on your search for the truth. We depend on you. Not sensationalism. Not for furthering private and hidden agendas, but for the truth as wisely you can tell it.

—Kathleen, Malden, MA

Thank You for all you do for us.

—Russell, Georgetown, TX

I stand with you in faith,

—Robin, Braintree, MA

Thank you for your service and sacrifice. The American public need you.

—Doug, Idaho Falls, ID

Thanks for trying to stand up for us, in a time when the government is completely bought and is trying to cash it all in. It's disgusting and I'm wondering how many months, weeks, or days it'll be before we're just another Egypt or Libya or Syria waiting to happen...but it's good to know some people are fighting to help remove the blinders.

—Christopher, Columbus, OH

Thanks to the REAL journalists in the U.S. who report the stories our mainstream media refuses to recognize.

—Maria, San Diego, CA

Don't give up. Keep beating the drum.

—Sharon, Anaheim, CA

Please know thousands of us are disgusted by your treatment - thank you for standing up for our right to know - and your right to publicise!

—Joan, Bell, FL

Hang in there!! We are real proud of the work you are doing!. "I hear barking Sancho, a sign that we are galloping" (Don Quixote)

—Ricardo, Las Vegas, NV

You are our first line of defense and offense in the game of information integrity. Of course this is no game, so we are taking this most egregious assault on the First Amendment seriously. America can't be locking up its first responders for the sake of politics!

—Luanne, Visalia, CA

Horrible! Corrupt! The arrest of journalists covering a very popular movement to the average citizen of this country sounds very fishy to me. Once again, money is trampling our rights! I'm so sorry you were arrested and hope you will not give up this fight. I appreciate a true journalist in this sad day of corporate owned media. Thank you for taking a stand.

—Janet, Culpeper, VA

Go hard or go home!

—Cody, Centuria, WI

Thank you for everything you do!

—Allison, Raleigh, NC

In solidarity, I salute your courage and commitment.

—William, Boulder, CO

As a Canadian, I have deeply appreciated the role of the USA modelling freedom of speech for the free world. Given that you all were covering the Occupy movements in your communities and that you were arrested for your fair reporting of what is important to people. It is clear that you are being muzzled by those who fear the organizers of the 99%. I commend your courage and I hope that you can publicize to the world's citizens that America is in danger of becoming the new oppressors of freedom of speech.

—Brian, Vancouver, BC, WA

Thank you for trying to cover the true story and taking the hit in the name of justice!

—Tony, Albuquerque, NM

It seems freedom of speech and the right of reporters to do their jobs is again at risk. Thank you for standing up for all of us and I hope that all your charges will be dropped immediately.

—Carole, Amesbury, MA

Capitalism is organized crime. ... END CORPORATE RULE !!! Thanks for being there. 99%

—Stephen, Bonita Springs, FL

Take heart. (Most of) the American people will support you when they learn of the situation.

—Myron & Carole, West Hartford, CT

We need you now more than ever.!

—Aletta, Mesilla park, NM

Thank you!

More and more the US is functioning like an authoritarian nation, I never thought that would happen here.

—Eugene, Hummelstown, PA

Stay strong and keep telling it like it is! The world needs to know, and it is up to you to find out the TRUTH and tell the people. THANK YOU!

—Bridget, New York, NY

Thanks for your courage and willingness to speak out against the corrosive corruption of greed.

—Kenneth, St Paul, MN

Freedom of speech is an intrinsic right. This still is the USA, right?

—Roann, Hampton, NJ

Thank you for your service and courage.

—Mitchell, Rockford, IL

Please release the journalists! They are only doing their job to keep our democracy free and open!

—Allegra, High Hill, MO

TO HELL WITH THE DAMN NY DISTRICT ATTORNEY!

—Jeanine, St. Louis, MO

Stand firm!

—Jenny, Eugene, OR

Your work is essential to a free and informed people. When the press is tamed, so is our freedom. Stand fast and thank you.

—David, Moorhead, MN

Everyone must insist that any organization that claims to be in the news business must be accountable to tell the truth. We should stand up and run Murdock out of our country or put him on trial like they did to Tokyo Rose or Axis Sally as a traitor to the truth.

—Tim, Boulder, CO

Yours is a position in which it is harder to be a good citizen than most. All Americans, and indeed people of a hopefully democratic world, owe you much.

—John, St. Augustine Beach, FL

Hang tough, all of us are losing our freedoms. The so called "Patriot Act" is one of the worst laws ever passed in this country.

—James, Grove, OK

Brave citizens, thank you for continuing to stand up for our rights. We the 99% are with you.

—Ruth, Black Hawk, CO

Thank you all for your bravery.

—Johnathan, Harwick, PA

Freedom of the press is fundamental and essential in a democracy. If it is compromised, then democracy is eroded.

—Jim, Austin, TX

Stay strong. You're doing important work and the rest of us are grateful for your sacrifices.

—Teale, Santa Cruz, CA

We care and will object until they lock us up for doing so.

—Dale, Ouray, CO

There is a reason why Freedom of the Press was part of the FIRST amendment to our Constitution. We cannot tolerate strong-arm tactics from the government that is SUPPOSED TO represent us!

—Jeff, Alden, NY

The Constitution, the supreme law of the land, protects freedom of speech and a free press!!!

—Amy, Durango, CO

These arrests are an embarrassment to law enforcement everywhere.

—Paul, Minneapolis, MN

You represent the very best Journalism, and are to be congratulated for standing up for freedom of the press.

Thank You.

—John, Salem, IL

Thanks for doing what you do.

—Justin, Peoria, AZ

Freedom of speech is one of our most important principles. EVERYONE needs to support it.

—Mark, Honolulu, HI

thanks for doing this for me and all of us!

—Millicent, City, NJ

Thank you for all you do and for all the risks you take to report the news and preserve democracy!

—Michael, City, CA

melissa kraus

—Melissa, Summerville, PA

We have your back. Please hang in there!!

—Rita, Norwich, CT

Keep up the good work

—Marie, Flushing, MI

A free society requires a free press. We thank them for their work.

—Margaret, Dallas, TX

Thanks for your courage.

—Rebekah, Missoula, MT

Keep up the good work.No more government managed news R Bostaph..

—R, Santa rosa, CA

The journalists are part of the 99%, you put them in jail, you put the 99% in jail. This is a big mistake. We will not stop working to have the Banksters and Mortgage Fraudsters brought up on charges. They have committed the crimes, not the journalists who are covering our concerns over CRIMINAL ACTIVITY BY THE BANKS!

—Dawn, Dublin, OH

Again, we're not the fuckin' Chinese here! Why can't we get that?!?

—Young, Forest Hills, NY

I am appalled that journalists are being arrested as though they were covering some banana republic. Shame on the police and shame on the governing officials who call for their arrest.

—Margaret, Anchorage, AK

Raúl Martínez

—Raul, Hutto, TX

Journalism MUST be free of all and any influences.

—Lapo, Brooklyn, NY

Thank you for fighting so hard to report on the truth, even at great personal risk.

—Dane, Chula Vista, CA

These arrests are outrageous. I can't believe that this is happening especially with the 1st amendment... I believe the reasons for which the police are arresting people needs to be changed. They have way too much freedom & loopholes to do whatever they want.

—Adam, Northfield, OH

You are the front line in defending our right to free speech. Keep up the fight.

—Jacob, San Antonio, TX

You have the right to freedom of press and no matter how much the government may try to silence the press it won't be silent. People need to know the truth and the truth will not be silenced.

—Andres, Mecca, CA

We are with you brothers!

—Gary, Lexington Park, MD

It seems strange that our President & Sec. of State are condemning other countries for the very actions that are being allowed to occur in our own country.

—Brian, Abilene, TX

Democracy can only flourish when the people are educated and informed. Thank you for helping get the truth out, and know that press freedom is worth fighting for.

—Verna, Sarasota, FL

Freedom of the press is our most important freedom, that is why it was the 1st Amendment!

—Edwin, Statesville, NC

As a working member of the media I support your First Amendent rights and the stand you are taking against censorship. Freedom of information and holding power accountable is vital to a free and open society. Like any freedom these rights must be protected from those who would profit by controlling information. Please continue your fight and know that you have support from countless other journalists and the public who depend on us to find the truth.

—Andrew, Tolleson, AZ

Please include the brave live streamer/citizen journalists who have been beaten and attacked by police,

—Clark, San Francisco, CA

Keep fighting for our rights and covering the real news.

—Todd, El cajon, CA

You give us hope, you give us strength and, most importantly, you give us focus to fight the good fight. And you have my undying gratitude.

—Alan, Diamondhead, MS

Our constitution is being ignored in so many ways. I feel that we are entering a new dark ages. We must continue fighting.

—Robin, Valley Village, CA

I applaud you for taking a stand and for exposing the truth. We need more journalists that are willing to do what needs to be done in order for the truth to be revealed. Thank you, so very much for all you do.

—Allan, Martinez, CA

I feel like the entire constitution is under attack by our own government.

—Robert, Temecula, CA

God bless all the Journalists that are being arrested unjustly. Please do not stop what you are doing, which is reporting the truth about all the corrupt people in our country.

—Mitchell, Bronx, NY

I'm proud to stand by you. Just as Americans are proud of those who take arms on our behalf, I'm just as proud of those who cover important events and report the truth to the rest of us. Those who lock up journalists are, as far as I'm concerned, the enemies of all Americans and should be locked up themselves for violating the the free speech rights that are guaranteed in our constitution. Those who would arrest journalists in this country are no better than the thugs we hear about in places like Lybia, Syria and anywhere in the world where evil rules. Shame on them. Stand strong. All freedom loving people, in this country, and everywhere are behind you.

—Frank, Mayer, AZ

Hang in there, you are the true heros. Know that we appreciate the risks that you take to get the truth out to us.

—Lisa, Lakewood, CO

Thank you for your courage to truthfully report what is happening at the risk of incarceration and in protection of our constitutional rights.

—Judy, Santa Rosa, CA

This is the scariest thing I've heard about our police state.

—Frederic, Norfolk, VA

I wonder what citizens of a third world country think when they look to the U.S. and see the U.S. Constitution trampled on by a government that is out of control.

—Jay, North Bethesda, MD

Anyone involved in the Occupy Movement is a true hero. Thank you for all of your sacrifices.

—Tim, Medina, OH

Yes, thank you VERY much for your work. For getting the truth out there that others would seek to cover up or twist with their lies. You are not breaking any laws, but showing the world the truth and for that I applaud you. Be strong and take care.

—Tabitha, York, PA

Protect the First Amendment!

—Rick, Carlsbad, CA

Keep up the good fight.

—Kyle, San Carlos, CA

Thank you for helping protect everyone's freedom and our shared future

—Rand, Snohomish, WA

Thank you for bringing the public the images and stories they need to gain a broader understanding of these important issues. Your sacrifices do not go unacknowledged—at least not with me.

—James, Wichita, KS

Freeeeeeedom

—Tony, City, FL

When you arrest journalists it means the world is ending. We live on this planet together. We are responsible for treating each other well, and if we don't we can't deny others the resources to let everyone know.

—Alexandra, Brooklyn, NY

stay strong noble ones

—Keith, Boulder, CO

America stands with you if they believe in truth and freedom.

—Maureen, Lewis Center, OH

You do a service to society, one that most would be afraid to do at times. It is beyond archaic and stupid that you have been arrested—also frightening as has been said. I stand with you in your fight for the right of First Amendment protection.

—Sharon, Mt. Vernon, IL

YOU ARE OUR HEROS

—James & Emily, Lafayette, CO

Keep up the fight. We are right with you.

—Norman, Durham, NC

The First Amendment is not just for journalists — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech

—Jackie, Christiansburg, VA

Forty one years ago, as a young free lance photographer, I was arrested and charged with assault on an officer. Charges were dismissed after the police presented so little evidence at trial that I did not even have to present a defense. Stand strong and thank you for your work.

—Richard, East Thetford, VT

Keep up the good fight! We need real news! Thank you for your continued effort in providing much needed information to all of us, intentionally left in the dark.

—Jerry, Tempe, AZ

Without a free Press we are lost !

—JC, Sumner, WA

We the American People have all of you in our thoughts and our prayers. Stand tough and don't back down. God Bless each of you.

—Penny, Palestine, TX

We look to a time when telling the truth is not a risky business. Thank you for your courage!

—Kimberly, Lafayette, CO

Beat them with a Pencil, Write, Expose, Publish, speak out, never never give the abusers any rest. Tea Party Stinks!!

—Allen, Lake Charles, LA

Patricia Cohen

—Patricia, Arlington, MA

You are freedom's first line of defense. America has your back. Never give up.

—Russell, Macon, GA

Thank you for your brave stand. In a world where freedom of the press is under attack and needs to be protected and defended everywhere, we in the United States which used to (and should be) a beacon of freedom of speech and press need to stand up for this basic human right. Good for you!

—Elizabeth, Arlington, VA

Stand tall, we support you!

—Walter, Elmwood Park, IL

Now they're arresting journalists? Geez, we really have become a banana republic, haven't we? Thank you for your courageous voice.

—Marlena, Glendale, AZ

This is not the type of thing that should be happening in our country!

—Elisha, Southlake, TX

We are behind you, and standing with you in your struggle to cover these important events, openly and honestly. The First Amendment came FIRST for a reason - all of our freedoms in this country depend upon freedom of speech. You are not alone in this fight!

—Mary, Leverett, MA

This deeply saddens me for you and our country. I am not proud of what our government and embarrassed that we are losing our rights daily. Shame on the police who are supposed to protect our constitution. I wish all the arrested journalists and protesters well.

—Mark, Helena, MT

I don't know every detail of what happened, but I do support your (and my) right to document and report on whatever is happening in the world. It is one of the most important things that sets this country apart from the rest of the world, and we ought to be a shining example of the freedoms of speech and of the press. Even if I don't agree with something you say, I will defend your right to say it, and I hope that you would do the same for me. As a journalist myself, I stand by you and our natural rights.

—Tyler, Hoschton, GA

Off and on, I have been involved with journalism since college. I now write business stories for the local newspaper. I have never been an investigative reporter, let alone arrested. Maybe I'm a chicken?

—Joy, Mason City, IA

How can we let this go unchallenged? Our rights are being attacked and no one is taking notice. It seems we've taken up where Russia left off after the cold war. The Constitution and the Bill of Rights (along with other landmark documents) are being shredded right before our eyes, all in the name of "Security." Make our politicians give back our freedoms before this bad dream we are living becomes the norm.

—Ross, Waunakee, WI

Enough with how so many people have violated our First Amendment rights. We Can Talk!!!

—Robert, Maple Shade, NJ

Keep up your invaluable work. Help us rise from being a third world nation.

—Galen, Washington, DC

Thank you for standing up

—Bruce, Springfield, MO

Thank you for putting yourself in a position of physical and financial peril, just to perform your profession. Thank you for showing me where our first ammendment rights begin and now end.

—Keren, Marshall, NC

Thank you for supporting our free speech and freedom to peaceably assemble.

—David, Richmond, CA

We stand with you:-)

—Kent, Bellingham, WA

Journalists often get a bad rap, but some of us know how important your work is. Hang in there!

—Michele, Richardson, TX

Keep up your admirable work for us all.

—Mary, Berkeley, CA

I support freedom of speech; Keep up the fight.

—Collin, Westminster, MD

You are not alone. The true backbone of our nation is the people who value and are willing to stand against all odds to protect our freedom and show the world the face of this country that the elite struggle so hard to mask. Do not be discouraged! Your efforts are noble, and you have my respect and admiration.

—Jerry, Florence, KY

If we lose the first amendment, we lose everything. Keep up the fight and know that you are valued.

—Robert, Los Angeles, CA

Journalists like you are the first line of defense for our freedom. Thank you for standing up to the thugs. The American people will not stand for this.

—Michael, Las Vegas, NV

Hang in there and keep fighting! We are behind you.

—Rebecca, Tijeras, NM

I support the free press and all it does to support and reinforce our first amendment rights.

—Joe, Brooklyn, NY

American's will not be silenced. I thank you for doing what you feel is right even know it has cost you. If we give up our freedom to speak what is next? To everyone who is being held because they perused the first amendment you are in our hearts and minds and we the people will take back what is right!

—Clinton, Sanford, MI

Thank you for being there.

—Debbra, Coppell, TX

Truth always walks in the light; suppression always stands in the dark. I join your walk in the light. John Laughland.

—John, La Quinta, CA

Hang in there. I'm with you.

—Dennis, Half Moon Bay, CA

I agree that Constitutional protections are important to all of us in every profession. You are only more obvious in your use of and need for these protections -- that's why your reporting and willingness to risk arrest are important to us all.

—Doug, Davis, CA

We're pulling for you.

—Charles, Washington, GA

The government can't limit on what we can say, maybe in a government owned building, but not in the news paper. That just can't happen.

—Sean, Clear Lake, SD

Keep it up, folks! Don't let 'em beat you back!

—Elyse, Joliet, IL

You have many present day supporters and you can compare yourselves with those that sacrificed themselves c1776.

—James, Reno, NV

I thought I lived in a free country. I'm sorry the journalist were arrested and I'm ashamed of the system that is evolving in the U.S. I have a great deal of respect for the journalist bravery, I hope they will keep trying.

—Shelton, Seneca, KS

Thank you for standing for the fundamental freedoms the United States is supposed to be about.

—Grace, Easthampton, MA

Stay strong!!! <3

—Ammie, Long Beach, CA

Arrest of journalists is obviously a violation of the Constitution, and clearly these arrests are part of the larger far right coordinated efforts to destroy in entirety all Constitution.

—Cg, Newark, CA

When you arrest someone documenting what is really happening, you are grossly attempting to hide something that you know is wrong. Where is real America, who is calling the shots, and why are the tools of oppression allowing themselves to be used?

—Michael, New Orleans, LA

Stay resolved!

—Andrew, Austin, TX

This country used to stand for freedom. I still do!

—Michael, Novato, CA

Keep up the good work. Many of us know the value of what you do!

—Phillip, Raleigh, NC

Without a free press we don't have freedom.

—Martha, Scottsdale, AZ

A free press is absolutely essential for democracy, which is why many in power don't want a free press. Please hang in there!

—Thom, Wilmington, DE

we need to get rid of all congress & obama

—Carolyn, Martins ferry, OH

Those reporting on an event should not be arrested. Like it or not, they are doing something important to American democracy.

—John, White Sulphur Springs, MT

Stand tall. Freedom of information IS freedom!

—Chris, Round Top, TX

we support you to the fullest keep up the amazing work

—Curtis, Woonsocket, RI

Journalists who are reporting on events, no matter their political leanings should be able to do so without arrest.

Pirating copyrighten copy must remain illegal for those like me and for journalists like you.

—James, Grand Rapids, MI

I don't know on what basis you were arrested, but if you were just trying to do your job as a journalist it's a travesty. This is just another example of the Obama Administration trampling on the Constitution.

—Bill, Metairie, LA

Your stand for freedom of the press gives me hope that we can make a difference and keep constitutional rights for generations to come.

—Cynthia, Foresthill, CA

Stand tall. Freedom of information is the essence of FREEDOM!

—Christopher, Round Top, TX

I took an oath in support of the Constitution. What has been happening has been cause for alarm. I'm not always for the actions of the "Occupy" movements, but the official response so far has been grossly illegal. I'll happily do what I reasonably can to provide any support.

—Richard, Grandview, MO

"Always speak the truth, even if your voice shakes" Thank you for speaking and having the conviction of your integrity. Your participation in today's world is integral.

—Christina, Santa Rosa, CA

We are behind you guys fully

—La'Mondre, Fort Wayne, IN

This kind of oppression and censorship makes me Embarrassed for our whole country. Stop making us look bad and tell the damn truth already.

—Nick, Denver, CO

Keep it up freedom fighters! Know that you're backed 100% by your fellow reporters and protesters.

—Thomas, Auburn, IL

STAND STRONG! Thank you for protecting our Freedom!!

—Shelle, Dublin, OH

I'll stand and fight for your rights to the death....but, please someone call me to see how frightening and deadly a city can be to an individual citizen and the basic freedoms that are guaranteed and we teach our children as truth...its called communication and it should last for more than a 2 1/2 minute newscast. 303-933-2123 t.vangorden@att.net

—Tim, Littleton, CO

Keep on fighting. We are behind you. Thanks Dennis Scheer

—Dennis, Granada Hills, CA

The erosion of freedom under the guise of "National Security" must end.

—Daniel, NEW YORK, NY

Hang in there, the 99% have your back.

—Jim, Las Cruces, NM

When your right to report is hindered in any way, shape, or form, my right to know is infringed upon too. Keep doin what you do and we'll keep having your back, if for no other reason, just because you had ours first.

Sincerely, Walt Pangburn

—Walton, Eugene, OR

A free press is something we had always assumed the US had. Now it is clear that these freedoms are seriously threatened. God bless you, stay strong!

—Benjamin, Long Beach, CA

We are fighting for you. Thanks for bringing the truth to light!

—Mark, Portland, OR stay strong and keep up the fight

—Maliha, Bkyn, NY

We have your back! And thank you for all you have done!

—Kiilani, Encinitas, CA

When revolution starts we'll be there.

—Nikola, Nis,

Stand strong! Honest, independent journalists are fading away faster than print news! We're battling the plutocracy of the 1940's, all over again. WE NEED YOU! And may God bless you!

—Chris, Akron, OH

Stay strong and steadfast. This is what history is made of.

—Sommer, Honolulu, HI

THANK YOU FOR SPEAKING OUT AND TAKING THE HEAT.

—Glen, Seal rock, OR

Thanks to you all for standing up for us all.

—Barbara, South Saint Paul, MN

Thanks! We sure can't find the truth anymore without your dedication. Yeah for you and us!

—Virginia, Sparks, NV

Stay strong in spite of everything. You are not forgotten and you will always be able to be proud of your actions and how they are making America a better place now and in the future

—Brett, Coral Springs, FL

Know that they would not persecute you if you were of little consequence. If your actions were not the foundation of our best chance to defend the 99% of humanity and our natural world, too, from the 1% who care so little for either. Take pride in this, take solace. And take heart that we take heart because of you.

—Ella, El Sobrante, CA

You guys are awesome. Keep fighting the good fight.

—Nathaniel, Rogers, AR

Thanks for standing for the truth in the face of repression and subversion of the Constitution.

—Michael, Morgan Hill, CA

Please document all your efforts to obtain credentials, especially when you are turned down.

—Ken, Cary, NC

Can't believe this is happening in America with a Democrat sitting as president no less.

—Griffin, Mtn View, CA

It is an outrage when I get more news online and from the Daily Show than I get from the actual news media. There are real major events going on that aren't getting the coverage they deserve. Last year's Wisconsin walkout and the Occupy protests being two of them. The fact that many of the unemployed are highly skilled, highly experienced workers as well as recent college graduates doesn't seem to have gotten the coverage it deserves. This used to be a free country, and obviously we are going to have to fight to get it back to what it once was. It is a sin and a shame when criminals get a taxpayer bailout and honest, hardworking people are left out in the cold, often literally these days. Keep up the good fight.

—Marian, Exton, PA

It is an affront to our American ideals for journalists to be arrested while reporting on political protests in the USA.

—James, Ann Arbor, MI

Don't give up. We're coming.

—Ana, Woodstock, GA

I'm Sorry And Thank You For Your Stand

—Becky, Garfield Heights, OH

This is not Egypt. This is not Libya. This is not Iran or Syria. This is supposed to be America:(!! I've got your backs, because you have already got mine. And I appreciate that.

—Louis, Lakewood, WA

You inspire us.

—Maegan, Albany, OR

There are many people concerned over attempts to limit speech and expression, and the reasons behind them are becoming clear. Thank you for your dedication. Know that we value the awareness you work for, and are trying to help other people understand that value as well.

—Jesse, Antioch, TN

To our journalists - what's left of the First Amendment - Free Speech and Free Religion - fight the good fight.

—Lynda, El Paso, TX

If the pen is mightier than the sword, forget about Al-Qaeda; arrest The Journalists, right? , because they are crashing the truth through everyone's mind and that is totally unacceptable, if you are trying to overthrow everything that is right and good.

—Joel, Huntsville, TX

With you in Solidarity!! Thank you for your commitment to truth

—Tamela, Hedgesville, WV

Why am I hearing about this kind of thing happening in the U.S.?

—Glenn, Tucson, AZ

Thank you for your bravery in resisting the fascist forces that are taking over our once free land.

—Barry, Santa Rosa, CA

More transparency for your employers. Your constituents!

—James, Oakland park, FL

This isn't what our country is supposed to be about, and I'll fight till I die for freedom of the press... you are my heroes!

—Vicky, Ramona, CA

Thank you for standing up to tell the TRUTH, no matter what tried to stop you, thank you from the bottom of my heart

—Kristopher, Santa Rosa, CA

Thank you for standing strong for our first amendment right.

—Patsy, Raleigh, NC

Stand firm, we have your back.

—Sarah, Austin, TX

Your work is valued and your personal investment deeply appreciated. Many people are in action on many levels to resist oppression. Solidarity,

—Alexis, Or, OR

This is yet another sign that we are in the process of losing our Democracy! Journalists and their representative organizations are the best defense against this happening, so please continue the fight!

—Doris, New York, NY

Thank you for all that you do in preserving our freedom. Keep up the great work.

—Robin, Sandy, OR

"The price of freedom is eternal vigilance" "When the government fears the people, there is liberty. When the people fear the government, there is tyranny" (Thomas Jefferson) - Rafael Ormino

—Rafael, Silver Spring, MD

You are not alone!

—Brent, BISMARCK, ND

I also believe the police in this country are getting out of hand, and thanks to the patriot act, they all have military firepower available to them... The police do not make me feel safe...

—Daniel, Mebane, NC

I stand in solidarity with your efforts to protect free speech. Once journalists begin to be blatantly stifled, it is a slippery slope to Orwellian repression. Keep fighting the good fight!

—Alex, Knoxville, TN

Freedom for journalism and journalists! Essential for democracy and freedom.

—Ken, Holualoa, HI

There are citizens behind you! Stand tall and stand firm!

—Glenn, Denver, CO

I am very frightened for the future of the U.S. Scary things are being slipped by us way too fast. This movement is a pivotal event in U.S. history. I applaud your efforts in recording the truth. As an active Occupier I am trying to make a difference. What you are doing is crucial. Do not be discouraged by the stupidity of a few ,it makes us that much stronger. Good or bad the story must be documented. Thank you for your sacrifice and fight the good fight. Preserve our freedoms. A seasoned sixties protester.

—Bonnie, Tallahassee, FL

Thank you for your courage and sacrifice for all of us. Without you we are truly lost victims being lead like blind sheep to the slaughter house.

—Janae, GRESHAM, OR stop protecting the police state, or you will keep being victimized, by the very thing you protect, stand up for truth no matter how ugly it is, and remember your camera is more powerful then any gun and badge.

—Christopher, Gainesville, TX

Thank you for working to get the truth out there.

—Susan, La Crosse, WI

They're buggin. Don't stop yourselves.

—Fred, Hempstead, NY

We all have the right to say what we want, no matter what the option is about.

—Jonathan, Brooklyn, NY

I thought I lived in the "land of the free." Am I wrong?

—Karla, South Barre, MA

They should let you out. I can't see why not oufreedom and the right to be informed They should let you all out. I can't see why someone needs a press pass to cover any outdoor event where there are disenfranchised and upset citizens. I bet these passes are not free. I consider it to be an unconstitutional infringement on your personal rights and the citizens right to be informed through freedom of the press. Soon Student paper journalists will have to have passes to talk to other students in the cafeteria..

—Leslie, Las Vegas, NV

When a government succeeds in silencing the voice of the people, they cease to be people and become chattel. We are not a commodity for wealthy business and big government to play with, and we need you to keep telling them that! God bless and protect you.

—Stewart, Phoenix, AZ

Thank you for being on the front line against tyranny.

—Mitchell, Sunnyvale, CA

Please know that I admire and respect your choice to defend free speech in America.

—John, Waldorf, MD

Thank you for risking your lives to get facts about the world to me. It matters to our future! We are behind you!
Never give up!

—TL, Roslyn, WA

Thank you for your courage in standing up for free journalism. It won't be long before public outrage at your incarceration grows loud enough for pols to start worrying.

—Irving, Cutler Bay, FL

please accept my total respect for you and your efforts!!

—Scot, Temecula, CA

They deserve to tell the story of the Occupy Wall Street movement.

—Mary, Bristol, CT

We need to keep the truth up front and not manipulate information according to corporate concerns like Fox.

—Maury, Palm Springs, CA

We've got your backs. Thank you for having ours!

—Sybille, Pinckney, MI

Thanks. We all need to stand up.

—John, Carrollton, GA

With you 100%! Don't give up the fight! This is still America!

—Gregory, Alamo, TX

Every single one of you are very brave and courageous Americans . I encourage you to continue to document this crucial juncture of American progress.

—Jacob, Lincoln, NE

Stand up for your rights!

—Brent, Elmwood, WI

I appreciate the work you do to report what you see and hear and support you in your work to keep this a free and truthfully reported society.

—Moss, Boulder, CO

free press! 1st amendment!

—Richard, Constantia, NY

Yours is one of the most important professions of our free society. Thank you so much for what you do, day in and day out to keep us informed.

—Adam, Oliver Springs, TN

We must have accurate and true reporting of the news.

—Joyce, Austin, TX

Thanks for being brave Patriots, keep up the battle because the truth can never be stopped!!

—Robert, Aston, PA

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS!!!!

—William, BatonRouge, LA

We are with you!

—Sylvia, Seattle, WA

Seriously? Venezuela will soon be less of a police state at this rate.

—Zachary, Orem, UT

Your sacrifice and courage is appreciated-- with out a free press there is no democracy! Thank you.

—Kathleen, Youngstown, OH

We will be working hard to stop the illegal detention of journalists.

—Kit, Santa cruz, CA

Just looking on FB at a pic of August Landmesser, who refused in Germany to give the Nazi salute. It was titled "courage". The stories of you all are also of courage, when journalists cannot deliver the truth to the people, truly we are kept in the dark. Thanks for the gumption to do your jobs...and light a candle. I'm going to spread this to as many people as I can.

—Teri, Lafayette, LA

As a member of my local Occupy movement and aspiring journalist myself, I relate strongly to you all. Being aware of all of the informational cherry-picking going on in the mainstream media these days honestly has me afraid for my prospects in the future. In all likelihood, if I were a current member of the press I'm sure I'd be out there getting myself arrested for trying to report the truth, too. My heart is with you all.

—Jonathon, Springfield, MO

I stand with you in this fight. Unless we get the Patriot Act and NDAA 1332,1332 repealed we do not have a fighting chance. Help us make the public aware of the many ways that these bills have removed these rights.

—Robert, Kansas City, MO

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, THE LAND OF THE FREE is disappearing. The country is looking more like a dictatorship, everyday. The Government & Police need to think about what they are actually doing when they arrest our Journalists. "We the People" will not just "lay down" and be imprisoned by their own country's misuse of Power. Please HONOR our Constitutional Rights! Thank you! Wendy-Marie Collins

—Wendy-Marie, Phoenix, AZ

#solidarity

—Daniel, Denton, TX

I am also a journalist.

—Lynne, Lake Balboa, CA

I support the arrested journalists and agree whole-heartedly that this puts everyone's freedom at risk. That being said, I hope all these journalists are supporting Julian Assange for the same reason?

—Brian, Burlington, VT

We need freedom to obtain information. This is essential to our democracy! June Siebert

—June, Mount Clemens, MI

Never give up never surrender!!

—Christina, Moline, IL

thank you, mighty warriors of the pen! sending protective vibrations your way. wyatt lee

—Wyatt, Ridge Spring, SC

Thank you for taking personal risk to protect our freedom. Stand strong!

—Dianne, Long Beach, CA

To risk arrest and similar repression to defend freedom of speech and citizen's right to know is one of the most courageous things a person can do in this country. I am touched by the heroism of all those who take such principled stands at such great risk. Thank you all.

—Lincoln, Peekskill, NY

EVERYTHING come out in the wash ! STAY THE course, and speak the TRUTH !

—Lauren, Sparta, NJ

We are not a dictatorship, yet. So, do the right thing. Stop this harassment.

—Robert, Hohenwald, TN

Thanks for starting the war against the people who threaten our freedom!

—John, Arlington, VA

I admire you and applaud you for your contributions in the defense of freedom and world understanding.

—John, Twisp, WA

Please help to keep our freedoms intact, as John Paul Jones said " I have not yet begun to fight".

—Don, BRANFORD, FL

Keep fighting the good fight.

—Steve, Suncook, NH

We send our brave men and women to fight and die for our "freedom," yet we are denying that freedom to Americans here at home. Shameful!

—Judith, Wappingers Falls, NY

The police state has just revealed itself.

—Joel, Apple Valley, MN

Stay strong. WE'VE GOT THIS, and we've got your (collective) back(s).

—Lynn, Poulsbo, WA

Thank you for your work and your courage

—Kathleen, Alexandria,, VA

What has become of our great democracy? To arrest journalists doing their job is outrageous.

—Madonna, New York, NY

Thank you for what you do!! We support you and will speak up when we see injustice!!

My home is your home

—Padraig, Arcata, CA

You should have the right to right what you want whenever you want.

—Nicholas, Ruston, LA

Thank you so much for taking risks so we the public can remain informed of the truth. It is your job, but you have taken it a step farther many times putting yourself in harms way not unlike our military. I want you to know it is very much appreciated and I am praying for all who are mistreated in any way.

—Margaret, Cottonwood, AZ

Keep up the good work! We are behind you 100%!!

—Jennifer, Lawton, MI

Without your work there can be no democracy,

—Erna, Dix Hills, NY

Thank you for trying your best to get the truth out to the masses that matter the most!

—Naomi, Yadkinville, NC

We will not accept your police state. These are our states! You go fuck yourself!

—Elijah, Kent, WA

Freedom of speech and freedom of the press is perhaps the primary cornerstone of our democracy. It must not be violated in the name of expediency, and if any doubt exists about whether someone qualifies as a journalist, only direct threats to people's safety should motivate interference with a free press (and even that exception is perhaps too much sometimes). Please keep up your priceless work in ensuring that our democracy remains (or perhaps becomes) strong and free.

—Jonathan, Norfolk, VA

Hang in here. You are doing some of the most important work in the country.

—Eric, Durham, NC

Suppression of the freedom to peacefully protest is the road to Fascism. For Every Occupy protester on the streets there are 1000 more who support them and feel the same way. Do not try to marginalize the masses who are fighting the rise of a plutocracy and the unfair and unequal treatment of citizens.

—Thomas, Los Angeles, CA

when ya don't want the truth to come out it's time for a change no matter what the cost!!:(

—Roger, Norman, OK

Thank you for standing up to the Oligarchy that wants to control us in the dark of night. Thank you for shedding light on the nasty dealings of the corrupt. Inevitably, when people know what is really happening things will get better - and that's what the Oligarchs are afraid of!

—Robert, Sacramento, CA

You never deserved to be arrested for documenting what was happening in your own free will. The NYPD were the ones to break the first amendment and free speech, freedom of thought, freedom of expression, freedom and right to opinion. This will not go unnoticed. I hope you do get justice and be let free. Anything they did to you in prison, SPEAK OUT!! Don't let it stay in the dark.

—Brian, Fredericktown, OH

The voice of freedom will always ring loud. So for those of you trying to hide the truth by trying to cut the tongues and eyes out of the public - that is an unrealistic perception. Where one is taken down, two more shall replace them. The eyes of the world, and true American Patriots, will always be watching, because the people of the world's 'one-voice' of liberty can NEVER be squashed!

—Tami, Tujunga, CA

I support you in your struggle for our first amendment rights. Free speech is a critical component of a democratic society, and it is unfortunate that we need to fight for it today in the United States. Thank you for what you are doing in its defense.

—Marcia, Montgomery, MA

Here in Las Cruces, our Occupy group is still occupying. If corporations are people, who have a right to free speech, certainly the Occupers also have a right to a platform for their free speech.

—Sharon, Las Cruces, NM

Thank you for standing up for freedom.

—Stuart, Burnsville, MN

Thank You For All You Do! You Will Not Be Forgotten and It Will Not Have Been In Vain.

—Lori, Lake City, MI

Thank you so much for covering the REAL news, and putting yourself in harms way to protect our First Amendment rights. Being truthfully and fully informed is a key to any democratic society and without journalists like you, this would not be possible. Thank you so much, we hear you.

—Max, Santa Barbara, CA

I appreciate your courage to be on the front lines of hard news in The US...I support your fight to continue to have free access and bring news that matters in a democratic world.

—Kat, Kahului, HI journalists, real journalists don't back down to illegal government activities-we can't either,stand together, stand with the journalists!

—Dale, St Charles, IL

Thank you for your bravery in covering events as they were happening, not as they were edited.

—Joyce, San Rafael, CA

Be good journalists... dig deep, seek truth, but cover the story, don't become part of it.

—Eric, Portland, OR

You are there for all of us!

—Ellen, York, PA

I support freedom of the press 100%! Our elected officials need someone to run watchdog over them or they'll jerk us around worse than they already do now! Thank you guys for standing up for our first amendment rights no matter what!

—Floyd, Taylorsville, NC

Dr. Glenn E. Whitmore

—Glenn, Westminster, CO

Im so sorry

—Brittani, Hephzibah, GA

Our freedoms are being eroded, and your arrest is another sad example. We share your grief, and stand by you in support.

—Robert, Great Neck, NY

Thank You, sooo much for being a journalist and not a reporter!!! What you do will inspire others to do the same.....following your heart and reporting the news as YOU see it, not how the corporations want you to see it. Be Brave, Have Courage and Stay Strong. As the masses awaken to the truth, your support will grow and you will be acknowledged for your committment for doing what is Right. Again, Thank You soo much from my heart to yours, Namaste'

—Luigi, Astoria, NY

Stay strong! We're out here but with you in spirit and the struggle.

PROTECT OUR FREEDOMS AND THE BILLS OF RIGHTS! -Jeremy

—Jeremy, Simi Valley, CA

KEEP STRONG. WE STAND BEHIND YOU

—Robert, NORWICH, VT

I just finished watching The Freedom Riders on PBS where the police and mob attacked journalists before attacking the students.

—Jane, SCOTIA, NY

We need to remove corporate control of our media. If we don't have freedom of speech we have no freedom at all.

—Von, Hilham, TN

You are not alone. Our minds cannot be silenced.

—Paul, Green Bay, WI

The attacks on journalists in the United States is really distressing. I can relate to your struggle. I have dedicated the past 30 years to sharing food and information to the public but because military contractors and real estate interests are threatened by our message we are often arrested. Please let us know how we can help. We believe the defense of the First Amendment is central to bringing democracy to the United States and are willing to risk arrest defending your right to report on important issues affecting our community. Thanks for your dedication.

—Keith, Arroyo Seco, NM

Stay strong!

—Amy, Indianapolis, IN

Thank you for reporting the truth even if you are in peril!

—Mark, Bechtelsville, PA

STAND STRONG FOR THE CONSTITUTION AND DOWN WITH THE GHESTAPO!

—PeeJay, Micco, FL

You are the "front line" for freedom of expression. We need you to hold strong, for all of us. Thank you for your efforts.

—Jeffrey, Wilmington, DE

Thank you.

—Charles, Montpelier, VT

I can understand why government suppression would protect the crooks that are destroying our nation.

—Ryan, Mount Vernon, KY

We so need your work. "The basis of our governments being the opinion of the people, the very first object should be to keep that right; and were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter. But I should mean that every man should receive those papers and be capable of reading them." --Thomas Jefferson to Edward Carrington, 1787.

Protect Freedom of Speeh

—Joseph, South Pasadena, CA

This is simply outrageous. I want to see someone held accountable.

—Vincent, Salisbury, MA

The arrest of journalists for simply doing their reporting responsibilities is unconstitutional and of a fascist ideological stance. We hated Hitler's regime for the same kind of restrictions on German citizens.

—Phil, Redford Twp., MI

Thank you for ALL the reporting you do.

—Julie, Biddeford, ME

I stand in defense of our 1st Amendment rights with the more than 50 journalists who have been detained in the U. S. Judy Ashway, and thank you for your work

—Judy, Belmont, MA

The implications of this are terrifying. Thank you again for your work on this!

—Carl, Crescent City, CA

Freedom of Speech.....that's what makes America America. What a disgrace to the rest of the world that our journalist would be arrested.

—Anita, Warminster, PA

THANK YOU!

—Kimberly, Fremont, WI

I comment on political forums and have my own blog, and even though I don't get paid for them, it makes me feel good to see the truth spoken! You journalists are heroes!

—Katherine, Rock Springs, WY with you in spirit and with gratitude for your courage in the pursuit of openness and truth :)

—John, ,

I'm 69 and have lived through many social "movements" (civil rights, anti-war, woman equality, etc.). As difficult as those were, the current OCCUPY movement may be the most difficult trial the nation (and world) may endure. In my opinion, the issues which are being focused on now are the core of much prior unrest. As this core (military, industrial, political alliance) is exposed for its corruption and abuse of power, "they" will attempt to retaliate by usurping their positions. The attacks will likely come in the form of news censorship, restrictions of constitutional rights, physical abuse of peaceful protestors, new laws to intimidate and prevent dissention... Thank you for your courageous stand in defense of our First Amendment rights -- without people like you who are able to shine a light on the dark side of "government" we might all, one day soon, return to "the dark ages".

—Nick, Columbia, MD

The attacks on journalists and the takeover of the major news sources by corporate interests has destroyed the trust of the populace and taken away the first amendment rights "guaranteed" by the Constitution

—Esther, Port Townsend, WA

Thank you for the sacrifices you make to try to bring us the truth. The courage you show is inspiring. The forces that are trying to suppress the truth will not prevail.

—Scott, Watsonville, CA

I thought this was the land of the free, not the land of tyranny.

—Diana, Allentown, PA

Don't let them take away your rights!!

—Steve, Morrison, IL

Please, please don't give up. You are all that stand between us and the corporate robber-barons.

—Mayellen, Bellevue, WA leav our freedom and rights alone filthy fags we ahve a right to free speech AND YOU HAVE NO RIGHTS TO TAKE THEM FROM US BECAUSE IF YOU TRY IT WILL CAUSE ANOTHER CIVIL WAR

—Robert, Kingsport, TN

This is absolutely outrageous, without honest reporters and/or citizens out there getting the true story and facts, we have no since of security, the lies that have been sweeping this nation are going to cause a collapse. I almost fear petitioning any of these horrific bills, PIPA, SOPA, etc... due to the fact that the military can come into my home in the middle of the night and arrest me without telling anyone where they're taking me or without giving me bail or a trial. This is not what America was founded on, the small group of people making the "best decisions" for America are corrupt and power hungry. Making decisions and passing Bills while our backs are turned is unacceptable. We are a Democracy, the people have the final say, if we are not told what are choices are then we have no say and those corrupt few win and develop insane bills that only benefit them for their own selfish reasons. Arresting citizens with specific jobs and duties such as reporters and journalists is in direct conflict with the first amendment. What the United States of America is in need of is an honest government that will always keep the American public updated with current and factual information and a government that understands what it means to be the single mother or father living pay check to pay check just to support their child/children, or the physically disabled woman who is unable to take care of herself and knows that one day she will have no one to help her. A government who understands the true meaning of poverty and being homeless and actually does something to help those who need it, whether it's giving grants to send those who wish to attend college but have no money or giving a town or community the resources it needs to grow fruits and vegetables year round for those who can not afford to buy food for themselves or their families. The overall message is if we just sit back and let this happen, then we are in some hot water, everyone will be living in fear if we continue on this horrifying path that we are on. We need change. My best wishes to all of those reporters and journalists out there who are (and were) just doing their god given right, and the rights that they were given under the power of the constitution and the first amendment.

Sincerely, Catherine E. Adkins

—Catherine, Dumfries, VA

Don't worry... We will come for you.

—Seth, Houston, TX

Freedom of the Press and Free Speech! Is this America? Doesn't seem like it, when journalists are arrested for reporting the news. You have my support in defending our country's constitution and what we stand for.

—Joan, Las Vegas, NV

Solidarity Patriots.... Thank You for your sacrifice to the cause of Freedom!

—Nancy, Memphis, TN

Thank you for your courage. "When Freedom is outlawed, only outlaws will be free."

—Madeline, Center Moriches, NY

This is ludicrous. The constitution is quickly being eroded before our very eyes.

—Nick, South portland, ME

Even in the face of such an attack, don't stop reporting and exercising the freedom of speech! We have a right to know, and they can't silence us!

—Me, Forest, MS

Stick in there everyone, you are all buddhas :)

—Rob, Green Bay, WI

Stay strong... you do not stand alone!

—Carol, Lake Havasu City, AZ

There are many people that are signing this to free you! I'm one of them. What they have done by jailing you is WRONG!

—MARY, GREENSBORO, NC

hang in there, and thanks for what you do.

—Rob, Providence, RI

You are doing a brave and important thing. Thank you for pushing back against the erosion of our rights.

—Kathleen, Hamden, CT

Journalists/press must have freedom to report!

—Judith, Phoenix, AZ

We have to protect our first ammendment right to free speech and free press. If journalists don't report the news, then we, the people, can't know what is going on in our country and around the world, and everyone's freedom is at risk. WE MUST PROTECT THE FIRST AMMENDMENT!!!!!!!!!!

—Brandon, Lemont, IL

Sounds like life here is the same as in Syria.

—Fred, Harrisonburg, VA

I support your work fully.Hang in there.

—Jim, FAYETTEVILLE, NC

The First Amendment must be protected to protect the rights of all Americans

—Raymond, San Francisco, CA

I agree with Kristin Hanes statement, "Whenever journalists are arrested/detained for reporting the news, everyone's freedom is at risk. That is what frightens me most."

—David, Mission Viejo, CA

Without you, democracy would be impossible. Keep up the good work!

—Amy, City, OR

Power to The People!! Speak the Truth!!

—Robina, New Jersey, NJ

I hope this gets worked out in your favor. We have the worst Congress I can ever remember and it seems that they are taking away our rights as fast as they can. I don't always agree on some stories that journalists write especially concerning sensitive info on troop movements and sensitive Washington info. Some things are best left alone but being arrested for the covering the Occupy movement is another case of our rights being violated. The 99% are still struggling and it won't change until we all fight back against our freedoms being taken away.

—Becky, Reidsville, NC

The free flow of information is the life blood of democracy.

—Bonnie, Longmont, CO

WHAT IS THIS? ARE WE DESCENDING TO THE STATE OF A BANANA REPUBLIC? I HAVE TO PINCH MYSELF. WE CLAIM WE SENT SOLDIERS AROUND THE WORLD TO FIGHT FOR FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS, AND ACT LIKE THIS AT HOME????????????????

—Heinrich, Concord, MA

As a citizen-journalist, I share your unhappiness at your arrests. I am disappointed that this petition will not be sent to President Obama as he is the only one who can order the Attorney General to investigate these crimes against citizens and reporters. Stay strong. I know that I will.

—Dierdre, Salem, OR

The 1st Amendment is in place and if we let this happen again and again we are in real danger of losing all our freedoms !!

I stand with you. This is SERIOUS disenfranchisement which MUST CEASE!

—Clarice, Rome, NY

Your courage is inspiring and represents the best of the American spirit.

—Donald, Chester Springs, PA

Keep up the good work!!!

—David, Woodstock, GA

Thank you for your courage and determination in covering controversial and unpopular events in our country and around the world. Who else can we rely to tell us the truth if our journalists are targeted? You are appreciated and we stand with you for our freedom of knowledge and freedom of the press!!!

—Shama, Renton, WA

Thank you for protecting my right to free speech. It's ridiculous that this is even an issue in the United States of America. Without the 1st amendment we vary little from other countries under a dictatorship.

—Deb, Arizona City, AZ

Kristin Hanes is right. When journalists are prevented from doing their jobs, we are ALL frightened.

—William, Palm Coast, FL

You did the right thing and I know my words can't make things better, but I hope you stay strong.

—Christopher, Beavercreek, OH

Kristin Hanes is right. We're all frightened when journalists are prevented from doing their jobs.

—Amy, Palm Coast, FL

With the loss of habeus corpus, right to privacy, right to redress our government and now free press will we have any civil rights left?

—Rudy, Hacienda Heights, CA

Our Constitution and the public access to news is under attack. The home of democracy is losing its way and its good name.

—Patricia, Lewes, DE

Thank you for afflicting the comfortable and comforting the afflicted.

I'm behind you 1000 per cent. Uh, make that 100 per cent.

—Terry, Aloha, OR

Thank you for everything you have done and for your sacrifice.

—Rebecca, Lexington, KY

I am in despair and sickened by the arrest of journalists who are plying their trade; to provide the news to the public.

If the current zeitgeist is to be Mussoliniistic, we are well on the way to Second World status, which leads to a virtual plutocracy. Please keep reporting on all the news that's fit to print! Dr. R.P. James

—Robert, Cardiff-by-the-Sea, CA

No BIG BROTHER anymore!

—Catherine, Tucson, AZ

The ONLY thing that CAN make our-OUR country work is YOU the journalist who have the guts to keep EVERYTHING open and honest for ALL of us! Thank you for your dedication and work.

—John, Arkport, NY

Hang in there! We're with you.

—Richard, Eugene, OR

Thanks for standing in the front lines on this issue of our First Amendment rights and free speech. I support you!

—V, Port Townsend, WA

Previously an employee of the Anchorage Daily News, a Pulitzer Prize winning daily newspaper in Anchorage, Alaska. Hang in there; we need a free and strong press.

—Karen, Lynnwood, WA

Thanks for exercising your first amendment rights.

—Jessica, Durham, NC

These actions taken by the authorities are absolutely unconstitutional and intolerable.

—John, Covington, LA

never stop!

—Steven, Dayton, TX

What's with arresting journalists??? This is supposed to be a free and democratic country!

—Paulette, ALOHA, OR

I stand with the First Amendment and Freedom of the Press. I thank you for doing your job.

—Eleanor, Las Vegas, NV

"Thank you for risking your freedom in order to preserve mine." This is what I say to our troops, and now I say it to journalists...after all, YOU are a media-soldier!

—Chris, North Attleboro, MA

Our country will sink into permanent fascism without a real and independent press.

—Judith, Chelsea, MI

This modern day Corporate Fascism and tyranny in our once amazing country has gotten out of control. It's time to honor your oath and defend freedom, free speech, human rights, respect for human privacy and it's time to demand transparency from the elected officials who are charged with protecting the rights of the people.

—Bernie, Los Angeles, CA

I don't understand why I didn't read this in the news.

—Andrew, Rapid city, SD

hang tight we are with you.

—Diane, Las Vegas, NV

thank you for standing up for the truth, for our country, and for all of us and our children

—Pat, Bolton, MA

I do hope you will be quickly and safely released. Sincerely David Sheppard

—David, Long Beach, CA

Take heart ~ we stand behind you and push for liberty.

—Ann, Brevard, NC

Protect people who are our eyes and ears!

—RBevan, Lineville, IA

You are not forgotten.

—Kristin, Ann Arbor, MI

Let go of any fear you have. We all want this freedom, even those that believe they don't and are trying to stop the occupy movement. They will soon find freedom for all is nothing to fear and all they've ever wanted. The Occupy movement cannot be stopped now. We are all ready for our awakening and it is happening now. You are Brave.

Continue to be and trust that you are very safe.

—Kathleen, Astoria, NY

Keep Fighting!

—Adam, Dyer, IN

You are in my thoughts and prayers.

—Alice, Independence, OH

Why exactly were you arrested? Simple reporting/writing? Or was there some other related reason you were arrested?

—Jordan, Danville, CA

Thank you for speaking out and reporting the truth.

—Deborah, Beaverton, OR

Thank you for taking a stand for freedom of speech! Our nation is on the verge of complete tyranny by the 1% and your courage is appreciated by the remaining 99%. I believe good will win over evil and the tables will be turned and THEY will be imprisoned soon.

—William, San diego, CA

All I've wanted to be my whole life is a journalist, precisely for this reason.

—Nicole, Mansfield, TX

while you've already shown to all the stiffness of your spines you should know that there are those out here who have your backs. Keep the faith!

—Dwight, Portland, OR

I'm proud of you!

—Denise, Williamsburg, CO

To all the brave men and women who put themselves on the line to get the story and the truth. My deepest heartfelt empathy goes to you for your unwavering spirit to inform the citizens of this nation and around the world of the truth.

—Alex, Los Angeles, CA

This is an outrage. Freedom of the press is very very important. We must support freedom of the press. Freedom of the press and freedom of speech make America great and we must fight those who try to do away with these freedoms!

—Martha, West Roxbury, MA

Thank you for your passion and strength.

—Karen, Alachua, FL

Keep making noise and doing what's right !

—Christine, San Jose, CA

Thank you for honoring the First Amendment in covering the Occupy Movement. We need you and more like you. The arrests are outrageous in my opinion. You are doing your job and keeping us informed -- so necessary to free and balanced society. Thank you so very much.

—Lynnette, Sonoma, CA

I am sorry that you are in jail for protecting our freedom, The media is bought by a few mogals and we don't get "real" news. Thank you for putting your freedom before letting us down.

—Kathleen, Laurel, MD

You rock!

—Joseph, Gardnerville, NV

Journalists serve and protect this country and it's citizens every bit as much as the members of our armed forces. Without free speech, we are not truly free. We're just sheep waiting to be fleeced. Thank you for everything you do to stand up for what's right.

—Linda, Kalamazoo, MI

We are fighting on the outside to take back our constitution! Stay strong and don't give in to the political machine. Peace!

—Grace, Bronx, NY

It is very important that people like you tell the truth so we Americans know what is going on. You are our heroes.

—Marilee, Newark, DE

You are being heard!

—Ron, San Francisco, CA

Fight the good fight! We're behind you!

—Eric, Manistee, MI

Right on...Baby Panther...be strong...Power to the people's press...

—Eric, Fairfield, IA

Stand strong and know that I am behind you 100%!

—Marcy, Manawa, WI

We, the People, will have our country back. We are Americans. We fight for freedom. E pluribus unum. Watch us.

—T, Douglas, AZ

There will always be opposition ,when the Truth is being revealed! michael madia

—Michael, Fort Lauderdale, FL

No matter how I word this it seems redundant, because THE First Amendment is so clearly written -- protect of everyone's right to have a say about ANYTHING on their conscience.

—Don, Bonham, TX

Filming is covered under the First Ammendment. Furthermore did not our President promise to be more open?

Another thing is all this just makes you look MORE guilty, when you keep the press locked out! This is EVIL and UNCONSTITUTIONAL and ILLEGAL!!

—Jonathan, Alameda, CA

How depressing that our country is still in free-fall and we have become the laughing stock of the world.

—Ellen, Napa, CA

My father and mother met at journalism school and my father became the UPI bureau chief of Nevada. You are the one of the most important pillars of democracy.

—Karen, Reno, NV

Freedom of the press. How is this constitutional principle not being upheld in a democracy?

—Karen, Colorado Springs, CO

Journalists being arrested for reporting the facts goes against everything I was taught about free speech in America. What I find even more appalling is the spin, and half truths the corporate media is allowed to use to mislead the citizens of the United States, and the world. I do not believe it is right for a handful of people to control over 200 TV stations, plus magazines and newspapers. If the First Amendment has not been cast aside any person that can prove the facts and truthfully reports a news worthy item has the right to speak publicly about that item. The journalists being persecuted for the truth have my full support, and will be sending faxes and emails to my representatives, and congress about the matter. This administration has far overstepped the bounds of our Constitution.

—Robert, Wenatchee, WA

Thank You . Last year at this time I was walking around the capital in Madison Wisconsin, 8hrs per day, for several weeks in snow and sleet .We are going back out this sat. to mark the date . We will be thinking of all of you. Thank You again,see you in the streets.

—Susan, Watertown, WI

To hear that in the U.S.. journalists are arrested for reporting what they see happening is hard to imagine. It is the most tragic trampling of our rights. I hope you don't lose your courage. Helen Jo Williams

—Helen, Bradenton, FL

Thoughts n prayers. Stay strong!

—Manny, Santa ana, CA

The First Amendment is not just for journalists — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech. No one has the right to infringe on that right.

—William, Phoenix, AZ

There is a reason freedom of the press is in the First Amendment: without a free press, there is no real freedom. Thank you for doing the work you do. It is interesting that you became news by trying to report the news. We should all take note of this episode and remain vigilant. If you can be arrested for reporting, who else can arrested?

—Cat, Cottonwood, AZ

Arresting journalists? What? How absolutely idiotic! For what? "Shhhting" the police? "Shooting" demonstrators? C'mon! Where is our freedom of the press? What country is this, anyway? Nazi Germany? Stand firm, Journalists. The people are with you.

—Leonard, Chula Vista, CA

they think we will stand down. we will not! have faith and be strong in your continuing journey.

—Peggy, Springfield, MO

Believe in the truth. Believe it will set us free. Tell the truth. Find the truth. Stand up for it. Believe other writers care enough to actually do something to help.

—Michael, Costa Mesa, CA

Hang in there...

—Jessica, Long Beach, CA

Freedom of the press is more than just words !

—Gary, Minneapolis, MN

They wouldn't be messing with you if they had nothing to hide. Keep up the work, keep putting on the pressure. We back you, we support you, we need you!

—Tim, East aurora, NY

What you're doing is heroic - God bless!

—Virginia, Ellettsville, IN

Shame on those who arrested you. Keep serving your country by exercising and demonstrating Freedom of the Press. All real Americans are behind you.

—Vince, Fresno, CA

Thank You.

—John, Boulder, CO

Some attacks on freedoms that I've previously taken for granted chill me to the bone. Arrests of US journalists-- like the end of the right to a writ of habeas corpus-- are disappearing lately without a whimper. Truly frightening.

—Patricia, Lake Oswego, OR

I am an Army Nurse veteran of WWII, all 4 years of it, and I believe firmly in the First Amendment - freedom of speech for all Americans!

—Doris, RENO, NV

Thank you for your courage and dedication on behalf of us 99 % . I do what I can by passing on behind-the-scenes developments to my email list. I see HUGE steps being taken BEHIND THE SCENES which have been building for almost 2 decades which are progressing toward correcting the entire corrupt mess-- with support from us all..

—Carol, Fairfield, IA

without free speech, and freedom of the press, we not America.

—Kenneth, Lopez island, WA

Continue to fight for freedom of speech!

—Sonia, Aurora, CO

Don't despair! This is still the United States of America and we will not let our freedom go without a fight!

—Susan, Reading, PA

Do you mean to tell me that honest reporting holds no meaning, and those who would report truth are arrested? If you aren't doing anything wrong, you have nothing to fear from free speech. Release them, without delay.

—Rodney, Buckhannon, WV

I will not rest until you are free.

—Nathan, Santa Rosa, CA

Freedom of the press is one of the things that makes our country great-- or it did.

—Sheri, Chicago, IL

Thank you for being a benefit to our society. Your bravery is commendable.

—Virgil, Point Reyes Station, CA

I stand in solidarity with you, my friends.

—Mika, Middlesboro, KY

Thank you for your service in support of democracy.

—Mary, Austin, TX

I am so proud of you for defending my freedom under the First Amendment.

—Edith, Van Lear, KY

I am very proud of you for the risks you take to bring the truth to Americans. Thank you!

—Robert, Grand Rapids, MI

Please don't give up.

—Robert, Jefferson, LA

Thank you for doing what you do

—Russell, Kirksville, MO

Freedom of the Press is a cornerstone of Democracy. FREE the Journalists !!!

—Louise, CRP Christi, TX

In memory of Jack Anderson, thank you.

—Diane, SWARTZ CREEK, MI

The First Amendment Is Not For A Privileged Few. It Is A Right For Everyone.

—Thomas, Las Vegas, NV

What happened to the Constitution?

—Jennifer, Peyton, CO

I am having to dig for actual news as a reader. You folks are on the front lines, and we need you there. Thank you.

—Russell, Lake Forest Park, WA

Repress censorship not the free Press!!!!

—Mark, Palm Bay, FL

Dearest journalists - stay strong, we support a free global press and all your stellar work. Prayers are coming your way - expect an angel.

—Denise, Puyallup, WA

Our America is in deep trouble, we need everyone to be as courageous as our founding fathers to save it! Give me Liberty or give me death!

—Emma, Austin, TX

Policemen are hired to keep the peace, not to frustrate peacekeepers!

—James, Seattle, WA

Your courage is commendable, and your stories are being told. Thank you so much for your work.

—Rachel, Channahon, IL

Thank you for standing up for the rights of us all. You are on the frontline in the battle for freedom and TRUE democracy. You have the support of freedom loving people everywhere. THANK YOU!!

—Henry, Los Angeles, CA

Today America, tomorrow Syria???? Don't let it happen.

—Alan, Los Altos, CA

We deserve to know the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help me God.

—Alexandra, Cloverdale, CA

Freedom of speech must be held sacred!

—Diana, Medinah, IL

Quit attempting to stifle WE THE PEOPLE'S rites !!

—John, Westminster, CO

Good journalism is part of the front line of protection for everyone's civil rights. Thank you for holding the line.

—Mona, Berkeley, CA

Land of the Free? Let's just say that the Free are being tested very sorely at this moment.

—Simon, Falmouth, ME

Thank you

—Sanja, New York, NY

Thanks from Croatia

—Nina, New York, NY

keep on doing yours job:freely sharing knowledge

—Fiorello, Milano, VA

We need the truth to be told, stay united and get the truth out there the people are depending on you.

—Cindy, Frankfort, KY

Thank you so much for covering the Occupy Wall Street movements.

—Kenneth, Lecompte, LA

Your concern for the truth and for making it known is an inspiration - and is the very foundation of a free country.

Thanks for caring - and for courage on our behalf.

—Rev, Woolwich, ME

Hang in there! Good shall overcome evil!

—William, San Diego, CA

We're with you! Vicky and Frank et al

—Francis, Kirkville, NY

When thinking and speaking is a crime in any given society, the dangers to freedom become extreme. Thank you for being there.

—Sylvia, Weston, ME

Thank you for your efforts in bringing world wide exposure to a disease called 'Wallstreet' and assisting the activists that are occupying!

—Davina, Nashville, GA

You are holding the line between abusive govt and our constitutional rights. My thoughts are with you and you have my support.

—Robin, Seattle, WA

This blight should not happen. Why isn't the government stopping this?

—Matthew, Boynton Beach, FL

Hang tough. Help is on the way! We support you 1000%!

—Harlene, Owings Mills, MD

Don't give up. If the journalists give up their rights, Americans give up the information that continues to give fuel to democracy.

—Amy, PHARR, TX

Journalists are the same as the people. When these people have been arrested for the First Amendment, any of the people can be arrested for the First Amendment. This is not right.

—Klimber, Milaca, MN

Thanks for choosing to be a journalist.

—Gary, Asheville, NC

Thank you for working to preserve our freedoms. Stand firm!!

—Bonnie, Rice Lake, WI

Stay strong. We are proud of you.

—Marie, Newton, MA

Thank you for your valiant efforts to keep "we the people" informed. I can't believe how far this country has gone in taking away our freedoms. We need a free(d) press now more than ever.

—Anita, North Kingstown, RI

Hey good luck On the fight of our First amendment rights. This might never get shown in big news because the government controls everything. (sad but true) You are showing how the Government are trying to dictate us I will fight for you as well. Keep fighting our rights to party....I mean of free speech. Sorry for the bad joke

—Carman, Lake Wales, FL

Our Founding Father's protected The Press under the First Amendment: "not primarily to amuse and entertain, not to emphasize the trivial and the sentimental, not to simply "give the public what it wants"-- but to inform, to arouse, to reflect, to state our dangers and our opportunities, to indicate our crises and our choices, to lead, mold, educate and sometimes even anger public opinion." JFK The President and The Press
—Typhon, New York, NY

We all need to know!
—Dean, Joseph, OR

Please continue to report on the Occupy Movement. I am in shock that these arrest have taken place and can only imagine how difficult this must be for all of you. We are behind you.
—Vicki, Vernon, AL

Keep fighting the good fight.
—Aaron, Omaha, NE

Insist that police respect journalists' need and right to cover any and all events. Ask state attorney generals to take a stand and publically support a free press.
—Linda, Reston, VA

The police have NO business arresting people for observing and documenting their (police) actions.
—John, Weatherford, TX

Hello: Keep up the great work and telling the truth as to what is going on in the streets.
—Grant, Grand Canyon, AZ

thank you for supporting our freedom of press, fear not for we are going to get your freedom back.
—Mason, Boise, ID

Thank you for trading your freedom for truth and don't give up, America will stand beside you.
—Michael, Walnut Creek, CA

Thank you for having the courage to take the risks associated with providing the truth to the public and to the powerful.
—Betty, Topeka, KS

You guys hang in there! You're our first line of defense in the war for freedom!
—Tim, Pacifica, CA

God bless you and keep you safe. Thank you for trying to keep us informed.
—Katherine, Shelton, WA

We can't have a democracy without knowledge about what is happening in the world. Thank you for all you do.
—Maggie, Milton, MA

As a citizen of this planet, including the USA, I stand with each of you and support your important efforts to bring the truth to all peoples.
—Annette, Fitchburg, WI

The First Amendment is for Journalist's and the rest of US(A) — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech.

—Ellen, Eureka, CA

Please keep up, your important work.

—Thomas, Haslett, MI

We're with you!

—Mark, Salem, OR

I completely support the arrested journalists and am deeply concerned about the flouting of the 1st amendment.

Stephen Kurtz

—Stephen, Laredo, TX

The First Amendment is not just for journalists — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech. This is simply the abuse and stretching of the PATRIOT Act to cover acts that prove discomfoting to government or business, but must be illuminated by a free press.

—Frank, Lucinda, PA

Thanks to you and others the deterioration of our rights has been exposed. The country will either do the right thing or we will all be put to task for the wrong choice.

—Paula, Fulton, MO

Thank you for everything you are doing to bring the truth to light. Without you we would be in the dark. Thank you for protecting our democracy!

—Danee', Birmingham, AL

God bless you!

—Dianne, Hayes, VA

You know the rules and you know that of all of them integrity matters most. That's why you have the full support and respect of all of us who support the First Amendment and believe truth and justice must never be sacrificed.

Thank you sincerely.

—Laoise, New York, NY

We all depend on the fundamental right to free speech.

—Patrizia, Houston, TX

Hang in there, help is the on the way.

—Shawn, GRESHAM, OR

We believe in what you are doing and admire your courage and determination. Hang in there.

—Pauline, Manitowish Waters, WI

Hang in there - we all know that what's happening here is illegal and wrong!

—Colleen, Miranda, CA

The First Amendment is not just for journalists — we all depend on the fundamental right to free speech.

—Elaine, Willowbrook, IL

Your strength and courage in the face of the oppression of our First Amendment Rights is most admirable. Keep up the fight, so that all of us can continue reporting the news to the people as we should. --Omaha Sternberg, blogger & podcaster
—Omaha, Seattle, WA

No free press, no democracy. Government assaults on free speech are an affront anywhere. Here they are also the height of hypocrisy.
—Robert, Wantage, NJ

Thank you for your bravery and dedication. It is not many who would take the risks to themselves to pursue the truth. Your actions are more appreciated than I can ever say.
—Brenna, Madera, CA

Years ago I wanted to become a journalist. My father instilled the belief in me that one should be truthful and honest. I never imagined a life behind bars simply for speaking the truth. I applaud your bravery and perseverance and hope that this group can help to promote the justice and freedom you truly deserve. Hang in there.
—Phyllis, Columbia, IL

Take strength in knowing you are heroic in standing up for what's right. What's right doesn't change...
—Roy, St. James, NY

I defended the constitution as a member of our military 30 years ago. I stand with you now to defend it again. I never stand behind my friends, I stand beside them.
—Randy, Atlantic City, NJ

Thank you for standing up for freedom, for truth, and for knowledge!
—Andrea, Faribault, MN

Arresting members of the press is one of the most dangerous threats to freedom.
—Josephine, Danville, CA

Please continue your efforts, I support you, the Freedom of the Press and Free Speech !
—Bennie, SPARTA, GA

Chin up. We're fighting for you.
—Crystal, Huntington, WV

Thank you for all you have done to inform the public of what is really happening. You guys are heroes!
—Deanna, Silver Springs, FL

Believe it, if police can film me, and arrest me and seize my camera when anyone else films them, our country HAS no constitution!
—Joseph, Lake Placid, NY

Thank you for your courage. Unfortunately, few Americans fully appreciate the meaning of Free Press.
—Carol, Angel Fire, NM

The best quote I have found, "Let's see you acknowledge a man whose words make your blood boil who's standing center stage, advocating at the top of his lungs that which you would spend a lifetime opposing at the top of yours."
- The American President starring Michael Douglas.
—Lyle, Lorain, OH

Where there is no freedom to speak, there is no freedom.

—Jim, Cambridge, ME

We are not some third world dictatorship or communist regime where freedom of the press is oppressed. This is the USA. Let's act like it.

—Jacob, Leander, TX

To the arrested journalists, we stand behind you. Thank you for your work.

—Joseph, El Paso, TX

The public must be reminded that the subjective opinions of the media moguls can no longer be dictated as unquestionable fact. The first amendment was created for the preservation the people's right to dissent. It is not meant as an excuse to intentionally mislead and misinform the public. To no longer have our constitutionally protected right to address the grievances we have with our government is to damn our future generations with the abuses and agendas of unbridled totalitarianism. Only a educated and well informed public can make responsible decisions. The information wars are escalating and we take pride in your efforts on the front lines. Continue to be couriers of truth among the deceivers.

—Andrew, Deltona, FL

Journalism is a vital element of democracy!

—Lillian, Tequesta, FL

Stand strong!

—Frank, Eugene, OR

This is one of the first places to start in getting our news back so it is not all corporation controlled and propaganda . Thank you for standing up .

—Linda, Jacksonville, FL

Stay strong! You are within your rights and providing the public with badly needed coverage and real facts!

—Amanda, Boulder, CO

Thank you for the job you do. Keep up the good work.

—Patricia, Jersey City, NJ

Hang in there!

—Linda, Decatur, MI

You, as journalists, are the eyes and ears for those of us who cannot be there. Thank you for the risks you take and the fine job you do.

—Paula, Bloomington, IL

Thank you for daring to report the Truth and serving as an example for the rest of our bought-off media journalism. Be strong. You are the force for change.

—Newton, Prescott, AZ

You know you are right. Don't forget that.

—Elaine, McDade, TX

We honor and admire your courage and dedication to reporting the truth for the freedom and greater good of human civilization. Keep fighting we're behind you! Sincerely, Robert Michener Jr.

—Robert, San Rafael, CA

What are these people afraid of ? That is the big question ?

—Elizabeth, Grand Junction, CO

Keep voicing the truth!

—Stephen, Pomona, CA

Have we forgotten this is the United States Of America and we have a free press and free speech. This is what makes us special. This is the 1st Amendment. This is what allows us to see the truth. Stop this arresting of journalists.

—Angela, New York, NY

This blatant attempt to quiet any opposition to corporate agendas is an attack on all of our rights and must be resisted, as you have done. Keep up your brave work. The future of our country is at stake.

—Barbara, DeLand, FL

may have been disconnected earlier message. I want to be sure you are aware of everyone's gratitude!

—Joe, Mena, AR

Truly terrifying that this is happening in the United State of America. Our government needs to get its head out of its ass.

—Niko, Williamsville, NY

We may not always agree on the issue, but it is important to respect the information. I can determine for myself the validity of the information presented. When the police arrest a journalist or hinder their freedoms, I know it's to hide something.

—Michelle, Franklin, TN

Nolo bastardum carborundum.

—Thom, Ridley Park, PA

Many blessings are being sent to you and your families, thank you for reporting the truth and putting your lives at risk, Thank you Diane Irwin

—Diane, Denver, CO

Freedom of the press, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly all are under seige in the US. The Occupy movement has shown clearly that these freedoms are not welcome in our country. I stand with the Occupy movement and with journalists who are gathering information Americans need to know and will not hear on the 6:00 news on their tv.

—Kathy, Fairfield, IA

We are with you and your courage.

—Frank, San Rafael, CA

Thank you for keeping First Amendment rights battle going. You are in the public eye.

—Allison, Spokane, WA

Keep the faith

—Geraldine, Menasha, WI

Thank you for your work on behalf of freedom of information.

—Linda, Plymouth, WI

Been there, done that. At least I think you should believe that you are equal to the job of being the sort of sleuthing journalists we are in dire need of. Best to you.

—MJ, Mt Orab, OH

Press freedom and freedom of speech are the same thing. We need not have to live in fear for what we write or what we say. This is fucking bullshit.

—Caitlin, Arvada, CO

we must all stand up to change these barbaric outdated laws. Thank you for trying to speak the truth. Julia

—Julia, Essex, VT

We are supporting you and standing with you. We will prevail & will not allow our freedoms to be taken from us!! Stand strong y'all!!!

—Marjorie, Virginia Beach, VA

And the risk you put yourself in. It is so essential in these times of so many efforts to control the message that free and accurate reporting is maintained.

—John, Skippack, PA

It is not right that you were arrested! Where is our freedom?

—Ruby, Glendale, CA

Thank you for standing up for all of us.

—Maxine, New York, NY

What's the difference between a corrupt democracy and any other form of corrupt government? Q: How much longer until we adopt open-source/open-standards PC software for all federal, state, and local government agencies? Do you realize how much money this could save the American taxpayers? And, if it's good enough for the rest of the world (God's: pop 7.0 billion (197 countries)) we live in, why shouldn't it be good enough for the U.S.A.? A: 10 Steps To Open Government -- InformationWeek "10 Milestones - President Obama set the direction for open government with his "Transparency and Open Government" memo on Jan. 21, 2009, one day after he took office. By December 2009, the 11-page Open Government Directive was in place, outlining a series of requirements. The top 10 accomplishments so far:" <http://www.informationweek.com/news/government/policy/showArticle.jhtml?articleID=229218468> Obama: "The rest of the world (God's: pop 7.0 billion (197 countries)) isn't stupid!" After all, isn't over one-third of that world already Microsoft free? Patriotism begins with knowledge, not lies and propaganda. Most of society, including the majority of all the world's Christianity, prefers the knowledge. -Ron Wike Vietnam veteran

—Ronald, Hummelstown, PA

It seems that the first amendment is not part of the constitution anymore.

—Gerda, Chico, CA

Why is it so easy to arrest people that are telling the truth, and the ones who are lying, get away with it? Ever notice that the people that are pushing peace get killed? Jesus, Martin Luther King Jr, Ghandi, John Lennon... Why not make the real people responsible pay for what they've done. STOP arresting the people who are making the truth known.

—Brian, Pleasant grove, UT

I support the 1st amendment. Please use the truth as your greatest weapon

—Ruth, West Orange, NJ

More than ever, we need journalists to "comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable". Currently, that adage has been turned on its head.

—Patricia, Taunton, MA

In support of your efforts to get to the truth!

—Antonia, Santa Monica, CA

We need investigative reporters. Keep up the good work.

—Gordon, Sewalls Point, FL

i believe that freedom of speach and the right to journalists should never be taken. We are then no better than china or any other repressive country. thank you so much for standing for the truth and please be aware that most of america is watching the debacle of our government and its up to you guys to get the truth our thank you

—Sherrie, Portland, OR

Thank you for doing your job. We need you to tell what is really going on. We can't afford to lose our first ammendment rights. Keep up the fight. We are with you!!

—Judith, Barron, WI

Josh Potratz

—Josh, Vista, CA

We have your back Occupy anywhere ! Judy from the Big Easy

—Judy, KENNER, LA

Thank you for what you do and for your bravery in the face of injustice.

—Janet, Margate, FL

Hang in there. You'll be getting a lot of support.

—Brian, Glendale, WI

This is America!!! Freedom of Speech!!!!

—Craig, Duluth, MN

Thanks for your efforts in reporting the REAL news! I especially support the efforts of LINK and FSTV!

Sincerely, Udo J.

—Udo, Rockford, IL

When journalists are arrested, we are on a very dangerous path. The freedom of the press represents the freedom for all of us.

—D, Ronkonkoma, NY

With no free press, there's no democracy.

—Nicholas, Santa Cruz, CA

I don't know what I can say to the journalists, other than that there are people who care about the work they do and know how important a real journalist is.

—Gregory, Stony Brook, NY

Unlike many of those silenced by the bullets of tyrants, you have lived- to spread the word of what you witnessed! stand your ground! Jack-America

—Crystle, Gardner, MA

Thank you for your courage to cover events accurately and honestly. This is essential for true freedom. Diane Tillman

—Diane, Seal Beach, CA

Do not lose spirit. Your efforts are being noticed around the world and applauded. Standing up for our freedom of speech is the most important thing you can be doing. God bless you, keep you safe, hugs!

—Sherylee, Victoria, CA

Keep fighting the good fight - which shouldn't have to BE a fight.

—Emi, Lincoln, NE

We need more people in the world like you all, brave souls who stand for their highest principles. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

—Ariel, Milwaukee, WI

I'm a former newspaper reporter!

—Susan, Chicago, IL

keep up the good work good luck we must fight for freedoms

—John, New hope, MN

keep reporting all the news!

—Richard, Fort Collins, CO

I really appreciate your commitment to transparent journalism, and I commend your efforts. Keep doing what you're doing; I'll be behind you every step of the way. "First they came for the communists, and I didn't speak out because I wasn't a communist. Then they came for the trade unionists, and I didn't speak out because I wasn't a trade unionist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak out because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak out because I was Protestant. Then they came for me and there was no one left to speak out for me."

—William, Sioux City, IA

Your courage in reporting regardless of the consequences is amazing. Thank you for doing your job. Now it's our turn to try to help you obtain your freedom. Stay strong.

—Elenore, Idaho Falls, ID

You journalists are the frontlines of all Americans. You stand up for those who have no voice or are afraid to speak. This is proof that the country is headed in the wrong direction, when our journalists are being arrested for supporting their beliefs. As long as this information keeps getting put out there I think there is still hope for our country and I'm glad you guys choose the people rather than politicians. I think journalists do a much better job representing the American citizens than a career politician.

—Edwin, Valley village, CA

You are in our prayers and we thank you for taking a stand for our freedom and rights.

—Pamela, Tallahassee, FL

Thomas Jefferson said it all in a nutshell: If I had a choice between government and a free press, I would choose a free press

—Robert, Palm Springs, FL

I witnessed the fear of many journalists in Mexico City, and saw first hand the valor and honor of these unsung HEROES who later were persecuted. As a young child, I learned the power of words accompanied by TRUTH and DIGNITY of the voiceless. Thank you for your strength and for your pursuit in capturing the realities of those marginalized and silenced.

—Iliana, Corona, CA

You help us know the truth for as long as you tell the truth.

—William, Santa Cruz, CA

Please continue to fight for all of our rights!!!

—Robert, Oakland, CA

I stand with Occupy, Palm Springs. Los Angeles, areas.

—Frank, Yucca Valley, CA

The more America bullies countries worldwide with escalating militarism, the more we resemble a police state at home.

—R, San Francisco, CA

We value your Integrity!

—Tony, N.Hollywood, CA

Thomas Jefferson told us that a free press and an educated electorate were vital to maintaining our democratic freedoms. What do you think? Sincerely, r.johnson granada hls, ca.

—R, Granada hls, CA

I don't really know what to say except that I am with you and will act and speak out however I can to right this injustice that is spreading through our nation. Thank you for your work and integrity.

—Kevin, Eugene, OR

I'm glad at least someone is doing the right thing

—Michael, Newhall, CA

keep your light on

—Maria, Venezia, GA

"When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk." There has never been a truer statement written. The 1% have written laws (by their $ influence) to keep the 99% "In Their Place!" . Nothing wrong with making Billions, It's what you do with it after you have it that counts.

—Michael, Wichita, KS

This is where we need to draw the line. I have as yet not made an physical appearance at any of the Occupy rallies, but this will surley drive me to it. I guess the words, "Give me liberty, or give me death" no longer have any meaning for you. You are now my enemy!!

—John, Portsmouth, VA

Keep fighting for liberty of speech, because once we stop, everyone is screwed!

—Michelle, MANCHESTER, NH

I support you and your cause, this is supposed to be a "FREE COUNTRY WITH FREEDOM OF SPEECH". NO ONE should have the right to take away your freedom to report the news or express an opinion.

—Persephoni, Tallahassee, FL

This needs to get to the Supreme Court! Keep fighting!

—Margaret, Lafayette, CA

Keep focusing on the issues and report the truth. We need you.

—Tisha, Albuquerque, NM

Perseverance is the only tactic that will truly succeed.

—Tom, Mountain View, MO

This is the US not the USSR!

—Sarah, Englewood, CO

Thank you for being where I hadn't the physical courage to be.

—J, Needham, MA

We're with you!!!

—Drew, Murfreesboro, TN

I'm in the navy right now, and one thing in the sailors creed is "I will support and defend the constitution of the United States of America." What they're doing arresting journalists is not something I would support or defend. It's closer to socialism then the democracy this nation was built on. I hope everythin goes well for you. Good luck in the future.

—John, Eveleth, MN

Freedom from government tyranny is one of the most important aspects of our constitution as enshrined in the "Bill of Rights". Thanks for working the front lines.

—Bruce, Medford, MA

Do what is right for WE THE PEOPLE, not corporations and the rich who own & run them.

—Vickie, Coarsegold, CA

Reporters must be allowed to cover all the news, not just the news our govermnet wants them's too.

—Paul, SPARKS, NV

All I have to say is that "without the first amendment we could end up as a country run by a special interest groups and corporations,that suppress the flow of valid information in order to gain their own agenda". We need to stop this before it gets further out of hand. Sincerely, Myron Martin

—Myron, Richland Center, WI

Keep up the good work. We will continue to fight for freedom of the press. It is the only way we remain actually free.

—Tamara, Brookings, OR

Journalists of St.Vincent and the Grenadines express solidarity with you in your struggle for Press Freedom and Human Rights in the USA. Stand Firm ! Stay Strong ! Conley Rose

—Conley, KINGSTOWN, NY

Thank you and please continue your efforts to provide truthful information to the public.

—Carol, Crescent City, FL

thank you for doing the reporting you do, for caring enough to stand above the rest

—Cynthia, Paonia, CO

Our 4 Freedoms are critical to the continuation of the USA.

—John, Allentown, NJ

Keep covering Occupy! Stand strong and keep writing about press freedoms, too.

—Sara, Brattleboro, VT

I admire your courage. I pray for your well being. A truly democratic society requires freedom of the press. Press on.

—Maryjo, Toledo, OH

Thank you for representing the 99.9%!!!

—George, Marion, NC

Hang in there. Police repression must stop. You are the front line in this battle, and we respect and honor you for your courage.

—Barbara, Port Washington, NY

Sunshine disinfects, pour on the 1st amendment.

—David, East Patchogue, NY

Thank you for your courage and determination. Together, we will continue to speak out in defense of freedom, justice, and the First Amendment.

—Katherine, Burien, WA

Keep up the Good Work!

—Jerry, Corvallis, OR

It's a sad day when Americans have to have a revolution to get our freedom of speech back. Journalists are our citizen soldiers who fight for truth and justice and we applaud all of you for standing up for everyone's rights to know the truth. I believe that this is the beginning of good change for our country and change doesn't come easily. Keep up the good work! All Americans deserve to be heard, and it's people like you that will keep our freedoms alive. Thank you for the risk you take and the true patriotism you show by taking those risks.

—Char, Tippecanoe, OH

thank you for bringing the truth to life

—Meenakshi, Taos, NM

Thank-you for doing democracy's work and putting your freedom and bodies on the line to do it. I hope our country can come back to its senses soon. Until then, you are sorely needed and appreciated.

—Sanda, Sturgeon Lake, MN

The freedom and dedication of the Fourth Estate is crucial if Democracy is to survive. We count on you and honor you.

—Margaret, Hermosa Beach, CA

Thank you for standing for what's right.

—Ingrid, Plano, TX

America seems to be slipping away into George Orwell's 1984 and going downhill into an abyss worse than the previous Soviet Union and Stalinist silence and Hitler's Gestapo plurgacy! We need to challenge our First Amendment right to speak our minds and to tell the truth about what's wrong in not telling the truth when it comes to reporting what is really going on in this country and not lying and silencing decent!

—Terry, White Plains, NY

"When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk."

—Pamela, Kihei, HI

Journalists cover the News. We the People want you to protect their right to report the News.

—Nancy, Austin, TX

I sincerely pray that you will find comfort in knowing you have done the right thing in trying to report news that affects ALL of us. I stand with you in solidarity and give witness that THIS police action is not only unconstitutional, but unconscionable! The level of repression and subjugation by the police is pure Nazi jackboot tactics. Stand tough!!!

—Benjamin, Kennesaw, GA

I am for the liberty of our democracy and an informed population is a free populous. I am saying no to the continual attack from our police, intelligence, and government not standing up for free-speech and the rights of the people to information and the press.

—Andrew, Des moines, WA

When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk. I stand in defense of our First Amendment rights with the more than 50 journalists who have been detained in the United States. Thank you for your work.

—Tana, Las Vegas, NV

Thank you for your courage. May all those who take a stand for the first amendment be triumphant.

—Alexandra, Jamul, CA

To the arrested journalists, I respect your work in bringing the latest information on OWS to the public.

—Terry, Los Angeles, CA

Thank you for your bravery in the effort to get the occupy news out to the world.

—Dar, Richmond, IN

Thank you for doing your job!

—Marion, New York, NY

Thanks for the important work you do for us all.

—Bruce, Altoona, WI

My sister is a journalist. Your job is extremely important; we must know the truth if we are to be a free people. As I librarian and writer, I also defend the first amendment. Be strong!

—Mary, Mount Kisco, NY

In defense of Liberty!!!

—Chris, Mi Wuk Village, CA

Solidarity!

—Eleanor, Albany, NY

Thank you for doing this important work!

—MrD, Iowa City, IA

This is supposed to be a free country and a free(lance) profession. We have your backs.

—Ronald, Roanoke, VA

Please continue to keep the public informed. Do not cave in to the bullies who would suppress the truth.

—Janet, Presque Isle, ME

America is the self-proclaimed defender of democracy and the right to freedom of speech, and you, are brave enough to defy those that are attempting to deny free speech. Throughout the world, there are many who would gladly stand with you. Have courage, stand firm, and you will prevail. Your arrest is unconstitutional, but has not gone unnoticed. The eyes of concerned Americans, and others around the world are watching, and stand ready to do whatever is needed in your defense. You are not alone, beside you stands an army of concerned citizens,

Nicholas Dove

—Nicholas, Wendens Ambo, NY

"...freedom and justice for all." has lost its meaning altogether. Many of the elected in charge can be accounted for it. No one has the right to take away your right to freedom of speech/communication ever. Your courage is admired. What an undeserved situation.

—Maria, Cape Coral, FL

I stand for the freedom of the press; freedom of speech. I am outraged that journalists have been arrested here in my country. Not here, in the United States!

—Michael, Kihei, HI

Without people like you, there would be no hope for freedom or for democracy.

—Little, Albuquerque, NM

When journalists are arrested, a country is heading toward becoming a dictatorship. Thank you for your courage and sacrifice. Now the rest of us have to start fighting harder.

—Patti, Georgetown, MA

"Those who sacrifice liberty for security deserve neither" - Benjamin Franklin. Thank you for what you do.

—Carl, Riverside, RI

When censorship of fact is a violation of citizens' trust. Your integrity is now greater than the feds'.

—Matthew, Niskayuna, NY

I am inspired by your trying to bring information out to the public!

—Ambrosia, Las Vegas, NV

It sickens me to see the country like this. These journalists are heroes' in my heart and soul! God bless every one of them!

—Glen, Marysville, WA

Your situation, though horribly unfair, is serving to shine a light on the most important issue of our time. Thank you for all you do to ensure our freedoms.

—Denise, Philadelphia, PA

Christine Gogolowski

—Christine, Estral Beach, MI

We got your back.

—Bradley, Fond du Lac, WI

Please keep reporting the stories even as the establishment persecutes you for their interests.

—Jeremy, Des Moines, IA

Your work is so important to the rest of the world. I will pray for your safety. Without your factual stories so many tragedies would be unknown. Thank you.

—Ramona, Fresno, CA

The Obama administration has been demanding that governments in the Mideast respect civil rights, like free speech, a free press, and the right to peaceable assembly. It would be nice, and a demonstration of leadership by example, if they made that same demand domestically. Free speech, the right of a free press, and the right to peaceably assemble are Constitutional guarantees. They are rights, not privileges, and our government needs to respect and enforce those rights, not infringe upon nor threaten them.

—Clinton, Kirkland, WA

Thanks for your service and diligence on our behalf - we stand with you forever

—Michael, Alameda, CA

Truly you are in our hearts,,the Swain Family

—Robert&mary, GRAND RAPIDS, MI

Courage! and Thanks!

—Bea, Spokane, WA

As a WWII Purple Heart veteran I hold your service in support of the 1st Amendment as equally significant and much more difficult than mine. Thank you again.

—James, Redondo Beach, CA

Given to these thugs now, and we're all next!

—Joseph, Haslett, MI

Keep up your good work.

—Barbara, Daly City, CA

It is a frightening bit of history. I, for one, will continue to do what I can.

—Dan, Pacifica, CA

I have never believed in the role of journalism more than I believe in it now. Don't give in.

—John, Boulder, CO

Stand firmly; the Constitution is on your side.

—Ray, Hickory, NC

Keep up the good work, America needs people like you don't give up.

—Angel, Trenton, NJ

Without you, we would not know the truth. Thank you

—Susan, Georgetown, TX

The Republican Party, as well as a few Democrats are doing everything they can to control the media, as well as the internet. My prayer is that they don't win because the internet is the very best instrument to get at the corruption in our government and who is responsible. Just what I have learned about corporate and wealthy oligarch has been more than worth it. Keep up the good work and keep fighting for the 99% the 1% need to be stripped of their money and their power?

—Marcia, Albuquerque, NM

#47? Hello... this is America. Freedom? 1st amendment rights? Shame!

—Penelope, Norcross, GA

Keep on fighting for the truth and the 99%!

—Justin, Granite City, IL

Your work inspires us, and your work inspires the world. We stand by you and we support all of you. Knowledge is free and we have the right to know!

—Martin, New York, NY

Criminal justice is the use of law to make freedom a crime, but we are many and they are the few. I stand with you.

—Patrick, Monte Rio, CA

thank you for taking a stand for freedom!

—John, Clinton, TN

You are doing what the First Amendment was put in place for you to do. Stand strong.

—Linda, Anaheim, CA

The Fourth Estate is needed now more than ever. Courage, courage, courage!

—Clifton, Davidson, NC

The facts are clear. The elites are marching the masses toward worldwide war. "Truth" in journalism will [therefore] not be permitted.

—Tom-Scott, Little Rock, AR

We stand with you, and appreciate the sacrifice you make on our behalf!!

—Christopher, Morro Bay, CA

Stay strong, thanks to organizations like freepress your plight is no longer a secret. Some actions make me wonder if USA is still the land of the free and home of the brave.

—Neda, Mannford, OK

Nothing is more important than our freedom of speech. We must act now to protect it.

—Deborah, Orangeville, UT

Hang in there, we have your back.

—Grace, Escondido, CA

The First Amendment is at the core of what it means to be American and to live the American dream! It is appalling that any journalist simply trying to do his or her job is subjected to illegal arrest and detention. As far back as a student viewing the episode of Mary Tyler Moore within which she is arrested and "thrown in jail" I have known that to be an American citizen is to expect certain guarantees of my civil liberties and we will not stand idly by while journalists are jailed for simply telling the unvarnished truth.

—Lori, Montclair, CA

One of the greatest parts of American society is freedom of the press -- thank you for your service to the people by trying to get information out to the public. People like you provide a foundation in which we all can build a better world. I hope your situation improves and justice is in the future ... Thanks & Best Wishes ...

—Patrick, New York, NY

Continue to Stand Your Ground, Like All Wars We Must Win the Hearts & Minds of the People, (including the cops that Arrest Us) Your Arrest Was NOT in Vain

—Carlos, Houston, TX

Do not give up with this fight, in which others have done for us all in the past...

—Mike, Miami beach, FL

Finnish journalists stand by you!

—Outi, Helsinki,

I am really sorry this happened, you were doing your jobs, and it's just unconscionable that the First Amendment is not being respected. I stand with Freedom of the Press.

—Catherine, San Francisco, CA

Thank you for everything you do. Sorry our government has failed you. Stay strong.

—James, Port Saint Lucie, FL

At this point, a free press is absolutely critical to a viable US democracy. Thank you!!!

—Linda, Otis, ME

—Aaron, Scotts Valley, CA

Being a journalist means caring about the world and wanting to change things for the better. You ARE doing that!
Your personal sacrifices are something to be very proud of.

—Amy, Denton, TX

Freedom of the press is paramount, and I appreciate your sacrifice on the public's behalf. Please keep up your efforts, in spite of the challenges. Please get your own stories in the press; it's very important!!!

—Don, Georgetown, TX

Do Not Give Up!!!

—RÆJent, Drexel Hill, PA

Your field is the only one critical enough to the ealth of the country to be referenced directly in the Constitution.
Thank you for your important work!

—Tom, San Rafael, CA

stay strong, keep standing for freedom. I am praying for you. We need you.

—Melissa, Santa Clara, CA

Stop freedom of the press and you stop democracy. America is a hypocrite.

—Marcia, Lyons, CO

Thank you - you few, you brave

—Mary, Rochester, NY

Stand firm for what you believe don't bend because political puppets tell you information is power a power that belongs in the hands of the public not the government

—Joshua, Williamsburg, VA

Thank you for working so hard to get us the story that you are wrongly arrested in the process. We appreciate your persistence in getting the story correct. You are not forgotten.

—Valerie, Shoreline, WA

Please continue to pursue the story, and thanks for the courage and commitment.

—John, Long Beach, CA

I know and care about you. I watch you closely every chance I get. You are standing up for me and I am forever grateful. You are on the correct side of history. Love & Light.

—Jenny, Birmingham, AL

We are watching and reading all you do. We will stand up for all of our rights to free speech.

—Duane, Portland, OR

Keep going. We need you. Dan Callahan TV journalist Mizzou '83

You are our eyes. They want to blind us. Stay strong and fierce. We have to figure this out. Thank you for putting yourself in the line of fire. kathleen gouveia

—Kathleen, Bakersville, NC

Keep our freedoms alive and the truth be known about the actions our own government has taken to compromise these freedoms.

—Kona, San Francisco, CA

You are not forgotten. True American patriots know the importance of your work and will work to free you until the last person is home.

—Kenneth, Portland, OR

Thank you for doing what we all should be doing.

—Sally, El Prado, NM

sorry that your rights are being stolen. but you are not alone. soon, all of our rights will be stolen~

—Debbie, Oakley, CA

Stay safe!

—Nathalie, Waxahachie, TX

Your work means a lot to ordinary people. We are proud of your efforts to do it right, no matter what the cost is.

Thank you for everything you do!

—Olga, Andover, MA

You are brave in fighting for all of us.

—Mary, Grand Ledge, MI

Thank you for all the truly important work you do.

—Shawn, Racine, WI

Lines are being crossed and it's not by the journalists. What do you have to hide?

—Cathy, Redwood City, CA

muzzling of freedom of expression is something I know first hand. me and my colleagues repeatedly face official unwarranted action like intimidation, assaults, arrests and life threats... only for the reason that govt does not wants truth to be told to the world, about the indian excesses on the valley of kashmir, the brazen human rights violations, the impunity of armed forces, arrests of minors, etc... therefore i m in complete solidarity with the media of america and I also request them to reciprocate this solidarity for those living in this part of the world...peace

—Frank, Ash Fork, AZ

I am absolutely embarrassed to have to demand this of my own government, and especially so during the reign of a president I voted for. This should go without saying in the United States.

—Joe, Seattle, WA

Don't let the motherfuckers get you down.

—Allen, Port Orchard, WA

Arresting journalists reporting stories is an absolute outrage; we are becoming a Fascist state. For whatever it is worth I am rooting for you and our country.

—Patricia, Dayton, OH

Keep up the fight for everyone

—Thomas, Warren, OH

The very fact that You have been locked up is nothing less than a shame and disgrace for the USA! Hang on in there, don't give up!

—Martin, Tjörn,

Stay strong! The public is watching.

—Michele, Boston, MA

Thank you for putting your freedom at risk to help me keep mine.

—Michael, Brick, NJ

Hang in there!

—Bram, Austin, TX

Three things cannot be long hidden: the sun, the moon, and the truth - Buddha I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any national crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts.

The only way to combat liars, con artists, lawyers, politicians, statesmen, and businessmen is with facts and truth.

—Michael, Chicago, IL

If Journalist can't report the corruption the next step is to silence you and me.

—William, Knife River, MN

Hang tough...you have MANY people behind you, supporting you.

—Robert, Los Angeles, CA

Keep up your good work and the truth will out..

—Mary, Santa Barbara, CA

Freedom of speech is essential for America to survive. Arresting the press is a violation of the Constitution. Thank you for taking a stand for freedom.

—Sue, Minneapolis, MN

Thank you for being on the front lines of news as it happens. You are the men and women behind the cameras and the computers telling your story as it went down. Freedom of speech and photos tell way beyond words are so imperative for our freedom as a country. Without you we would be sheep being bombarded by what the Government wants us to hear and to think. THANK YOU and BLESS YOU each and everyday. Sincerely, Dixie Roden

—Dixie, Hendersonville, NC

We stand with you in upholding the importance of reporting on public demonstrations in our nation's capital and across the country.

—Victor, Chesterbrook, PA

Keep doing what you're doing!

—Nicole, Brooklyn, NY

I only wish that I was with you.

—James, Orleans, MA

Thank you for your resolve.

—Patrick, Katy, TX

The arrest is shameful.

—Steve, Austin, TX

I was a newspaper journalist in Houston during the 1980s. This sounds too much like Moscow in the 1980s. Dan Grothaus

—Daniel, Kansas City, MO

Don't give up the fight! We're counting on you, and you can count on us!

—Philip, Eagan, MN

Thanks for trying to give us balanced reporting

—Dirk, San Francisco, CA

My fellow American. Your rights have been violated and you should have your employer fund a federal battle with the law enforcement agencies involved. Due to the immensity of this problem your employer has the public forum to express a citizen's rights to other media and promote the fact of rights violations.

—Albert, Brentwood, NY

keep fighting against government oppression

—Carolyn, New York City, NY

Your work stands between the people and the oligarchs, keep it up. David Patrick Stucky

—Patrick, New York, NY

They need to arrest ALL the pundits etc on Fox News instead !!!

—Rosemary, Xenia, OH

We have nothing if we have no freedom of speech or assembly. Thank you for your courageous stand.

—Norma, Bronx, NY

You have my thanks and admiration for continuing to do your job as a free press journalist.

—Vaughn, Sacramento, CA

When they come for you you know you are on to something. Be strong. Seek the truth.

—John, Cleveland, OH

Real journalism -- not that kind on TV with hairspray -- is one of the noblest professions in our democracy. Thank you for defending all of us.

—Anthony, Barrington, IL

I stand with our journalists who are just DOING THEIR JOB which is to be the 5th Estate of Government. Release them now or there will be a backlash!!!

—Catherine, Houston, TX

So sorry such a thing happened in the US.

—Suzanne, Hoyleton, IL

Both the Republican and Democrat parties are going in the wrong direction. To SAVE the US entrepreneurial ranking, credit rating, stock market, the $, Medicare, Social Security, Medicaid and the police, fire, k-12 public school, library, military, defense and homeland security budgets while CUTTING government spending, debt and present tax rates without causing inflation or high interest rates; both State and Federal parties would be winners if they would compromise with the following strategies: Create good paying American jobs with good benefits for American citizens by repealing all IN sales taxes, corporate tax cuts (25%) and inheritance tax cuts and replace the lost revenue with an import tax/tariff on imported labor (India) & manufactured goods (Mexico and Communist China, North Korea & Vietnam). Increase the federal income tax deduction from $5700 (2010) to $15000 for American citizens. Increase the IN state income tax exemption for non-dependent adults from $1000 to $5000, up to $15,000; depending on disabilities and age. All standard deductions and exemptions should be adjusted for inflation. Collect an export tax on natural resources/commodities such as coal, oil, natural gas & grains. Repeal all wealthy individual, business and new development/construction tax incentives such as tax abatement, tax increment financing, grants, deductions, credits, tax free bonds, earmarks, loopholes and other corporate welfare that are shifting business costs and taxes to other taxpayers, exporting American jobs or creating poverty wage American jobs. OR, require these corporate welfare kings to pay a living wage, minimum wage of $15/hour with good benefits; adjusted for inflation. Repeal right to work legislation. Collect mandatory impact fees (IN code: 36-7-4-1300, only infrastructure today); but, expand the code to collect impact fees for schools, libraries, parks, police and fire. Search for Brent Pittman Brownsburg, IN at flyergroup.com, LinkedIn.com and google.com for more information and details.

Elizabeth Whitfill

—Elizabeth, Dallas, TX

This behavior is becoming too prevalent in America, the police are there to serve & protect not to make up the law as they go. This is not Russia under Stalin.

—Justin, Redmond, WA

You are documenting the truth for us, and providing a viewpoint which all Americans need to see.

—Cotton, City, CA

To all those police officers, if you are instructed to over reach your duties and violate the 1st amendment, call the media and get all the journalists to come down and video/audio the event. List your supervisor and his supervisor who instructed you to violate our 1st amendments right.

—Jeffrey, Prosper, TX

Keep up the wonderful work. This is still a free country!

—Richard, Grantham, NH

We are with you.

—Marion, Gaithersburg, MD

Freedom of speech and the press is a basic right. Support the Bill of Rights!

ACLU: It is against the law. The right thing to do is to allow witness.

—Carl, Ferndale, MI

There used to be a time when the Law Enforcement Officers were servants of the public. What mandate do they have now?

—Orlando, MA, MA

They just don't dare let the public know what is going on or there would be a full fledged rebellion against the Koch Brothers and their billionaire friends.

—Eleanor, Salmon, ID

Thank you for your courage in keeping us informed.

—Connie, Meridian, ID

I regret that you journalists have been ILLEGALLY detained. You are courageous heroes. It is unfortunate that our government has seen fit to choose such tactics that are so diametrically opposed to our 1st amendment rights. We must not allow ourselves to be bullied into being a cowering, powerless citizenry! Thank you for your courage. In solidarity - Dr.FWS

—Frank, Stockton, CA

I don't know how Americans can know what's happening in our country if journalists are not permitted to report the facts.

—John, Pasadena, CA

So much for living in a "democracy" and the First Amendment. Stay strong!!

—Maria, Philadelphia, PA

Thank you for taking all of the risks that you do, people do not appreciate it as much as they should.

—Michael, Redwood, NY

Adolf Eichmann had his orders too. remember this when you speak of this.

—Gary, Lincoln City, OR

Why hasn't each paper gone to bat for their newspeople? They should be making this front page news every day it happens.

—Eleanor, Salmon, ID

Thank you for standing tall for freedom

—Jason, Santa Fe, NM

Thank you for covering the Occupy movement despite the risks to your own safety and health. The risks that journalists face in covering wars and popular uprisings have come home to the U.S.--this reality makes your work all the more important!

—Angele, Pittsburgh, PA

My god, this country will soon be as bad as Syria and all other repressive regimes. I, for one, stand by all of you, doing all you can to get out the truth to the citizens of this country, and to the world!

—Angie, Aurora, CO

Finally we have journalists willing to stick their necks out for the truth!

—Denise, Omaha, NE

Press on!

—William, Easton, PA

You guys are AWESOME!! Thank you SOOOO much for trying to educate Americans on what's happening, and for risking your own freedom to get the stories out to us!! These cops SUCK!!!!!!!!!!

—Jill, Denver, CO

Free Speech!

—Sara, Scottsdale, AZ

Keep exercising your right to "cover" the story.

—Greg, Gaithersburg, MD

I admire your actions as much as I am appalled by what is happening in this country. These attempts to suppress the news must be stopped.

—Michael, Providence, RI

Freedom of the Press is fundamental. Reporters must not be arrested for merely being in an area reporting the events that are happening.

—Duane, Lexington, MA

I stand with you and thank you for doing everything possible to give us the news on the ground.

—Beatrix, Brooksville, ME

THANK YOU FOR THE TRUTH! THANK YOU FOR YOUR DEDICATION.

—Magan, Lake Isabella, CA

Thank you for courage in standing up and keepin us informed!

—Jeffery, Aptos, CA

This is our first amendment right to hear the truth, speak the truth, and the DCPD does not change that. This is disturbing that our paid government officials attempt to silence our voices over and over again. We have woken up , thank you. This brute military style never works....Susan Dixon

—Susan, Colorado Springs, CO

Hard to believe that we actually live in the USA. So sad for you all. I only hope more local TV stations will start showing this. I am forwarding to my local stations for sure.

—Susan, Kemp, TX

Keep up the good fight for what's right: truth.

—Theodore, New York, NY

Thank you for your courage and determination to get the "real" news out to We the people". Without you we will all be living in the dark. The truth sets us free. Without it, we would live in a dictatorship. Thanks again.

—Margaret, Wapiti, WY

This is happening at an alarming frequency since then inception of OCCUPY. It proves that the Police are certainly not defending the citizen's First Amendment Rights, so who is?? Thank you, Michelle Amieux

—Michelle, Encinitas, CA

You cannot gag the people!! We will stand until we are FREE!! I support FREE SPEECH and I support the journalist!

—Joan, Bokeelia, FL

Supposedly our troops in the Middle East are their to protect our freedoms. Stop arresting journalists and peaceful demonstrators who are exercising their First amendment rights.

—Samuel, Alcalde, NM

Free Speech/ Free Press protect all of us and are the cornerstones of true democracy. Without protection,of our journalists, we are a country in decline.

—Thomas, Omaha, NE

You are a bulwark against America's on-going descent into Fascism. Thank you.

—Peter, Brooklyn, NY

If we are to continue to have our democratic freedom, then First Amendment rights are to be taken seriously, and not abridged.

—Jody, Charlottesville, VA

Let our First Amendment rights be honored and respected NOW.

—Kathleen, Binghamton, NY

Who is ordering these arrests? Why? Why are they not being held accountable for this?

—Cindy, Eden Prairie, MN

is this Nazi Germany, or what? Whatever happened to our First Amendment rights?

—Daniela, Angwin, CA

I am writing you from Turkey, where more journalists are jailed than almost anywhere else in the world. I am appalled that the United States appears to be following Turkey's lead in this way. Thank you for defending the First Amendment.

—Stefanie, Seattle, WA

As Bill Maher pointed out, right-wing "constitutionalists" insist on strict adherence to the letter of the Constitution, except for the parts they want to get rid of (with freedom of the press especially often on the chopping block)... Thank you for putting life and limb on the line in the trenches of endangered democracy!

—Jonathan, Providence, RI

Thank you for exposing the corruption in the system. Take heart! Many support you and your tireless pursuit.

—Michael, Anchorage, AK

I have your back! I will stand with you to protect our first amendment and any other amendment or constitutional right that is being threatened! Kathy Libraty Brooklyn, New York

—Kathy, Brooklyn, NY

It's time for officials to stop acting like the police states we support, and stop supporting police states like Bahrain, Yemen, Israel's right wing gov't, etc, and our own violent police policies.

—Roger, San Francisco, CA

This petition is for journalists with credentials. What about journalists without credentials?

—Javier, Brooklyn, NY

It is the First Amendment !

—Rosanne, Fort Wayne, IN

You stand between freedom and tyranny. Don't back down. Ever.

—James, Lemont, PA

Sorry you were arrested for doing your job! You are very brave, and they are taking away your freedom doing this! Hang tough!

—Merlene, Rochester, MN

Where is this freedom we are supposed to be exporting to other countries?

—William, Brownsville, TX

This administration cannot make this into a police state! Like other governments around the world which try to suppress the will of the people, we will fight!

—David, Los Angeles, CA

We believe in and support you for what you are doing and willing to sacrifice to make sure the news is heard.

Thank you and stay strong.

—Gavin, Harrisonburg, VA

Thank you for doing the necessary work that real Democracy depends upon for survival

—Jan, Port Townsend, WA

The right is always talking about the first amendment. We have a right of free speech and Journalists have a right to report the news to the public.

—Linda, Madison, WI

If activists are not free to demand redress of grievances, and journalists are not free to write about it, how is our government any different from that of so-called "totalitarian" governments?

—Joby, Ponder, TX

Keep up the fight - Get up Stand up don't give up the Fight!

—Michelle, Santa Cruz, CA

If you were a corporation you'd be more secure in your first amendment rights. I hope you have a deep sense of irony. Thank you-you stand with your brave compatriots in the Middle East.

—Frances, Racine, WI

Hang in there! I've always supposed that our USA was beyond arresting journalists. How can we point fingers at other countries who do such? Sad, indeed.

—Mary, Wichita, KS

This subject should unite ALL Americans. Protect and defend our freedom of speech!

—K, Petaluma, CA

Is this really the United States of America? or Syria?

—Gary, Cassville, MO

Why pretend that we live in a democracy when journalists are arrested? It is not a democracy anymore.

—Jan, Penn Valley, CA

It gives hope to know that there are still journalists, real journalists like you, who are willing to report the truth to the people. American democracy is in grave danger because too much of what passes for journalism is nothing more than infotainment and propaganda. If American democracy is to survive it will be because of dedicated, courageous and intrepid journalists.

—Craig, Lincoln, NE

What about our Constitution?????

—Judith, Corte Madera, CA

Hang in there! - Dave Potvin Occupy Norfolk [VA] Legal TEam

—Dave, Norfolk, VA

Thank you from Portland, Oregon for asserting your right to free speech.

—Kathleen, Portland, OR

We will end the fake war on terror and restore the U.S. Constitution!

—Robert, Studio City, CA

Stand strong fellas

—Lloyd, Milpitas, CA

Democracy depends on freedom of the press. It doesn't appear that this arrest of this journalist was warranted.

—Helen, MuSCATINE, IA

Keep reporting the facts..I stand behind you!

—Bruce, VERO BEACH, FL

We, the people, stand by you. If you can be arrested for reporting what is next? Suppression of the free media is how dictatorships work.

—Brian, Buffalo, NY

Clearly, the police are telling you that your work is important -- and necessary to a free society. Don't let them win.

—Lisa, Manville, NJ

Geoffrey Gardner

—Geoffrey, Fairlee, VT

is this America?

—Robin, Brooklyn, NY

I support what you're doing and what you represent. Without the 1st Amendment the wealthy and corrupt have all the power!

—Wendy, Bellingham, WA

Expressing support for those engaged in protecting our freedoms is the least that can be done from a distance.

Thank you.

—Carl, Dover-Foxcroft, ME

Hang in there. You are fighting for more than your own freedom. Thank you.

—Harry, Vashon, WA

Thank you for your courage and upholding true American standards. Be well

—Donna, Montgomery, AL

You are more free, at many levels than the rest of the people who put you there. You have all our support for what you achieve. Truth, honesty and respect will set us all free.

—Stylianios, Chicago, IL

This is truly outrageous and must stop.

—Lloyd, Marshfield, MA

Seriously I get the feeling you are worried that occupy is going to get the momentum to ignite city to city again.

Why else would you be arresting journalist?

—Jesse, Garden city, ID

Stand strong for the First Amendment - you are heroes!!

—Shelley, Tillamook, OR

What a disgrace, journalists arrested in the United States of America - the mecca of a free press. Mainstream media is already under corporate control. We need independent journalists to keep us informed!

—Tobi, Los Angeles, CA

This excessive use of Police Powers and they failed to notice or were told to ignore journalist badges.

—Dale, Sacramento, CA

How can money alone cause this reprehensible infringement on the people's rights?

—Betty, Pasadena, CA

It is not right that journalists are being arrested like this. I am very disappointed in our government to learn that people who are exercising our 1st ammendment right to free speech are being arrested like this. We will do all we can to support you.

—Maree, San Ramon, CA

Thank you for your courage. Without information leading to accountability, those in power can do what they choose without restraint.

—Michael, Manhattan Beach, CA

Losing the freedom of speech is scary...it is a fundamental right that we must strive to keep.

—Jane, Sarasota, FL

I am a patriot, I love my country. But over the last years I have seen my wonderful country fall quickly from grace, I have seen shadows encroach upon its very soul. For the first time in my life I can truly say that I feel ashamed to be an American citizen. I weep for the state of our country and for the Democracy that has been trampled in the dust.

—Odin, Sebastopol, CA

I want to thank you for expressing our 1st ammendment rights and standing up for them in the face of danger. We need to stand strong for our rights to speak our minds. The truth shall prevail. Thank you so much!

—Janet, Mesa, AZ

Thank you for your courage.

—Jean, Greenfield, CA

THANK YOU FOR THE BRAVE WORK IN REPORTING YOU DO. TRUE JOURNALISTS!

—Don, Simpsonville, KY

Stop interfering with journalists' coverage of the DC occupy activities. The destruction of the Free Press in the USA with the government's silent approval must stop.

—Kate, Mountain View, CA

Ridiculous!

—Jason, Toledo, OH

Thank you for putting yourselves on the line—even though what you are doing should not be cause for arrest. Our government seems to have gone mad, and we need people like you to stand up for what we once took for granted—the freedom to report news to the folks back home. What is happening is unconscionable; we cannot allow it to go on. Those of us signing onto this petition—and many more, who are not yet aware of what is happening—stand with you in your efforts to do your job.

—Sally, Woodcliff Lake, NJ

Hang in there. You are forgotten!

The United States “will stand for the rights and dignity of all human beings” and that it “will support policies that lead to strong and stable democracies...because tyranny is no match for liberty.” President Barack Obama addressing the rights of Egyptians to protest and to communicate. Why is this an important issue for Egypt to address but something to ignore in the US?

—August, Clearwater, FL

You are brave people, and the public needs to know and see what's happening. Keep up this important effort.

—Barbara, East Brunswick, NJ

—Shaun, San Diego, CA

You'll be released soon, after which just keep on fighting for free speech and the middle class.

—Frank, Ruidoso, NM

We, the people, are working with you to continue communicating the truth of events that happen in the U.S. and abroad. You're not alone, and we respect you immensely for the risks you take every day in the name of transparency.

—Sarah, St. Louis, MO

Thank you for standing up for our Freedom in this Country. I never thought I would see the Day when Police , who are supposed to protect us , turn on us. Thank you for all you do.

—Maria, Kingman, AZ

Thank you for being tougher than I am!!

—Joy, Cedar Park, TX

Remind those who arrested you that they are regarded as nothing more than a cog in the engine of state, a useful idiot, by those who pay them to destroy our constitution.

—Sue, Pagosa Springs, CO

This is unacceptable unless we are a junta!

—Barry, Gainesville, FL

You are heroes. We live in the United States of America--not China, not Saudi Arabia, not Vietnam, not Singapore, not the Soviet Union. Thank you for standing up for what America really is.

—Gregory, Pacifica, CA

When journalists are arrested in the U.S.A. we lose the moral right to criticize other countries.

—Sonia, Hanover, NH

Thank you for your efforts to keep the truth and fair reporting accessible to the public. Your reporting is critical to fair government.

—Jeanette, Larkspur, CA

Shall we please return to being a Republic?

—Jeffrey, Palm Springs, CA

I don't want to live in a fascist state! Freedom of Speech is at the core of who we are. Shame on all who want to suppress our right to know the truth! I support you in what you're doing!

—Kara, Byron, CA

We stand with you. You are at the vanguard of freedom, the executors of our nation's ideal.

—Jack, Winter park, FL

I know it doesn't seem like it, but we do NOT live in some third world country. Your story is being shared and we are behind you--I don't know or care about your politics--I care about your rights under the First Amendment. Peace!

—Nancy, Pekin, IN

We stand behind you 100%. Keep up the good work.

—Larry, Paducah, TX

The leaders of this Country herald the Constitution and then desecrate it. What kind of Country is this? The Country needs to return to following the Constitution and a FREE PRESS is very much a part of that. Without accurate knowledge provided by the press, how can the people govern?

—Roger, Aurora, IL

We so appreciate your courage and determination to bring the truth to American citizens. These are frightening times.

—Elizabeth, Coronado, CA

We continue to need conscientious journalists if we hope to continue our personal freedoms.

—Marilynn, Spring Park, MN

The United States is starting to look like one of those rebellious middle-east countries where the government keeps its citizens under control through violence and oppression

—Pat, West Hollywood, CA

Freedom is not free of fighting, thanks for putting up a good fight!

—Chun, Fort Lee, NJ

Thanks for being on the front line to get all of us current information. That is your job, and it should not have to be so risky in this country.

—Sarah, La Jolla, CA

This is horrifying. How can US preach to any other regimes about free speech and right to peaceful assembly?

—Margaret, Mishawaka, IN

Thank you for enduring arrests and other harrassment in an effort to get the truth (actual news) to the public.

—Michele, Denver, CO

I stand in defense of our first amendment rights and the journalists who have been detained in the United States. It would appear that we are in need of defense from our own police and government!!

—Marylou, Kansas city, MO

We cannot lose you - you are very important to every single one of us.

—Toni, Waldport, OR

We are turning into a police nation. When the people in charge begin taking away our rights one at a time, it's time to re-evaluate their worth. They must all be voted out of office at the first available election. A strong message needs to be put in their faces that we, the PEOPLE, are the ones who put them there and we, the PEOPLE, can take them out!

—Kazia, Macon, MO

I am sorry for the Journalists being arrested. Not everyone in this Country supports our Government slowly taking all of our Rights away. Little by little we lose our Freedoms. I stand with the Arrested Journalists.

—Jordan, Portland, ME

It's clear that you have our backs. Now it's up to us to cover yours.

—Daniel, New York, NY

This should not be happening.

—Benny, Los angeles, CA

We need to be well-informed citizens, in order to best make decisions that affect our communities and our lives.

—Scott, Andrews, NC

—Samuel, Harrisburg, PA

Thank you for what you sacrifice to go the extra mile and report the truth please continue your amazing work.

—Michael, La Puente, CA

Helen Pickering

—Helen, Palo Alto, CA

Little by little we are losing our rights in this country for whatever reason the INS decide upon. We, the People, need to stand up for our rights and get those in charge out of office or their politically appointed positions. Police arresting someone who is doing there job MUST BE STOPPED.

—Constance, Macon, MO

What is happenng in the Home of the Brave the Land of the Free? When journalists are being arrested for covering the real news, this country and everything the US Constitution stands for is definitely under attack.

—Sally, Johnson City, TN

THIS IS UNACCEPTABLE.

—Theron, SAN DIEGO, CA

Good luck, and know that we're standing with you.

—James, Berkeley, CA

I admire your courage. It seems we have the same situation in the United States that is in the Middle East (arresting journalists when they are filming, police brutality in some cases) is a terrible attack on what we used to call "FREEDOM OF THE PRESS." I am very concerned.

—Wanda, Fort Smith, AR

Thank you!

—Tatiana, Vancouver, WA

Thank you for risking your own safety to defend us all!

—Julie, Oregon, WI

It's important that the press stand up to oppression. I appreciate the personal and professional risk that you are now experiencing in the US. It's unthinkable to me what is happening in our country. These are things that I used to happen in oppressive nations overseas. To see them happening in the use is discouraging again thanks for your courage.

—Louis, Ann arbor, MI

When human beings are oppressed and journalists who are trying to reveal the "truth" are being arrested, we have to ask ourselves why is our government trying to suppress the truth? Are they paranoid knowing what they are doing is defying our constitution, creating suffering for the masses, and protecting the elite? Seems to be no end to what the complicit system will do to whittle away our rights as individuals, as human beings, while millions go hungry and take to the streets...They are trying to quell our rights to even stand up for the basic needs of a human being; food, shelter and clothing, yet alone the resulting emotional devastation and loss of dignity. Now they try to punish us for their own illegal, unethical, immoral crimes of mass fraud, theft...and if callousness and man's inhumanity to man were a crime...I have a hard time imaging how they live wth themselves...unless they have sociopathic minds with no conscience. We support and care very much about the right to peaceably assemble and the right of a free press to reveal the truth, however jagged. They are trying to punish us for their behaviors and deeds which have resulted in this mess in the first place...make us disappear as a magical act, so that they can keep the status quo. This is certainly a tragedy for humanity. They commit crimes towards human beings, live in denial, blame us. Then they try to punish us further...blaming victims and not allowing us to stand for truth to power. Is there no end to this madness.

—Barbara, Fenton, MO

No voice for the people, means loose of Democracy.

—William, Orlando, FL

Your courage honors the true meaning of the word "journalism"!

—Paul, Renton, WA

Thanks for your courage - keep up the fight, and keep the faith!

—Debbi, Plymouth, MN

FREEDOM without the FREE leaves us all Dumb. Don't let the Powerful and Influential steal your FREEDOMS.

Stand up for the AMERICA of our Constitution

—David, Issaquah, WA

Hang in there true patriots.....

—Jeff, Peoria, IL

You are not alone. We are with you all the way!

—Philip, Chicago, IL

You should not have to risk your freedom to report the news. Thank you for your service to this country and to our freedoms.

—Eleanor, Fairfax, VA

It is time to detain Dick Cheney and others for their involvement in 9/11. http://www.welcomethelight.com/2011/04/april-gallop-military-officer-pentagon-911-victim-sued-cheney-was-in-court-todaynews-blackout/ Ms. Gallop's attorneys plan to file a petition for a re-hearing en banc to appeal to all judges in the case to agree to accept the case. If that gets denied, they will file Cert with SCOTUS, which will probably also be denied. However, the following points are grounds for challenging the decision of the Judge. These are facts which had to be ignored to make the decision to dismiss without trial. It is clear by what is reported here that the plaintiff did not have a fair hearing. The record of this hearing shows the judge to be biased, and made the wrong decision... period. 1. Mineta clearly told the Commission of the young man's reporting of the progress of the plane heading for the Pentagon, first 50 miles out, then 30, then 10. When Cheney responded to the aide's question about the orders still standing, he said, "of course, the orders still stand; have you heard anything to the contrary?" Judge Chin decided to make no effort to confront the issue, whatsoever.and his failure to acknowledge the fact raises questions that are disturbing in the extreme. 2. Judge Chin made no mention of the fact that two governmental entities, the National Transportation Safety Administration and the 9/11 Commission, could not agree on the supposed flight path of the plane alleged to have hit the Pentagon. Necessarily ignored as well are the unavoidable inferences of governmental complicity, in the cover-up and in the execution of the attack, that arise from the disagreement. The incompetence of governmental entities may be posited as an explanation for the disagreement, but for a judge to make such a finding before a trial, is to invade the province of the jury. 3. As a third instance, Judge Chin ignored entirely the passages in the Complaint which refer to expert analyses of the contents of the purported "black box," ...the flight data recorder is completely inconsistent, not only with the physical ability of a Boeing 757, if it were to have come in contact with the building, not only with the known functions and capabilities of flight data recorders, but also with the videotaped evidence of the flying object which the government claims captures the impact of that object with the wall of the Pentagon. The only possible tactic that a judge could choose in deciding to dismiss this case, given the contents of the Complaint, is to ignore page upon page of printed words. 4. Judge Chin makes no reference to the fundamental importance that must be attached to the physical whereabouts of Defendants Rumsfeld and Myers as the attacks were carried out.. The two highest ranking members of the chain of command, other than the President, were thus at the helm and saddled with the duty of protecting the country and the soldiers at the Pentagon in those moments. Whatever efforts they made to prevent the attack on the Pentagon were unsuccessful even though sufficient time and armaments existed to mount a defense. they cannot avoid the scrutiny that ordinarily follows failure in the line of duty. Rumsfeld and Myers have both denied their presence at the video-teleconference and at the heart of the command structure shortly after the South Tower was hit, and the world knew that a terrorist attack was under way. 5. the Complaint also asserts that the defendants were aware of the danger faced by occupants in the Pentagon in sufficient time to evacuate the building and save many lives, but did nothing. Not one paragraph, sentence, phrase or word in Judge Chin's decision addresses this claim. If you have judge who does not follow recognized standards, then he is on record as having done so. If there is record of a biased judge and an unfair decision, then why is it not being challenged? I would think that another party could pursue this avenue of court misconduct. If you have judge who does not follow recognized standards, then he is on record as having done so. This should be built upon. It is better than starting a new case over again, or at least should not be wasted. Besides, it was an unfair treatment of the plaintiff.

—Timothy, Fairlee, VT

Thank you for your invaluable service in getting out the word of citizen movements to a public confused and mollified by media outlets that serve the status quo.

—Carol, Redwood City, CA

The only hope for this rotting country is for journalists to report accurately on the Occupy Movement. Otherwise, we're finished and it's Sieg Heil, baby.

—Brenda, Inverness, CA

What are they afraid of. It has to be the Truth.

—Linda, Waterville, NY

We're write there with you.

—Lynn, Manalapan, NJ

Thank you for your courage!

—Richard, Laredo, TX

what is the future if we do not have "total" freedom

—Neal, Santee, CA

What happened to freedom of speech and the American right to know? America is plummeting into being a 3rd world country & it terrifies me!

—April, Middleburgh heights, OH

We will not let this injustice stand. We are organizing and will pressure our reps to respect your First Amendment rights, and call off the police. This policy of intimidating journalists will be exposed for what it is: the acts of tyrants not a civilized government.

—Michael, Westminster, CO

We're watching! Don't give up hope.

—Suzan, State College, PA

We are watching! This is NOT what America stands for.

—Debra, Orleans, MA

Keep fighting for our democratic rights. We need you.

—Karen, Minneapolis, MN

This country has to stop arresting journalists. We don't even have a democracy anymore. It's gotten very scary.

You should have every right to do your job. What are they trying to hide?

—Vivian, Pompano Beach, FL

Thank you for taking a stand to protect the rights of all of us as you observe and communicate the many sides of our current critical issues.

—Jane, Guernsey, WY

Tell the Nazi bastards to kiss your asses!

—John, San Diego, CA

Thanks for being on the front lines. Having been covering demos from the late 60s and early 70s I know it can be frustrating and even frightening but your courage and public support will win the day.

—Stephen, New York, NY

Goddam the oppressors!

—David, Herndon, VA

You have the courage that our leaders are lacking. Continue to stand your ground and exert your constitutional rights.

—Ellen, Maumee, OH

You have been wronged by the police.

—Heidi, Sacramento, CA

The First Amendment is sacred as are all of our civil liberties. Let us all fight to protect them all.

—Curtis, Kenmore, NY

Keep on keepin' on. My heart goes out to you.

—Fran, Dendron, VA

Thank you for putting yourselves on the line to bring the world information.

—Ann, Saint Paul, MN

When journalists are arrested for covering a police action that tends to support the idea that the action may be misguided. Keep up the good work!

—Duane, Tyngsboro, MA

Keep fighting for the 1st amendment and freedom of the press. You're not alone. We can't watch this country become a police state.

—Carolyn, Las Vegas, NV

Arresting journalists is un-American. We must stop this assault on the First Amendment, and bring those responsible for abridging the constitutional rights of journalists to justice.

—James, Long Beach, CA

Hang in there, folks! We hear and see you--but, most of all, we support you!!!

—Joseph and Madeleine, RATHDRUM, ID

What's being done to you is downright unAmerican, an attack on right #1. It is unacceptable. I stand 100% with you, the REAL Americans.

—Rosary, Rochester, NY

I grew up in poverty. My family made less than 20k/year during the early 90's. I always felt that there was something wrong with the way money worked. I occupied my high school talent show, playing Guerilla Radio to a packed auditorium. Still, even though my entire school heard my anger and pain, I felt no one else felt the way I did. Through your work, I have found an entire nation who understands what I have felt. I have found the information, resources, and specifics to fully articulate my points and views. And I have seen exactly how difficult it is to stand against such oppression. And I understand more fully why we must. I live with my single mother now, and help her take care of my 93 year old Grandmother so she does not have to spend the rest of her life in a nursing home. My grandmother helped hold elections in her hometown 50 years running until the flood of '93 took her home. It wasn't the flood, it was the federal government. The choice they gave her was outrageously priced flood insurance, or a ridiculously low amount of money to buy her home. She moved, fearing another flood. I love her dearly, and that is the only reason I don't Occupy with my fellow man- I take care of the woman who taught me through example to believe in democracy. Through your work, you carry on the torch, teaching others across many generations, not only to believe in democracy, but to actively take part in democracy. I commend you for your efforts and honor you for your sacrifices. You are heroes and champions. Thank you so very much, from the bottom of my heart, my 93 year old Grandmother, my mother, and my younger brother- a Marine combat veteran who has served in Iraq, Afghanistan, and who will return to Afghanistan later this year. My family wishes you all the best, take care, and once again- thank you!

—Josh, Marceline, MO

Be strong. We are behind you.

—Henry, Panama City, FL

What hypocrisy...this is not ok in a democracy...remember? the whole world is watching, no matter how much you try to control..

—Nancy, Sedona, AZ

Insist that the police respect your rights.

—Clifton, Houston, TX

Thank you for your courage. It is tragic when you, as journalists, are treated as terrorists and a threat to our National security. It is very scary!! And am so sorry for what is happening to you and your families. And to all of us! Kina King

—Kina, Narragansett, RI

We all need to get the information out to everyone that we know that journalists are being prohibited from reporting on news and events.

—Beth, Lafayette, CO

Stand tall and know that millions of us are behind you!

—Robert, Gettysburg, PA

Thank you for the work you do!

—Nina, Jamaica Plain, MA

As far as I'm concerned, you are taking a stand for the last bastion of freedom we actually have in this country. My heart and my thoughts are with you. You are braver than I.

—James, Irvine, CA

Thanks for standing up for American values; but where are your brother journalists? Where is the coast-to-coast coverage of this descent into US tyranny?

—Chris and Mary, Chicago, IL

We were told that we should fight against those that silence the free flow of information. We were told to donate to Radio Free Europe as a means of bringing the truth to those who were deprived of the truth. At age 72 it saddens me to see this same suppression happening here in this country.

—Dan, Enumclaw, WA

Thank you for covering these events despite the growing risks. What you do is extremely valuable for America and the world. Please don't ever be discouraged by "the powers that be" and their unconstitutional attacks on the people.

—Kirk, Montgomery, AL

I stopped worrying about terrorists because the USA is now fascist. Hitler lives.

—R, Rh, NY

I stand with a free and vigilant press...

—William, Saint Paul, MN

Our media is controlled and I stand behind you in the OWS movement. Thank you for caring about our rights.

—Chris, Milford, CT

Your job is vital to democracy.

—Jerry, Seattle, WA

True patriots of this Country stand with you!

—Patrick, Boynton Beach, FL

Hang in there for those of us who do not hang together are in increasing danger of being hanged separately.

—Joel, Memphis, TN

We praise your courage to defend what is by right our fundamental right to free speech. God bless each and every one of you!

—Anne, Merrick, NY

Stop arresting journalists who are covering the REAL news.

—Andrew, Portland, OR

Thank you for being there, trying to cover the occupy events.

—Richard and Evelyn, Corning, CA

THANK YOU !

—Robert, New Brighton, MN

Keep up the fight for justice!

—Brandon, Houston, TX

Freedom of the press is a cornerstone of democracy. What do we have without it?

—Dennis, Salem, OR

This is a disgrace and marks a serious downward trend in our society. I am very concerned.

—Marcia, Sherborn, MA

It is outrageous that authorities interfere with legitimate news coverage of anti-government protests in our own country. Where is the first amendment?

—Elsa, Norwalk, CT

Why aren't the police being prosecuted for breaking the law?

—Haydn, Haiku, HI

I stand with you and the Constitution. Keep up the good work. You are all heroes.

—Abigail, Arroyo Hondo, NM

You're in my thoughts and prayers. These actions against you are unwarranted and uncalled for. They MUST stop!

—Lawrence, Dallas, TX

Thank you for your courage in upholding the freedom of the press. You are greatly appreciated!

—Debra, Eden Prairie, MN

Too bad we live in a fascist country now. Sorry to see you are in jail

—John, WALLINGFORD, CT

keep strong.

—Thomas, Alhambra, CA

Stay committed and keep up the pressure. It amazes me that the local Police spend so much time on innocent journalists when they could be chasing and arresting hidden terrorists instead. What happened to the Constitution? This seems a lot like the what the TSA is doing at our airports. Going after the wrong people once again!! Thank you for being so brave!!

—J, Orono, ME

in solidarity,

—Kamala, San Antonio, TX

It is a dark day in a country that prides itself on it's freedoms . To be abused by storm troopers types is a insult of everything that makes the United States the great country it used to be. These are truly shameful times. I'm sorry you had to go through this.

—Mike, Jacksonville, FL

We support Press Freedom and the First Amendment. We appreciate your effort to report on a significant Social movement!

—Don, Eugene, OR

I am sorry you are paying such a heavy price for our constittution. Thank you for your bravery.

—Wade, Oceanside, CA

This is not the America I grew up in. The move toward a despotic state, ran by big money will NOT succeed.

Americans are waking up !

—Don, Escondido, CA

Stay strong you will not be forgotten!

—Eleanor, Palmer, AK

Stand strong, we are with you. America depends on you to keep a free press free. Thank you.

—William and Norma, Hastings, MI

I find it very sad that you are on the front lines of the fight to keep freedom in America, rather than next to the front lines and simply writing the story. It is obvious the criminals are those who are suppressing freedom of the press. Let's be honest, this includes the cops who made the arrest; the clerks who processed you and your paper work; the court system; the lawyers who wish to prosecute you; the leadership who ordered the arrests; and every person who thinks it is ok to do this. It is a huge and formidable force that is taking the US Constitution and shredding it. You will go down in history as a hero who was simply outnumbered by money, greed and mob rule. As GW Bush said "Sometimes greed trumps freedom." What he meant, of course, is that slavery is good. Now that your freedom has been taken away you have become a slave.

—Chris, San Luis Obispo, CA

I will sign as many petitions as needed to see that justice is done for those of you whose intent is to inform the American population of the injustices being brought to bear on citizens protected by their First Amendment rights.

—Ellen, Granville, OH

I support you and need you to continue your work. I'm sorry you have experienced this assault by people that don't know better. Thank you.

—Ellie, Ny, NY

We stand with you.

—Linda, Seattle, WA

Let journalists do their job, everyone Freedom is a stake.

—Lonnie, Anderson, IN you are with in your rights morally and constitutionally

—Mary, Reading, PA

This is blatant violation of the 1st Amendment. The U.S. Supreme Court needs to rule that the arrest of journalists covering demonstration by U.S. Citizens is illegal and needs to stop! Is America becoming a "police state"? Where it's citizens can not voice there opinions publicly?? Stop the illegal arrests!!!

—Jerry, Asheboro, NC

We need you. We appreciate your courageous work.

—David, Excelsior, MN

When police create the crimes on the public First Amendments and other police officers stand by and do nothing. The crime becomes bigger against the Police Officers and that Particular Police District.. Who will uphold the law? The Police Department must answer to the law of America.

—Nicholas, Aurora, CO

Attacks on protest and freedom of the press keep moving US towards tyranny.

—Kathleen, Philadelphia, PA

You have the support of the rational minded section of the US Population. Do not stop doing what is right.

—Michael, Castaic, CA

There a many of us who stand with you in your fight to get the truth out.Stay strong for the 99%!

—Linda, Wakonda, SD

Please do not give up trying to honestly report what is happening in this country. We depend on you to keep us informed.

—Joyce, Neptune, NJ

Freedom of the Press to tell us ALL THE EVIL SECRETS our forefathers were concerned about!!!!

—Rebecca, Columbus, OH

Your courage in the face of this outrageous affront to all freedom-loving people in America is an inspiration to those of us who understand that freedom of the press equals freedom of the people.

—Bryan, Brooklyn, NY

I believe our country's basic freedoms are at risk when journalists covering issues unpopular with our government are detained and intimidated.

—Elizabeth, New Providence, NJ

I want to protect the free press and show my support for the arrested journalists.

—Louis, APO, NY

It seems the police in the United States are becoming more and more like the Storm Troopers of the Third Reich. What happened to the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and the right to protest grievances. Shame on the deterioration of this country's guarantee of rights. Whomsoever ordered this arrest, if a member of the police, should be summarily charged and brought to trial for violating the civil rights of a free press.

—Lee, Albany, NY

Don't mess with the Fourth Estate! We need you to persevere in your country's time of urgent need. We can only prevail with your dedications.

—Ron, Ft Lauderdale, FL

We will fight for your release.

—Sherlon, Richmond, VA

Jacob Weisman

—Jacob, San Francisco, CA

Your bravery and dedication to the press is encouraging. We will continue to fight for our constitutional and moral rights that differentiate this country from any other, and appreciate every sacrifice made. Your work is appreciated, and thank you again.

—Charlotte, Atlantic Beach, FL

Thank you for fighting the powers that be for the right for a free press. If we let them they will silence the press to keep us under their boot. Thank you for fighting the elite with the only ammunition you have, your freedom. You are a patriot and have sacrificed for all citizens that want our constitution upheld.

—Frank, Austin, TX

Wall Street bandits go free, and responsible journalists get arrested. Our police departments need to do some rethinking. It's good to know that some journalists are working to uphold America's best traditions, rather than its worst habits.

—Margaret, Evanston, IL

We need more honest media in today's world. Thank you for standing with us!

—Ellen, Santa Cruz, CA

We support you and will advise our legislators.

—John, East Lansing, MI

With you 100%! Down with the fascist punks!

—George, Portland, OR

By arresting journalists who are trying to cover and report on events, we slowly but surely become the very type of country that we denigrate as a nation when these traits are found around the world. The freedom of the press must be a "blind" freedom, one without political bias or awareness of which particular power is being reported on. As a citizen of this country I am appalled by what is happening right now in this regard and urge those in power to reexamine the foundational democratic principles that have made the United States a paragon of freedom and democracy in the past.

—Barak, Oceanside, CA

I appreciate your courage. Thank you for standing up for the rights of all of us.

—Isis, Shoreline, WA

Without a Free Press and Indy journalists no one is free!! In Solidarity with writers/journalists around the globe!

—Miriam, Albuquerque, NM

Our country is in peril ; you are the canaries in the coal mine. You must be silenced in order to preserve the sham.

We will do our best to have your back.

—Lari, Forbestown, CA

Surely we still have free speech or has Congress cut that with the budget?!

—Eileen, Leland, NC

Some people say we are losing our hard won freedoms and rights in 'the name of safety' ! The public needs the truth in order to decide.

—Dennis, Phoenix, AZ

This so concerning. I stand with you.

—Dan, West Chester, PA

Stay strong, defending your rights, defends all of our rights in the media. We need to hear the truth, not the untruths that are on our television news channels today. Thank-you.

—Cheryle, Amboy, WA

Your efforts to inform the public are noticed and welcomed. They will soon deliver results worthy of your intent and more than offset the indignity of mendacious arrests.

—T, Clovis, CA

The fourth estate is critical to our democracy. Please don't be cowed by the powers that be who would see your rights/livelihood being restricted. We all know it's wrong and against what this country is supposed to stand for. So I stand with you in your brave fight to gain and disseminate vital information to "we the people". We're depending on you now more than ever!

—Lisa, Flower Mound, TX

Our Police are beginning to act like the dictators in foreign countries. WHY IS FREEDOM OF THE PRESS being taken away?

—Joan, Colfax, NC

Thank you for your courage and determination to shed light on the truth. An informed citizen is an enlightened voter, essential in a real democracy. Go USA, together as one, united for "We, The People"!

—Virginia, Stamford, CT

Thank you for your courage in attempting to report the truth about the loss of freedom and democracy in the USA. The public needs to know the truth.

—Nancy, St. Louis, MO

We have your back!

—Don, San Diego, CA

WE stand behind YOU. Be brave for all of us including the next generation.

—Alice, Glide, OR

Thank you for your courage!

—Michael, Missoula, MT good to know that there are people who are still fighting to protect our liberties. jack blumenkrantz

—Jack, San Francisco, CA, CA

i thought this was supposed to be the land of the free.

—Daniel, Oswego, NY

We need to stop this practice of ignoring our Constitution. I want someone to be held accountable for this injustice.

—Linda, Levittown, PA

A government which arrests credentialed journalists doing their job is flirting with revolution right beneath their feet. Cut it out, cops!

—Oliver, Lakewood, CA

You are a valuable person to America. Keep the faith. Right is on your side.

—Burley, Stewardson, IL

Protect the constitution!

—Gary, Apache Junction, AZ

Your arrest while trying to provide impartial news coverage is shocking and un-American. The fact that those who are ordering these arrests are elected officials in a democratic society is truly disheartening. Your steadfastness in the face of these clear 1st Amendment violations is much appreciated. You are remembered. You are supported.

—Jay, Brazil, IN

Shame on the DC police. Have they forgotten that this is the United States of America and we have a constitution that is supposed to protect us from these types of unreasonable searches and seizures?

—Michelle, Las Vegas, NV

Arresting journalists. . . many think this is a free country as our freedoms continue to erode. thanks for what you do!

—William, Tacoma, WA

Time for a 'no fly zone' over the U S A!

—Mario, Fort Lauderdale, FL

I appreciate everything you do. Keep up the good work!

—Robin, Columbia, MO

A Free Press helps to keep corruption in our government to a minimum -- unless it's FOX, of course, who applauds the very criminals as they undermine our Constitution. Please keep digging for the truth, and report it FAIRLY, without slant of opinion.

—Robert, East Orange, NJ

I can only say, as a working journalist, I stand with you.

—Kim, Dallas, TX

not sure why we are fighting in the middle east when we have our own form of Taliban in this country freely taking away our rights daily...

—Patricia, Arlington, TX

Thanks for your dedication and I hope this ordeal is over soon.

—Michael, Houston, TX

We stand with you. Rev. C. Herbert Oliver

—C, Brooklyn, NY

If government, at any level, gains control of the Fourth Estate what now remains of our democracy is done for. The fascist elitists appear to be winning - for now.

—Bob, Black Mountain, NC

Stay strong and keep reporting!!! Otherwise the Fascists win!

—Lon, Brooklyn, NY

Thank you for taking heroic risks and enduring abuse and unlawful imprisonment to bring real news to the rest of us.

—Elisabeth, Mill Valley, CA

Journalists are our witnesses. They are the only effective force for keeping an increasingly authoritarian government in check, and their rightful location at the center of momentous happenings is enshrined in our Constitution. We must keep them there and witnessing history at all costs. The very life of our democratic republic depends on it.

—Cody, Eugene, OR

You thought a job writing would be safe, right? Some interviews, some observation, ask some questions, do some research...who knew that in your own country you would have to fear harm and arrest. Thank you

—Linda, Scottsdale, AZ

Fascist Republicanism has destroyed this country!

—Gloria, Grants Pass, OR

Media rules! Without you guys we'd be blind, deaf and stupid! Americans need a strong, aggressive media! Good luck and keep on keepin' on!

—Bernie, Key Largo, FL

Isn't this the country that stands for press freedom? That condemns other countries for arresting journalists? What is happening in this country - what's happening to the rights of the citizens here? I don't recognize this country any more.

—Susan, Wheaton, MD

We support a free press in this nation. How ironic that, at a meeting of conservatives who believe profoundly in the rights granted to us by our Constitution, a journalist should be arrested for covering the meeting.

—Priscilla, Brooklyn, NY

The most dangerous act is to TELL THE TRUTH

—David, Aurora, NY

Thank you for restoring honor and integrity to the profession of journalism.

—Elizabeth, Palo Alto, CA

We are standing behind you and will not stop protesting this attack on the First Amendment until we have that freedom back. The press must step up and take responsibility for informing the public as the fifth estate and not as another commercial venture. Those two acts together will have power to right this nation's course again. Stay strong.

—Deborah, Versailles, KY

When journalists like you are arrested for doing your job, all of us suffer. This is a symptom of totalitarianism. I hope you won't be deterred.

—Miryam, Warwick, MA

People are behind you and appreciate all you do for truth.

—Gerald, Dallas, TX

It's appalling that we call on Arab & African countries to allow a free press during protests, but don't stop these nasty arrests here on our own soil.

—Lee, Des Moines, IA

I am now 71 and my health is going fast. I am grateful that there are still folks willing to endure the hardships to fight for freedom. Thank you for keeping the faith and fighting for the rights we all treasure.

—Rev, NEW ORLEANS, LA

Thank you for attempting to stand up for all our First Amendment Rights.

—Rebecca, Beaumont, TX

The free press is a cornerstone of our democracy. Please don't let these wrongs deter you from your noble profession.

—Travis, Los Angeles, CA

Your video is out over the Internet; people are watching. Stand strong and thank you for what you do.

—Nancy, Bowling Green, KY

If you are intimidated, we all are. I contribute to freepress to help defend you. Do not forget to let us know if your 1st Amendment rights are infringed upon. You are our eyes and ears and voice.

—Stephen, Grand Junction, CO

Thank you!!!!

—Christine, Mountain View, CA

Stand strong! You stand between us and an unthinkable alternative. I support you wholeheartedly.

—Vesta, Fraser, CO

Your courage is inspiring! We have got to know what is happening in our country as reported by dedicated journalists who understand their responsibility to seek the truth and report it without commentary!

—Elizabeth, Madison, WI

Thanks for keeping us informed, even if it means going to jail to do so.

—Joe, Kensington, CA

Please keep doing what you are doing. It is important for people to know the TRUTH and today's media is only issuing information that is filtered by the companies that pay for advertising. Please keep doing what you are doing!!!

—Aisha, Fairchance, PA

Thank you for being true to the American people and journalism....

—Kaitlyn, Ormond Beach, FL

Germany taught us much about how these tactics can escalate into stifling all who disagree with those holding the power of domination over people. Thank you Occupy members, you are our front line of fighters.

—Joy, Raleigh, NC

Keep telling the truth! Thank you for all you do to keep our democracy from turning fascist!

—Pamela, Minneapolis, MN

We are behind you all the way and appreciate your work!

—Alfred, Miami, FL

Keep exposing those running the military industrial complex don't let the new Mafia run this country

—George, Maynard, MA

I stand with you.

—Elizabeth, Pine Grove Mills, PA

There should be NO arrests of journalists...it is my right, by the 1st Amendment to hear or read what they have to say...it is NOT your right to try to silence them.

—Cheri, Mendocino, CA

I fear for our nation when the first amendment is being ignored by the president on down.

—Norma, Muncie, IN

This is nothing new to those of us who were on the front lines in the 1960's. But what is interesting now is the specter of the provisions in the rules of Homeland Security. Watch your step journalists, First Amendment protection does not stand a chance in the interpretation of Homeland Security.

—Dan, Seattle, WA

The first amendment protects journalists. Set them free, they were doing their jobs, which are protected by the laws.

Patricia Clark

—Patricia, Tucson, AZ

We are fast becoming a police state - when I was a Kid I was taught that this kind of thing only happens in other places. the USA was the Land of the Free and home of the brave.

—R, Columbia, MO

Hang in there - we'll get those yahoos off your backs.

—Steven, Middleburg, FL

Keep doing your job and we will keep supporting you

—Yahya, Simi Valley, CA

I am a former broadcaster, having worked primarily as a DJ or studio engineer for 22 years before being forced from my job in 2009. I worked with a number of student journalists when I was a morning drive personality. Corporate control of the media has not only been detrimental to fair news coverage, but also bad for job creation. I hope this country doesn't become the next Syria, as far as press freedoms are concerned.

—Eric, Hazelwood, MO

To make informed decisions we must have multiple perspectives on what is going on.

—Gary, Blairsden, CA

Stand tall and don't forget the experience of others that have gone before you. Those in Nazi Germany, USSR, USA since 9/11 and Saudi Arabia who reported in the face of arrest, torture or execution. Godspeed.....

—S, Moorpark, CA

I stand with you and will defend your First Amendment Rights along with FreePress media reform members. Keep the faith up!

—Nancy, Palo Alto, CA

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping to protect human rights, and specifically the first ammendment! Let's hope for reason to prevail and peace to return to our country.

—Cynthia, Port Townsend, WA

keep up your courageous work!....

—Terry, Soquel, CA

thanks for risking your freedom to report the news.

—John, Oakland, CA

America feels less and less like a democracy. Our civil rights are being trampled. Arresting journalists just makes this more obvious.

—Carol, Belmont, VT

Journalists -- reporters, photographer and videographers -- and the front line of democracy. Without them, we are no different than Russia or China, and we are destined to become like them. We need to defend the First Amendment and protect those who use it as a weapon against totalitarianism.

—Mike, Emporia, KS

Don't back down to the bullying of cops, clearly acting as if the first amendment doesn't exist. I completely support your efforts, and hope you continue to provide the public with the coverage we deserve!

—Brandon, Saint Louis, MO

Keep on keeping on, and thanks for doing your very important work.

—Abraham, Santa Rosa, CA

Keep on!

—Ronald, Kapaa, HI

Thank you for your courage and your efforts to present to US citizens what is happening in the US. I fear that our rights under the Constituion and The Bill of Rights are being squashed and that we are becoming a police state.

—Colleen, Arvada, CO

Keep the faith.

—Carl, Slidell, LA

When the Arab world rises up against oppression, our leaders rejoice and call it "The Arab Spring" and a sign that other countries want Democracy. But when American rise in civil protest, law enforcement goons club them in the streets and suppress news coverage, a hypocritical violation of Free Speech and repression of Democracy. Do not assume that those Americans who have not yet taken to the streets are not as fed up as those who have -- we are. We are watching, and VOTING.

—David, Valley Village, CA

My heart is with you, stay strong.

—Andrea, Reno, NV

The First Amendment is the foundation for a free society, and the Founding Fathers knew that without freedom of speech, nothing else would matter as any corrupt government entity could seize power. Freedom of Speech is the cornerstone of our society, and without it, we are finished as a Republic and our democracy is merely a footnote in world history.

—Rodney, Arlington, TX

Freedom of the press is key to a democratic society.

—Karma, San Diego, CA

He was doing his talented job and got in the middle of the action taking pictures for all to know what was happening . God Bless

—Sylvia, Hopkinsville, KY

You are not alone.

—Mary, Philadelphia, PA

Maybe it's time (and I'm sorry I don't have the money) to form your own station and take it away from the companies that are trying to destroy your right to speak and mine to listen and decide.

—Florence, Sun City, AZ

Thank you for your courage and persistence! We need your documentation and information on Occupy, the real issues in economy and America, and repression.

—Teresa, San Francisco, CA

Thank you for your courage and willingness to be a voice to inform us. We are sooooo with you!

—Cheryl, Ashland, OR

Keep up the fight! We'll get our 1st amendment back!

—William, Yorktown, VA

hang in there, thanks

—Jeanne, Lakewood, CA

OMG - I CAN'T BELIEVE THIS IS HAPPENING IN OUR COUNTRY. WHAT GOOD IS OUR CONSTITUTION ANYMORE, OF OUR LEADERS, THE CONGRESS, OUR POLICE FORCES FAIL TO OBEY IT.

—Susan, AKRON, OH

I thank you for having the courage to stand up against tyranny here in the U.S.

—Nike, Bozeman, MT

Thank you for the dedication that leads you to take the risks you do to bring us the truth.

—Donald, Ellicott City, MD

The pot has been simmering for awhile and now they have divided the American People. Stand strong in your integrity and ethics and do not waver in telling the truth, no matter how difficult it personally becomes.

—Mark, Detroit, MI

Thanks for your bravery in your work.

—Judith, Issaquah, WA

I support a free press.

—Malinda, Lansing, MI

Bully for you for trying to uphold the First Amendment!

—Louis, Providence, RI

Freedom of the press is vital for all Americans, not just Rupert Murdoch.

—Dorothea, Huntington, NY

The press is one of the pillars of our society. Are we now a police state, where the press is not allowed to monitor police activity?

—James, Sarasota, FL

We stand behind you.

—Jeremy, Lakeland, FL

You have my heartfelt appreciation in your stand for freedom. We stand side by side.

—Maura, Broadalbin, NY

Freedom of speech freedom of news and Journalists

—Carlitos, Jersey city, NJ

As a journalist for two decades, I've never before witnessed such boldfaced arrests. It's as if those credentials call attention to get one arrested; as if there were actually orders to go after credentialed media. It's been moving that way steadily since the WTO in Seattle. With citizen journalists, it's all on camera, online... but without trained media professionals, the big exposure and sound bite goes black for a moment. It's a purposeful strategy for control, I assert. I want people to realize that journalists are on the front lines in their own country like never before.

—Nancy, Santa Barbara, CA

Clear evidence we live in a police state.

—Mark, Chicago, IL

Your arrest shows what Power thinks of Speaking Truth. We support you.

—Julius, New York, NY

So many politicians talk loud about upholding the Constitution, but where are they when it's being flagrantly violated? We must protect our First Amendment rights... even if means that we must exercise our Second Amendment rights. If our lawmakers refuse to uphold our Constitutional rights, then they have betrayed We The People and have committed an act of treason for which they should be held accountable.

—Kynewulf, St. Augustine, FL

Fuck Totalitarian PIGS

—George, Stockton, CA

Thank you for your courage!

—Joanna, Cos cob, CT

Thank you very much for standing for all our 1st amendment rights.

—June, Darien, CT

Anyone who violates our Constitutional rights is a traitor.

—Peter, Burnsville, MN

You are the 21st century John Peter Zenger!

—Rene, Covington, KY

Keep speaking up and doing what it takes - your actions are noted.

—Andrew, Austin, TX

Your work is important to all of us - keep reporting!

—Martha, Sarasota, FL

What you are doing is necessary. You are the reason democracy exists. Please keep reporting and doing what you do. Thank you.

—Lesley, Phoenix, AZ

Why, it's just like Syria over there in D.C -- Battle Field U.S.

—Spencer, Littleton, CO

Stay strong - the end of press freedom would be the end of democracy.

—Brin, Minneapolis, MN

I support your right to cover newsworthy events. Police who deny your right should be reported to their supervisor. If the supervisor does nothing then he should be reported to his supervisor, ad infinitum, until some individual takes responsibility to uphold the constitution.

—Keith, 1025 Redwood Ave., OR

The people who are trampling on our rights have got to be stopped! I stand behind you and our First Amendment rights!

—Linda, Plum City, WI

we will have free speech. The people are tired of the elite running this country.

—Patsy, Winter Springs, FL

We are standing with you!!

—Noel, Milwaukee, WI

Our First Amendment rights are hanging by a thread--online petitions being the last safe place to voice dissent. When journalists are arrested trying to do their job--we must accept that Freedom of the Press no longer exists in America. The threat posed by Occupy destroyed the facade of America. Robo-cops pepper spray and beat our children at will. 6,500 members of Occupy have been arrested for daring to call out the corporate coup d'etat. The mask covering the true face of America shattered into a thousand pieces and we are now staring into the stark face of a fascist regime--which has no patience for dissent, no tolerance for non-conformity and one which will beat its citizens into submission. I congratulate the brave journalists trying to report on Occupy and their treatment is one more example of the utter loss of our Constitutional rights.

—Gale, Indio, CA

Keep on keeping on--you are our only hope.

—Shiela, Belmont, CA

hang in there. Something is terribly wrong with our country now and that needs to be found out and publicized

—Ken, Syracuse, NY

i hope, with your help, to recognize the country that i live in. courage! and thank you!

—Madeline, Slate hill, NY

We will stand with you until you get justice.

—Elizabeth, Mt. Vernon, TX

Without freedom of the press, there is no freedom.

—Arthur, Torrington, CT

For a "constitutional scholar" Mr. Obama demonstrates remarkable disregard for America's Bill of Rights. I suggest you examine the effect the power has had on your ideals.

—R, San Francisco, CA

Thank you for what you do.

—Joann, Goshen, IN

Please know and remember, you are our "eyes" and "ears" in a world dominated by the so called "main stream media". Know in your "heart of hearts", without you, we will only hear and see what the "main stream media" wants to us to hear and see. It is NOT the truth! Thank you for doing what you're doing!!

—Henry, Taos, NM

I do not recognize our country as it exists today. When you get arrested for reporting the news our country has been taken over by the lawless and greedy. Please stand against them and continue reporting the real news.

—Judy, Hot Springs, AR

Freedom is not free, not even freedom of the press. Thank you for your service and sacrifice in the fight for liberty and justice! I am a former journalist who covered the government and suffered the slings and arrows, social and financial costs, and the occasional beating. Your work is vital and appreciated, even if you suffer alone.

—David, Alamogordo, NM

an attack on one is an attack on all ... as an emeritus professor and public sepaker, I know too well that what happens to you can happen to me unless we all work together to push back. Thanks for all you do

—Peter, New Hope, PA

How could this be happening in America!! It's as bad as when Mayor Daley's henchmen beat up protesters at the 1968 Democratic convention.

—Wendy, Conshohocken, PA

This is not Russia or Iran or even Egypt.

—Richard, Carthage, NY

Stick in there everyone, we are fighting the Tyranny as hard as we can all across the country! Thank you for all you do, this is going to be the land of the Free and the Brave but it will be because of us citizens and not our corrupt elected officials sworn to uphold the Constitution!

—Lora, Chicago, IL

I, in general, support law enforcement in doing their work. This sort of behavior makes it very hard to continue to so. Police need to wake up to the fact that they are capable of doing their job in relative safety because the majority of the surrounding community supports them. When they lose that support, as typically happens in poor, minority areas of the inner cities of the US, the potential for harm or death to LE officers rises precipitously.

—Mike, Pittsburgh, PA

Please stop arresting journalists. It's hurting all of us.

—Elizabeth, Washington, DC

We are with you in spirit, and want you out of jail and back on the job very soon. Your eternal vigilance is the price of freedom.

—Suzan, Menlo Park, CA

the USA has become a fascist police state worse than China!

—Joe, E. Palo Alto, CA

What is so scary about OWS? Are the police using unusual violence? I cannot support this treatment!

—Jenny, Charlottesville, VA

Thank you for trying to do the right thing. I stand with you and am proud of you.

—Betty, Terlingua, TX

We now have no property rights. Corporation are people. We no longer have rights are you suprised?

—Jim, Fort Myers Beach, FL

I admire your courage. You should know that millions support what you do.

—Jack, Suisun city, CA

We stand with you to defend our First Amendment Rights.

—Pauline, Ann Arbor, MI

Thank you for your work and know that there are people out there fighting for your rights. We are going to get the attention this deserves.

—Cameron, New York City, NY

Keep up your legitimate and constitutionally protected work of covering the news.

—Daniel, Southfield, MI

We don't have democracy, what we have is an organized corporate government masquerading as democracy. Their only interest is their own greed and need to control and dominate others to get their fix.

—Sherman, Seattle, WA

Be strong. Be resolute.

—Tom, Newburyport, MA

I appreciate your courage and your determination to report the news.

—Doris, Lyman, SC

Your story will not go unheard. We are all in the same situation. Keep your courage.

—Michael, Sebastopol, CA

Stay strong our prayers are with you.

—Samuel, Castle Valley, UT

Thank you for your integrity and courage. We stand with you.

—Susan, Bronx, NY

In Syria, American journalists are risking their lives to provide honest reporting of what is actually happening. It saddens me -- nay, SICKENS me -- to see that American journalists are not allowed to report on what is happening here in the USA! How the police can be allowed to figuratively tear up the Bill of Rights, and use painful force to keep their illegal secrets from becoming known to the public ... it is beyond me. I may not agree with much of what most protesters of all sorts believe in, but I stand firm in my belief that they have the right to voice their opinions.

Why does what is going on now bring back sickening memories of a certain political convention -- Chicago, 1968 ?? Dooooohh!

—L, Lebanon, OH

Stay strong.

—Barbara, Warren, NJ

Hang tough! We will keep the pressure up!!

—Johnny, Minneapolis, MN

Hang in there. The public is counting on you to report what is happening there with OWS as well as all across the country!

—Carol, Medford, OR

Be strong. You're on the right side of history. This is a disgrace.

—Lynette, Bend, OR

Stay strong! We've got your back!

—Kenny, Lexington, KY

Sadly American police no longer respect the rights of journalists or the PEOPLE! If more journalists don't speak up, America will soon become a fascist state that would make Orwell blush!

—Thomas, Garden Valley, CA

Thank you for covering Occupy Wallstreet - your heroism is essential to our democracy and I applaud you for it and thank you deeply for your sacrifice.....

—Sally, Bernalillo, NM

Don't stop reporting at these events please. You are the main way the message will get out to the public. Thank you so much.

—Kathleen, Plymouth, MI

Your courage is inspiring.

—Mari, Tucson, AZ

Free speech is the bulwark of our Constitution, of our country. Thank you

—Alan, Baltimore, MD

While the "mainstream" (so-called) media tries to bury the efforts of the Occupy movement, you courageously continue to report. Stay strong, know we the American people believe in what you're doing, and will be left in darkness without your work!

—Jacqueline, Oak Park, IL

Thank you!

—Joanna, Cos Cob, CT

Hang in there! It may take a while, but take it to court.

—Sally, El Prado, NM

I appreciate your courage and resilience in an effort to let the American people know what is really going on in Occupy Wall Street.

—Sandra, Dallas, TX

Yes, thank you for your dedicated search for the facts of events in the face of repressive measures, measures supposedly justified by fear of foreign-instigated terrorism. Your brave actions remind all U.S. citizens that loss of a truth-seeking press along with loss of other civil rights (loss of the soul of our country) is a much graver danger than any threat from abroad.

—Marc, Bainbridge Island, WA

Please stand strong and continue to inform us! Without you we will only know what government wants us to know and to see. Thank you for what you are doing!

—Jill, Brevard, NC

These arrests of journalists are unconstitutional. It must stop now!

—Dawn, San Antonio, TX

I'm appalled that this is taking place here in America and disgusted with the trampling of our Constitution by the radical Right-Wing!

—Christopher, New Canaan, CT

I appreciate your efforts to make sure everyone knows the truth about the Occupy movement. Your rights to free speech MUST be protected!

—Janet, Spokane, WA

Mary Gilbert

—Mary, Arlington, MA

As a veteran of the US Army Special Forces and Rangers, I honor your courage and commitment to telling the stories that must be told regardless of the risk of arrest. You have the respect and gratitude of we, the people.

Standfast and stay strong.

—Richard, Victoria, TX

I don't agree with your newspaper's editorial policies, but I certainly support your right to cover the event with respect from law enforcement.

—Shirley, Tucson, AZ

Stand fast and lead the way, for we have no genuine leaders to do what must be done

—Lawrence, Amherst, MA

Seig Heil! We are becoming the fascist dictatorship Prescott Bush wanted us to become when he was Adolph Hitler's buddy and financier. Apparently the law isn't for us, but is unfortunately against us. They say we are a nation of laws, but there is no justice.

—Dave, Pahoehoe, HI

A free press is all that stands between a free people and slavery. Courage!

—Eleanor, COSTA MESA, CA

We need to stand with Freedom of the Press: as Patrick Henry said "Give me Liberty, or give me death"

—Martin, Tucson, AZ

Can we do what we did the latter half of the 20th century and join our voices in chanting at the police, "The whole world is watching"?

—Ninure, C, IL

To all those who got arrested in Zuccotti.. thank-you for trying to keep the police in check w/ your presence.. I do believe it helped my son from not getting beaten more .. to all you others.. I STAND WITH YOU ! and invite you to cover these ridiculous trails ..including mine for trying to exercise our 1st Amendment right to assemble peacefully and air our grievances against our government .. after its "curfew" in "public" space .. in the respective cities we are still ALL heading for trail in.. OCCUPY strong.. Get the TRUTHOUT !!! ONWARDS!!!

—Leatrice, Cleveland Heights, OH

You are brave, and our country needs you and people like you who are willing to stand up and report the news. The real news. Thank you.

—Corliss, Richfield, OH

As an American citizen I am thankful for your courage, appalled at what is happening to freedom of speech in the U.S.A. Sincerely, Deborah Ross does "journalist" mean "rioter," "provocateur," or "some dude with a video camera on his cell phone"? I mean really, it's not like they're arresting Pulitzer quality folks here. Please enjoy your stay, courtesy of the state!

—Deborah, Canandaigua, NY

—Bertram, Oklahoma city, DE

Solidarity with Occupy!

—H, Ventura, CA

You must keep on reporting these stories. They are vital to keeping the USA a truly free and informed nation. Thank you!!

—Terry, Walnut Creek, CA

Stand firm. Keep up your critically important work.

—Eric, Groton, MA

Thank you so very much for doing such an important job for everyone, for our freedom what there is left of it, and for history that will follow.

—Steven, San Carlos, CA

stick to your job and beliefs

—Sabine, New York, NY

Thanks to courageous reporting of live events do we know some of what goes on in the world. Don't be discouraged. Keep up this all important work. Thank you, Adele Baker

—Adele, Monroe, GA

In this whirlpool of decaying American culture, rights, and government for the people not corporations, sometimes the only light in the darkness is the journalist who still lives by the First Amendment and risks all to report on what the PEOPLE demand, not the money. Thank you for your bravery.

—Maria, Los Angeles, CA

Thank you for standing up for our constitutional rights! Shame is on the heads, hearts and souls of those who have chosen to not uphold those rights. Many of our sons and daughters have died for the right to free speech and all of the constitutional freedoms of our U.S.A. The 'Right to Know' is the foundational support of all U.S.of A, freedoms!

—Jolaine, Maricopa, CA

Thank you for your focus and for your courage. It would be great if each of the organizations which each journalist represents would team together to do a press release that tells the story in every publication on the same day. Plan to present it on the internet as well on the same day. Then ask to have people share their article with others. Only by joining together in this way will we be able to overturn the sad state of affairs in which we are now living. Thank you again, journalists, for your courage and risk-taking. The more we can share your risk-taking with others, the better. Real Americans will always be proud of your actions. And all Americans benefit from your strength.

—Carol, Plymouth, WI

Thank you for standing up for what is right. I pray that "someday", those that are trampling the first amendment will come to their senses and reverse the course of our country's demise.

—Linda, Woodbridge, VA

What the Police have done is reprehensible to be certain. However, We, The People,. stand by you and THANK YOU for continuing to objectively report on the issues despite the threat of, or in the face of actual, arrest by Police. Who watches the Watchers? We, The People. Who Polices the Police? We, The People. If the Government, or the Police don't like that - it's too bad for them. We, The People, granted them certain powers, jealously reserving the rest for ourselves, and it's up to us to ensure that those who we have granted certain powers don't abuse them. Regardless of whether a reporter is 'credentialed' or not, freedom of the Press must be respected. We send Reporters into War Zones to report, what's so different about reporting in America? Aren't Police who arrest and beat up Reporters what we've fought against around the Globe? Ridiculous, and embarrassing.

—David, Highland Park, IL

Thank you for your courage.

—Dorothea, 77079, TX

Your work is so important. Thanks for covering the movement and keeping us informed!

—Jeri, Longmont, CO

You poloticians can not bully your way out of this one..!!

—Peter, St. Thomas, VI., VI

Thank you for standing by the liberties of the people. By the people, for the people as our founding fathers intended. American citizens owe you a debt of gratitude for keeping the fires of freedom and liberty burning.

—Jesse, Sandy, OR

Hang in there. The powers that be can hide all they want, but your actions and of others like you reveal the reality they are afraid we will discover. Thank you.

—Theron, Racine, WI

Enough is Enough.

—Yolanda, Fallbrook, CA

illigiti mi non carborundum

—Richard, San Diego, CA

I remember when journalists were "man-handled" and arrested during the Republican convention in St. Paul when I lived there. It sickens me to see this kind of treatment. We need honest journalism! Please know you have my support. Barbara J. Nekola

—Barbara, Millsboro, DE

We are behind you journalists and against the criminal police. They shall be prosecuted and sent to prison. This is not Poland.

—Gloria, New Braunfels, TX

The guarantees of the First Amendment are being eroded by draconian forces motivated by fear, ignorance and hatred.

—Robert, Sheboygan, WI

You are heroes.

—John, Columbia Heights, MN

Thanks for your bravery.
—Eileen, ROCHESTER, NY

Such unreasonable detention of journalists is inhumane and unconstitutional. Both the Constitution and the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights protects our right to free speech!!! As long as they're not committing actual crimes, they should NOT be arrested. It's time to let those journalists go!!!
—Carlos, Detroit, MI

A injury to one is a injury to all.
—Matthew, Seattle, WA

The truth will set all of us free, so keep telling the truth and keep bearing honest witness. We will help get you out of jail and help you and stand up with you to defend all of our rights, the whole Bill of Rights. No one is in this fight alone.
—Josep, Phila., PA

Hang tough! You are doing the moral, right thing by reporting on this most important issue. I appreciate your efforts!
—E, Sheboygan Falls, WI

This is unconscionable.
—Linda, Ludlow, MA

Bring back freedom on the press! NO more arresting journalist for using their First Amendment rights. Let them report the news where and as it happens.
—Yvonne, Lexington, MI

Hey, we need you more than ever now!!!
—Paki, Crestone, CO

Keep pushing back. Thank you for what you do.
—Duncan, Cape Elizabeth, ME

Stay strong!
—Sandra, Aurora, CO

To the brave men and women who risk injury, insult and prison to bring us the truth every day, my gratitude is boundless. You are the reason the First Amendment isn't just a nice idea, but a force for good in the modern world. Keep fighting the good fight, and know that people like me are rooting for you.
—Edward, Gainesville, FL

Are we living in a third world dictatorship or what? This is absolutely intolerable.
—Karen, Reno, NV

Reisa Gould-Donath
—Reisa, Saratoga Springs, NY

Thank you for your courage and dedication!
—Lj, Chicopee, MA

Without freedom of the press we are no longer the USA but just another police state. You have my support and prayers.

—Mary, Bonham, TX

As a journalist for the Small Newspaper Group, a similar thing happened to me- a county deputy threatened to take me to jail for trying to cover an auto accident. I put my camera down but stood there until a victim was sheeted then interviewed by standers without further interference. The county cop shop must have just needed to show their authority.

—John, Aurora, IL

We stand in Unity on the Front Lines of this a Revolution. There is coming the day that all of these Goons who act in the name of Liberty to suppress Dissension will be held accountable. They Know this and still commit Treason because in their minds MONEY is their God and Nothing should stop the unfettered deposits into their bank accounts. The Whole World is Watching!

—Phillip, Gladstone, OR

I'm sorry you have been arrested, your only "crime" being that you were trying to do your job. Good luck and keep on working to inform the rest of us.

—Alan, Tarrytown, NY

Freedom of the Press means exactly that. Read your Constitution it came with your office in the Senate and House.

—Craig, San Pedro, CA

I thank you for your journalistic work and the courage to cover events that are unpopular to local governments and agencies

—Deborah, BEVERLY HILLS, FL

Bewing arrested is a sign of a police state - as were the arrests at the RNC in NYC. . . censorship by the republican owned newspapers is another story ??? not covered

—William, Jersey city, NJ

I am the 99% and I am with you in spirit. Keep fighting the good fight. #Occupy Wall Street!

—William, Greenwood, AR

Just what are you afraid of those journalists discovering?

—Rebecca, Sunnyvale, CA

Thank you for risking your freedom to bring us the truth. This is the kind of thing that would be expected in a repressive 3rd world country. Thank you for trying to stand up for our the freedom of the press.

—Kathryn, Streamwood, IL

sorry you're experiencing what we thought only happened in communist russia. how and why has this happened?

—Danny, Fresno, CA

Stop police interference with public access to information, for which we rely on professional journalists.

—Elaine, Seattle, WA

Thank you for your courage in documenting these all important events. The truth cannot be covered up anymore.

—Idelle, Brooklyn, NY

Under the fascist form of government established by the Supreme Court under its Citizens United decision the government colludes with big companies. This is a prime example of a manifestation of fascism. Truth is the first casualty of war, and we are under attack. Corpora ficta, the artificial 'beings' created by force of law, can be manipulated by their owners and boards to finance election of the politicians with whom they want to collaborate against the people. Media are afraid to report critical information about politicians or other companies or the Occupy fascism-resistance movement because they are beholden to corpora ficta for their advertising revenue. Media should be at the fore of protesting the arrest of their journalists. Where are they?

—Gary, Portsmouth, OH

In a world of lies, you bring us truth. Keep up the good work!

—Patricia, West Shokan, NY

Free and unfettered journalism ensures transparency in the conduct of police and other government actions. If journalists are censored through arrest or denial of access to public activities then citizenship is blinded.

—Brian, Bellevue, WA

I support you and the first amendment! Stay strong!

—Nicole, Austin, TX

I will continue to speak and sing out for journalists who are protecting free speech. Our society is not free unless our discourse is free. I stand with you in solidarity.

—Ruth, Chatsworth, CA

Stand with and for the First Amendment!

—James, Murfreesboro, TN

I just saw the video. From what I could hear, this reporter was dragged off for no apparent reason. I'm disgusted. I am going to visit your site. I really want to know if this is a trend and how to stop it.

—Paul, Marshfield, MA

We're watching out for you.

—Bob, East Montpelier, VT

Thank you for all the excellent work you do; hang in there

—Tanya, San Diego, CA

Freedom of speech and the printed word is supported by our constitution. Ours is not a fascist state and we must stand up to those who attempt to edit or censor speech.

—Kirsten, Wichita, KS

Carry on. . .for all of us.

—Roberta, St. Paul, MN

Keep up the good work!

—Mark, Flagstaff, AZ

I can't begin to tell you how appalled I am that all of our rights are being taken away from us one by one. I didn't think that the government had the right to change the constitution whenever it felt like without a vote from WE THE PEOPLE. That is why me and alot of other people will exert our right in Nov. to see if we can get out all the people in the senate and house and get new people in. I am sorry that you reporters are having to pay the price for this miscarriage of justice. Donna Lauzon

—Donna, Romulus, MI

Please hold your ground and stand up for all our First Amendment rights.

—Louise, Bayside, NY

I'm truly sorry that you had to experience this in the United States where your rights should have been protected. Please know that I appreciate all that you do to bring truth to us. Thank you very much. Sincerely, Loretta Ocon

—Loretta, Stockton, CA

Keep fighting the good fight!

—Katharine, Panama City, FL

You were and are within the law, First Amendment. The fight is on to protect this amendment and put the current news topics to the public

—John, Florissant, MO

this is heinous. are we a police state or a democracy? how can the president keep condoning this stuff by his lack of action to insure the freedom of the press?

—David, CLIFTON FORGE, VA

Standing behind you and will not let the issue go.

—Alma, Colorado Springs, CO

Continue to be strong. We are going through difficult times, and Washington Police have lost their minds.

—B, Albuquerque, NM

Those who would arrest journalists for covering the Occupy movement are violating the Constitution which elected officials & the military swear to defend. They become enemies of the state by following unlawful orders. As a US Army veteran (2nd generation), I'm appalled by such illegal actions! This is NOT the USSR or the Third Reich!

—Jennifer, Durham, NC

I don't understand why the government is so afraid of the Occupy movement, What do they have to hide?

—Lenore, New York, NY

Keep up the fight!

—Stan, N. Manchester, IN

Arresting journalists instead of the Communists instigating violence at OWSheep protests is our current government shooting itself in the foot. We need to re-indoctrinate our citizens - and cops and politicians - in the US Constitution!

—Fred, Richmond, VA

Scary! Free speech for corporations, but not the people of this country.

—Joyce, Martinsville, IN

This is "our country" it is not a police state! If they think they are "protecting" the homeland, they are mistaken. If they want a revolution on their hands, keep it up!

—Steve, Cedar Rapids, IA

This is what conservatives want, a police state. Keep doing what you're doing. Soon, the mass media will report it -- or not.

—Earl, New Berlin, NY

Thank you for your efforts to inform us about what is happening in our country. You are our first line of defense against any abuses by our government. Keep doing as much as you can to defend freedom of the press.

—Phyllis, Marcellus, NY

Thank you for trying to get the truth out. Its outrageous the violation of your and so many others' first amendment. I hope you continue to get the truth out and don't give up.

—Mark, Traverse City, MI

Please don't stop what you are doing. I was thinking about the Occupy movement today and was wondering if there'd be a meda blackout to give the impression that this fantastic grassroots movement was disappearing. It won't with the bravery of folks like you.

—Paul, Maple Falls, WA fight!

—Roger, Sacramento, CA

Reminds me of Russia during Czarist times and again during Communist times, or Nazi Germany or Iraq or Syria or.....

—Kathleen, San Antonio, TX

I hope you get to go home to your families soon and get to go back to what you are to be doing without being harassed for doing your job.

—Maritza, Westampton, NJ

This action is totally against everything America is supposed to stand for. We the people who wait for your reports of what is going on in this world are standing with you the reporter...Sincerely. Joan Carl

—Joan, Shermn Oaks, CA

I'm with anyone with the courage to stand up to the monstrous aberration of a democracy that the U.S. has become.

—James, Wenatchee, WA

When they come for the journalists, their won't be anyone left to read about it..

—Cory, Kansas City, MO

As Head of the Journalism Dept at SAE Institute, Singapore, I stand with you.

—William, Oxnard, CA

Thank you for standing up for your and more importantly, our rights. These arrests are outrageous.

—Rev, Deep River, CT

We need to hear the news on what is going on in this country. Thanks for your taking that action

—Doris, Irving, TX

Thank you for your bravery in covering the news, stay strong.

—Barb, Geneseo, IL

Keep doing what you're doing. The world is watching; even when it doesn't think it is. Everytime you are stopped from telling your story, that stop tells an even more important story. Stay strong.

—Edward, New York, NY

I don't know what's going on in this country when what has happened to you CAN happen to you. We're with you as much as possible!

—George, San Jose, CA

Yet once again in a ever more commonplace series of outrages by the police!! I stand with you.

—Annie, Alameda, CA

Why is this happening? Police departments need to read the American Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

—Robert, Louisville, KY

Thank you for your sacrifices and willingness to do what is right and just. Thank you for risking your lives and liberty while protecting our freedoms.

—Trevolyn, Chino Hills, CA

We all depend on the First Amendment to protect our other freedoms. Thank you for doing your work to get the truth out and keep our nation free.

—Michele, Davison, MI

Why is this happening? Police departments need to read the American Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

—Robert, Louisville, KY

Hang in there, and thanks for fighting for our freedoms!

—Patrick, Riverside, CA

I really can't say anything beyond thank you, you're heroes, and I hope you get out soon. Anything more is just redundant.

—Ben, Madison, WI

The police's behavior is outrageous. You certainly have my support! Arrrgh!!!

—Ed, Brentwood, TN

I stand with you and the First Amendment. The major barrier between the people and dictatorships is the freedom of the press and free speech. When that is taken away, we lose the truth. A Democracy cannot survive. Stand up and write about what is going on and why the First Amendment is critical to our future. it is important

—Margaret, Green Bay, WI

I'm so sorry that our country has become a gestapo nation and where our first amendment rights are being trashed. I appreciate your efforts. Thank you

—Linda, Lakewood, CO

Stay strong, we have your back.

—George, Grand Rapids, MI

Thank you for your courage.

—Kimberly, San Francisco, CA

And you wonder why they used to call us "PIGS"! It can happen again. Police Lieutenant Edward Teutsch (Ret)

—Edward, Dingmans Ferry, PA

After watching this arrest i doubt that there's any chance we will ever get a free and open press again. This country is just another dictatorship now.

—William, Wrentham, MA

Some day the police will figure out that they are part of the 99%! I can belive they don't have any children or grandchildren are they brain washed or stupid? Perhaps they are communist? come on cops get your act together! Is the military smarter or just men of honor?

—Martin, Port, OR

I am a journalist and I stand with you in solidarity.

—Kristina, Olympia, WA

Thank you --- hope you're released soon!

—Susan, Mars Hill, NC

Bravo for having the courage to report the truth. Thank you for your service to the citizens of our democracy.

—Valentin, CORRALES, NM

We stand with you in your fight against those who would steal our free rights!

—Hank, San Diego, CA

You are trying to stand up for the truth, you are Hero's. Millions are with you.

—Michael, Sun Valley, ID

leave journalist alone, we need accurate information

—Leila, Windsor, CA

What a disgrace....just goes to show what money can buy....!! We have to keep fighting.

—Claire, Melbourne, FL

This is still a free country, and we are supposed to have freedom of speech, and a journalist is allowed to report and to seek information, what is this country coming to?

—Joan, Goddard, KS

Thank you for taking these risks. IT IS NOT SUPPOSED TO BE A RISK IN AMERICA TO BE A JOURNALIST.

—Jann, Newburgh, IN

Journalists are absolutely necessary to a democracy. What are the police thinking?

—Joann, San Lorenzo, CA

If the resident and ther government won't protect the Constitution, who is to say that the lads shouldn't fetch their rifles?

—Ambrose, Flushing, NY

Thank You.

—Jennifer, San Francisco, CA

Good luck!

—Richard, Santa Barbara, CA

Thank you for doing your job as a journalist especially on a topic like this. It greatly saddens me that you have been arrested.

—Jorge, San Diego, CA

Why am I not suprised on this action. Free the press people and stop the ridiculous nature of your meaningless lives. Keep it up and you know what will happen. Just look at Athens, Greece, Italy. Do you want this happening here? Only you can prevent it. Stop arresting the press and protesters. We do have the right to assemble.

—Jim, W. Coxsackie, NY

Keep up the good fight. We need you!

—John, Lexington, KY

"The only security at all is in a free press. The force of public opinion cannot be resisted when permitted freely to be expressed." Thomas Jefferson "The people must know before they can act, and there is no educator to compare with the press." Ida B. Wells

—Tom, Crestwood, MO

Thank you for your courage you show to keep us informed

—Bev, San Antonio, TX

Thank you all for sharing the "news." Be courageous, we're behind you and your mission. Peace. Thank you for what you do for us. I share your pain when one is violated, we all are deprived of our rights. Peace and courage be with you.

—(rev), Fairview, TN

Freedom of the press is essential to our democracy. It must be safe-guarded.

—Florence, St. Paul, MN

Thank you for having the courage to actually report the real news -----It is just as important in the US as it is in Egypt or Syria

—Elen, Lewisville, NC

Thank you for not suppressing news about OWS like so much of the media that seems to take direction from the Right.

—Dale, Walnut Creek, CA

FREEDOM OF SPEECH???????????????? SHAME,!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! !!!

—Susan and Endre, Monrovia, CA

Thank you for the hard and valuable work of telling the truth. I so appreciate it!

—Kelly, Alameda, NM

The increased militarization of our police, both with weapons and agressiveeness against non-violent protesters is certainly not the democracy we talk about to the rest of the world.

—Vic and Barby, Saratoga, CA

Stay strong! Yours is a NOBLE calling.

—Marjorie, Columbia, SC

The Pen is Mightier than the New World Order!

—Charles, Coventry, RI

Keep doing what you love ! We appreciate you!

—Mary, Custer, KY

Keep up reporting the news that FoX does not want America to see!

—Michael, Marlborough, NH

This is not to be believed.

—Peggy, Norwalk, CT

There is nothing more important to a free country than our First Amendment. Without it we have nothing; we will no longer be America. Please don't give up!

—Marcia, Culver City, CA

The Bill of Rights is with you, and We, the People are with you. Thank you for continuing to shine light into the dark places!

—Carrie, Oregon, WI

Please do all you can to halt the war on the Watchdog of Democracy, AKA, the Press!

—Christopher, Durham, NC

I stand with you in standing strong to keep on reporting the real news.

—Jim, Centennial, CO

You are the only hope the nation has of retaining some sense of conscience. Your work is so very important

—Kathy, Camano Island, WA

Thank you for what you do. Hang in there - you have my support.

—Felicia, Pensacola, FL

Thanks for all of your efforts on the frontlines in the fight to reclaim our DEMOCRACY. The 1%ers may indeed have all the wealth but history is on our side and truth and justice will prevail!!!!

—Michael, Lodi, NY

I came from behind the Iron Curtain to be in a country of freedom of speech. Where is it NOW? I support you 100%!- Dagmar

—Dagmar, Cockeysville, MD

Thank you for your dedication in trying to report the facts. Bless you.

—Linda, Cary, NC

It is utterly outrageous that this has happened to you and all the others who are trying to bring light to dark places. I, for one, am outraged and will fight alongside you when some plan of action is outlined.

—Barbara, San Francisco, CA

Dear Journalists who've been arrested, I'm am completely outraged by this and I hope you will all continue to work for the sake getting the truth out to all Americans regarding the events you're covering. You're fighting the good fight and don't ever back down. Barbara Trypaluk

—Barbara, Saratoga Springs, NY

All Americans except for a few of the most foolish stand behind you. Police need additional training so that they will understand and respect people's First Amendment rights. Let's work together to make that the law! Thanks for your work and your risk-taking!

—David, Albemarle, NC

Hang in there. People care.

—Nelly, Lady Lake, FL

This is an insult to ALL Americans. We MUST have a free press if democracy is to survive!

—John, Henderson, NV

It's worth fighting (and going to jail for). Thanks!

—Eston, Brevard, NC

I stand with you - thank you for your attempts to document and maintain a free press!

—Lisa, Columbia, MD

hang in there guys

—Timothy, Louisville, KY

I stand with you in your efforts to support our right to a free flow of information. Thank you for supporting the First Amendment in what you do.

—Sharon, Mamaroneck, NY

Thank you !! The world needs more journalist willing to expose the police state we live in. It takes courage and bravery.

—Mare, Port Orchard, WA

If you want to arrest 'journalists', try the Fox empire. Arrest the minions of propaganda.

—Lynne, Eugene, OR

Please know you have the support of freedom loving Americans. If we lose the 1st Amendment, we are all doomed.

—Helen, Middletown, NY

Thank you for all you do to keep our democracy strong!

—Dale, Santa Clara, CA

You'll have a great story to tell your grandkids - hang in there!

—Judith, Saint Paul, MN

Our government's fear and disdain of the truth has become frightening and an ominous sign of what is to come. The only way that dark deeds can prevail is if no one shines a light on them. Thank you for being brave enough to do your job and keep on shining your light! Only the truth will help!

—Lizzie, Costa Mesa, CA

Thank you for trying to protect democracy for all of us. Only by having an informed citizenry can true democracy survive.

—Gerald, Melville, LA

Hang in there. We're rooting for you.

—Wendy, El Paso, TX

Thanks for standing up for all of us.

—Griffin, Roseville, MN

Journalists should never be arrested in the United States. No one should be arrested for saying it like they see it!

—Robbie, Van Buren, AR

The first volley in a war against the people of a nation by it's leaders is always aimed at the free press and those who would dare expose the truth. Declare a TRUCE against the citizens of the United States and allow freedom to ring once again in this great land!

—Winfield, Lisbon, CT

We are free people with the right to express ourselves without hurting others. What has happened to our freedoms????

—Kay, Carbondale, CO

Will the fourth estate regain its lofty status or will their corporate owners muffle it again?

—Hector, Houston, TX arresting journalist !!! what an example of democracy for the world.

—Alexander, Chicago, IL

This is absolutely appalling. Occupy is a legitimate (and badly needed) protest movement. The arrest of journalists covering occupy protests is a huge violation of freedom of the press and the freedom of the rest of us to know what is going on in this country that now seems to serve only the 1 percent.

—Karen, Sacramento, CA

Stay strong, your work is more important than ever.

—Carole, Florence, AL

Fear will not crush you when you uphold truth.

—Isadora, Hana, HI

Thankfully I still have the freedom to spread this far and wide (for now anyway)!

—Margo, Fulton, TX

We want honesty in reporting, but these days that seems to require a lot of bravery as well. Your sacrifice is appreciated.

—Kelly, Cortlandt Manor, NY

When these things happen in the Arab world, they're an outrage. When they happen here, where we're supposed to have rights, it's something we're encouraged to ignore!

—Don, Roland, IA

As a veteran that fought for this country of OURS I am appalled at the way our police are treating OUR CITIZENS. Of all the people I would think would stand up for OUR RIGHTS it would be the police. Not the case. They should be ashamed. We are becoming a third world country. The powerful are the ones controlling our police. We need officers that can stand up to these forces and tell them this is not right. Our police need to defend WE THE PEOPLE.

—Thomas, Findlay, OH

Thank you for standing up for freedom.

—Bonnie, Blue Hill, ME

Thank you for your reporting. I never thought it would be this dangerous in this country to be an honest reporter.

joeinreno@sbcglobal.net

—Joe, Reno, NV

Detaining journalists is NOT the American way.

—Katina, Nashville, TN

What about our Constitution?

—Tom, Sonoma, CA

Thank you!

—C, Willowbrook, IL

THANK YOU FOR STANDING UP FOR AMERICANS' RIGHT TO KNOW THE TRUTH.

—George, Moreno Valley, CA

Thank you for having the courage to stand for truth. I am sorry that in this day we have to put up with such things.

—Marcia, Englewood, OH

We'll always fight with you

—Meghan, Phila, PA

We cannot stand by while journalists are threatened - here in the USA or elsewhere in the free world.

—Helen, Fairfield, CT

Thanks for what you do for the rest of us.

—Ann, Augusta, GA

Thank you for bringing the facts and the truth to the American people. Yours is one of the most critically important professions in our free democracy. Stand strong and hold your heads high.

—Elizabeth, Cuero, TX

I appreciate that there are people who risk themselves to report the news. It is a terrible shame that our own government, sworn to protect our First Amendment rights, are detaining journalists. What they are doing is no better than the mafia silencing a witness from telling the truth. Please continue to fight for the right for free speech.

—Patricia, Los Angeles, CA

Keep up the good work. I think the police are bringing more attention to your reporting by trying to deny you the right.

—Chris, Burbank, CA

We are watching what is happening and have your back. Thanks for trying to cover these protests. It is very important for Americans to see what is happening to and in their country.

—Susan, Alden, NY

Thank you for your courageous stand.

—Stan, Albuquerque, NM

We stand with you and admire your courage.

—Margaret, Houston, TX

Thank you for taking risks to keep the public informed.

—Natalie, Spring Park, MN

It is a sad day in American when our journalists are arrested for reporting the news and controlled by the government in certain situations so the American public is kept in the dark and controlled. We seem to becoming like a third world country controlled by a dictator.

—Jane, National City, CA

Stand strong and we shall right these wrongs.

—Kevin, Jersey City, NJ

Free press is essential to a democratic society.

—Vivian, Tyler, TX

Thank you for your courage.

—Debra, Springfield, VT

Those that don't fight for freedom will lose it

—Carol, Valencia, CA

Thank you for your courage! You are the front-line defenders of our democracy.

—Michael, Madison, WI

This is frightening! Where is Pres. Obama on this? He complained about abuse happening in other countries, but turns a blind eye to abuse in our own country!

—Janelle, Sherman Oaks, CA

I stand with you, and am willing to go to jail for it. Don't stop what you're doing, it's nearly all we have left.

—Mike, San Francisco, CA

America's shame is what its police are doing to news reporters. The world is watching our descent into fascism.

—Fred, Rhinebeck, NY

Thank you for covering events that are important to what democracy is all about!

—Helene, Houston, TX

Can this be happening in my country? It should NOT be happening in this land of the free.

—TC, Oklahoma City, OK

I stand with the journalists who have been arrested documenting a truly grassroots movement in America. As an American citizen I don't want some news, or a version of the news, I want to know what is going on in this country & world. Thank you for standing up for the First Amendment!

—Wendy, Schenectady, NY

Thank you for working to report what is happening in our country despite the risks to yourself. We stand behind you and support your duty to report in an unbiased manner.

—Donald, Salt Lake City, UT

Thank you for your bravery and willingness to tell the truth despite the personal risk.

—Allan, Berkeley, CA

Apparently, the fight for a free press and an educated democracy begins right here at home.

—Joanne, Wingate, NC

You're very brave.

—Rick, Seattle, WA

Unless national secrets are involved, why shouldn't the public have full access to all of the news for which reporters are the source. Silencing reporters is what dictatorial governments do!

—Roger and Denice, Homer, AK

Never forget that there are people "outside" who are on your side and who are advocating for you. It takes a lot of guts to do what you do.

—Robert, Los Angeles, CA

If journalists are being arrested for covering events in the United States of America, there must be a desire not to shine a light on the goings on. Why would this be true? What is happening that participants don't want known to the public? Why are protests applauded in other countries but squelched here? How close does this put my country to being a police state?

—Shirley, Topeka, KS

Thank you for what you are doing. I want to be a writer, and your bravery is inspiring. I hope to see you out there!

—Sarah, Bernardston, MA

There was a day in this country when we could be proud of our journalist because they fought crime and injustice by getting to the truth—they were US.

—Judy, Westminster, CO

keep the faith and keep fighting

—Sandra, Spring, TX

I remember when "pig" seemed to have become an antiquated expression. Sadly it's become appropriate again....and then some! Thank you for your dedication to reporting to the country on what's going on.

—Jake, Kailua-Kona, HI

What we are teaching children in schools about The First Amendment and what is reality are polar opposites. The Judicial branch of government for the past 45 years most assuredly are bought and paid for by the top buyers. Experiencing eradication of Free Speech is akin to a top fiction novel. Unfortunately it happens to be a reality we are all living. Be assured the citizens of this great country will fight for our Constitutional Rights, standing tall and proud like a battered spouse whom has had enough!

—Sharon, Woodford, VA

Thank you for your courage.

—Edward, Brooklyn, NY

Take notes and get email addresses = let's make a movie! Kellie Evans kellie1940@yahoo.com

—Kellie, Cuyahoga falls, OH

Your courage in face of a fascist state which will protect itself at any cost to the the Constitutional rights of all it's citizens is needed and appreciated by Americans who care. You are the few who stand for what is right and correct in this country. I salute you all! and thank you from the bottom of my heart!

—Edwin, Los Angeles, CA

We must have freedom of the press if we are to stand before the world as champions of freedom and liberty. The '4th Estate' is truly essential, as is its ability to function to fully uphold liberty and freedom, here and around the world.

—Jay, SAN DIEGO, CA

I am sad. Never expected to see such crap here in the Land of the Brave, and the Home of the Free. Such bull crap.

—Robert, Dade City, FL

I'm a photographer/videographer and the 1st Amendment rights matter to me in a personal way. With all the the means to capture events available to us now there should be no excuse for bad behavior or ways of hiding it. The ones doing this need to be held accountable.

—Leann, Norwich, KS

Stay strong. Keep telling the truth. The people of America are with you.

—Vicki, Savannah, GA

My grandparents came to this country to avoid police brutality and abuse. I have relatives that became police officers. We need police protection without having the fear of police. Lets keep our priorities in order. Only arrest suspected criminals.

—Harold, Langhorne, PA

I wholeheartedly support what you're doing. America needs more journalists like you, and may G-d bless you all.

—Steven, Blacksburg, VA

A free press is one of the beacons and the preserver of our democracy. We will be very poor indeed if we lose freedom's voice.

—Nancy, Ashland, OR

Stop the erosion of our rights!

—Steve, Madison, WI

We salute your work and wish you well.

—Lawrence, Mission Viejo, CA

I think it's time that all legitimate journalists coordinated efforts to remind the people of the United States that our Constitution guarantees us Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Worship. In addition, we were told this Country guarantees its citizens additional freedoms; i.e. Freedom from Want and Freedom from Fear. All four of these "freedoms" are being trampled upon in police actions day after day as they attack peaceful congregates protesting the economic inequities of our society. Get with it journalists and talk, write and video event after event to bring the police transgressions before lawmakers and people across the country. Bloggers and their readers forward these scenes, but it's not the same as bringing them into people's kitchens night after night. I know you're constrained by right wing media ownership, but you can do it through other channels. Liberals are with you, but you have to be aggressive in getting the message out about what is happening to you. We are behind you, but don't how to keep this message in the forefront when a "blackout" is ordered by media ownership.

—Harriett, Bend, OR

Please know how much I respect and admire your work and your courage. My thoughts are with you, and I'll do what I can for you.

—Gayle, Albuquerque, NM

The truth shall set you free!

—David, Sauk Rapids, MN

STOP terrorizing American Citizens

—Carleen, Kansas, MO

Journalists attempting to expose the truth about our political leaders are the true freedom fighters.

—Richard, Rohnert Park, CA

You're not forgotten.

—Brian, Vernon Hills, IL

Stand strong. It is hard to imagine that a democratic president is helping to destroy our constitution, but that is what we are up against. We need to get big money out of politics.

—Susan, Olympia, WA

It is indicative of the militarization of the police and the attempt to suppress dissent that you were arrested. We will protest this injustice.

—Linda, Belmont, MA

Thank you for your courage in the face of the assault on free speech. It is heartening to know integrity still exists within the ranks of journalists.

—Mary, Winterport, ME

You are not alone!

—Tommaso, Las Vegas, NV

I know that you did nothing wrong and I stand with you.

—Dorinda, Portland, OR

Speaking as someone who has witnessed scores of arrests in Asheville, NC of people exercising their 1st Amendment right to peaceably assemble, I stand in solidarity with you all. All of our rights listed in the Bill of Rights are coming under assault by Federal, State and local governments. It is only when people begin to understand these facts that the people will begin to stand up in mass to defend our rights. The job of journalists in exposing these abuses are critical to preserving our freedoms. -Charlie Rawls

—Charles, Asheville, NC

Thank you for doing your job. I honor your courage to perform true journalism in the face of such opposition.

—Jeff, Washington, DC

When released write directly to the Justice Dept. and Pres. Obama. These arrested need to stop -- NOW !! I believe Amy Goodman went thru something similar --she should be contacted for help. Be strong.

—Rose, Seattle, WA

Thank you for showing the courage to illustrate the true situations that Occupy protestors are experiencing in the United States. It is both disturbing and inspiring; I am more motivated than ever to ensure that everyone First Amendment rights are exercised appropriately, to remind the powers that abuse their granted status, that they are watched and documented for judgement by the people.

—James, St. Charles, IL

We need truth provided by honest journalists. Stay firm.

—Nancy, Iowa City, IA

well, i may be a red, but i'll defend your right to do journalism... to the death!

—Chuck, Columbus, GA

My father was a newspaper reporter. I absolutely believe in freedom of the press. Without a free press we are all in danger of losing ALL of freedoms at the hands of those who rely on secrecy to manipulate and abuse the people.

As my brother once told me, "bugs crawl in the dark".

—Elizabeth, Minneapolis, MN

Thank you for covering these important events. I hope that justice will be in effect very soon, and that you will be free. Your rights have been violated all of us who treasure the rights guaranteed under the First Amendment are behind you. When they come for you, they come for all of us

—Hedi, San Francisco, CA

It seems the message of the occupiers is a threat to some powerful people. I don't think this is the best way to eliminate that message.

—Laura, Indio, CA

Stand firm

—Linda, Wilmington, IL

I don't know why you were arrested but it probably wasn't legal. Hang in there; you are not alone in efforts to show folks what is really going on in USA.

—Greg, Lincoln, NE

What you do [or TRY to do] is one of the most important efforts that need doing ! Without your reporting, how do we learn what is REALLY going on? [The MSM sure won't do it !]

—William, Shipman, VA

thank you for being so brave. we no longer live in a democracy and we are all going to have to stand up to these fascists to regain our 1st amendment rights along with everything else in america.

—Brian, Williston park, NY

ARE YOU KIDDING ??? It seems they operate at night, hoping to hide their brutality. Looks more like a repressive 3rd world country. Freedom of the press in America ?? Doesn't look like it.

—Julia, Corpus Christi, TX

Thanks for doing your jobs! We won't let you be held like criminals.

—Amelia, Bryan, TX

THanks for standing up for us citizens in always trying to get the truthful news to us.

—Blanche, Anchorage, AK

What are the charges against these journalists? Freedom of the press is sacrosanct in this society. Jefferson et al understood the value of a free press and therefore enshrined it in the 1st amendment. Where are those courageous men when we need them!!!

—Harry, Bellingham, WA

We must fight this proto-fascism or we'll all die from it. Now's our last chance!

—William, Fayetteville, AR

This is it!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Sandra, Hollywood, CA

I hope that it doesn't require a violent revolution to save our country and our rapidly vanishing freedoms. But, when the political system is owned by those who fear opposition from the people and who try to control them and remove their freedoms by any means. Violence may be the only option. I hope not!

—Lowell, Mariposa, CA

thank you!!

—Kris, Livermore, CA

Freedom of the press is an essential to the freedom of all of us. I am appalled at the number of arrests of journalists. Tragic for all of you and for the rest of us who value freedom.

—O'Neill, Port Townsend, WA

We have your back & will work to change this. Without a free press we're headed for a disaster.

—Barbara, Apache Junction, AZ

If this type of action continues I can only surmise that we are headed for a police state no different than what the world witnessed in Nazi Germany.

—Thomas, Lawton, OK

People are with you. Please hang in there! Freedom of speech is critical to our democracy.

—Jack, East Providence,, RI

Without Constitutional protection of journalists, corruption will be able to visit every avenue of our country and no one will ever know.

—Timothy, Walnut, CA

Outrageous. You cannot trample our 1st Amendment rights.

—Linda, Somers, CT

It seems that once again, just like in Revolutionary times, the 99% of Americans, are having to fight for our independence. Only now, we have the First Amendment which guarantees us the freedom of speech. Sadly, it seems this freedom is being slowly taken away from us. It's being done by the 1%, the wealthy, because they don't want the average citizen to realize what's really happening. A lot of this kind of stuff was done during the highly secretive Bush administration. Big money was the name of the game in that administration. Now, finally, some of the illegal and underhanded actions of Cheney, Rove, the Koch Brothers, and their cronies is being exposed, and they' don't like it! Now, they're trying to keep control of the media, suppressing the true facts, trying to once again keep the American public in the dark. Thank God for you brave journalists who are reporting the truth. Thank you for your sacrifices and having to bear the brunt of being falsely arrested by police ordered to do this by mayors, city officials who are controlled by the GOP right wing fanatics. Please know that your efforts are greatly appreciated and have not gone unnoticed and we WILL not allow this thing to continue! Sincerely, Donna Bergman
—Donna, Reedsburg, WI

You have the right to remain silent! I recommend it. There is no freedom of speech. Meaning you will pay a heavy price for your actions. But never forget you are not alone. You represent the 99% and in the end We shall overcome! Look within for strength. You are almighty!
—Timothy, Albuquerque, NM

We have your back!
—Thomas, Heathsville, VA

When the police start throwing around phrases like "assaulting an officer" and "resisting arrest" just so that they can get journalists away from controversial events, we are no longer in a democracy. We are in a police state. Where did the First Amendment go?
—Rebekkah, Maryville, TN

We're with you. This is what corrupt regimes do.
—Michelle, Germantown, MD

Thank you for your dedication in an effort to inform us. We need you.
—Randall, Hillsboro, OR

I am sorry you were arrested. Our country is in need of journalists who will continue to report on events even though arrest is possible. Do not give up, ever.
—Elizabeth, Locust, NJ

This is totally wrong! Respect the first amendment!
—Hubert, Palmdale, CA

What is happening to you, to our country, is truly outrageous. We are closer to a theocracy, a plutocracy, and fascism, than I could ever have imagined possible in my lifetime. What happened to separation of church and state? Habeas corpus? Advancing the cause of a free and just society? It's all under arrest, just as you are. Keep fighting. Please, keep fighting.
—Robin, San Jose, CA

Without an unfettered press, "we the people" cannot get the information we need. Without information, our democracy cannot survive. I sincerely thank you for trying to protect our democracy. It's a hard job that has, tragically, gotten much harder over the last few decades.
—Gary, Santa Rosa, CA

America is trying to teach Democracy to the Middle East but its actions against journalists are not much different - Actions speak louder than words!
—Hilda, North Tustin, CA

This is getting to look like China. Keep up the good work for all of us. Everybody must rise up we need to stop the abuses of the Government and their efforts to destroy our right to free speech, the right to assemble and the right to petition the Government for redress of grievances.

—Linda, Yulee, FL

Thanks for being my spokesperson. I Soon the United States will rival Syria for stifling free speech. Well, let's face it, it's gone. Cheers...keep the faith!

—Jacquelyn, Copley, OH

Stay strong and keep it up!

—James, Phila, PA

You are the front line of the First Amendment defense! Thank you!

—Jonathan, Chicopee, MA

It's sad to see the Bill of Rights continue to erode. Free speech is so vital, it's good to know courageous people such as yourselves are out there.

—Eugene, Thousand Oaks, CA

Come on guys, read the Constitution.

—Nan, Turlock, CA

If we haven't access to the real news we haven't a Democracy. No one peacefully protesting should ever be arrested no matter what. All these arrests MUST STOP NOW.

—Cheriel, Saratoga, CA

You are heroes. You resist tyranny by speaking truth to power. You have my respect for fighting the good fight.

—John, West Hills, CA

Your work in support of democracy is noted, appreciated, and necessary - thank you.

—Mark, Eugene, OR

Hang in there. You have millions of us on your side!!

—Susan, Wasilla, AK

We cannot support democracy and freedom of expression in repressive countries whose governments our government does not like and yet stifle dissent and freedom of expression in our own country in the name of economic or political security.

—Kerry, Portland, OR

We need to make the public aware of the actions of these police who seem to hate our freedoms and everything America is supposed to stand for.

—Karl, Blodgett, OR

Hang in there! Miscarriage of justice will get fixed.

—Dylan, Carrollton, TX

Thank you for all you do.

—Pearl, Berkeley, CA

For the 99%, I thank you. The 1% cannot win! Stay stong! Stay brave....

—Sue, Sheboygan falls, WI

The fourth estate is protected in the Constitution. These arrests must stop.

—Donnella, Gig Harbor, WA

Even is no news is good news, I want to know

—Freja, Hayward, CA

Without freedom of the press there is no democracy.

—Robert, Ukiah, CA

You are our bulwark against fascism in the US. We must NOT become a police state. Please educate citizens about the threats to our liberty and Constitution.

—Sallie, Charlottesville, VA

Thank you for bearing witness, the truth will prevail.

—Margie, Austin, TX

You have my sincerest sympathy and support.

—Susan, Los osos, CA

You folks are the canaries in the coal mine, encouraging the rest of us to try to make enough noise to get the attention of the government. If we let you go down quietly, eventually we all go down.

—Michael, Providence, RI

Well, I guess it was my bad as well as yours that I mistakenly believed we had "freedom" of the press (speech, assembly, etc.) in this country. Oops! I guess all the wars and deaths really were for nothing. "Freedom isn't free" says the bumper sticker. Apparently oppression isn't free, either. Hang in there and keep fighting the good fight!

—Lynn, Fort Collins, CO

Speak Truth to Power.

—Aravinda, Bel Air, MD

Stay strong and be objective so we all know what's happening in our world.

—Sharon, Milwaukie, OR

Please keep the faith. We appreciate your efforts more than you can imagine.

—Michael, Brookline, MA

Journalists are arrested as a tactic of intimidation. Silence the press, suppress the truth and compliant, complacent US citizenry will believe whatever lies the corporate media choose to tell. This is no time to be silent, reticent or complacent! SPEAK UP ON BEHALF OF A FREE AND UNFETTERED PRESS!!!

—Patrick, Medford, OR

thank you for your effort to inform us. it is unacceptable that you were arrested.

—Kristin, Port Townsend, WA

Have I missed something? When did this country adopt the methods of the KGB of the former USSR?

—Richard, Palo Alto, CA

Thank you for reporting real news!

—Lisa, Seattle, WA

Courage!

—Nancy, Hammond, IN

This is what republicans mean when they lie about freedom. They just lie to steal votes. They have put the whole world in a big mess. They must be voted out.

—Roger, Shawnee, OK

We're with you.

—George, Grand Rapids, MI

FREEDOOM of the PRESS

—Donald, Kalamazoo, MI

Thank you for your courage to cover on the ground in a country that has fallen to 47th worldwide in rights of coverage guaranteed to journalists. Thank you for being a journalist and keeping us all informed on the important news of our times.

—Sonia, Aurora, CO

That was a very brave thing to do - and we all appreciate what you are doing. You have credentials and you have the right to ask an officer's name. I hope all is well for you now and you survived the night in jail.

—Cheri, Pompano beach, FL

All of your colleagues around the world are supporting you.

—Andrea, Brookline, MA

Hang in there and keep up the good work.

—Leland, Clearwater, FL

Thank you for your perseverance. The transgressions of our personal freedoms needs to be seen for people to realize how their rights are being taken away without a fight. Thank you.

—Allen, Lancaster, PA

Stand tall and do the right thing.

—Christine, Cabin Creek, WV

Stand strong. You are not forgotten, nor will such actions be allowed to be swept under the rug..

—Jill, VADER, WA

Its the truth that the truth makes them so uptight, Stand!

—James, Cromwell, CT

Our hypocrisy re: freedom of the press is an international badge of shame and detriment to our diplomatic and foreign policy aims. This has got to stop.

—Chris, Ridgewood, NY

It's very difficult for me to see how the powers that be can justify arresting these journalists and protesters. What has our nation become?

—Donna, Austin, TX

Where is this taking place? Syria, Iran???

—Sybil, Farmington, NM

Hang in there. I hear that democracy is coming to the USA

—David, Pelham, MA

I am glad we are being made aware of this issue and I stand with you. I applaud your courage.

—Rachel, Beacon, NY

Police working for the Repubs. Keep all media associated with the 99% away from the Repubs. Why dont they arrest people who protest where our President gives speeches. The police work for the Repubs.

—Teresa, Grove City, OH

Linda Jones

—Linda, Tanner, WV

Thanks for your courage on the line, tracking, reporting and filming the increasingly preposterous assaults on freedom.

—Katherine, Rochester, NY

Free journalists. To incarcerate them is an outrage!

—Claire, Athens, GA

We stand with you. Keep on reporting the truth.

—Elaine, Hampton, VA

The freedom of citizens, to gather and distribute information, is the foundation of an effective representative democratic republic. Without this, lies replace truth. Those who lie, distort or suppress the reporting of truth, hate democracy.

—Maris, Columbus, OH

We appreciate all you do! Keep up the good work-please. Without you, how would we know?

—Monica, Roanoke, VA

Thank you for your work

—Richard, Colbert, GA

The story is about whois behind the violation of our civils rights, there is no more important an issue. Expose THEM!

—John, Clinton Township, MI

I fully support journalists with guts to show that free speech and an open press are still supposed to be American rights! Thank you for what you do.

—Ira, El Prado, NM

Vern Heck

—Vern, Guttenberg, IA

The arrests of journalists is against our US Constitutions First Amendment. There must be an end to the trampling on our freedoms.

—Doris, Hyde Park, NY

I'm on your side.

—Mara, Worcester, MA

This is not just outrageous, it's embarrassing. What does it mean to be American anymore?

—Evelyn, Midway, KY

WE TOTALLY SUPPORT YOU. DO NOT WORRY. HISTORY AND THE 99% ARE ON YOUR SIDE.

—Sunny, Staten Island, NY

I am sorry that you were a victim of this organized thuggery.

—Brian, Porter Corners, NY

Please do not be discouraged. We NEED you so desperately. With out REAL journalists there is NO Democracy. We unwaveringly value all that you do. Thank you.

—Yvonne, ITHACA, NY

Thank you for helping bring the truth to the American people

—Mary, Kirkwood, MO

Journalists, good journalists, look corruption in the eye and do not blink when it threatens them. Those detained are shining examples of folks who will not back down and will not cater to those willing to distort and manipulate the truth to selfish and destructive ends. These people should not be detained for doing their job. If George W. Bush is still allowed to roam the countryside with no consequences for his actions as a War Criminal, how can the government possibly arrest these absolutely harmless people? They are not a threat. Hindering our Freedom of Speech is a threat to everything we as Americans hold dear. Let Our People Go.

—Ryan, Cincinnati, OH

God bless....stay strong!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Nancy, Lewes, DE

Thank you for standing up for democracy. If freedom of the press no longer exists, america's experiment has failed and the world will no longer have a beacon if hope.

—Theodore, Sherman, CT

Please keep up the good work, everyone is counting on you!

—Adam, Phoenix, AZ

Thank you for sacrificing your personal safety to help us all witness true events. I join many others in supporting you.

—Susan, Pittsboro, NC, NC

News reporting should not be the slave of big business, not if a democracy is to work, anyway. There is all too little real news that is available to us. Instead, we are supposed to settle for commentary posing as news, made up information, and libelous media attacks spearheaded by Fox News. Don't give up and don't for a minute think that you are out there alone with no one paying attention.

—Julian, Tijeras, NM

you did the right thing!

—Anneke, Raamsdonksveer, MI

This is the USA & not some foreign dictatorship? What's happening? Wasn't Obama elected to be on the side of freedom?

—Herbert, Washingtonville, NY

It does not appear that this journalist did anything wrong to be arrested; Our police force at times seems unreasonable and over zealous. We are all americans with civil rights, we are not terrorists!

—Pamela, Durham, CT

Thank you SO MUCH for your contribution to the 3V0lution of this r3V0lution. We must be patient, yet diligent & vigilant in our pursuit of Freedom, Truth, Peace & Justice. It didn't get this way overnight, & it won't be fixed overnight; but eventually, thanx to People like you, we WILL reach a critical mass that will enable We the People to FINALLY, TRULY manifest the world of Freedom we so desire! STAY STRONG & KEEP LOVE IN YOUR HEART!!! WITH LOVE & TRUTH, NOTHING CAN STOP US... IT'S ONLY A MATTER OF TIME IF WE KEEP UP THE PACE OF THIS PEACEFUL R3V0UTION! ...TO THE DAY WE PROSECUTE THESE GUILTY CONSPIRATORS- & ALL THEIR WILLING PUPPETS- FOR THEIR CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY; MAY THE GREAT SPIRIT OF CREATION BLESS YOU WITH THE STRENGTH, DETERMINATION & TOOLS TO EFFECTIVELY FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT*!#!*

—Brian, Daphne, AL

With big money controlling our government and both major political parties, we are becoming a fascist country. Journalists like you are one of the last remaining bastions of defense for our crumbling democracy.

—Frank, Coral Gables, FL

I believe in the First Amendment and the Four Estate. Thank you for your service to humanity.

—Susan, Portland, OR

I support this effort. Marcia McConnell

—Marcia, Hazel Crest, IL

Another example of how the United States is moving toward a fascist-style society in which the government, in the name of security, disposes of civil liberties and civil rights.

—Paul, Harvard, IL

I am outraged by the increasing tendency of law officers and elected and appointed officials to flout the Constitution. They swore to protect it, and they are forsworn! Usurped powers are illegitimate powers.

—Katharine, Baltimore, MD

As a journalist who is in support of the 1st Amendment -- Free Speech and the law of the land -- this is appalling to arrest journalists doing their job at Occupy Wall Street events. What is being done to educate police forces about American law in this regard?

—Betty, Houston, TX

Arresting journalists only make government look oppressive, and ends up costing the government money for legal costs. It is wrong and it is a waste.

—Paul, Long Island City, NY

hang in there

—Karrie, Parma, OH

Note the numbers of the badges and have the judge call in the person and stand next to you so can stand next to the officer and ask what should this officer at his size fear from you. The entire system needs exposing the pen is truly mightier than the sword.

—Mary, Morgantown, WV

I love my Country and want our Rights protected. Why can Talking Heads on FOX say whatever they want to spin public opinion, yet live coverage of an actual event that let's people decide for themselves by being informed, is now being prohibited. Thank you for standing up for your Country.

—Kitty, CO Springs, CO

Cops defending corporate interests not the citizens, it should be embarrassing but the power hungry are making their move!!

—Tracy, Milwaukee, WI

I am with you all the way.

—Fred, Andover, NJ

Thank you for your courage in continuing to try to keep the public informed in the face of such great personal risk.

—Suzanne, Santa Clara, CA

Thank you for your honesty and courage!

—Carol, E. Dummerston, VT

Thank you for your courage, we are with you!

—Rebecca, Ashland, OR

There is nothing immoral about obtaining the facts or speaking freely about new ideas, how else can we achieve progress?

—Brandon, Kansas City, MO

Thank you for putting yourselves on the line to bring us the truth.

—Teri, Alsea, OR

Our first amendment freedom of speech is a law and must be obeyed. The police need to be brought to law.

—Bruce, Port Townsend, WA

Your first amendment rights have been violated. America is supposed to be a free country?

—Charlene, Prairie Grove, AR

thank you sooo much for standing up for our freedom of speech !!!!!

—Betty, Nevada City, CA

Thank you for standing up for our First Amendment rights.

—Gary, Hamburg, PA

The Constitution is being decimated by the conservatives who were voted into power in the last election. Hopefully, people have learned their lessons. I stand with you completely. If you lose your freedom of speech right, so does every person in this country.

—Maureen, Allentown, PA

Thank you for being a journalist who provides real news: for the people & by the people.

—Casey, Burlington, VT

The whole world is watching and we will not abandon you! Stay strong, Stay Human.

—Carol, San Francisco, CA really? really?!?!?

—Denise, Quincy, MA

Thank You from me, and Thank You from my children.

—Christine, St Paul, MN

I appreciate your efforts to keep me informed.

—Dorothy, San Antonio, TX

What is happening to our rights as citizens in this country is terrifying, and the rampant disregard of the First Amendment is the most frightening of all. Thank you for the work you do to let the world know what is happening. We stand with you!

—Thea, Anacortes, WA

It is unconscionable that credentialed journalists are being prevented from doing their jobs, assault is a bogus charge and used to cover any and all actions police decide are not in their best interest. Stop attacking the first amendment...the public needs to know what is going on in our country. This is nothing more than politically driven police brutality.

—Jan, Mt. Pleasant, MI

Thank you for your courage.

—Alan, Manchester, CT

This is not just about journalists, but also civilian right and the use of police forces to harass and threaten regular people in defense of the egregious corporate takeover of our government. The corporations need to stop using the police as your guard dogs – they should be protecting our freedoms.

—Filip, New York, NY

AND WE HAVE ALWAYS BEEN TOLD THAT IT IS THE OTHER COUNTRIES WHO HAVE NO FREEDOM OF SPEECH! WHERE ARE WE GOING AS A COUNTRY WITHOUT THE CONSTITUTION?? TO HELL IS WHERE!

—Mary, Palm Desert, CA

Sincerely Judith Boutwell

—Judy, Greenwood Lake, NY

Keep up the struggle.

—Laurence, Highland Park, NJ

Thank you for your courage. The police are acting like hired thugs.

—Mary, Kernersville, NC

It is not easy being martyr but the whole of humanity benefits from their sufferings

—Clifford, SAINT LOUIS, MO

Dear woman, I share your grief that your arrest could possibly happen in the USA but it did. The rights of the many have been stolen by the few yet the many are calling out. Please continue your brave work for freedom. I am sure that many, like me, are literally crying after witnessing your arrest. I have compassion for your husband as well. Thank you for representing me and all Americans and the constitution by being a reporter of truth for democracy. Please hold steady in your reporting. My prayers are with you.

—Sharilyn, Eureka Springs, AR

If you are a member of any police dept. in this country, hear our message: journalists are NOT criminals!

—Joseph, Portsmouth, NH

Americans who demand a free press are fully supporting you!

—Rand, Utica, NY

I am horrified at the treatment you received. It is a sad and shameful day when journalistic integrity means nothing. Thanks for all that you do to keep the public informed even at your own peril.

—Donald, Wilton Manors, FL

Together we stand!

—Richard, Saratoga, CA

Detaining journalists is unconscionable!

—Ethel, Scottsdale, AZ

Soon, we the people will arrest the police.

—Andy, WEST PALM BEACH, FL

This is shocking! keep up the fight! The Republicans and Tea Party are trying to bomb us back several hundred years. So disgusting that people go along with them like sheep.

—Mahlon, Ames, IA

Repression takes many forms. This one is a classic tool of the ruling class to silence dissent. But the working class will not be silenced!

—Mark, Seattle, WA

you are loved for your courage to tell us the truth...keep the lights on!

—Romily, New York, NY

Thank you. We need you. I am so sorry they treated you this way. We in occupy will stand behind you.

—Connie, Key West, FL

HANG IN THERE: ?The wrong shall fail, the right prevail

—Dan, Fairview Park, OH

God bless you. Thank you so much for your bravery. I'm 78 but would like to sign a nationwide petition on their behalf. (I read in the GAP that Bradley Manning has been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. I hope he and the eight of you are decorated in this way some day.

—Frances, Waltham, MA

I applaud your efforts to expose what American's have taken for granted, the Freedom of the Press and the attack by government authorities to thwart these constitutional privileges.

—Patrick, Schaumburg, IL

You are our only hope to get the truth out to the world. #occupydenver

—Linda, Denver, CO

We need criminal punishment for those who violate the Constitutional rights of journalists.

—Lewis, Putney, VT

To those journalists who are arrested covering protest in America: You are in transition from covering the stories to being part of them. Your being arrested while doing your job probably does more toward waking up America than the individual story you would have written the next day. Thank you for your sacrifice. Too many journalists are still writing from the less consequential safety of Starbucks.

—Gary, Bellingham, WA

November is coming!

—Anne, New Glarus, WI

The land of the free?

—Donivan, Livonia, NY

Thank you for doing your jobs right! The 1st Amendment protects all of us by protecting you. Our government need to stop ignoring the Constitution of the United States. Keep up the good work. I, along with millions of other American patriots admire and respect you!

—Lynn, Bryan, OH

God, Bless you for bringing the real news to the people and protecting our rights. Patricia Martini

—Patricia, Fort Collins, CO

Hang in there. All freedom-loving people support your efforts.

—Michael, Conshohocken, PA

Your courage inspires us all.

—Karen, Durham, NH

Natural democracy is the side actually winning the war for world domination.

—David, Missoula, MT

Never quit!

—Merle, Wimberley, TX

Thank you for your dedication to reporting what we need to know.

—Vallee, Erie, CO

Thank you for the work you do as a journalist. Please know that it does not go unnoticed by many, including myself.

—Robin, Berkeley, CA

How dare they; and thank you for your bravery and outspokenness. We are not forgetting you.

—Paula, New York, NY

These pigs remind me of the brownshirts in Nazi Germany. We won't take much more of this behavior, don't mess with us.

—Tyrone, New York, NY

Band together. If you're present when a fellow journalist is arrested, follow suit and go with him to jail, head held high. Non-journalists on scene should do the same. News is harder to bury when 10, 20, or more are arrested. I was a trained journalist in my 40s when the '60s protests were in full swing, but I joined them. Thomas Paine was 40 in 1771, but he joined them. Where's your sense of responsibility?

—Carole, Anderson, IN

This is just totally NOT right! Why are our police departments so militarized all of a sudden. It certainly shows the world that we are no better than a lot of their own countries that we complain about so vehemently! This should make us all ashamed!!!

—Sue, Elmira, NY

Hang in there heroes. You are all of us who still believe that freedom of expression is essential to all civic freedoms. Thanks.

—Filiberto, Denver, CO

When we arrest the ones reporting the news we only get the news the government allows us to get. Freedom of Speech??

—Geoffrey, Bend, OR

Keep the faith. The pendulum shall swing back.

—Hugh, Portland, OR

I am in disbelief of this abrogation of one of our most basic freedoms, that of the press to report the truth. This cannot go on. Journalists on all fronts must publicize this injustice. We all wonder why we're not hearing more about the Occupy movement? Journalists are on the front lines and must either report (1) the drama itself; or (2) the 3rd World suppression of this drama. There IS no in-between. If not, the US and everything we were taught that it stands for is a travesty.

—S, Columbus, OH

thank you for helping us all stay informed. saying a prayer for you.

—Ian, Alpha, NJ

Effective democracy depends on a free press.

—Robert, Austin, TX

This is Fascism plain and clear!!!!

—Carol, Ojai, CA

It seems that the Washington D.C. police haven't been adequately trained in the constitutional rights of citizens and journalists. Perhaps a class action civil rights lawsuit is in order.

—Albert, Miami, FL

When journalists are arrested for covering protests, it appears that our democracy is becoming a police state. Thank you for your dangerous and heroic work.

—Priscilla, Blodgett, OR

I admire your courage in continuing to document the truth when tyranny still continues to oppress it, you should be released at once!

—James, Oxnard, CA

We pray for you and for freedom of press.

—Sister, San Antonio, TX

Lee Mitchell

—Lee, Kensington, CA

Good luck battling the NEW WORLD ORDER!!! I am standing with you. I am part of the 99%. I appreciate folks like you fighting for our freedoms. Thank-you.

—Dave, Fenton, MI

Stand Strong, Freedom Writers! We cannot make it without a totally free press!

—John, Glasgow, KY

The behavior of police towards journalists and toward protestors in general has been appalling. Their behavior of a total disregard for journalists rights and the rights of all as guaranteed by the First Amendment has to be stopped. Please support the First Amendment and stop the assault on journalists and peaceful protestors.

—Janet, Eastpointe, MI

It is a shame on this nation & it's people that your life & livelihood must be put at risk by just by practicing the First Amendment & serving the citizens of this country. Hope for your safe & speedy release as well as a more just America where journalism & our rights can be restored. Thank you for your work.

—Roshni, Brooklyn, NY

Thank-you for your efforts to report on the true state of democracy in the U.S. and for the sacrifices your reporting has caused you to endure.

—Debra, Winona, MN

You guys are the real heroes of the nation... keep it up.

—Frank, Blacksburg, VA

The arrest of journalist in Washington is a shocking erosion of the First Amendment

—Gary, North Hollywood, CA

Thank you for your courage.

—Margi, Philadelphia, PA

Good for You! You should not be told what to say to or about anyone.

—Bradleigh, Glendale, CA

The greedy spoiled masses in this county have proven over and over again that they will NOT rise up and challenge authority. Only a small percentage, like myself, will lend their name and their voice to protest the abuses of power. By the time and effective percentage takes a hard stand for freedom, there won't be a constitution to defend.

—David, Rio Rancho, NM

Stand true - we are behind you!

—Rosalie, Norwich, NY

We need you to keep on keeping on. Our First Amendment rights have been taken away all over the states. Thank you so much for the reporting that you do.

—Rita, New York, NY

Thank you for your courage in the face of ignorance and brutality. Freedom of speech is journalism, not corporate electioneering.

—Seth, Marietta, GA

What kind of police state are we living in?

—Suzanne, West Melbourne, FL

Stay strong, keep heart, things are far from over.

—Jonathan, Glendale, CA

We need more investigative journalism not less and certainly not news broadcasts polluted by interference from people like Rupert Murdoch. Americans want the truth and support the people who report it. This is American, right? And the the old USSR?

—Annette, West Haven, CT

This interference with the press's rights is unconstitutional and must stop.

—Dale, Lyons, GA

I feel I'm preaching to the choir. These petitions should be sent to the governing bodies that can do something about this.

—Diane, Richardson, TX

Please have patience. We Democrats are working hard for Free Press.

—Leda, West Yellowstone, MT

Thankyou SO MUCH for what you are doing. You glorious people are on the right side of history

—Regina, Selma, CA

This country started out of protests such as you are covering. What is the police's problem? Or is this all your mayor's problem? Keep up your good work. WE DO NEED TO KNOW.

—Ann, Riverside, CA

If this were the Third Reich or Stalin's USSR, this would be normal, but the USA? Come on!

—Dorothy, Hollywood, CA

Sounds like a market for wireless video & audio synching to multiple recording devices is developing. I hope there is good training for proper non-violent assertion of ones rights as one is being arrested. This is certainly not easy, and you have my sincere respect for the role you play as reporters asserting the collective rights of common citizens to witness public events and discourse.

—Brian, Saint Paul, MN

Thank you for your courage in trying to deliver the news to us, even in the chaos of being arrested for your efforts to protect our freedom of speech!

—Rhoda, Long Island City, NY

Your commitment to basic values puts you on the front line, and we support you all the way.

—Nancy, Gulfport, MS

We love you!

—Rosalind, Huntsville, AL

Take strength in the knowledge that you're joining, and therefore honoring, many who have stood against the enemies of freedom. I proudly join the many who salute you.

—Kevin, Tell City, IN

Thanks for covering the Occupy Movement.

—Beatrice, Dayton, OH

with so few journalists and reporters willing to cover issues that matter to us - thank you for being part of the few that care enough, and know that we owe you our gratitude for not standing down - even when faced with arrest.

—Aydin, Riverside, CA

Arresting and silencing the press signifies a fearful, desperate national leadership. The system is broken. Our job is to help get rid of it and re-build a new more humane one that meets everyone's minimum needs. To me that means socialism, something that's not driven by profits.

—Chris, Seattle, WA

Keep fighting the good fight. Thank you for what you do.

—Earl, Terre Haute, IN

Thank you for telling the truth and standing up for our right ot know!

—Lois, Port Angeles, WA

Man. You guys. Keep fighting the good fight. Good luck, man.

—Lydia, Ann Arbor, MI

Dear Policemen, You are a part of the 99% and "they" will go after your wages and benefits and freedoms someday. You do realize this don't you?

—Herbert, Beardstown, IL

I really wish the police who arrest these journalists would realize that the journalists are on their side. Our freedoms apply to the police also.

—Peter, Ft. Lauderdale, FL

I count on journalists being in the scene when they can so they can appropriately com ment on watever activity and to film it!

—Ruth, PORTLAND, OR

We're fighting for you.

—Luther, Whiteville, NC

Theodora H. Cole

—Theodora, Goldendale, WA

Thank you for putting yourself on the line!

—Kathryn, Alameda, CA

Thank you for not caving in to fear. You are appreciated.

—Dean, Collinsville, IL

Stay strong!

—Chris, Marquette Heights, IL

Stand Strong for what you BELIEVE IS GOOD and RIGHT!

—Brad, Waynesville, NC

I taught American History for years. I'm shocked at this development; I never thought it would happen here.

—Mary, Albuquerque, NM

As a child, we are taught to look up to people like police officers. We are taught to have heroes that are people like police officers. But you know who I look up to? Who my hero is. Every single journalist that sacrifices him and herself every day, and risks persecution, so that they may share with the world the truth, and defend our right to know. Thank you.

—Kyle, London, OH

Censored news is the bane of a free society. Your work is paramount in protecting our freedoms. Please keep up the good work and take solace knowing that people like me stand behind you!

—Ben, Wylie, TX

Thank you for standing with us in Oakland. The definition of a great journalist, willing to follow the story all the way to jail. Without you present, the beatings would have happened much worse.

—Ian, Oakland, CA

Please don't give up, we are with you.

—John, Streamwood, IL

Stay strong and thank you for honorably doing your duty as journalists. We are with you.

—Sarah, West Grove, PA

yeah, there's freedom of speech... as long as you don't say too much. thank you for covering these protests.

—Jeff, Sacramento, CA

Thank you for being brave enough to report when you probably already knew beforehand you could get hurt doing your job. Thanks for being a reporter.

—Clara, Somis, CA

Thanks for taking the risks you have to help keep us informed.

—BenRifkah, Seattle, WA

We have become what we have fought against

—Diane, Monroe, WA

Thank you for exposing the truth. We stand by you and will continue to fight for our First Amendment rights.

—Ginny, Oviedo, FL

Keep fighting for the truth. We need you.

—Karen, Wasilla, AK

You are not alone. We see what is happening to you and we know what it means. You are heroes. Thank you for trying to find out the truth on our behalf.

—Rebecca, Camarillo, CA

have faith- we are with you..

—Carole, Kaneohe, HI

thank you for bringing us the truth.

—Mary, Independence, OR

I am a journalist who has worked in war zones in dictatorships, where journalists have been mistreated. The USA sends up an outcry when this happens elsewhere. It is an abomination that it is happening here. You must make loud, unceasing, principled noise on this issue, via every medium possible, to get these journalists released, have any charges thrown out, and put a halt to this kind of treatment by a collusionist corporate state. The fourth estate has an obligation and an important place -- perhaps the preeminent place -- in a civilized society. If indeed we are such.

—Maura, Spencer, NY

Many blessings to all the activist who represent Americans. Thanks for you involmnet. May you be safe from harm .

—Adene, Weed, CA

Thank you for protecting our freedom of speech. I support your work.

—Janice, Albuquerque, NM

keep up the good fight, freedom is always under attack by the powers to be, because truth is a threat to that power that is built on lies and deception

—Thomas, Ellsworth, ME

Police are to serve and protect and not to abuse. I thank you for your bravery and courage. One day these polices will need the help of the people and will see when that time comes.

—Nazir, Prairieville, LA

I hope the New World Police order is held accountable for manipulating the truth and rights!!

—Justin, Vail, CO

Hope this never happens again . America , I'm convinced , is now a total police state !

—Leon, Sedalia, MO

Thank you for your courage and dedication. Please keep up the good work!

—Merideth, Shoreline, WA

Hang in there!

—Vicky, Fairfield, OH

I'm glad to know there are still some journalists left, and not just stenographers. Thanks for what you do.

—Dorothy, Lake Tapps, WA

Freedom of the press must be restored and protected. Do not stop telling the truth.

—Fred, Brooklyn, NY

Please continue to tell us the truth.

—Teddi, Corona, CA

I don't think we know how often journalist are harrassed and arrested in the US. General media does not cover it.

—Linda, Mt Pleasant, MI

Thanks for your courage. Unbelievable that this is what America has come to.

—Susan, Grass Valley, CA

We acknowledge and value your courage to stand up for what is right!

—Arlene, Chicago, IL

WITHOUT A FREE PRESS, THERE IS NO DEMOCRACY

—Elizabeth, North Hollywood, CA

I keep telling myself this is the USA but it is feeling more and more like the USSR. This is not the right step to be going in, this is not the freedom of the press we should have. Our police are too heavy handed, this whole Country lost itself in 2001. What a shame. I'm glad I have more years behind me than in front of me, my WWII Father would be in total shocked to see this today.

—Sheryl, DeLand, FL

I appreciate your commitment to truth and spreading news and information, and I'll be committed to setting you and ourselves free. Thank you!

—Brenda, El Paso, TX

The truth is like water in a cracked vessel...it will always find it's way out.

—Gloria, Santa Rosa, CA

Journallism is free speech, what?

—Ronni, Randolph, VT

this is unAmerican!

—Randy, Wellington, FL

Thanks for your work in support of truth and openness. Stand firm, have courage, know that the hearts of real American patriots are with you. Arnie Roos Minneapolis, MN

—Arnie, Minneapolis, MN

We need them to document events and not from a jail cell.

—Marge, El paso, TX

You are the first line of defense against the disappearance of our Republic. We love you.

—Caryl, Mena, AR

Thank you for supporting ALL our First Amendment rights.

—Laura, Berea, KY

There is a reason, that the first amendment on the bill of rights regards freedom of speech and the press. Nothing is more vital to the freedom of people the world over than free speech and a free press. We all stand with you in your battle.

—Sterling, Baton Rouge, LA

Thank you for your bravery and commitment.. it is invaluable to humanity
—Gregory, Jamaica Plain, MA

I stand with you in my heart. If you fall, we all fall. Thank you for protecting our freedoms, our liberty, our rightsall under seige. I salute you.
—Jill, Sacramento, CA

katie bell
—Katie, Santa fe, NM

it's just wrong to arrest journalist. but keep doing what you are doing and don't let it stop you covering events.
smacks of cold war russia and other totalitarian governments.
—Paul, Saint Louis, MO

Thank you for standing up for the First Amendment and the people's right to know. I strongly support your efforts.
We the people cannot stand by passively and watch the attack on our civil liberties.
—Fran, Portland, OR

Keep the faith !
—Al, Chicago, IL

Thank you
—Christopher, Monrovia, CA

Thank you
—Chris, Monrovia, CA

Journalists report & write facts. Without reported facts, there cannot be a history. We need to support journalism so future generations can enjoy true history.
—Joseph, Salinas, CA

Is this democracy? Or the beginning of another Nazi state?
—David, SAN BERNARDINO, CA

Your job may be difficult, but you play an important role in ensuring our freedoms. Please -- don't be discouraged, and keep working to provide objective coverage where it is needed.
—Andrew, Fort Atkinson, WI

Thanks for your good work... Please continue to fight the good fight to bring the news to the people. David Crocker
—David, Santa Fe, NM

While your situations and circumstances are disparate, such a response by our nation's police forces needs to be examined and monitored. Stand strong in recording the events as they happen for everyone!
—Samuel, Austin, TX

Thank you for your courage. Thank you for being the kind of press our founders knew was crucial to a free society. Sorry the frightened and illegal attacks of our corrupt government fall so hard on you. As more and more Americans stand up to retake our country for all of us, you will be freed and vindicated.
—Frank, Davis, CA

You are on the front line of actions that set our nation on the same level as the Chinese and Russian governments where having a dissenting opinion is a crime. Stick to your guns. The nation needs to see this.

—Bill, Cupertino, CA

We are 100% behind you

—Joan, NEW YORK, NY

Stand strong! We support you.

—Patricia, Duluth, GA

SHAME ON AMERICA! I stand with you.

—Billi, WEST SACRAMENTO, CA

I've lived and worked in ten other countries and when I returned to the U.S. it has always been freedom of the press that really makes me feel at home. If that freedom is intentionally eroded this country will decline rapidly and be nothing more than a large third world country and may continue to decline to a dictatorship.

—David, Jacksonville, FL

You do GREAT work!!

—Maureen, Portland, OR

We all deserve freedom of speech and the freedom of the press. That's why I'm signing the petition.

—Heyandy889, City, MI

Keep fighting for what is right.

—Jeffrey, Burbank, CA

Thank you all for helping to fight against the police state that America is becoming.

—Mick, Santa Maria, CA

Thank you for your courage! We, the people need you to keep us safe by reporting on the activities of a govt that increasingly violates citizen's constitutional rights. U r the Last bulwark against a total corporate-fascist police state.

—Leilani, Brooklyn, NY

I'm behind free speech, and you are right to practice freedom of the press. I'm behind you.

—Jess, Cabot, AR

I am an 81 year old retired sheep farmer who still keeps her chickens and gardens. I am so glad for Occupy---one of the few tings that make me hopeful!

—Ruth, Montgomery, MN

Thank you for standing up for us. Good luck.

—Elizabeth, Ossining, NY

Thank you for holding our leaders accountable and allowing us our awareness of their activities.

—James, Conewango Valley, NY

STAY STRONG!!

—Eric, Amboy, IL

Thank you for daring to face arrest and keep the rest of us informed about what is really happening at these gatherings.

—Judith, Arcata, CA

Thank you for continuing to fight oppression here in "the land of the free." Too many of our constitutional rights are being ignored and/or legislated away to "keep us safe." I am not willing to lose freedom of the press, too.

—LJ, Mount Holly, NC

Please continue to fight for the basic freedoms our Founding Fathers set down over two centuries ago.

—Joe, Austin, TX

We stand with you!

—Suzy, Auburn, CA

Please maintain your courage. We need you.

—Daniel, Iowa City, IA

Thank you for all that you do.

—Lauren, Long Beach, CA

I am outraged and frustrated that this type of suppression goes on in my own country, and even in our capital. I hope the story balloons with more press attention, and serves to wake up the citizenry. Thanks for what you do!

—Lorrayne, Lutherville, MD

What is happening in the United States? Are we now to be compared with dictatorships and oligarchies where citizens have no rights? The heavy-handed denial of constitutional rights to citizens must be dealt a blow and that blow must come from the judiciary. For the judiciary to merely free the wronged individual without finding fault in law against the (supposed) upholder of the law is to fail in the constitutional mandate for the tripartite system of control over other branches of government. Fear of Anarchy does not justify depriving a journalist or a protester of her Constitutional rights. Journalists must write--prodding the judiciary who have failed in their constitutional duty to uphold the rights of all persons. Thanks for your bravery as a member of "The Fourth Estate," or the fourth branch of our society.

—Michael, New York, NY

We actively support the journalists and those who march in order to protect all our rights under the first amendment. And, we thank you for keeping this troubling attack on our freedom in the forefront of the news.

—James, Carlsbad, CA

Take heart, dear friends! Help is on the way. They cannot silence all of us, and we will not stand for this violations of your constitutional rights.

—Robin, DELRAY BEACH, FL

this is wrong!!!

—Larry, Lexington, TX

You did nothing wrong.

—Karen, Lewiston, ME

When credentialed journalists are arrested we have no way of knowing what is really going on. This is disgraceful!!!!

—Johnelle, Great Falls, MT

You are the front line. Thank goodness for you.

—John and Karen, Egg Harbor, WI

Thank you for making journalism a respected profession once more.

—Kathy, Jamaica plain, MA

Thank you for protecting our freedoms

—Joseph, Dix Hills, NY

You are at the forefront of freedom. We cannot do without you.

—Joel, Marshfield, VT

Thanks

—Sebra, San Francisco, CA

You are not alone.. Thanks for fighting for our rights

—Darryl, Billings, MT

My thoughts and prayers are with you all, thanks for your courage and keep your spirits high. !

—Angelika, ,

You are not forgotten!

—Ben, My Hometown, IL

This country is becoming more and more like a communist dictatorship with journalists being arrested while reporting on Occupy gatherings. These arrests must stop and the people ordering the arrests should be prosecuted for illegal arrests and harassment. This is not the USSR. , but is becoming more and more like it. Are the authorities getting advice from Vladimir Putin?

—Michael, Fairfield, VT

Keep up the fight for what is right. I am proud of your work of keeping us informed. You will be in my prayers.

—Peggy, Great Falls, MT

The Media is Mightier Than War ® ORGANIZE and create a We The Peoples Network ~ form dynamic strategic alliances, creating trustworthy information channels that offer knowledge and intelligence from organized communities and unimpeachable open sources communicating awareness, purpose, principals and values, thus stimulating citizens' imagination, recognizing their Constitutional obligations and achievements within and among U.S. communities, and their active participation in defining our Nation's role in national politics and world affairs and who pays. Keep "telling it the way it is!" Don't let the 2% steal the country and silence the injustices. With Gratitude,

—Rosine, Madison, WI

How could we not speak out in your defense, when your work is American citizens' lifeline?

—Kathryn, Nashua, NH

Government should not be able to decide who is or is not a journalist. If we claim the title, we are one, even if we stand alone with only a cell-phone camera, tweeting events!

—Bruce, Portland, OR

I cannot imagine being arrested for reporting the realities around all true news
—Erika, Toledo, OR

Where is our Freedom to protest-have we turned into Germany?
—Nora, Boynton Beach, FL

Thank you for covering stories on the ground even when it means placing yourself at risk.
—Cynthia, Blanchardville, WI

We need your voices, regardless of your perspective. People need access to all perspectives so they can make the right decisions on election day. They've not revoked free speech yet, so let your voices be heard!
—Kathy, Saint Johns, FL

Hey I just wanted to show some support. I'm a 14 year old honors student aspiring to be a journalist. When I see people getting arrested or detained for attempting to report the truth it sickens me. Yet it also makes me work harder towards my goal, so that I can one day voice out against injustice. Thank you for attempting to report the truth, I'm sorry you were arrested for it, that's not what America is supposed to do.
—Amanda, Naples, FL

Thanks for your courage. It must be daunting to confront the armed might of the US for the sake of Democracy. Although you probably won't be sent to Siberia, your arrest is an attempt to silence other like you who think the First Amendment is reason enough to cover an important story. Whatever you decide to do in the future, thanks so much for putting the future of the country before your own personal safety and for making it possible for us to know what is going on in the Occupy movement. You are our real heroes.
—Carol, Boulder, CO

Thanks for taking a risky stand - which shouldn't be risky according to the Constitution - if our free press is ever compromised completely, our country is doomed to just be a front for big corporations, in my opinion.
—Caroline, Wilmington, NC

Thanks for your courage and persistence. Freedom cannot be taken for granted or it will cease to exist.
—Spring, Denver, CO

Stand strong for your freedom!
—Brian, Jonesboro, GA

What do we have to fear? Becoming like Syria, where information is shut down and shot down.
—Cathy, Gilbert, AZ

The attempt to keep transparency in our democracy is important. Keep up the work--we support your efforts.
—Judy, Austin, TX

This behavior by the police is outrageous.
—Simon, INDIAN HARBOUR BEACH, FL

I was a journalist and know the importance of the work!
—Shinann, Bend, OR

When journalists are arrested, everyone's freedom is at risk. I stand in defense of our First Amendment rights with the more than 50 journalists who have been detained in the United States. Thank you for your work.
—Take, Mountain View, CA

You are fighting the good fight and I stand with you!

—Rick, Costa Mesa, CA

Without freedom of the press, we have a sham democracy.

—David, Ranger, TX

thank you for standing up for american's personal freedoms

—Erin, Willowbrook, IL

Hang in there! Help is on the way!!

—Dina, Petaluma, CA

Note that the First Amendment is also for journalists as well with everyone with the right for free speech. Journalists have a right to cover any movement without being arrested.

—Greta, McPherson, KS

I would like to commend you for your courage. I think that the President and Congress need to hear about your arrests, because it is a national outrage. I think that we need new federal laws protecting journalists like you from arrests. I will support such laws. Sincerely, Howard Yale Lederman

—Howard, Berkley, MI

Thank you so much for everything you do. Please know that the American public - both left and right - can tell the difference between a real journalist and softball government supporters; and to the real journalists we owe our freedom and support. Strive on, you vital member of a free society - you.

—Vincent, Philadelphia, PA

I believe strongly in the First Amendment...you are on the front lines but you have support.

—Audrey, Brighton, CO

Whether or not your arrests were from reporting an Occupy event, as a member of Occupy Jacksonville, I stand firmly with you in supporting the freedom of the press to do on-site reporting of events that are of general interest to the public.

—Emily, Orange Park, FL

I stand with you for Freedom of Press, one of the most important pillars of a free society. I am sorry that you have been arrested for doing your job, and I hope as a country we can start making a turn around. Its beyond tragic and embarrassing that the US would fall so far in accountability.

—Catherine, San Francisco, CA

Thank you, thank you, thank you! You don't know how much your work is appreciated, but keep on protecting us.

—Donald, HARPSWELL, ME

Thank you for your work, you are valued and serving time for many mute citizens!

—Virginia, Gordonsville, VA

Thank you for being there front and center, and thank you for being brave enough to be arrested to uphold the sanctity of your job. We've got to get through these dark ages - keep strong to bring this suppression out in the open.

—Diane, Carnation, WA

We do stand together !
—Martin, LaHabra, CA

Speak truth to power, help empower fellow citizens to stand up to this takeover by the new fascisti. I may be too old to hit the streets, but my mouth is a powerful weapon.
—Taylor, Martinez, CA

We're here for you!
—Deborah, Gainesville, FL

You are the first responders for the defense of American rights and freedoms.
—Roger, Gulfport, MS

As a journalist in New England for more than 30 years, I am appalled that journalism is being criminalized. Democracy depends upon free speech, free thought and free expression -- the rights that are guaranteed by the First Amendment. I am proud to join this fight.
—Randolph, East Dummerston, VT

Keep fighting for the right to a free press.
—Gwen, Austin, TX

I'm not certain why a reporter would be arrested covering a news story. Reporting news in a professional manner is an important part of protecting our better way of life.
—Daniel, Kansas City, MO

Thank you
—Brian, Emeryville, CA

Hang in there; we're rooting for you.

—Ronelle, Hogansville, GA

Please accept my profound gratitude.
—Nancy, Clinton, MA

We have already been stripped of our Fourth Amendment rights by the NDAA, please at least leave us the First Amendment!
—Forest, St Petersburg, FL

Please do not let the forces of ignorance diminish your spirits. This country is the home of the free and the brave, but the brave do not always have to be in the military and carry weapons. Many people like you, those who fought in the civil rights movement and others are also part of the brave. Keep up the great work exposing those who prefer darkness.

—Rudy, Audubon, NJ

I feel for you! In these days when they want to pay you less/or nothing and get mad when you actually cover something newsworthy we need you now, more than ever!

—Michael, South Haven, MI

Thank you for your courage in trying to let the American people be aware of the Occupy Wallstreet movement.

Sincerely, Linda Marshall Greenville, SC

—Linda, Greenville, SC

It is hard to believe this is happening in the United States. A free press is a foundation and protection of democracy. Who is behind the attacks on our rights? Unless something is not made known here, I am shocked and fearful. S.

Gwen Koza

—Gwen, Cincinnati, OH

I admire your courage and dedication to preserving our 1st Amendment rights.

—Sullivan, Portland, OR

Thank you so much for putting body and freedom on the line to make sure that all sides of the story receive coverage.

—Dallas, Bronx, NY

Keep striving to report the truth.

—Patricia, West Bloomfield, MI

Please continue to provide truthful, peaceful, accounts of events, that people need to know about, in spite of dangers! Thank you!

—Michelle, Fort Myers, FL

Thank you for being REAL journalists and trying to expose the truth no matter what. You have my respect and support. We need you!

—Beatriz, Canovanas, PR

To speak even with your voice shakes; you walk this everyday. Thank you and I am with you.

—Kerry, Wenatchee, WA

Keep up the good work! Thanks for doing the crime. Sorry about the time. We shall overcome. Power to the people.

—Scott, Seattle, WA

Thank you for taking a stand. We are the 99% and we are with you.

—Toni, Shelton, WA

Thank you for brave work which is truly of the most patriotic and democratic nature. What you do is necessary for the American system to work and the fact that you have been arrested while being the eyes ears and voice of the people is un-American and shameful.

—David, Grand Blanc, MI

Thank you for the courage you have shown. I appreciate that you were trying to do your job and report the news. We are under attack by run away police. Stand firm--we are with you!

—Frances, Dover, DE

Land of the free, home of the brave -- was true in the past but isn't true now. Journalists must NOT be obstructed from their duty of witnessing and reporting everything that happens. If the state has something to hide, it is WRONG.

—C, Renton, WA

Keep truth alive!

—Chrissa, Alamo, CA

Thank you for your service to this country, and I cannot believe that you're being arrested as though the first amendment meant nothing. Well, obviously I can, because otherwise I wouldn't be signing a petition. What I mean is, that you were arrested is unacceptable behavior, and I surely hope we can stop this in its tracks.

—Elizabeth, Apt 602, KS

The world is watching! Everyday more of this countries citizens are waking up to the blatant disregard to our constitution by the power heads...you have our love and support! Stay strong and united!!

—Aileen, North Attleboro, MA

I am so sorry that your rights are violated. Help it on its way.

—Jeannine, Edmonds, WA

I believe in free speech and the first amendment. We rely on you or the truth. Arresting journalists is anti-American.

—Jeanne, Grand rapids, MI

Y'all make democracy work. Thank you.

—Paul, Ann Arbor, MI

We are different than Syria where they shoot and kill our journalists (at least, that is what we have been taught to believe!).

—Eugene, Santa Barbara, CA

This is not democracy.

—Susan, Portland, OR

Keep telling your stories!

—Gavin, Spokane, WA

Let us know what we can do.

—Lucia, NYC, NY

Keep fighting the good fight!

—Libby, New York, NY

Venceremos!

—Ruth, Cedarhurst, NY

Thank you for your work, you are the core of democracy surviving under corporate-state fascism! My heart is with you, Solidarity my Brothers and Sisters.

—Devin, Seattle, WA

I admire your courage. We depend on you and your message.

—Christine, San Francisco, CA

be safe, your doing a good job. Linda Lanigan

—Linda, Fairbanks, AK

This is a FREE country with]freedom of the press?? really how do we drop 27 spots and claim we are free!????! an outrage!!

—Sue, Boulder, CO

Don't think that Americans are so asleep or so uneducated to not value and honor a free press. What are we becoming another Hitler's Germany. Even children know the difference between right and wrong and the populace will not look favorably on these actions.

—Sydney, Willits, CA

Thanks for being on the front line of standing up to our police state. Hopefully, we will get our First Amendment rights back, and we can once again be the Land of the Free instead of the Land of the Incarcerated. I would think there could be some lawsuits filed against the police departments, which at the very least would cost the cities some money that many don't have at this time.

—Jana, Canyon Lake, TX

Thank you for your efforts and perseverance. Please keep up the fight for freedom of speech.

—Joanna, Grass Valley, CA

We need our journalists, we need the truth.

—Mary, Corpus Christi, TX

Hey guys, Thank you for being at the Occupy Wall Street protests to bring us the scoops. It's outrageous that you have been arrested and my heart goes out to you all. It is rather shocking that you were arrested. The occupy movement is important and I am so grateful to everyone that participates, especially the press that are there to cover the protests. Hope you get released asap.

—Bonnie, Merion Station, PA

While covering the October police raid on the Occupy encampment in Denver I was assaulted by Denver police and knocked to the ground. I'm also a credentialed reporter. I'm here to stand with you.

—Irene, Boulder, CO

A year ago when I was 17 I was covering the School of the Americas Watch vigil in Columbus, GA for my high school yearbook and my community radii station as a credentialed reporter. I too was arrested while recording the event. Now I have a criminal record for failure to disperse and unlawful assembly. There is not freedom of the press in this country.

—Cecelia, Boulder, CO

Arresting journalists must stop. Without their coverage of the Occupy movement, we lose irreplaceable, valuable, and timely information. These arrests benefit only unaccountable corporate interests.

—Sigrid, Seattle, WA stay strong and keep doing what you do because we support you. what you do is extremely important -many blessings!

—Failea, Whittier, CA

We the People and groups like Free Press are fighting for your freedom.

—Janice, Fairfield, IA

keep speaking your truth!

—Cattrione, Fairfield, IA

You are the heroes that our country desperately needs right now. I am disgusted by what is going on with our police and the abuse of power that we have been witnessing. It seems that they are willing to harass and arrest anyone except the real criminals, the Wall Street bankers who helped to put us where we are today. We desperately need you and appreciate all that you do.

—Tina, Apple Valley, CA

Thank you for your dedication to truth telling.

—Barbara, Fairfield, IA

When we lose freedom of the press, we have lost our freedom and democracy is dead.

—Larry, Jax., FL

We havent forgot about you guys!

—Bobby, Ventura, CA

It was written in the middle of the last century that Americans would give up freedom for security and the US would turn into a fascist state. It's happening now. And we will resist. We still have a Constitution, let's make sure the government, corporations & the Supreme Court doesn't overturn it! Keep up the good work.

—Cindee, Costa Mesa, CA

Thank you for bringing us the info to keep us free,

—Rogelio, Corpus Christi, TX

when the media goes -- we all go.

—Mary, Chicago, IL

We already get poor news coverage in the US. Large corporations that own the media control what gets covered. Some stories get squashed so as to not offend advertisers. Budget cuts for National Public Radio limit the types and numbers of stories they can cover. Police arresting journalists further limits the news available to the American public. Pretty soon, the only news available will be celebrity gossip.

—James, Colorado Springs, CO

The suppression of journalists threatens the very democratic society these suppressing forces claim to be defending. This can not continue and thank you for working towards allowing journalists to do their work.

—John, Accomac, VA

It has become incredibly difficult to trust American news media anymore. Seeing reporters take a stand for free press is very encouraging. Thank you for trying to get to the truth.

—Elizabeth, Silverton, OR

What has happened to this country? Freedom of the press and speech are foundational ideas of this country. Has law enforcement forgotten this?

—Charles, Dixon, CA
